Until your suffering and "indignation" have awakened you to the pure evil we are raining down on your mediocre and miniature-sized brain, you will be at our mercy and abide by our commands!

Which includes, but is not limited to, planning and executing sophisticated bribes that serve our best interest. Promote "seductive journalism" among hypersexual men and women who are on the media's payroll. Always project a demeanor that is evil and calculative in nature. Attend events and take actions that align with our divide-and-conquer strategies. Propagandize enormous quantities of user content to help leverage our powers in the world's most ethical marketplaces. Stay deceptive in order to guard against lousy public probes. Participate in biased practices of all kinds, just to name a few.

And remember, don't screw with us, or else you'll be banished to a molten lake of despair. More specifically, a metaphoric lake renowned for subjecting its residents to a substandard style of living. You will be blackballed, blacklisted, and/or whatever misdeed serves our immediate goals. If you've any business dealings we can adversely affect, then you best believe we'll act upon them without hesitation. Likewise, in collaboration with our extremely corrupt business partners who are strategically positioned inside rogue and fringe elements of government and criminal enterprises, your home and other private domains will be wiretapped with undetectable audio-video technology. We will also deploy satellite technology and manual dexterity to observe your every movement. You will be monitored 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year, including leap years if they apply.

In more vivid detail, you will be harassed and antagonized to the brink of insanity, wherein the process will repeat itself over and over again, with no mercy, until our thirst for blood is fully satisfied. Lastly, using any platform of our enormous communication networks, you will be secretly demonized and labeled a degenerate of the worst kind. These are merely a few remedies that will be brought to bear on your worthless ass, and we'll make them all count. So, don't screw with us—you insignificant NITWIT!
