Six-Week Mission:

Week 1: Self Portraits

Playing with a mirror.

Looking at your own face, pulling different faces and expressions.

Making a drawing of all the faces you can see within your own face.

Curator's Tip: Your pictures don't always have to look exactly like your face.

Week 2: Portraits

Playing with your family and friends.

Looking at their faces.

Making a group portrait or a family/friends cartoon.

Curator's Tip: You could hang your picture on the wall (or the fridge) and label it with a description.

Week 3: Masks

Playing with materials, colours, shapes and sizes.

Looking online to see the types of masks created across the globe.

Making a mask.

Curator's Tip: Be careful when storing your mask.

Week 4: Face Painting

Playing with face paints.

Looking in books, online and at the world around you for ideas.

Making a photo record of all the face painting that you and your friends have done.

Curator's Tip:

Week 5: Mask Performance

Playing with your friends to make a cool performance using the masks.

Looking for an ideal place at home or in the garden to stage the performance.

Making a programme for the play including photos of your rehearsal.

Curator's Tip: You could set your play to music.

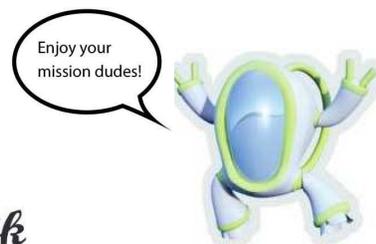

Week 6:

Make a Caboodle of all of your faces work including descriptions.

Caboodler's Tip: You need at least five photos to publish your pictures with short descriptions on Caboodle.org.uk

Museum Mission: Go to a museum that contains masks. You could also go to a concert. If you have permission take photographs of what you find and include at least three cool facts for Caboodle.
