Bully Bash 2013

Our 3rd annual Bully Bash is scheduled for June 8, 2013, from 10:00 am—2:00 pm at John Rudy County Park!

Welcome to our new Kitties:

Idgie

Snyder

Batman (Pierre)

Amy

Jackie

Tulip

The core purpose of Bully Bash is to raise positive awareness about Bully Breeds by reducing the negative stereotypes and ultimately finding much needed fur-ever homes for those breeds in our care!

Last year's event brought together hundreds of animal lovers for a fun-filled day of activities, training demonstrations and pet-related vendors all while raising almost $15,000 to help sustain the York County SPCA and its mission. This year's event promises to be bigger and better!

Kitty Updates!

William— He is doing great and seems to be very comfortable and happy. He is a perfect fit for our family. We absolutely love him and having him here with us!

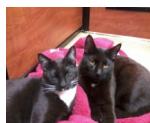

Mahalo—His new name is Tucker and he is getting along with his new feline brother Frankie!

Smurphy— Now Murphy says hello! He has started to allow us to hold him. He loves to lay on us while we watch television and has turned out to be quite the snuggler at bedtime. He is wonderful! You guys truly do a great thing!

Prince—His mommy says he is the best cat ever! They love him dearly and he is enjoying sleeping on the bed with them!

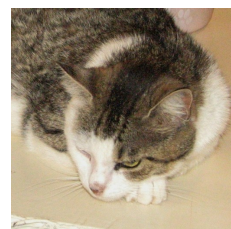

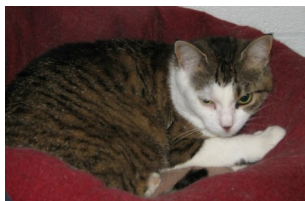

Lester & Curtis—Both are doing well and have started taking over the house as theirs!

Honey Bear—Now known as Gizmo is doing fine and loving life! He and his new feline brother, Greyson, absolutely love each other!

Spotlight Kitty!

Idgie

Idgie came to the SPCA with her 3 kittens. All of her kittens have been adopted, but Idgie is still waiting on her forever home! She is a pretty brown tabby & white cat about 2 years old. She does okay with other cats. She is a little shy at first but loves soft blankets and likes to be given your full attention!
