

If train A leaves the station at 3 pm and travels west at 78 mph and train B leaves a different station at 5 pm and travels east at 94 mph, how old are you?

No matter how you figure it, you're still old.