How to Register* for Americans All to Create a Heritage Honor Roll Legacy Story and Receive Other Benefits

Important Notes:

1. If an education organization or an Americans All Legacy Partner gives you a 6-digit organization ID Number so you can obtain a 50 percent discount on the lifetime membership fee, you must insert that number when you set up your User Account. If you do not do so, you will forfeit your discount. It cannot be used after the registration process is completed.
2. Americans All members will find it easy to start creating their life stories. Our template only requires individuals to fill in their name, date of birth and a summary not to exceed 60 words. Additional story text, hyperlinks and photographs can be added over time.
3. You will need to complete a separate registration form to get your free, 3-month trial subscription to our Social Legacy Network that provides additional benefits. We will not invoice you after the trial period ends to continue your Social Legacy Network subscription without your permission.
4. After the first legacy story is created, click on “Create a legacy story in an additional language” on your “Welcome Back” page to begin working on a second story. Members can create as many new stories in a foreign language as they desire. However, because both storytellers are using the same language database, a foreign language cannot be used more than one time. See pages 11 and 12.
5. After each additional story is created and published, a new link will appear on your “Welcome Back” page, so you can modify the story anytime. See page 13.

Our program offers many benefits and options, so this tutorial provides images of key pages to help make the registration process easier for you to navigate.

An online legacy story can be created and shared in multiple languages, if desired, and updated at any time.

Americans All members will find it easy to start creating their life stories. Our template only requires individuals to fill in their name, date of birth (and passing, if appropriate) and a summary not to exceed 60 words. Legacy story text, hyperlinks, photographs, movies and other audio and video media can be added over time, and a shortened version can be printed on an 8½" x 11" template. To ensure privacy, a section of the story can be password protected. In addition, our secure e-mail tool enables members to communicate event, memorial and anniversary announcements. Americans All members also gain access to our education resources and can subscribe to our Social Legacy Network for only $4 per month after a free, 3-month trial period.

For the monthly fee, Social Legacy Network members and their family can:

- Use membership cards to continue receiving discounts on goods and services and other benefits offered by program partners.
- Electronically access the expanded Americans All collection that includes new ethnic and cultural texts and songs, period-specific posters and photographs, reference texts and grade-level-specific teacher’s guides.
- Electronically access grade-level-specific resource databases with information that supports state history and civics content standards and testing requirements; embedded in the databases are links to strengthen learning opportunities and facilitate interdisciplinary connections.
- Take advantage of professional development opportunities that impart best practices for using these and other resources (e.g., sample lesson plans, simulations and test questions).

Finally, by using a unique storytelling tool to facilitate legacy preservation, enable students to communicate better and help small businesses succeed, our program can continue its mission to support excellence in K–12 social studies instruction. We invest more than half of our membership fees to strengthen history and civics education, so all students are better prepared to participate in our nation’s democracy, economy and workforce.

Our Web site displays information using a standard Latin character set. At no additional cost, you can create your honoree's legacy story in an additional language besides English. To do so, locate the desired language and click on "Create a translation" under the "Operations" tab. When the template appears, it will contain a copy of the English-language version of the legacy story. You can create your new story in two ways:

- If you can change your keyboard settings to the desired language, delete the English-language text and replace it with the new language text.
- If you cannot change your keyboard settings to the desired language, prepare your honoree's story in the desired language off line and cut and paste the new language text to replace into the template to replace the English-language text.

Text and image fields that are not modified will remain the same as in the English-language version. If you do not find the additional language you desire listed below, please contact us and put the word "Additional Language" in the subject line.

Note: Many words and expressions do not have the same meaning in all languages. To ensure your honoree's legacy story in the new language carries the same meaning as the English-language version, we advise that you do not rely on an automatic translation app.

Allan S. Kullen (February 20, 1942 -) Businessman and Social Entrepreneur

"Her name is Ester Baumgartner. Do you know her?" Allan Kullen had posed the question in a broken mixture of Hebrew and English to whoever would listen and could understand him. Allan had met Ester while on an archaeological dig at Masada in the Negev, Israel. All he knew by the time they parted ways was her name and the fact that she was staying in Tel Aviv. So, after finishing his work, he decided he would try to find her. He hitchhiked his way to Tel Aviv and, despite all odds, found her. It was not just Ester that Allan found, however. "The odds were none-to-none that an American speaking Hebrew very poorly could venture to a foreign city and find some girl he met for two weeks on a mountaintop while knowing only her name. If I

Although the education community, its appeal was limited to classrooms devoted to teaching social studies. With the national emphasis shifting to support STEM programs, his foundation could not secure investors to meet its goal of making these instructional resources available to the nation's 135,000 public and private K-12 schools and 800,000 homes. Allan responded by forming a marketing and operations entity, the Americans All Benefit Corporation. To gain the revenue needed to meet the foundation's goal, he focused his efforts on one of the program's main elements—the Heritage Honor Roll. Under the new structure, Americans All has become a Social Legacy Network that "connects the dots between life, legacy, education and the American Dream." A Champion for Social History

Allan Kullen Businessman and Social Entrepreneur February 20, 1942 -

Allan Kullen was born on February 20, 1942, in Washington, DC, and grew up in the area. His father had success in the printing industry, so Allan chose to attend the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh, PA, after graduating from high school in 1959. He graduated from its School of Printing Management in 1963.

To gain more business training, Allan then entered an MBA program at the University of California, Berkeley. During his first year, he met representatives of NBBS, a Dutch travel organization that organized student trips to Europe, and began putting out a daily newspaper for the eight-day crossing by sea. He also accepted an internship as a consultant for a printing company in Amsterdam. That fall, rather than returning home, he traveled extensively where, for the first time, he recognized the contributions that diverse cultures make to world history. Allan subsequently decided to enter the workforce rather than resume his schooling at Berkeley.

He began his career as marketing director for his father's printing firm, Kaufmann Press, Inc. When his father's company was acquired by a public company, Publisher's Company, Inc. (Pubco), he went to work for Pubco, first assisting with its acquisitions program and later joining its publishing division. When Pubco began to fail, Allan realized he needed to build a future where he could better control his own destiny, especially since he was now married to the former Diane Klein and they had two children, Allison and Todd. In 1974, he acquired the assets of a struggling printing company and formed Todd Allan Printing Co., Inc., which he ran until 2013. During that period, he grew the company through internal sales and roll-up acquisitions of eight smaller firms, at its peak achieving $16 million in annual sales and employing 127.

While working at Pubco, he observed that some of its large printing vendors also owned commercial educational properties, and he brought that manufacturing strategy to Todd Allan. He set up his own publishing company in the early 1980s by buying a program called The First Experience, which featured photographs and texts on the contributions that immigrants entering through Ellis Island made to our nation's development. At the same time, he was printing for the Coordinating Committee for Ellis Island, a similarly focused nonprofit group.

Drawing inspiration from his extensive travels and reinforcing his interest in history, Allan then founded and became president of the People of America Foundation and became co-developer of its social studies resources program, Americans All. The program includes printed texts and recordings, period-specific posters and photographs, and simulations and teacher's guides, all developed by a team of scholars led by Americans All co-developer Dr. Gail C. Christopher. More recent program components support

Americans All Social Studies Materials Free for Members ($500+ value)

Standard textbooks used to teach social studies are like encyclopedias in which facts follow facts and no sense of drama or story exists. Students discover that things happened, but rarely is it clear why they happened or whether it mattered. Often the result is that young people tune out the past. We aim to accommodate students' different interests and learning styles and keep them engaged.
