

WHITE FLAG LIBRARY

Matt Connors

November 16 – December 21, 2013

Meditation I (for A.Ĵ.), 2013

Acrylic and pencil on canvas, 17 x 13 ¼ inches

Courtesy the artist and CANADA, New York

Meditation II (for A.Ĵ.), 2013

Acrylic and pencil on canvas, 17 x 13 ¼ inches

Courtesy the artist and CANADA, New York

Matt Connors has held solo and two person exhibitions with Karma, New York; MoMA/PS 1, Long Island City; Cherry and Martin, Los Angeles; Herald St., London; CANADA, New York; and the Dallas Museum of Art, Dallas. His group exhibitions include the Walker Art Center, Minneapolis; Art Basel Unlimited, Basel; and Andrea Rosen, New York. Matt Connors' work has been featured in numerous publications including The New York Times, The Brooklyn Rail, and Artforum. He was a recipient of a Guggenheim Fellowship in 2012. Connors received his MFA from Yale University. He lives and works in New York.

White Flag Library is an ancillary exhibition program of White Flag Projects.