Digitally storytelling with collections

Session 2 follow up

It was lovely to see you all at our second session. Below is a reminder of the homework we set for the final session as well as some useful resources, the Zoom recording and information about the last session.

Homework

1. Finalise your story idea. We'd like you to all come to the final session with a general idea you're your storytelling experiment. Ideally, you'll know the story you want to tell, the collection(s) you'll use, the audience it's aimed at and the platform you will share it on.
2. Once you've got that sorted, we'd like you to take a look at the National Archives' Digital Engagement Toolkit, particularly the Platform finder: https://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/archives-sector/projects-and-programmes/plugged-in-powered-up/digital-engagement-toolkit/platform-finder/ and the Platform guides sections: https://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/archives-sector/projects-and-programmes/plugged-in-powered-up/digital-engagement-toolkit/platform-guides/
3. Finally, you might find it useful to look over our Platforms and content creation guide: https://digipathways.co.uk/resources-for-platforms-and-content-creation/
