The Christian Walk summarised from the Gospels

Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

Matthew 22:37-40, "Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

Matthew 28:19 "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:"

Mark 11:26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

Mark 16:15 "And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature."

John 14:15-24. "If you love me, keep my commands. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Before long, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them."

Luke 2

Jesus as a child

Now it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled. (And this enrolment was the first which was made when Quirinus, was governor of Syria.) And all went to be enrolled every one into his own city.

And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be enrolled with Mary his betrothed, being then with child.

And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son and wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called Jesus.

And when they had performed all things according to the law of the lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth. And the child grew and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, unto the feast according to the custom. And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and his parents knew not of it. But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintances. And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both hearing them and asking them questions. And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? Behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. And he went down with them and came to Nazareth and was subject unto them. And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature.

John the Baptist

Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judaea and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee and his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituraea and of Trachonitis and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene, Ananias and Caiaphas being the high priests, appeared John the Baptist in the wilderness.

Now the same John had his raiment of camel's hair and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

Then went out to him Jerusalem and all Judaea and all the region round about Jordan and were baptised of him in Jordan.

Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptised of him. And Jesus himself, when he began his ministry, was about thirty years of age.

After this he went down to Capernaum, he and his mother and his brethren and his disciples: and they continued there a few days.

Matthew 4

The death of John the Baptist

Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee; for Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her. For John had said unto Herod, it is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

Therefore Herodias had a grudge against him and would have killed him; but she could not: for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and holy and protected him; and when he heard him, he was sore perplexed, yet he heard him gladly.

And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains and chief men of Galilee; and when the daughter of the said Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and them that sat with him; and the king said unto the damsel, ask of me whatsoever thou wilt and I will give it thee.

And he swore unto her, "Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom." And she went forth and said unto her mother, "what shall I ask?" And she said, "The head of John the Baptist."

And she came in immediately with haste unto the king and asked, saying, "I will that thou give me straightway in a charger the head of John the Baptist."

And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not refuse her. And immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison and brought his head in a charger and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

Matthew 5

The Beautitudes

And he came down with them and stood in the plain; and there was a great company of his disciples and a great multitude of people out of all Judaea and Jerusalem and from the sea coast of tyre and Simon, which came to hear him.

And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set down, his disciples came unto him: and he opened his mouth and taught them, saying, "happy are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Happy are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Happy are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Happy are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Happy are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Happy are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Happy are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Happy are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Happy are ye, when men shall revile you and persecute you and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice and be glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. But woe unto you that are rich! For ye have received your consolation. Woe unto you that are full now, for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now, for ye shall mourn and weep. Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you, for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt has lost its savour, wherewith shall it again be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and to be trodden under foot by men.

Let our light shine out to others so that Jesus is glorified

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a lamp and put it under a bushel, but on a lampstand so it gives light to all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your father which is in heaven.

We are to keep the commandments

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, "till heaven and earth pass away, not one jot or one tittle shall pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of the least of these commandments and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Settle disputes peacefully and without violence

Ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of judgement: but I say unto you, that whosoever is angry with his brother shall be in danger of judgement: and whosoever shall abuse his brother, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, thou fool" shall be in danger of hell fire. Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar and there remembers that thy brother hath ought against thee; leave there thy gift before the altar and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother and then come and offer thy gift. Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge and the judge deliver thee to the officer and thou be cast into prison. Verily I say unto thee, thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

Don't even think about adultery

Ye have heard that it was said, thou shalt not commit adultery: but I say unto you, that whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. And if thy right eye causeth thee to offend, pluck it out and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

Rid yourself of anything that may come between you and the Lord

And if thy right hand causeth thee to offend, cut it off and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

Adultery and divorce

It hath been said, whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement: but I say unto you, that whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

Oath taking: just tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth

Again, ye have heard that it hath been said to them of old time, thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the lord thine oaths: but I say unto you, swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne: nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great king. Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black. But let your communication be, yea, yea; nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

Be generous, not mean

Ye have heard that it hath been said, an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth: but I say unto you, that ye resist not him that is evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if any man will sue thee and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also. And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him two.

Love and give succour to your enemies

Give to him that asketh thee and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away. Ye have heard that it hath been said; thou shalt love thy neighbour and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, love your enemies, pray for them that persecute you; that ye may be the children of your father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

Help others and expect nothing in return

For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? Do not even the tax-gatherers do the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do you more than others? Do not even the gentiles so? And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what gain have ye? For sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love ye your enemies and do good and lend, hoping for nothing in return; and your reward shall be great and ye shall be the children of the most high: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil. Be ye merciful, as your father also is merciful.

Matthew Six

Don't make out how good you are

Take heed that ye do not your good works before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your father which is in heaven. Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: that thine alms may be in secret: and thy father which seeth in secret shall reward thee.

For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly father will also forgive you: but if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your father forgive your trespasses. Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head and wash thy face; that thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy father which is in secret: and thy father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee.

Pray sincerely and in private

And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy inner chamber and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy father which is in secret; and thy father which seeth in secret shall reward thee. And when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

The Lord's Prayer

After this manner therefore pray ye: our father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Lay up treasure in heaven

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Look on that which is wholesome

The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be sound, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be not sound, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

God the provider

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one and love the other; or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and riches. Therefore I say unto you, be not concerned for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat and the body than raiment? Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly father feedeth them. Are ye not of much more value than they? Which of you by being concerned can add one hour to his life?

And why are ye concerned for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: and yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

Therefore be not concerned, saying, what shall we eat? Or, what shall we drink? Or, wherewithal shall we be clothed? (For after all these things do the gentiles seek.) For your heavenly father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Have therefore no concern for the morrow: for the morrow shall have concern for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the trouble thereof. Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgement ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. Give and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down and shaken together and running over shall men give into your bosom.

Ask and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock and it shall be opened unto you: for every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

Rectify your own faults and failings not others

And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how canst thou say to thy brother, let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, first cast the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

Cast not your pearls before swine

Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet and turn again and rend you.

Keep to the path of righteousness

Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction and many there be which go in there at: but strait is the gate and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life and few there be that find it.

Beware false corrupt prophets

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

We will be judged by what we do and say

A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things. But I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the Day of Judgement. For by thy words thou shalt be justified and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them, shall be likened unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: and the rain descended and the floods came and the winds blew and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. Every one that heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: and the rain descended and the floods came and the winds blew and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as one having authority and not as their scribes.

Matthew 11

When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. And he went round about the villages, teaching.

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.

Anointing the feet of Jesus

Now one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house and sat down to meat. And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster vial of ointment and stood at his feet behind him weeping and began to wash his feet with tears and did wipe them with the hairs of her head and kissed his feet and anointed them with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, this man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner. And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, master, say on. There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred denarii and the other fifty. And when they had nothing to pay, he graciously forgave them both. Which of them, therefore, will love him most?

Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, thou hast rightly judged. And he turned to the woman and said unto Simon, seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with her tears and wiped them with the hairs of her head. Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

The family of Christ is everyone, He is our Father

There came then his brethren and his mother and, standing outside, sent unto him, calling him. And the multitude sat about him and they said unto him, behold, thy mother and thy brethren seek for thee. And he answered them, saying, who is my mother and my brethren? And he looked round about on them which sat about him and said, behold my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother and my sister and mother.

Beware of false teachers and hypocrites who can destroy your faith

In the mean time, when there were gathered together a multitude of many thousands of people, insomuch that they trod one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have whispered in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops. And I say unto you my friends, be not afraid of them that kill the body and after that have no more that they can do. But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, fear him.

The love of God towards his children

Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And yet not one of them is forgotten before God. But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

The worthlessness of earthly treasures

One of the company said unto him, master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me. But he said unto him, man, who made me a judge or a divider over you? And he said unto them, take heed and beware of all manner of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

And he spake a parable unto them, saying, the ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: and he thought within himself, saying, what shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits? And he said, this will I do: I will pull down my barns and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods and I will say to my soul, soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink and be merry.

But God said unto him, thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God.

The provision of God

And he said unto his disciples, therefore I say unto you, be not concerned for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for your body, what ye shall put on. The life is more than meat and the body is more than raiment. Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and yet God feedeth them: of how much more value are ye than the fowls! And which of you with being concerned can add to his stature one cubit? If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why are ye concerned for the rest? Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field and tomorrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, o ye of little faith? Seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of a concerned mind. For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your father knoweth that ye have need of these things. But rather seek ye his kingdom; and these things shall be added unto you also.

Fear not, little flock; for it is your father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell what ye have and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth destroyeth. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

We should be like the faithful servant

Let your loins be girded about and your lamps burning; and ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding feast; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself and make them to sit down to meat and will come forth and serve them. And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch and find them so, blessed are those servants. And this know, that if the good man of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would not have suffered his house to be broken into. Be ye therefore ready also: for the son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

Then Peter said unto him, lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or also unto all? And the Lord said, who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath. But if that servant say in his heart, my lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidservants and to eat and drink and to be drunken; the lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him and at an hour when he is not aware and will cut him asunder. And that servant, which knew his lord's will and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

Settle your disputes amicably

And he said also to the people, when ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, there cometh a shower; and so it is. And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, there will be heat; and it cometh to pass. Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this present time? And why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? While thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge and the judge deliver thee to the officer and the officer cast thee into prison. I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

Luke 13

Repent or perish

There were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering said unto them, suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things? I tell you, nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

Parable of the fig tree

He spake also this parable; a certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon and found none. Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground? And he answering said unto him, lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it and dung it: and if it bear fruit, well: but if not, then thou shalt cut it down.

The sower and the hard of heart

On that same day went Jesus out of the house and sat by the sea side. And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore. And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, behold, a sower went forth to sow; and as he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side and the fowls came and devoured them up: some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: but when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up and choked them: but other fell into good ground and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable. Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one and snatcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word and at once with joy receiveth it; yet hath he not root in himself, but endureth for a while: and when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, he quickly falleth away. He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word and it becometh unfruitful. But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word and understandeth it; he also beareth fruit and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

Let your light shine out

And he said unto them, is a lamp brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? And not to be set on a lampstand? For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was anything kept secret, but that it should come to light. If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

The wheat and the tares, the good and the bad

Another parable put he put forth unto them, saying, the kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man who sowed good seed in his field: but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. And the servants of the householder came and said unto him, sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? From whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, an enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, gather ye together first the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

Then he departed from the multitude and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field. He answered and said unto them, he that soweth the good seed is the son of man; the field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; the enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age; and the reapers are the angels. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of the age. The son of man shall send forth his angels and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that cause men to sin and all them which do iniquity; and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

The Kingdom of Heaven is worth our all

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath and buyeth that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: who, when he had found one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea and gathered fish of every kind: which, when it was full, they drew it to shore and sat down and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. So shall it be at the end of the age: the angels shall come forth and sever the wicked from among the just and shall cast them into the furnace of fire:

Faith and the Kingdom of Heaven

There shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Jesus saith unto them, have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, yea. Then said he unto them, therefore every scribe which is instructed concerning the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old. And he said, so is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed upon the ground; and should sleep and rise night and day and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how. The earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear. But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come. And he said, whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? Or with what parable shall we describe it? It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth: but when it is sown, it groweth up and becometh greater than all herbs and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it. And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it. And without a parable spake he not unto them: but when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

Luke 9

The cost of following Jesus

And as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus said unto him, foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests; but the son of man hath not where to lay his head. And he said unto another, follow me. But he said, lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. Jesus said unto him, let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

And another also said, lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at my house. But Jesus said unto him, no man, having put his hand to the plough and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

Forsaking the old

And after these things he went forth and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, follow me. And he left all, rose up and followed him. And Levi made him a great feast in his house: and there was a great company of publicans and many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many and they followed him. And when the scribes which were Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, how is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners? When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, they that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners. And he spake also a parable unto them; no man teareth a piece from a new garment and putteth it upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old. And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles and be spilled and the bottles shall perish. But new wine must be put into new bottles.

A prophet without honour in his own country

And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence. And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished and said, whence hath this man this wisdom and these mighty works? Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary? And his brethren, James and Joseph and Simon and Judas? And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things? And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, a prophet is not without honour, save in his own country and in his own house.

Living by faith

But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they were distressed and downcast, as sheep having no shepherd. And he called unto him the twelve and began to send them forth by two and two; and charged them, saying, go not into the way of the gentiles and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Take ye neither gold, nor silver, nor copper in your purses, nor bag for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet a staff: for the workman is worthy of his meat. And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence. And when ye come into an house, salute it. And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

Move on if unwelcome

And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet. Verily I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the Day of Judgement, than for that city.

Fear those who destroy the soul

Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents and innocent as doves. But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils and they will scourge you in their synagogues; and ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, to bear testimony before them and the gentiles. But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear whispered in the ear, that proclaim ye upon the housetops. And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

Omnipotent caring God

Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? And one of them shall not fall on the ground without the will of your father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows. And they went out and preached that men should repent. And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus and told him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught.

Out of our hearts come the words and deeds that defile us.

Then came together unto him the Pharisees and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem. And they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashed, hands. For the Pharisees and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders. And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups and pitchers and copper vessels. And the Pharisees and scribes asked him, why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with defiled hands? And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, hearken unto me every one of you and understand: there is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable. And he saith unto them, are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him; because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly and goeth out into the waste? (Thus declared he all meats clean.) And he said, that which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man. For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, fornications, thefts, murders, adulteries, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, envy, slander, pride, foolishness: all these evil things come from within and defile the man. And from thence he arose and went into the region of tyre and Simon and entered into an house and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

The innocence of children

At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? And Jesus called a little child unto him and set him in the midst of them and said, verily I say unto you, except ye be converted and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

Rid yourself of anything that could separate us from Jesus

Woe unto the world because of its stumbling blocks! For it must needs be that stumbling blocks come; but woe to that man by whom the stumbling block cometh! And if thy hand or thy foot causeth thee to stumble, cut them off and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. And if thine eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire. How think ye? If a man have an hundred sheep and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine upon the mountains and goeth and seeketh that which is gone astray? And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray. Even so it is not the will of your father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

If all attempts at peace fail separate yourself from that person

Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect even to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a gentile man and a publican.

Be patient with those you disagree with

Then came Peter to him and said, lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him? Till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, until seven times: but, until seventy times seven.

Treat others as you like to be treated

Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would settle accounts with his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents. But for as much as he had not wherewith to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold and his wife and children and all that he had and payment to be made. The servant therefore fell down and bowed before him, saying, lord, have patience with me and I will pay thee all. Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion and released him and forgave him the debt. But the same servant went out and found one of his fellow servants, which owed him an hundred denarii: and he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying, pay me that thou owest. So his fellow servant fell down at his feet and besought him, saying, have patience with me and I will pay thee all. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were very sorry and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, thou wicked servant! I forgave thee all that debt, because thou didst beseech me: shouldst not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had mercy on thee? And his lord was wroth and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not everyone his brother.

Preaching the Gospel among the unsaved

After these things the lord appointed other seventy also and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come. And he said unto them, the harvest is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. Carry neither purse, nor bag, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way. And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, peace be to this house. And if a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon him: if not, it shall turn to you again. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. And into whatsoever city ye enter and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: but into whatsoever city ye enter and they receive you not, go ye into the streets of the same and say, even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth to our feet, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

Jesus in Jerusalem at the feast of the Tabernacles

Now the Jew's feast of tabernacles was at hand. His brethren therefore said unto him, depart hence and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. For no man doeth anything in secret, if he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world. For even his brethren did not believe in him. Then Jesus said unto them, my time is not yet come: but your time is always at hand. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up unto this feast: for my time is not yet full come.

When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. Now the Jews sought him at the feast and said, where is he? And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, he is a good man: others said, nay; but he deceiveth the people. Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple and taught. And the Jews marvelled, saying, how hath this man received learning, having never studied? Jesus answered them and said, did not Moses give you the law and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why do ye seek to kill me?

The people answered and said, thou hast a devil: who seeketh to kill thee? Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work and ye all marvel. Moses gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the Sabbath do circumcise a man. If a man on the Sabbath receive circumcision, that the Law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the Sabbath day?

Judge not according to the appearance, but judge with righteous judgement.

Then said some of them of Jerusalem, is not this he, whom they seek to kill? And, lo, he speaketh openly and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the Christ? The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to seize him. So there was a division among the people because of him. And some of them would have seized him; but no man laid hands on him. Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, why have ye not brought him? The officers answered, never man spake like this man. Then answered them the Pharisees, are ye also deceived? Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed in him? But this people who knoweth not the law are accursed.

Saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus beforetime, being one of them,) doth our law judge any man, before it hear him and know what he doeth?

They answered and said unto him, art thou also of Galilee? Search and thou shalt find that out of Galilee ariseth no prophet. And every man went unto his own house.

John 8

The woman caught in adultery

Jesus went unto the Mount of Olives. And early in the morning he came again into the temple and all the people came unto him; and he sat down and taught them. And the scribes and Pharisees brought in a woman caught committing adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, they say unto him, master, this woman was caught committing adultery, in the very act. Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou? This they said, to test him, that they might have cause to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down and with his finger wrote on the ground. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself and said unto them, he that is without sin among you, let him be the first to cast a stone at her. And again he stooped down and with his finger wrote on the ground. And they which heard it, began going out one by one, beginning at the eldest: and Jesus was left alone and the woman standing in the midst. When Jesus had lifted up himself, he said unto her, woman, whither are they gone? Hath no man condemned thee? She said, no man, lord. And Jesus said, neither do I condemn thee: go and sin no more.

God's is in every situation

And as he passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying, rabbi, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? Jesus answered, neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

Jesus the Good Shepherd

Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name and leadeth them out. And when he bringeth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd layeth down his life for the sheep.

He that is an hireling and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming and leaveth the sheep and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them and scattereth them. He fleeth, because he is an hireling and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd and know my own and am known of mine. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd.

The Good Samaritan

And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up and put him to a test, saying, master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, what is written in the law? How readest thou? And he answering said, thou shalt love the lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy strength and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. And he said unto him, thou hast answered right: this do and thou shalt live. But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus and who is my neighbour? And Jesus answering said, a certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him and passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him and went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine and set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And on the morrow, he took out two denarii and gave them to the host and said unto him, take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee. Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves? And he said, he that showed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, go and do thou likewise.

The Lord's Prayer

And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples. And he said unto them, when ye pray, say, father, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation.

God gives spiritual gifts

And he said unto them, which of you shall have a friend and shall go unto him at midnight and say unto him, friend, lend me three loaves; for a friend of mine in his journey is come to me and I have nothing to set before him? And he from within shall answer and say, trouble me not: the door is now shut and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee. I say unto you, though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth. And I say unto you, ask and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock and it shall be opened unto you. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. If a son shall ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly father give the holy spirit to them that ask him?

Luke 14

Jesus the Good Shepherd

Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him. And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, this man receiveth sinners and eateth with them. And he spake this parable unto them, saying, what man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

Seek the Lord while He may be found

Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp and sweep the house and seek diligently till she find it? And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost. Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

The Prodigal Son

And he said, a certain man had two sons: and the younger of them said to his father, father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together and took his journey into a far country and there wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. But when he came to himself, he said, how many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father and will say unto him, father, I have sinned against heaven and before thee and am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose and came to his father.

But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. And the son said unto him, father, I have sinned against heaven and in thy sight and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, bring forthwith the best robe and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand and shoes on his feet: and bring hither the fatted calf and kill it; and let us eat and be merry: for this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found. And they began to be merry.

Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. And he said unto him, thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. But he was angry and would not go in: therefore came his father out and entreated him. But he answering said to his father, lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: but as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. And he said unto him, son, thou art ever with me and all that I have is thine. It was meet that we should make merry and be glad: for this thy brother was dead and is alive again; and was lost and is found.

The dishonest steward, a thief among thieves.

And he said also unto his disciples, there was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods. And he called him and said unto him, what is this that I hear of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward. And the steward said within himself, what shall I do? For my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I have not strength to dig; to beg I am ashamed. I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they (his friends in crime) may receive me into their houses. So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him and said unto the first, how much owest thou unto my lord? And he said, an hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, take thy bill and sit down quickly and write fifty.

Then said he to another and how much owest thou? And he said, an hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, take thy bill and write fourscore. And the lord (who was also dishonest) commended the dishonest steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are wiser in their dealings with their own generation than the children of light (but they are destined for Hell). And I say unto you, make to yourselves (good) friends by means of the mammon of this world (by being honest); so that, when it (mammon) faileth you, they (your honest friends) may receive you into everlasting habitations.

He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is dishonest in the least is dishonest also in much. If therefore ye have not been faithful with the worldly mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own? No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one and love the other; or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon (but we can be honest and diligent in all that we do.) Now the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things: and they derided him. And he said unto them, ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

Divorce

Whosoever putteth away his wife and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

Lazarus and the beggar

There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen and fared sumptuously every day: and there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores and desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died and was buried; and in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments and seeth Abraham afar off and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted here and thou art tormented. And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: for I have five brethren; that he may warn them, lest they also come into this place of torment. But Abraham saith unto him, they have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, if they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

Woe to the person who causes others to stumble

Then said he unto the disciples, it is impossible but that occasions of stumbling will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come! It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck and he cast into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble.

Forgive the repentant

Take heed to yourselves: if thy brother sin, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

The Pharisees only do what the minimum, Jesus said to go the extra mile

But which of you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, will say unto him when he is come from the field, go straightway and sit down to meat? But will not rather say unto him, make ready wherewith I may sup and gird thyself and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink? Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, we are unprofitable servants: we have done only that which was our duty to do.

The Lord will come at the height of man's depravity

And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, the kingdom of God cometh not with signs that are observed: and as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark and the flood came and destroyed them all. Likewise also as it was in the days of lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; but the same day that lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the son of man is revealed. In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back. Remember lot's wife. Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it. I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken and the other shall be left. Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken and the other left.

Cry unto the Lord continually

And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that they ought always to pray and not to faint; saying, there was in a certain city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man: and there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, render justice for me against mine adversary. And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, though I fear not God, nor regard man; yet because this widow troubleth me, I will render her justice, lest by her continual coming she weary me. And the lord said, hear what the unrighteous judge saith. And shall not God render justice for his own elect, which cry day and night unto him? Shall he delay long over them? I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

The humble will be exalted

And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous and despised others: two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I gain. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

Learn from the Lord

Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at the lord's feet and heard his word. But Martha was busy about much serving and came to him and said, lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? Bid her therefore that she help me. But the lord answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art concerned and troubled about many things: but one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

Jesus blesses the Little Children

Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, suffer the little children and forbid them not, to come unto me: for to such belongeth the kingdom of heaven. And he laid his hands on them and departed thence.

Commitment to Jesus

And, behold, one came and said unto him, master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him, wherefore asketh thou me concerning that which is good? There is none good but one; but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. He saith unto him, which? Jesus said, thou shalt do no murder, thou shalt not commit adultery, thou shalt not steal, thou shalt not bear false witness, honour thy father and thy mother: and, thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. The young man saith unto him, all these things have I kept: what lack I yet? Jesus said unto him, if thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast and give to the poor and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me. But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

The love of money

Then said Jesus unto his disciples, verily I say unto you, that a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. And again I say unto you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. When the disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, who then can be saved?

Equal treatment for those who love the Lord

But Jesus beheld them and said unto them, with men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers for his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the labourers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the marketplace and said unto them; go ye also into the vineyard and whatsoever is right I will give you. So they went also. Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing idle and saith unto them, why stand ye here all the day idle?

They say unto him, because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, go ye also into the vineyard. And when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, call the labourers and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a denarius. And when the first came, they supposed that they should receive more; but they likewise received every man a denarius. And when they had received it, they murmured against the good man of the house, saying, these last have laboured but one hour and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day. But he answered one of them and said, friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a denarius? Take that thine is and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Or is thine eye envious, because I give freely? So the last shall be first and the first last.

Zacchaeus and salvation

And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. And, behold, there was a man named zacchaeus, which was the chief among the publicans and he was rich. And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature. And he ran before and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said unto him, Zacchaeus, make haste and come down; for today I must abide at thy house. And he made haste and came down and received him joyfully.

And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, he is gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner. And Zacchaeus stood and said unto the lord: behold, lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken anything from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. And Jesus said unto him, this day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham. For the son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

The evil nobleman

And as they heard these things, he continued and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear. He said therefore, a certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and then to return. And he called ten of his servants and delivered them ten pounds and said unto them, do business with this till I come.

But his citizens hated him and sent an embassy after him, saying, we will not have this man to reign over us. And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. Then came the first, saying, lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds more. And he said unto him, well done, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. And the second came, saying, lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds. And he said likewise to him, be thou also over five cities. And another came, saying, lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin: for I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down and reapest that thou didst not sow. And he saith unto him, out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant.

Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down and reaping that I did not sow: wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have received it with interest? And he said unto them that stood by, take from him the pound and give it to him that hath ten pounds. (And they said unto him, lord, he hath ten pounds!) I say unto you, that unto every one which hath shall more be given; from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away. But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither and slay them before me. And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

Jesus rides into Jerusalem

And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem and were come to Bethpage, unto the Mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples; saying unto them, go into the village which is before you and straightway ye shall find an ass tied and a colt with her: loose them and bring them unto me. And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, the lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them. And the disciples went and did as Jesus commanded them and brought the ass and the colt and put on them their clothes and he sat thereon. And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees and strewed them in the way. And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, who is this? The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? Behold, the world is gone after him. Now there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast: the same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee and asked him, saying, sir, we would see Jesus. Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and then Andrew and Philip tell Jesus. And Jesus answered them, saying, the hour is come, that the son of man should be glorified.

Jesus likens his death and resurrection to the beginning of a great harvest

Verily, verily, I say unto you, except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

The wedding feast

And Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables and said, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage feast for his son and sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding feast: and they would not come. Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, tell them which are bidden, behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed and all things are ready: come unto the marriage feast. But they made light of it and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his business: and the remnant took his servants and treated them shamefully and slew them. But the king was wroth: and he sent forth his armies and destroyed those murderers and burned up their city. Then saith he to his servants, the wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage feast. So those servants went out into the highways and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding hall was furnished with guests. But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: and he saith unto him, friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment (the robe of righteousness)? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, bind him hand and foot and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen.

Render unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's

Then went the Pharisees and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk. And they sent out unto him their disciples with the herodians, saying, master, we know that thou art true and teachest the way of God in truth, neither deferrest thou to any man: for thou regardest not the station of men. Tell us therefore, what thinkest thou? Is it lawful to pay taxes unto Caesar, or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness and said, why do ye test me, ye hypocrites? Show me the tax money. And they brought unto him a denarius. And he saith unto them, whose is this image and superscription? They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's. When they had heard these words, they marvelled and left him and went their way.

No marriage in heaven

The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection and asked him, saying, master, Moses said, if a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife and raise up seed unto his brother. Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother: likewise the second also and the third, unto the seventh. And last of all the woman died also. Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? For they all had her. Jesus answered and said unto them, ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels in heaven. But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his teaching.

The first commandment

And one of the scribes came and having heard them reasoning together and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, which is the first commandment of all? And Jesus answered him, the first is, hear, o Israel; the lord our God is one lord: and thou shalt love the lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy mind and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. The second is thus: thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. And the scribe said unto him, thou speakest rightly, master, in that thou hast said, God is one; and there is none other but he: and to love him with all the heart and with all the understanding and with all the strength and to love thy neighbour as thyself, is more than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices.

Matthew 23

The widows mite

And Jesus sat opposite the treasury and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. And there came a certain poor widow and she threw in two mites, which make a penny. And he called unto him his disciples and saith unto them, verily I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury: for all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

Jesus foretells the destruction of the temple

And Jesus went out and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple. And Jesus said unto them, see ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains: let him which is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house: neither let him which is in the field return back to take his cloak. And woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the Sabbath day: for then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened and the moon shall not give her light and the stars shall fall from heaven and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

The hour of the Lord's coming is unknown

now learn a parable from the fig tree; when its branch is yet tender and putted forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh: so likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that he is near, even at the doors. But of that day and hour knoweth no man, not the angels of heaven, nor the son, but the father only. But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark and knew not until the flood came and took them all away; so shall the coming of the son of man be. Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken and the other left. Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken and the other left.

Watch therefore: for ye know not what day your lord doth come. But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched and would not have suffered his house to be broken into. Therefore be ye also ready. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them their meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Verily I say unto you, that he shall make him ruler over all his goods. But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, my lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to smite his fellow servants and to eat and drink with the drunken; the lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him and in an hour that he is not aware of and shall cut him asunder and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Be prepared for the Lord's coming, the ten virgins

Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were wise and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them: but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made, behold, the bridegroom! Go ye out to meet him. Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise, give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying, not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage feast; and the door was shut.

Work for the Lord commeth

Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, lord, lord, open to us. But he answered and said, verily I say unto you, I know you not. Watch therefore. For it shall be like unto a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants and delivered unto them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents, to another two and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and then took his journey. Straightway he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same and made therewith other five talents. And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two. But he that had received one went and digged in the earth and hid his lord's money. After a long time the lord of those servants cometh and reckoneth with them. And he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more. His lord said unto him, well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. He also that had received two talents came and said, lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them. His lord said unto him, well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. Then he which had received the one talent came and said, lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown and gathering where thou hast not strewn: and I was afraid and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine. His lord answered and said unto him, thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not and gather where I have not strewn: thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers and then at my coming I should have received mine own with interest. Take therefore the talent from him and give it unto him which hath ten talents. For unto every one that hath shall more be given and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath. And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be filled with revellings and drunkenness and cares of this life and so that day come upon you suddenly like a snare. For it shall come upon all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth. But watch ye always and pray, that ye may be with strength to escape all these things that shall come to pass and to stand before the son of man.

The sheep and the goats

When the son of man shall come in his glory and all the angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: and before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth the sheep from the goats: and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the king say unto them on his right hand, come, ye blessed of my father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: for I was an hungred and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger and ye invited me in: naked and ye clothed me: I was sick and ye visited me: I was in prison and ye came unto me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, lord, when saw we thee an hungred and fed thee? Or thirsty and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger and invited thee in? Or naked and clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison and came unto thee? And the king shall answer and say unto them, verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: for I was an hungered and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty and ye gave me no drink: I was a stranger and ye invited me not in: naked and ye clothed me not: sick and in prison and ye visited me not. Then shall they also answer him, saying, lord, when saw we thee an hungered, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison and did not minister unto thee? Then shall he answer them, saying, verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

Jesus hints at his forthcoming death

It was now two days until the Passover and the feast of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft and put him to death. But they said, not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people. And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster vial of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the vial and poured it on his head. But there were some that had indignation within themselves and said, why was this waste of the ointment made? For it might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and have been given to the poor. And they rebuked her. But Jesus said, let her alone; why trouble ye her? She hath wrought a good work on me. For ye have the poor with you always and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body for burying.

Judas plots with the chief priests

Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests and said unto them, what will ye give me if I will deliver him unto you? And they weighed unto him thirty pieces of silver. And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

Jesus came to serve

Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the Passover? And he said, go into the city to a certain man and say unto him, the master saith, my time is at hand; I will keep the Passover at thy house with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the Passover. Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve. And there arose also a dispute among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. And he said unto them, the kings of the gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors. But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? Is not he that sitteth at meat? But I am among you as he that serveth.

And while they supped, Jesus riseth from supper and laid aside his garments; and took a towel and girded himself. After that he poureth water into a basin and began to wash the disciple's feet and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus answered and said unto him, what I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. Peter saith unto him, thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, if I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith unto him, lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him, he that has washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, ye are not all clean. So after he had washed their feet and had taken his garments and was set down again, he said unto them, know ye what I have done to you? Ye call me master and lord: and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, your lord and master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. Verily, verily, I say unto you, the servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him. If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

Jesus identified Judas as his betrayer

When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit and testified and said, verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake. Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him and said, ask him who it should be of whom he spake. He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, lord, who is it? Jesus answered, he it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

A new commandment

Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, a new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

The disciples vow loyalty to Jesus

Then saith Jesus unto them, all ye shall fall away because of me this night: Peter answered and said unto him, though all men shall fall away because of thee, yet will I never fall away. I am ready to go with thee, both into prison and to death. And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. Peter said unto him, though I must die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

Jesus agonises over his coming death

Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane and saith unto the disciples, sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder. And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee and began to be sorrowful and very heavy. Then saith he unto them, my soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here and watch with me. And he went a little farther and fell on his face and prayed, saying, my father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt. And he cometh unto the disciples and findeth them asleep and saith unto Peter, what, could ye not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. He went away again the second time and prayed, saying, my father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy. And he left them and went away again and prayed the third time, saying the same words. Then cometh he to the disciples and saith unto them, are ye still sleeping and taking your rest?

John 18

Judas betrays Jesus

When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples through the kidron valley, where was a garden, into the which he entered and his disciples. Now Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples. Judas then, having received a band of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast. And forthwith he came to Jesus and said, hail, master; and kissed him. And Jesus said unto him, friend, do that for which thou art come. Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth and said unto them, whom seek ye? They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them. As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they drew backward and fell to the ground. Then asked he them again, whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: then came they and laid hands on Jesus and seized him. And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest and smote off his ear. Then said Jesus unto him, put up again thy sword into its place: for all they that take the sword shall perish by the sword.

In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple and ye laid no hold on me. Then all the disciples forsook him and fled. And there followed him a certain young man, having only a linen cloth upon his naked body; and they laid hold on him: but he left the linen cloth and fled from them naked.

Peter denies Jesus

And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. And Simon Peter followed Jesus and so did another disciple: now that disciple was known unto the high priest and went in with Jesus into the court of the high priest. But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest and spake unto her that kept the door and brought in Peter. And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them and warmed himself. Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. Now Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it and said, I am not. One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, did not I see thee in the garden with him? Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

And Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said unto him, before the cock crew, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out and wept bitterly. The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples and of his teaching. Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

Jesus interrogated

Why askest thou me? Ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said. And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, answerest thou the high priest so? Jesus answered him, if I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and there were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. Now the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; but found none. For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together. And there arose certain and bare false witness against him, saying, we heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands and within three days I will build another made without hands. But not even in this regard did their witness agree together. And the high priest stood up in the midst and asked Jesus, saying, answerest thou nothing? What is it which these witness against thee? But he held his peace and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him and said unto him, art thou the Christ, the son of the blessed? But he said unto them, if I tell you, ye will not believe: and if I also ask you, ye will not answer me. Then said they all, art thou then the son of God? And he said unto them, ye say that I am. Then the high priest rent his clothes and saith, what need we any further witnesses? Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be worthy of death. And some began to spit on him and to cover his face and to buffet him and to say unto him, prophesy: and the guards did strike him with the palms of their hands.

Jesus before Pilate

Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the praetorium: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the Passover. Pilate then went out unto them and said, what accusation bring ye against this man? They answered and said unto him, if he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee. Then said Pilate unto them, take ye him and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, it is not lawful for us to put any man to death: then Pilate entered into the praetorium again and called Jesus and said unto him, art thou the king of the Jews? Jesus answered him, sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? Pilate answered, am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Jesus answered, my kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto him, art thou a king then? Jesus answered, thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. Pilate saith unto him, what is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all. But they were the more fierce, saying, he stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to this place. Then said Pilate unto him, hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean. And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was in Jerusalem at that time.

Pilate plans to release Jesus

Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him. And he questioned with him at great length; but he answered him nothing. And the chief priests and scribes stood by and vehemently accused him. And Herod with his soldiers dealt with him contemptuously and mocked him and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe and sent him again to Pilate. And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves. And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, said unto them, ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no guilt in this man touching the charges whereof ye accuse him: no, nor yet Herod: for he sent him again to us; and, lo, nothing worthy of death has been done by him. I will therefore chastise him and release him.

Matthew 27

Barabbas released

Now at the feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would. And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

Moreover, while he was set down on the judgement seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus. The governor answered and said unto them, whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas. Pilate saith unto them, what shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, let him be crucified. And the governor said, why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, let him be crucified.

Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified. Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the praetorium and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers. And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him and mocked him, saying, hail, king of the Jews! And they spit upon him and took the reed and smote him on the head. And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him and put his own raiment on him and led him away to crucify him.

Judas repented, returned the thirty pieces of silver and hanged himself

Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed innocent blood. And they said, what is that to us? See thou to that. And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple and departed and went and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the silver pieces and said, it is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood. And they took counsel and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field is called, the field of blood, unto this day.

Jesus speaks of the desolation of the Jewish people

And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon of Cyrene, coming out of the country and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus. And there followed him a great company of people and of women, which bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus turning unto them said, daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, blessed are the barren and the wombs that never bare and the paps which never gave suck. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, fall on us; and to the hills, cover us. For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry? And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

Soldiers cast lots for the garments of Jesus

And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: there they crucified him and two other with him, on either side one and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title and put it on the cross. And the writing was Jesus of Nazareth the king of the Jews. This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew and Latin and Greek. Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, write not, the king of the Jews; but, this man said I am king of the Jews. Pilate answered, what I have written I have written. Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his undergarment: now the undergarment was without seam, woven from the top to the bottom. They said therefore among themselves, let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, in order to determine whose it shall be.

Jesus reviled

And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads and saying, thou that destroyest the temple and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the son of God, come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, he saved others; himself he cannot save. He is the king of Israel: let him now come down from the cross and we will believe in him. He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the son of God. And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, art thou not the Christ? Save thyself and us! But the other answering rebuked him, saying, dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. Then said Jesus, father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.

Jesus arranges for his mother to have a home

Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of clophas and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, woman, behold thy son! Then saith he to the disciple, behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, eli, eli, lama sabachthani? That is to say, my God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, this man calleth for Elijah. And straightway one of them ran and took a sponge and filled it with vinegar and put it on a reed and gave him to drink. The rest said, let be, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him. Jesus, when he had cried out again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. And many women were there beholding afar off, which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him: among which was Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James and Joseph and the mother of Zebedee's sons. The Jews therefore, because it was the day of preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath, (for that Sabbath was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. Then came the soldiers and brake the legs of the first and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: but one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side and forthwith came there out blood and water.

Jesus is placed in the sepulchre

And after this Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore and took the body of Jesus. And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight. Then took they the body of Jesus and wound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid. There laid they Jesus and rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre and departed.

Jews Pharisees Scribes Temple

Jesus and the money changers

And the Jews' Passover was at hand and Jesus went up to Jerusalem and found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves and the changers of money sitting: and when he had made a scourge of cords, he drove them all out of the temple and the sheep and the oxen; and poured out the changers' coins and overthrew their tables; and said unto them that sold doves, take these things hence; make not my father's house an house of merchandise. After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judaea; and there he tarried with them and baptised.

Jesus and the money lenders in the temple

And he left them and went out of the city into Bethany; and he lodged there. And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, Jesus went into the temple and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple and overthrew the tables of the money-changers and the seats of them that sold doves; and would not suffer that any man should carry any goods through the temple. And he taught, saying unto them, is it not written, my house shall be called the house of prayer for all nations? But ye have made it a den of thieves. And the chief priests and scribes heard it and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his teaching. And when even was come, they went out of the city.

Pharisees false teachers

Then spake Jesus to the multitude and to his disciples, saying, the scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat: all therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say and do not accordingly. For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries and lengthen the fringes of their garments and love the place of honour at feasts and the chief seats in the synagogues and greetings in the markets and to be called of men, rabbi. But be not ye called rabbi: for one is your master and all ye are brethren. And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your father, which is in heaven. Neither be ye called masters: for one is your master, even Christ. But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant. And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be humbled; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves. Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is bound thereby! Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold? And, whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is bound thereby. Ye blind men: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift? Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it and by all things thereon. And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it and by him that dwelleth therein. And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God and by him that sitteth thereon. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye pay tithe of mint and dill and cummin and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, justice, mercy and faith: these ought ye to have done, without leaving the other undone. Ye blind guides, which strain out a gnat and swallow a camel. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess. Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because ye build the tombs of the prophets and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous and say, if we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets. Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the condemnation of hell?

Publicans and harlots are better than the self-righteous chief priests and scribes

And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests and the scribes and the elders and he said unto them, but what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first and said, son, go work today in my vineyard. And he answered and said I will not: but afterward he repented and went. And he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. Which of the twain did the will of his father? They answer the first. Jesus saith unto them, verily I say unto you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

Jesus and teaching the Pharisees

And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath day, that they watched him. And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy. And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day, or no? But they held their peace. And he saith unto them, which of you shall have a son or an ox fallen into a pit and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day? And they could not answer him to these things.

And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief places; saying unto them. When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding feast, sit not down in the highest place; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden by him; and he that bade thee and him shall come and say to thee, give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest place. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have honour in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee. For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

Then said he also to him that bade him, when thou makest a dinner or a feast, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again and a recompence be made thee. But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: and thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

Then said he unto him, a certain man made a great feast and bade many: and sent his servant at the time of the feast to say to them that were bidden, come; for all things are now ready. And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee Have me excused. And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have married a wife and therefore I cannot come. So that servant came and showed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city and bring in hither the poor and the maimed and the blind and the halt. And the servant said, lord, it is done as thou hast commanded and yet there is room. And the lord said unto the servant, go out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. For I say unto you, none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper. For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, saying, this man began to build and was not able to finish.

Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an embassy and desireth conditions of peace.

The judgement upon the chief priests and Pharisees

A certain man planted a vineyard and set an hedge about it and digged a pit for the winepress and built a tower and let it out to husbandmen and went into a far country. And at the harvest season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard. And they caught him and beat him and sent him away empty-handed. And again he sent unto them another servant; and they wounded him in the head and sent him away shamefully handled. And again he sent another; and him they killed; and many others, beating some and killing some. Having yet therefore one son, his well beloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, they will reverence my son. But those husbandmen said among themselves, this is the heir; come, let us kill him and the inheritance shall be our's. And they took him and killed him and cast him out of the vineyard. What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen and will give the vineyard unto others. And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

The Pharisees and divorce

And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee and came into the region of Judaea beyond Jordan; and great multitudes followed him. The Pharisees also came unto him, testing him and saying unto him, is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for any cause? And he answered and said unto them, have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female and said, for this cause shall a man leave father and mother and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. They say unto him, why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement and to put her away? He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. And I say unto you, whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication and shall marry another, committeth adultery.

The disciples say unto him, if the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry. But he said unto them, all men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given. For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

The Pharisees and the Sabbath

And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the Sabbath day he entered into the synagogue and taught. And they were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as one that had authority and not as the scribes.

At that time Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the corn fields; and his disciples were an hungered and began to pluck the ears of corn and to eat. But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, "behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the Sabbath day." But he said unto them, have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungered and they that were with him (David was like them); how he entered into the house of God and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests? Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the Sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are guiltless?

And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue: and, behold, here was a man whose hand was withered. They asked him, saying, "is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath days" so they might accuse him. Jesus said unto them, "what man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep and if it fall into a pit on the Sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it and lift it out? How much then is a man of more value than a sheep!" Wherefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath days. And he said unto them, the Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath.

But the Pharisees went out and held a council against him, how they might destroy him. But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him. And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray and continued all night in prayer to God. And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles; Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alpheus and Simon called the zealot and Judas the son of James and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Jews seek to kill Jesus

After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him. God looks on the heart and not outward show

And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in and sat down at meat. And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner. And the lord said unto him, now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness. Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also? But give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold; all things are clean unto you. But woe unto you, Pharisees! For ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs and pass over justice and the love of God: these ought ye to have done and not to leave the other undone. Woe unto you, Pharisees! For ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues and greetings in the markets. Woe unto you! For ye are as graves which are not seen and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

Lawyers who take advantage of others

Then answered one of the lawyers and said unto him, master, thus saying thou reproachest us also. And he said, woe unto you also, ye lawyers! For ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. Woe unto you, lawyers! For ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves and them that were entering in ye hindered.

And as he departed from thence, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently and to provoke him to speak of many things: laying wait for him, to catch him in some saying.
