Tatted Necklace

Length of the tatted part of necklace is about 7 inches (17.8cm) long. Total necklace length is about 17 inches (43cm) long. This basic pattern doesn't require any beads, but ideas for beaded embellishment may occur to the creative tatter.

Techniques used: rings, chains, picot joins, tating with one shuttle and ball thread.

Supplies:

- Size 10 Lizbeth thread, about 8 yards solid color for the outer borders, plus about 4 yards of a contrasting color for the center rings.
- 1 tating shuttle
- Small steel crochet hook about size 12/1mm
- 4 jump rings size 5mm to 6mm
- 10 inches of necklace chain with end charm
- Wire cutters and jewelry pliers
- Necklace clasp

The necklace is tatted in 2 rows, using one shuttle and ball thread. The upper part of the necklace is tatted first, using a continuous thread of the solid color only.
