Dear Sir,

RE: measures for civilization to survive

The situation about Ukraine has been steadily worsening and the outbreak of nuclear war is becoming increasingly probable, especially now that Russia is going to deploy tactical nuclear weapon in the Kaliningrad enclave and Crimea, while NATO is promising to follow suit in Europe and Asia. The main question now is how to stop and reverse that suicidal development. Let us try a Marxist analysis of the situation and see what it suggests.

Civilization has been experiencing a general ideological crisis that manifests itself in different ways, in such conflicts, in particular, as the current one in Ukraine. That general crisis was prepared mainly by the West resisting the reforms of modern society necessitated by the current turbulent technological revolution.

As to Russia, it is now hopelessly floundering in conditions of the most severe oligarchical regime, having no plans for the change. Theoretically, there should be a revolution to overthrow such a regime. Taking into account its 70-year Soviet past, the revolution in Russia should be of a socialist character. Fortunately, we have now a true scientific ideology, strategy and tactics for such a revolution and may propose the measures that civilization must undertake to solve this really dangerous geopolitical confrontation.

To settle the present crisis in the West-Russia relations, it is necessary to undertake the following:

- (1) start reforming the ideology of modern society by reforming modern science, philosophy and religion according to our methodology [1]; reorganize UNESCO and commit it to that task;
- (2) start studying, discussing, developing, teaching and propagating worldwide the new sciences of politics and economics outlined in works [1], [2];
- (3) start organizing the West-East relations according to the scheme of global governance suggested by the above works; that measure implies dismantling, partially or thoroughly, NATO, in the Eastern Europe, at least, and creating a block of neutral countries supported by and cooperating free with the East and the West;
- (4) change radically the current Western policy in Ukraine from supporting the ultra-nationalistic regime to supporting the pro-Russian regions, while propagating there the ideology of transition to self-governance, true socialism (narodovlastie) in accordance with our article [3];
- (5) provide ideological and material support to the socialist organizations in Russia set to prepare and perform the true socialist revolution there - in accordance with our articles [4], [5].

Sincerely,
