DETAILS | DESCRIPTION

2018 Zhaidarbek Kunguzhinov and Nomad Stunts successfully got into Kazakhstan Information and Encyclopedic Handbook Book of Records (Kazakhstan edition of Guinness World Book).

2018 Zhaidarbek Kunguzhinov was granted with state award “Kurmet” medal (by the president of the Republic of Kazakhstan Nursultan Nazarbayev).

2007 For contribution to the art of Kazakhstan, by the degree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan Zhaidarbek had received the title of the Honored Master of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

2007 Zhaidarbek and Nomad Group participated in the International Stunt Riding Festival and received the Golden Bear Award.

2006 By invitation of producers from Russia and Germany, particularly from director S.V. Bodrov, worked as a stunt coordinator in “Mongol” film (Kazakhstan, Russia, Germany) where he demonstrated high level of professionalism. The “Mongol” film was nominated for “Oscar” award.

2006 Was invited to participate in the Parade as part of the Lord Mayor’s Show in London, UK.

2004 By invitation of Mosfilm (Russia), particularly from director Timur Bekmambetov, worked as a stunt coordinator in the “Daywatch” film. He was able to make a unique stunt – “running horse breaking through a wall”.

2004 Right after he worked in the “Wolfhound” film the Nomad group was again invited to work in the “Nomad” film where Zhaidarbek was assistant stunt coordinator and horse extras coordinator.

2004 The Nomad Group led by Zhaidarbek Kunguzhinov was invited by Mosfilm (Russia) to participate in the “Wolfhound” film. Director: Sergey Lebedev. During work in the movie the Nomad Group performed various complex stunts.

2003 By invitation of “Kazakhfilm” studio Zhaidarbek Kunguzhinov together with the Nomad Group participated in the “Nomad” historical film. From the very first days of work they demonstrated high level of professionalism. He was asked to be an assistant stunt coordinator and a double for such actors as Mark Dacascos, Jayson Scott Lee and Jay Hernandez. Received a Thank You Letter for professionalism from producer Pavel Duidzon.

2002 Under the “Days of Kazakhstan in France” the Nomad Group, directed by Zhaidarbek Kunguzhinov, had demonstrated horse games of Kazakhstan and the art of stunt riding.

- 2000 Zhaidarbek established his own horse stunt riding Nomad Group. The Nomad Group under his direction includes 50 professional stuntmen, 30 specially trained stunt horses; has special harness system to work at heights; special wear for burning, etc. All stuntmen are members of the Stuntmen Association of Kazakhstan. They are officially licensed for stunt work
