		1 / Strike
1	Colonel L. R. Forney advised Spe	ecial Agent S. W. Reynolds
,	of the Liaison Section in extreme confiden	nce that a cablegram had
•	been received from Colonel Solberg, Milita	ary Attache to Belgium, ÷	that the following information had been re	eceived fron/a reliable 7.9	informant.
10	Colonel Solberg indicated, accor	rding to Former, that there )	was recently held in Brussels a meeting be representing France, Belgium, Holland, Swi	itzerland, Spain and Portugal and the NKVD chiefs from the American, Fre	ench and British zones of . 1	occupation. At this meeting alleged instr	ructions were issued to g de Trus	start instigating all types of disturbance
1	etc., and be prepared for war conditions i	th the next ien monais.
_	Forney also advised Reynolds in	extreme confidence and cautioned Mr. Reynolds at the time the mat	tter was discussed not to h	mention the fact to anyone that the War De	epartment officially believes 	that Russia will force a war but the War I that the war will start until April of 194	tepartment does not anticipate
٧ -	the matter with Reynolds, stated that he d	did not know any of the 7	intelligence information upon which the Wa	ar Department officials 9	base the above prognostication.
