About The Hooper Collection

A New Collection of Designs for the Hula Hoop Lover, by a Hula Hoop Lover

Are you having a hard time finding great shirts for hoopers online? Well, if you are, then The Hooper Collection solves this problem for you.

The Hooper Collection was launched in late 2017 by Erica Preston. Erica Preston is a health and fitness professional as well as entrepreneur. One of her missions is to provide quality health and fitness resources for women. She firmly believes that a great increase in one's quality of life can be made through proper exercise, diet and sound mental health. Her profound love for hula hooping gave her the idea to launch this line of apparel for hoopers. She also provides hula hoop fitness classes in the Columbus, Ohio area. Details can be found here.

Finally, there is a large collection of hooping shirts and other merchandise designed specifically for the hooping community. The Hooper Collection of hooping shirts has many unique designs. The designs are simple yet signify the topic and are also available in various colors. They have a range of styles to choose from too. These designs are available in cozy t-shirts, tank tops, sweatshirts and many more styles. You can go online to the website and find a great hooping shirt for yourself. This new creative online clothing store is yet another success for her as this shows her love to the hooping community and charities that she is passionate about. The owner Erica Preston mainly supports mental health, children and families with her line. A portion of the proceeds of each and every item sold in her collection goes directly to The Anxiety and Depression Association of America or Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Ohio.

About the Charities It Supports

Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Ohio:

The Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Ohio (RMHC) organization has been active for the past three decades. They help families stay close to each other while one of them receives needed medical care. Having a sick child at home or in the hospital can be incredibly difficult for his or her parents or siblings financially as well as mentally. This charity offers children and families a place to stay while a member of their family is receiving medical care. They have around 137 guest rooms and it is considered as the largest house of this kind in the world right now. Every night, there are hundreds of mothers, fathers, brothers, and sisters who come to stay at The Ronald McDonald House. One of the best things about their location is that it is only steps away from Nationwide Children's Hospital. The Ronald McDonald House provides them a stable environment in the middle of challenging times. Families can stay here and use the services for as long as their family member is being treated in the hospital. Learn more here.

The Anxiety and Depression Association of America (ADAA)

The Anxiety and Depression Association of America (ADAA) is a nonprofit organization that is dedicated to the treatment of mental health. It was founded in 1979. One of the things they are dedicated to is prevention, treatment and cure of mental health disorders. They deal with many mental health issues like anxiety, obsessive-compulsive behavior, depression, trauma-related mental disorders and more. They help educate others on mental health topics. Further on, they do research on these mental health related issues on a vast level. They also help people to find the right treatments, support, and resources. They have helped over 22 million people just by the content they provide on their website. People from all over the world view their website. Learn more here.
