

Igor Makarov

The Chosen People and Its New Mission

Now that the development of the general ideological crisis has achieved a dangerous level, plunging civilization into an ideological swamp, with its monstrous corruption, loss of traditional values, terrorist activity, a new incarnation of fascism and a new lunatic arms race threatening the very existence of humankind, the Jewish people should recall its chosen people's world mission and take the lead in the struggle for the salvation of civilization. Such a struggle needs the reform of modern society, which is certainly quite a task in itself. Fortunately we have got at present a proven methodology of such a reform. All we need now is the social and international support of that reform.

So it seems to be the proper mission of the Jewish people now to organize and perform the reform of modern society. However the current ideology of Zionism contradicts that mission, because it actually isolates the Jewish people from the world community and sets them in opposition to each other. Thus the Jewish people, to be true to its Biblical status of the chosen people, must first reform its own society. Only then will it be possible for the Jewish people to settle their decades-long conflict with the Palestinian people and become the leader of the reform of society worldwide, enlightening and reforming civilization, the spiritual leader of civilization. Today, at the time of the growing existential threat, such a mission is actual as never before.

In this connection we appeal to the people of Israel to support our project aimed at reforming the ideology of modern society and stated in our recent letter to the Knesset, <http://kvisit.com/S8LH1Aw>, and start discussing their new world mission.

January 2018, Haifa