

Fall 2018

Dear Music Applicant:

Thank you for exploring the possibility of applying for a music staff position at CAMP-of-the-WOODS (COTW) for the summer of 2018.

Music has always been an integral part of COTW during its 100+ years of operation. Each Friday and Saturday evening, the music staff performs for guests staying on the grounds and for people from the surrounding area. These weekend concerts include a broad variety of music, including classical, chamber music, opera, Broadway, big band, vocal and instrumental solos, and the best of sacred music from the classical and contemporary Christian repertoires. The music staff leads in blended worship at daily chapel and Sunday morning services, as well as the Sunday evening Concert of Praise and Worship. There is also an opportunity for musicians to perform on the weekly Thursday Evening Classical Recital series.

I encourage you to view the COTW Music video excerpts at these links:

Music Staff receive a guaranteed weekly salary plus room and board. Weekly salary for first year music staff is $300 per week, and the first pay period begins the Thursday of Challenge Week. (During the first part of Challenge/Orientation Week, June 16-20, ALL COTW summer employees receive a $30 honorarium.) Musicians earn their summer salaries by performing in concerts, chapels and other music events. In addition, music staff, along with staff from other divisions at COTW work several hours every other Saturday assisting with housekeeping as guests depart and arrive. Other music staff are assigned jobs such as stage managing, working in the music library, or coordinating special music events.

There are air-conditioned Wenger practice rooms and practice pianos, and temperature-controlled secure storage for instruments and valuables.

I look forward to my 17th season as Music Director. Along with being Professor of Music (trumpet) at West Virginia University, I play principal trumpet in the Wheeling (WV) Symphony Orchestra and extra with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra. My wife Kathy, our COTW Staff Pianist and Music Staff Recruiter, is a gifted accompanist who has worked in numerous national venues. Many COTW Music Staff alumni hold positions as performers in metropolitan orchestras and D.C. Military ensembles, as well as faculty positions in music schools across the country.

Fellowship with young Christian music professionals, numerous opportunities for performance, teaching by internationally known evangelical speakers, emphasis on musical excellence, challenge of personal musical and spiritual growth, and opportunities to lead in a blended worship ministry creates an unusual and completely unique opportunity for COTW musicians and may be a turning point in your career and life. It is my prayer that as you contemplate your options for Summer 2018, you will consider auditioning for the COTW music staff.

2018 Summer employment at CAMP-of-the-WOODS begins with Challenge Week, June 16-22. The first guests arrive on Saturday, June 24, and the first Music Staff concert will be that same evening. Guests are present from Saturday June 23 (Guest Week #1) through Labor Day Weekend (end of Guest Week #10).

The final full 2018 Music Staff concert will be performed at the end of Guest Week #8, Saturday evening, August 18.

Although Music Staff do not perform concerts August 24 and 25 (guest artists perform these concerts), Music Staff will continue to lead worship in chapels the week of August 19-24. Staff are expected to stay through Friday morning, August 24, unless their Fall university classes begin during the week of August 20. There will also be a
