Fair September Brides Led to the Altar.

The Marriage of Miss Nora M. Furey to Robert T. Milde—Miss Mattie E. Cornell United to William L. Davidson.
The Farren-Harris Wedding.

Wednesday evening September wedding bells were set jingling by the marriage of Miss Nora M. Furey, daughter of James Furey, to Robert T. Milde, which was solemnized at St. Joseph's Catholic church, on Pacific street, near Vanderbilt avenue.

Long before eight o'clock the church was filled to the doors with the friends and relatives of the contracting parties, and even the sidewalk without was crowded with those eager to catch a glimpse of the bridal party. As the organ struck up the time honored "Lohengrin" wedding march the bridal procession entered the edifice and proceeded down the center aisle to the altar.

The ushers, James W. Redmond, John Trainor, James Furey and Charles O'Neill, preceded the maid of honor, Miss Mamie Callahan, who was attired in a gown of blue silk, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bride followed upon the arm of her father. Her dress was of white satin, en traine, trimmed with point lace cut V back and front. A long veil fell over all, held in place by a cluster of orange blossoms. She wore diamond ornaments and carried a huge bunch of white roses. At the altar the bridal party was joined by the groom and his best man Phillip M. Powers. Father T. B. Milde, brother of the groom, performed the ceremony, assisted by Father McGuire.

Directly after the church service a reception was held at the residence of the bride's father, 253 Prospect place. The drawing rooms were handsomely decorated with palms, potted plants and cut flowers, the bride and groom receiving the guests in the front parlor, beneath a bower of ferns and trailing vines. During the evening supper was served, and later Mr. and Mrs. Milde left for an extended trip north, upon their return from which they will take up their residence in this city.

Among the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Furey, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Furey, J. V. Furey, James Furey, Jr., Miss M. Furey, Mr. and Mrs. E. Milde, Mr. and Mrs. E. J.
