

PROMOTIONS GIVEN 5 ARMY OFFICERS AT LANGLEY FIELD

Temporary Ranking As Majors
Given 2 Captains; 3 First
Lieutenants Moved Up
One Grade

Five air corps officers at Langley Field have been promoted to temporary ranks, according to war department orders received at the Peninsula air base yesterday. Announced were the following promotions:

To the rank of major—Capt. Ned Schramm, assigned to duty as commanding officer of the 37th attack squadron.

To the rank of major—Capt. George F. Schulgen, assigned to duty as commanding officer of the 33rd pursuit squadron.

To the rank of captain—First Lieut. John E. Bodle, engineering officer of the 58th service squadron.

To the rank of captain—First Lieut. Dudley D. Hale, 8th pursuit group headquarters.

To the rank of captain—First Lieut. Stoyte O. Ross, flight commander of the 36th pursuit squadron.

Commands 58th Squadron

Major Rex K. Stoner has been relieved from command of the 36th pursuit squadron and has assumed command of the 58th service squadron at Langley Field.

Named Supply Officer

Capt. Joseph A. Bulger has been relieved from further duty with the 33rd pursuit squadron to assume duties as supply officer of the 8th pursuit group.

Returns From Flight

Col. Hugh J. Knerr, Jr., rps. chief of staff of the GHQ, has returned to Langley Field from a cross-country flight to Maxwell Field, Ala.

Assigned to Duty at Langley

Master Sergt. William Arnold and Staff Sergt. Orle L. Mitchell, air corps.

Clipped By:

jamespcarrion

Sun, Nov 4, 2018