HUMILITY

No one can earn salvation

There is no room for pride or prejudice here! The King of Heaven is far too kind to only give us what we earn, good or bad. Instead, He gives us grace, love, gifts that require us to work together, and responsibilities.

Matthew 7:1-5, 18:23-35 & 20:1-16
John 13:34-35, Luke 11:43 & 14:1-14

We share what we've been given

When we begin to understand how much we've been given, how much we're loved, and how little we deserve it all, it inspires us to achieve great things. Christ empowers us to work as a team. He commands us to help others experience the love, purpose, and strength He provides—and we dare not disobey Him.

Matthew 28:18-20, Luke 14:16-24

We learn to be like our King

As we follow His example and His leadership, we are transformed into new creations that reflect His image.

Philippians 2:1-11, John 13:12-17
