

Safety K3E April Highlight

Pictured to the right:

A small block fixture was 3D printed that goes between the bracket and the flex lead. It holds the flex lead in place so you can adjust the bracket with the hammer without holding it or putting your hand in the line of fire.

This is an excellent example of preventing your hand from being a fixture.

Credit: Franzky Aristile, Mamie Thomas, Maribel Aviles, Dwight Edwards, and Aditya Rai

