We keep learning and growing

Achieving our own full potential always requires help from others who know more than we do and challenge us to keep maturing and improving.

2 Timothy 2:15, Ezra 7:8-10
Acts 22:3 & 23:6, Philippians 3:4-6

What helps YOU learn and grow?

We commit and stay curious

Nobody finds their rhythm without trial and error and persistence. The more we study and practice, the more we have to offer—but we never know all we need to know, and we never stop needing help.

Philippians 3:7-4:9, Joshua 1:8
Deuteronomy 4:9 & 6:4-9
Psalm 1 & 139, Hebrews 12:1-13

*What helps YOU stay fully committed?
What helps YOU stay curious?*

We keep submitting

We all do our best work together and under God's direction. We learn and grow and persist and discover new things best in real time, as we go. This requires constant communication with God and with each other.

Ephesians 5:21, Matthew 6:5-15

When and how do YOU really pray?

Lord, I will...
