Honoring A Life: Advance Care Planning

When it comes to end-of-life care, one conversation can make all the difference. This 2-hour workshop helps people begin the conversation and outlines a clear process for them to ensure that their priorities and preferences for end-of-life care are known, documented and honored. Objectives are to reduce fear and stigma around talking about dying and to allow people to consider what's important to them; learn how to talk to others about their wishes; review healthcare planning decisions, resources and documents; learn with whom to share their healthcare planning documents; and discuss when to review and update these documents.

Target Audience:

The general public, anyone 18 years or older but with special focus on the elderly or those with serious illness.

Virtual Dementia Tour®

A window into the world of dementia through individualized, experiential learning

"I had no idea."

"Everyone on the planet needs to experience this!"

"You are an active learner... you walk in the shoes of someone with dementia."

"It's a true head-to-toe experience."

"There is an immediate and lasting change of perception."

"It will touch your heart."

These are just some of the quotes we've heard about the Virtual Dementia Tour (VDT), the original, ground-breaking, evidence-based, and scientifically proven method of building a greater understanding of dementia. The VDT uses patented sensory tools and instruction based on research conducted by P.K. Beville, M.S., a specialist in geriatrics and the founder of Second Wind Dreams®. During a Virtual Dementia Tour experience, trained facilitators guide participants outfitted with patented devices that alter their senses while they try to complete common everyday tasks and exercises. The Tour enables caregivers to experience for themselves the physical and mental challenges those with dementia face, and use the experience to provide better person-centered care.
