-2014-

MEMBER APPRECIATION CLINIC
Idlewild Farms ★ Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin

SATURDAY, JUNE 7 - 9:00 am

★ Reining

Wendy Woldt will spend the day helping interested riders with reining technique. Sessions will be broken down into beginner, intermediate & advanced riders. Ten (10) riders per 90 minute session. (Beginner: Little experience & skill; Intermediate: Must be able to lope a circle, stop, roll back, pick up leads and do canter departures; Advanced: In addition to intermediate skills, must be able to perform flying lead changes and spin.)

★ Trail

All possible obstacles will be set out. Riders will be able to work the obstacles and help will be available to the rider/horse upon request.

★ Stock Horse Pleasure

Individuals can practice a pleasure pattern in the indoor arena.

★ Roping Basics

Roping dummies will be available for practice.

★ Cattle Working Basics

Riders will ride their horses through a group of cattle to allow your horse to gain confidence around cows.

★ Saturday Evening ★

- Dinner will be available on the grounds for purchase.
- Campfire and social activities available.

SUNDAY, JUNE 8 - 9:00 am

★ Roping Basics

Brandon Schopf will be available to help individuals with their ranch roping/breakaway roping techniques. Roping dummies will be used.

★ Horsemanship

Wendy Woldt will work with riders in the outdoor arena for one hour.

★ Stock Horse Sorting

Individuals will be showing participants techniques to successfully sort cattle. Participants will then practice on sorting and moving cattle through obstacles.

Non-cattle classes are free to members. A cattle charge of $15 will be assessed per day.
