Come down and meet author Dawn Foss this Saturday, October 26th from 4-6pm & 7-8pm! Dawn will be here signing for two of her books, "I Will Stand" and "Christmas Love". Dawn is a one of our own parents here at American Gymnastics, and we are happy to have her here to promote her books!

I Will Stand...Would you like to be empowered and encouraged? I Will Stand offers a positive outlook for older kids and teens in their daily lives. Sunday school teacher and mother Dawn Foss outlines a series of commitments to live by. Each is based on scripture and will give you the tools you need to live out your faith so that you can be used by God in each situation you encounter. You will be inspired to be a champion of character with boldness and assurance that you are not alone in this journey and that God will be with you all the way. He has a purpose and plan for your life and cares about who you are and what you do. Each insightful guideline touches on developing character and helping you become who God wants you to be. Effective for personal or family devotions as well as group discussions, I Will Stand provides a map to drawing closer to God and is a must-read for all who believe that character really does matter.

This book is so great. I don't have kids yet, but when I do, I definitely want them to have a copy of this book. Great for building character! We need to instill strong morals in our children from a young age, and this book is the perfect tool for doing that. Thank you Dawn Foss for taking the time to invest in the lives of the children of this generation and generations to come.

Christmas Love...Are you looking for a Christmas book that will bring your family closer together? Then look no further! Sit down as a family and read Christmas Love. It will show you how the original Christmas story applies to families and communities today. Even if you don't live in a picture perfect world, you can show Christ's love to those around you and make the world a better place.
