

Silly Sentences: Correct the semantic error

The passenger flew the airplane into the clouds.	A caboose is at the end of a sailboat.
Two buses took off from The aircraft carrier.	My brother had difficulty parking the gondola in the garage.
The ferry carried the cars down the freeway.	The jet pulled the ship into the harbor.
The passengers on the sinking ship put on their parachutes.	The sled dogs pulled the raft down the river.

Dan rode his kayak down the snowy mountain.	The hot air balloon ascended into the field.
We will drive from Arizona to Hawaii on our vacation.	I saw the submarine soar into the clouds.
Our van has a new anchor so it can stop quickly.	We watched the locomotive splash into the ocean.
The pioneers carried all their possessions in a limousine.	The oars for the sled were broken.

The jockey rode the fastest cow in the race.	I watched the beautiful scenery through the windows of the subway.
The pilot parachuted from the submarine when the engine was damaged.	Thomas rode a tank to school.
The garbage truck brought the food to market.	The speed boat landed on the runway.
The scuba diver used his skis to go swiftly down the hill.	We paddled the moped to the shore.