This is a Google Street View image of a residential street in Chandler's Ford, England. The main view shows a paved road with a white zebra crossing, green hedges, and trees under a cloudy sky. A house is visible on the right. An inset image in the center shows two children sitting on a carpeted floor in a living room, watching a television. The interface includes a location bar at the top left, a map inset at the bottom left, and navigation controls at the bottom right.
