

REVENUES FROM RESALE ITEMS

The South Shore School District may sell instructional supplies, materials or other merchandise to students at cost.

Teachers shall be responsible for the collection of monies from students for special project items. Money should be deposited in the office safe on a daily basis.

Under no circumstances may students charge resale items. Students must pay at the time they receive the items.

APPROVED:            April 22, 1992

REVISED:            January 14, 2009