

Using descriptive words with who, that and which to make a complex sentence

<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. The girl selected a hat.</li><li>2. The hat had a big bow.</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. I saw a boy sitting on a bench.</li><li>2. The boy was wearing a striped shirt</li></ol>
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. The man was walking a dog.</li><li>2. The dog had short legs.</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. The car was going fast down the street.</li><li>2. The car had racing stripes.</li></ol>
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. The magician pulled a rabbit out of a hat.</li><li>2. He was at a party.</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. You should take the candy bar.</li><li>2. The candy bar should not have peanuts.</li></ol>
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Walk on the path to get to school.</li><li>2. Take the shortest path.</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. The boy blew out the candles on the cake.</li><li>2. It was the boy's birthday.</li></ol>
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. A dog followed him home.</li><li>2. The dog looked hungry.</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. A cat was stuck in the tree.</li><li>2. The cat had a spot on his head.</li></ol>