

A CHARGE OF HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

James Furey, a nephew of William Furey, Commissioner of Jurors and Secretary of the Kings County Democratic General Committee, and John Moran were arrested in Brooklyn, yesterday, on complaint of Richard Newell, of No. 416 East Eighteenth-street. All three men work in the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and on Feb. 9 they left the yard together and went into a liquor saloon. When paying for drinks Newell showed a roll of bills amounting in all to about $300. He then left his companions and walked along York-street to Bridge-street, where, he alleges, Furey and Moran, who had followed him, knocked him down and robbed him of $285. The accused pleaded not guilty before Justice Walsh, and were held for examination.

The New York Times

Published: February 13, 1886

Copyright © The New York Times