Green Vitality Boost, better blood quality increases vitality:

Green Vitality Boost is a powder of the highest quality chlorophyll. Chlorophyll is needed for better oxygen intake and strengthening blood cells resulting in increased blood quality. Increased blood quality reduces fatigue, boosts energy and vitamin and mineral absorption resulting in a strengthening of the immune system and your overall vitality.

Why is chlorophyll so important to humans?

Chlorophyll is the substance that gives plants their green colour under the influence of sunlight. It is an important substance for plants, as it helps convert water and carbon dioxide into oxygen and energy. The molecular structure of chlorophyll is almost the same as that of haemoglobin, the protein in the red blood cell in humans that is needed to bind oxygen.

Naturally the best 'chlorophyll suppliers' in Green Vitality Boost:

Green Vitality Boost consists of a variety of leafy greens containing substances from different green plants and algae. We list a few that give Green Vitality Boost the Super Power such as: various cabbages including broccoli, the Moringa tree, kelp, various types of organic algae including the blue Spirulina and more.

To enhance the working, frequencies & BG Bio-signatures have been added.

Why Green Vitality boost contains a high dose of pure algae:

Algae are a source of vitalising substances. The blue-green saltwater alga, arthrospira grows in a pure alkaline environment, so intake of this alga contributes to our own bodily alkaline environment. The carefully chosen Spirulina algae species grow in mineral-rich lakes, making them rich in essential minerals needed by the body. Because of this mix, Green Vitality Boost is very rich in vitamins, proteins, essential amino acids, omega 3 fatty acids, essential fatty acids, iodine and important minerals and trace elements.

Green Vitality Boost is one of the richest sources of protein. Its protein content is around 60-70%. Truly Super Food from Mother Nature!
