This letter is pushing you to pay them using sentences like "It is most urgent that this account be paid immediately... to avoid faulty credit record" etc. Of course it is urgent for them to steal your hard earned money. They try to scare you, to get you panicking so that you give them money.

They provide you with 4 different payment options including credit card, bank transfer and direct payment in order to collect your money quickly.

This is their scam indeed. Don't fall victim. No action is needed from your end. Simply ignore those letters.
