

SERMON OUTLINE

THE STATUS QUO

April 25, 2021

No more tolerating evil

We must always offer others the same respect and freedom that we want them to show us—but we must never treat what God calls evil as equal to or superior to what God calls righteousness. We must always put first things first.

Judges 3:12-30, Joshua 4:19-20

Enough is enough. I will stop:

No more worshiping busyness

Pleasing everyone is impossible, and if we do what we do just to please others, God does not reward us at all. We must keep putting first things first—no matter what that requires us to change, to start, or to stop doing.

Judges 3:31

Enough is enough. I will make time to:

No more worshipping comfort

Things will change, no matter what. We cannot control everything, but we can influence the changes that happen. God has already given us all the tools we need, but He expects us to get them out of the toolbox and get to work.

Ephesians 2:8-10 & 3:20
Philippians 2:1-11

Enough is enough. I will use my gifts to:
