ADOPTED

Adoption updates:

Larry - Just wanted to let you know that Cooper is doing great! He is adjusting well and loves everyone in his new family. You can definitely tell that the poor little guy has never been in a house before though because he seems a little overwhelmed with the space and all the new noises! He is also trying to figure out who the little creatures are that like to whine and bark at him but he doesn't seem to mind them. We are introducing them to him very slowly but they both gave him kisses on their first introduction, so I think they will be just fine! He is eating and drinking and also using his litter box, so we are off to a great start!

Sparkles - The family that adopted Sparkles aka Bella was in tonight. They said she is doing great and they love her. She sleeps with their son every night. Anyway they are looking for another cat. One about Cameo or Lucky's age. They are going to let Bella settle in a little more then get another one. She is going to email with an update and pictures. It sounds like she is loving her new home.

Miss Sara - First I want to let you know that Miss Sara's mother came into to PS today. She said that Sara is still spending time under the bed but not in a fearful way. She said that seems to be her nap area. She said that Miss Sara took to her more than to her son and that her son was disappointed. However, her son has been holding Miss Sara and she lets him hold her more than she does the mother. She said Sara enjoys time that the son and mother sit at their dining table to do their school and work - she tries to help them (- : The mother said she was so surprised how much Sara loves to play and that she is very vocal - she lets them know when she wants something to eat and when she wants to play. She said to thank everyone for getting Sara into their lives. Great job everyone.
