Six-Week Mission:

Week 1: Wrapping Paper

Playing with materials to create patterns on paper.

Looking at the natural/synthetic patterns in the world around you.

Making a piece of wrapping paper including all the patterns you have seen.

Curator's Tip: Leave any natural scenes as you find them and don't damage anything.

Week 2: A Logo

Playing with the idea of your own company pattern logo and identity.

Looking at the Caboodle logo and others online for inspiration.

Making a logo with your company name using patterns – dots, stripes and swirls.

Curator's Tip: Check that your logo isn't being used by anyone else

Week 3: A Product

Playing with a product/object idea that fits your logo.

Looking at your collections and cool products online that could inspire the gift.

Making a product with patterns, wrapped in your own patterned paper.

Curator's Tip: Make sure your product and packaging won't hurt the user.

Week 4: The Gift

Playing with the idea that someone you know has won the gift.

Looking at their reactions when you give them the gift and they open it.

Making a record of the things the winner says when they open the gift

Curator's Tip: Get some good quotes from the winner for your story

Week 5: The Photo Story

Playing with a camera to take cool shots of the winner playing with the gift

Making a poster showing the winner with the gift and text

Curator's Tip: Get permission of everybody you photograph before you take the photos.

Week 6: Caboodle it!

Make a Caboodle record of the pattern project.

Caboodler's Tip: You need at least five photos to publish your pictures with short descriptions on Caboodle.org.uk

Museum Mission: Go to a museum that contains decorative art or patterned crafts. If you have permission take photographs of what you find and include at least three cool facts for Caboodle.
