

Diamond Parking scam and Wiggins harassing calls

Diamond Parking Ltd. scam is a letter titled "Parking Violation Notice". It is usually mailed to you to the address you used when you purchased the car. It looks like a real document asking you to pay a fine in the range of $100, stating date, time, location, "infraction" and charges.

DIAMOND PARKING LTD. PO BOX 3055 VANCOUVER, BC V6B 3X5

Phone: (604) 681-8797 Fax: (604) 684-0329

Notice Date: April

Notice Date: April Vehicle Licence: Vehicle Make:  Impound: No

PARKING VIOLATION NOTICE

Our records indicate that your vehicle was issued a Parking Violation Notice and we have not received payment. Diamond Parking Ltd. requires settlement of the total amount due. Pay on line at https://diamondparking.ca/payments in order to get immediate payment confirmation and avoid further penalties or delays in processing. If there has been a change in ownership of the vehicle, please contact our office. Please see below for violation details and alternate payment instructions.

Reference #	Date	Time	Location	Infraction	Amount
438050	03/02/10	17:25	2 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 100 10	OTHER/ WALK OFF	$ 73.50
			,, ,	-> Costs* 15/A-	$ 30.00
				Interest	$ 0.94
				NSF Cheque Fees	$ 0.00
				Amount Paid	$ 0.00
				TOTAL DUE	$ 104.44
				DATE DUE	04/16/10

GST Registration Number: 898783089

Pretty stressful for an unprepared, innocent person. Don't fall victim of this scam. If you receive such a letter: Do nothing. Ignore it. Another letter may follow after awhile. Do not open it! Return the Manila coloured envelope to sender if you want. Disturbing automated phone calls come into play after letters and may continue from few months to couple of years. The calls are generated by Wiggins' computerized system. Wiggins Adjustments Ltd. is a bill collection agency located in Langley, British Columbia, Canada. Phone numbers used by Wiggins are:

- 604-530-8904
- 604-530-8908
- 604-530-0211

These repeated phone calls (several times a day) are really annoying and they may fill your voicemail box easily. If you own a land line you could possibly block those calls (refer to your phone service provider instructions). Unfortunately those numbers may not be blocked on a cell phone.

Case study

In my case I received a "Parking Violation Notice" asking me to pay for an imaginary "violation" on 03/02/10 at 17:25. It was ridiculously impossible since I left my office 18:45 that day and my time is recorded. It's an obvious scam. An illegal way to suck money from innocent people. The massive phone calls/voice messages continued for about 8 months, then slowed down (almost stopped for a couple of months), then annoying calls came back for another round of about 3 months and then disappeared. I was lucky because they had my cell number only, so when I see their number on my display I did not answer (just let it ring like there is no one to answer). Also I do not have voice mail on my cell phone. This way I did not give a confirmation to their automated system that I received a call.

To report scam or harassing phone calls visit Reverd.com. It is FREE and creates awareness in the community of possible scam, harassing or prank callers.

More articles...

How to verify name and address
How to trace cell phones
How to stop unwanted calls
How to dampen debt collectors
How to restrain telemarketers
How to identify harassing prank
How to research a phone bill
How to reveal cheating partner
How to find an old friend
How to locate a business

About Privacy Terms International Blog Help Video Sitemap

© reverd.com - Diamond Parking scam and Wiggins harassing calls

