

PERSONAL PERFORMANCE GUARANTEE

As real estate professionals dedicated to providing a level of service that is unsurpassed in the Charlotte metropolitan area, Carolinas Realty Partners offer you a Personal Performance Guarantee outlining what you can expect from us.

- ☐ You will have your phone calls returned within the same day and we will be prompt with appointments and requested information, as we realize and appreciate the value of your time.
- ☐ You will be contacted frequently with status reports on critical changes in the marketplace that might affect the purchase or selling strategy for your home.
- ☐ The service you receive will be caring and compassionate at all times. We will listen to your needs and concerns and will treat them as if they were my own.
- ☐ Finally, but most importantly, you will not be forgotten after the closing. You will hear from us on a regular basis. We will always be available to you, your family, friends and associates for assistance with their real estate needs and questions.

You have our word that your real estate experience with us will be professional, thorough and as enjoyable as possible. You can expect prompt, quality information before, during and after the sale of your home.

This type of service is available through only a few real estate professionals. We choose to perform this way because we truly believe that when you receive this level of personal service you will be enthusiastic about referring the people you care about to such professionals. We are those professionals and we want to earn the right to be your REAL ESTATE CONSULTANTS—FOR LIFE!
