

Toxic body= Confused mind

Clean body= Constructive mind

In need for clarity of mind & balanced emotions? Start to clean your body today.

Especially since 2020, when the 5G network was activated worldwide, the human body is no longer able to excrete toxins independently. This has led to an accumulation of toxins in the body and has affected the normally 'closed to toxins' blood-brain barrier in our brains, which in turn affects our minds. Hence the increase in mental and emotional imbalances.

Special supplement solutions to detox the body to 'clear' your mind:

Forever Vital, a private initiative, from the people for the people, has developed a specific range of supplements to detoxify and restore the body & mind. There are two approaches:

- Do-It-Yourself, select the supplements yourself based on the information leaflets
- Personal Vitality Guidance which starts with an intake-form.

Ask you contact person about the supplement solutions & how you can proceed.

Toxins resonate with the lower frequency spectrum:

With toxins in our body we resonate easily with lower emotions, like fear, irritations, doubt, depression & worries. The moment we remove the toxins, who function like resonators in our body, we create the space to resonate with less effort and with more ease with higher frequency emotions like joy, self-confidence, eagerness to learn and take up new (creative) activities in our lives.

Which supplements?

For a clear mind, balanced emotions, calm nerves and as well regaining your vitality the following supplements are suitable:

1. Deep Cleanse,
2. Cell Protect Super Magnesium,
3. Mind Vitalizer
4. Calming Nerves
5. Pure Gold 100ppm

Ask your contact person for the leaflets. See contact details at the other side.
