A public call for Gov. Bill Lee to resign.

Gov. Bill Lee and several "Men of Valor" board members are still participating in the John Perry – child sex abuse cover-up which is still on-going in 2022.

Feb. 5, 2022 - A mother's desperate plea to Gov. Bill Lee.

By the Providence of Almighty God, Rev. Franklin Graham preached a 2022 Easter Message from war-torn Ukraine during a child sex abuse cover-up case connected to the Ukraine, GOP Presidential Politics and the global legacy of Rev. Billy Graham. The Ukraine connected child sex abuse cover-up crime is now connected to Grace Chapel Church and Grace Christian Academy via the alleged child sex abuse of 15-year-old Gracie Solomon, the alleged murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, and Steve McNair's secret rigged grand jury. Again, this is an Easter public call for Gov. Bill Lee to resign as Governor of Tennessee.

Gubernatorial Candidate Bill Lee Meets With Franklin Graham At Clarksville Event

May 20, 2017 Wendy Wilson - The Tennessee Star - Excerpt

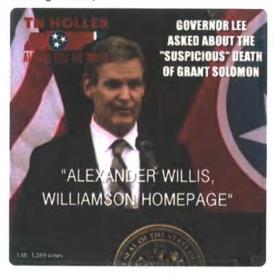

Bill Lee, a Republican businessman running for governor of Tennessee, met briefly with Franklin Graham in Clarksville on Thursday to thank him for being an inspiration in his life. Lee and his wife, Maria, met with Graham on a tour bus for about 10 minutes to talk and pray. The Christian evangelist was in Clarksville as part of his Decision America Tennessee Tour. Lee told The Tennessee Star that he was moved last year when he heard Graham speak in Nashville. Graham encouraged Christians to become involved in politics and for Lee, already contemplating a run for governor, it was just what he needed to hear. It is Lee's first run for political office. Lee is chairman of Lee Company, a facilities and home services company. He also has a background in agriculture and continues to be involved in a cattle farm run by his family. He lives in Franklin and attends Grace Chapel, a nondenominational church in Leiper's Fork. Faith is a big part of his life, he said.

Feb. 10, 2022: Seven days after Gov. Bill Lee's historic "THAT" press conference, and five days after Gov. Bill Lee ignored the desperate plea of Grant Solomon's mother, new Supreme Court Justice, Sarah K. Campbell, was sworn in to office by Gov. Bill Lee. New Justice Sarah K. Campbell belongs to Christ Presbyterian Church, a Nashville Presbytery sister church of Covenant Presbyterian Church. On April 26, 2021, ten months before Justice Campbell's "oath of office," Christ Presbyterian Church sent former Christ Pres member and child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, a "cease and desist" letter to silence him from providing truthful John Perry - child sex abuse cover-up information to Christ Presbyterian Church and Christ Presbyterian Academy employees. The Tennessee Supreme Court, Attorney General Herbert Slatery, Gov. Bill Lee, the Tennessee Legislature, and Nashville corporate owned "news organizations" are well informed about the John Perry child sex abuse coverup, the alleged Aaron Solomon child sex abuse - murder cover-up, and the rigged secret grand jury of Tennessee Titans QB Steve McNair, but 5.1 million eligible Tennessee voters are not well informed as "democracy dies in the darkness."

April 6, 2018 - Judge Cheryl Blackburn - Court Transcript Excerpts - Austin Davis Sworn Testimony After MBA Headmaster Brad Gioia Provided Untrue Sworn Testimony To The Court

Austin Davis: I was trying to communicate to people about a child sex abuse cover-up and its connection to the rape of a, an alleged rape of a sixth grade student.

Judge Cheryl Blackburn: Okay, Mr. Davis, that is an issue I think that has gotten you in a lot of trouble.

Austin Davis: It shouldn't...... the DA's office should be prosecuting child molesters instead of covering them up... There's a molester living on Belle Meade Boulevard about twelve doors away from--... She's asking me why, because I don't want to be shackled on that issue.

Judge Cheryl Blackburn: Okay. Well. You're going to be shackled on that issue, one way or another, and that would be by me telling you something or I'm going to put you in jail again."

Austin Davis: So the state wants us not, the citizens not talk about child sex abuse if we know where a molester is?... It's called First Amendment freedom of speech. You just have a right to speak.

Judge Cheryl Blackburn: Well, in this particular issue, you don't have a First Amendment freedom of speech.

Austin Davis: Okay. That's good to clarify.

Re: CEASE AND DESIST NOTICE

Dear Mr. Davis:

Please be advised that I represent Christ Presbyterian Church ("CPC"), and its related entities, including Christ Presbyterian Academy (CPA), Kolnonia, and the Nashville Institute for Faith and Work. I have reviewed your voluminous email communications and your allegations against my client. In your emails, you specifically accuse Matt Moore, CPC, and CPA of being involved in a multifaceted conspiracy. Your email insinuates that Matt Moore, CPC, and CPA participated in a criminal activity regarding a large cover-up for John Perry. You allege that this conspiracy has lasted for years and involves former CPC and CPA alumni and teachers.

Please be advised that Matt Moore, CPA, CPC, and its related entities, are not and have never been involved in any criminal conspiracy, and all of your allegations against them are patently false. Any assertion on your behalf otherwise is intentionally designed by you to harm CPC, CPA and Matt Moore.

Please be advised that you need to immediately cease and desist any further communications to and regarding Matt Moore, CPC, CPA, and any other related entity. This includes ceasing all communications with Matt Moore, Individually, and sending your inflammatory emails to employees of CPC and CPA. Your actions have defamed the character of both Matt Moore, CPC and CPA, and constitutes libel per se, harassment, and false light invasion of privacy.

Please be advised that if you send another communication to Matt Moore, CPA, CPC, or any of its related entities, or employees, then my client will be left with no option but to take any and all legal action against you to protect CPC, its related entities, and employees from your intentionally harmful actions. Nothing in this correspondence is a walver or should be interpreted as any kind of walver of any rights and remedies of Matt Moore, CPC, or any of its related entities, all of which are expressly reserved.

The Christ Presbyterian Church "cease and desist" letter warns Austin Davis not to send emails to Christ Presbyterian Church and Christ Presbyterian Academy employees, which has prevented Christ Presbyterian Church and Christ Presbyterian Academy employees from receiving new emails about four alleged child sex abuse cover-up cases, the alleged murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, and Steve McNair's rigged secret grand jury. The "cease and desist" letter also has served to prohibit Austin Davis from informing the Christ Presbyterian Church employees about another child-molester arrested and convicted in 1991 with connections to the Christ Presbyterian youth community when the church met at Hillsboro High School in the early 1980's. Rigged Secret Grand Jury Denied Re-Opening Case

In July 2010, reporter Sarah Henning in Lawrence, Kansas, wrote an article about another child-molester with connections to youth school students in the Christ Presbyterian Church community. A month earlier in June 2010, Steve McNair's rigged secret grand jury blocked reopening the investigation of Steve McNair's murder.

Predatory past - Before the sex abuse scandal rocked the Catholic Church, there was the case of Bryan Bush, a young youth leader who preyed on boys and crossed paths with a local pastor

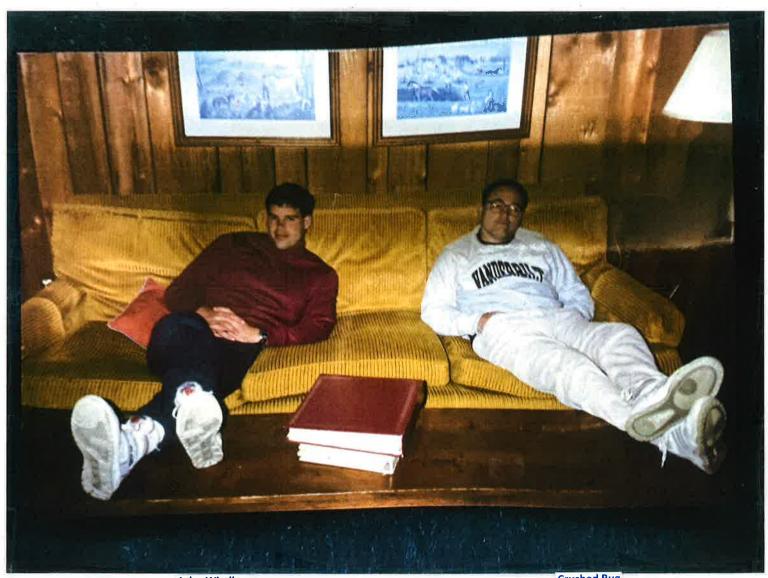

By Sarah Henning - Sunday, July 11, 2010 - Excerpts

It's been more than 20 years since Tom Brady received the letter that still shocks him to this day... The man sending the letter was Bryan Bush, who worked alongside him as the leader of the junior high youth program... "I got a letter from him that said that he had inappropriately had relationships with some of the boys and had fondled them and told me his whole story," Brady says... It's a story that in time would become one of the biggest molestation cases in Colorado history. Bush, now deceased, eventually confessed to sexually abusing 30 boys on 50 different occasions at three different Presbyterian churches. On June 18, 1991, he was sentenced to 16 years in prison for molesting 11 boys between 1981 and 1988... Bush was in prison doing time before anyone got wind of the sex abuse scandals that would rock the United States' Catholic Church, and later Christianity as a whole.. Much of the molestation took place at sleepovers Bush held at his home without his wife present. He gave the boys, generally between the ages of 12 and 14, drinks laced with antihistamine cold capsules and Phenobarbital pills to knock them out before fondling them. Later, he became less worried about the boys being unconscious and his attacks became more aggressive.

In 2013, Grace Chapel Pastor Ron Gonser — a leader of the church's Pastoral Care Ministry — allegedly had a phone call with then-20-year-old redacted, who in the mid-2000s briefly attended the Franklin church with his father, redacted. Redacted said that on the call,... Redacted's full experience with GCA will be covered in a future standalone story, and at least a dozen more have alleged other failures on the part of the church or school to adequately act on allegations of abuse, but out of fear, have declined to be among the first to share their stories publicly.

Question: Is FW Publishing owner, Bill Freeman, father of Tennessee State Representative Bob Freeman, suppressing additional abuse allegations at Grace Chapel, and other child sex abuse allegations, potentially endangering other young children?

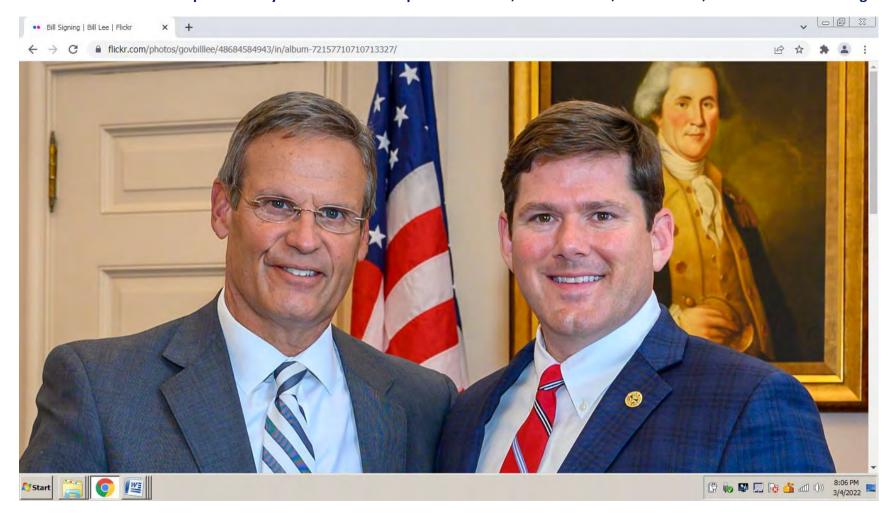

Bill Freeman FW Publishing Owner

TN State Rep. Bob Freeman

Is GOP Governor Bill Lee protected by Democrat State Rep. Bob Freeman, and his father, Bill Freeman, owner of FW Publishing?

Or is Bill Freeman protecting 2008 Huckabee staff member, Carter Wamp, and Carter Wamp's extended "Davis" family, who merged companies with Bill Freeman's "Freeman – Webb" real estate business? (Note: Carter Wamp's mother is Kim Davis Mayo, who attended Ole Miss and dated one of Austin Davis' roommates. Carter Wamp's uncle is Kirby Davis.)

Freeman Webb acquires First Management Services - STAFF REPORTS - DEC 13, 2013

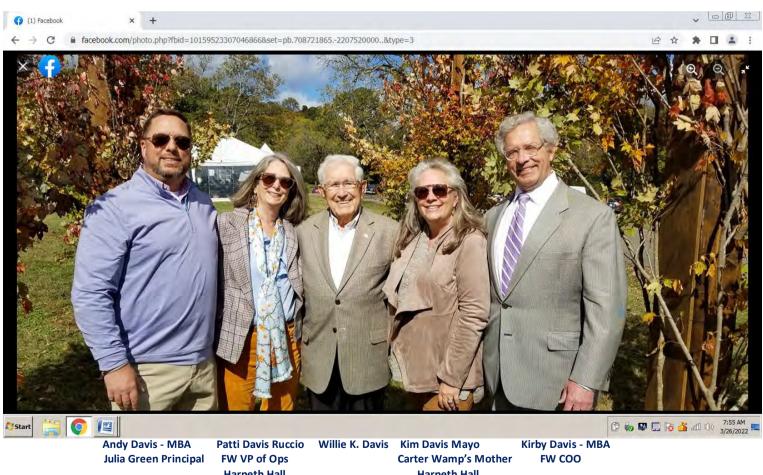

Freeman Webb Company today announced it has acquired First Management Services. Financial terms of the deal between the two Nashville-based real estate companies were not disclosed in a release. Relatedly, Kirby Davis, previously president of First Management Services, has been named chief operating officer and director of property management of Freeman Webb.Founded in 1969, First Management Services, has offices in Nashville and Knoxville. All its employees will join Freeman Webb, which will now employ approximately 500 employees across all of its offices and properties. With the acquisition, which the companies are terming a merger, Freeman Webb adds approximately 5 million square feet of multifamily and commercial space to its portfolio. Freeman Webb now has what it says is three times more multifamily units under management in Middle Tennessee than its closest competitor. "Our companies are aligned on several levels and share similar strengths," Bill Freeman (pictured), chairman of Freeman Webb and a long-time business partner with company chief executive officer Jimmy Webb, said in the release. "We have both been in operation for over three decades, have a significant number of properties in Middle and East Tennessee, and we manage a diverse mixture of apartments, office and retail. "Kirby Davis has been an important leader in the apartment industry in Tennessee for many years," Freeman added. "He is someone we've admired and respected, and we are excited to bring Kirby and his team on board at Freeman Webb."

Dr. Andy Davis – Julia Green Principal – Carter Wamp's Uncle

Austin Davis and his family were banned from Julia Green Public School to protect Kim Davis Mayo, Carter Wamp, and the John Perry - Federal crime cover-up Bill Freeman's "news organization" has still not informed the Julia Green Public School Community about the unlawful banning of Austin Davis and his family from Julia Green Public School and Park to protect the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up. Andy Davis is the principal of Julia Green Public School where the daughter of Austin Davis attended as a child. Andy's nephew, Carter Wamp, was the Iowa Political Director for the 2008 Mike Huckabee Presidential Campaign. Freeman Webb (FW) and First Management Services (led by Kirby Davis) merged in 2013. The Julia Green PTO Leadership was informed but apparently no one in Julia Green Leadership cares about one of the biggest political, sports, media and religious child sex abuse cover-up efforts in the history of the world.

If the deaths of Steve McNair and Grant Solomon are not investigated properly, is any celebrity, ordinary person, child, or visitor safe in Music City? Even worse, if Tennessee elected public servants and corporate owned news organizations protect and cover-up police-district attorney wrong-doing, murders, child sex abuse, and other criminal activity, has President Abraham Lincoln's vision of the U.S. Constitution and self-government "of the people, by the people, and for the people" dismally failed?

We the people are the rightful masters of both Congress and the Courts, not to overthrow the Constitution but to overthrow the men who would pervert the Constitution.

Tennessee # 1 - Most Corrupt State

The Daily Beast just named Tennessee as the most corrupt state in the US. The ranking is based on public corruption, racketeering and extortions, fraud, forgery and counterfeiting and embezzlement.

Many Billionaires, American based corporations, and new world government leaders believe President Lincoln, the U. S. Much has happened to America since the 9/11 surprise attack in 2001, but a "crushed bug" still believes that most Americans do not support "private" child sex abuse protected by billionaires, law enforcement, and elected public servants. Question: Do you remember Steve McNair, Faith Hill, Super Bowl XXXIV, and the Bush vs. Gore Presidential Election in 2000? Aaron Solomon was a sports reporter with WSMV TV, but Grant and Gracie Solomon were not yet born. A child sex abuse cover-up connected to the Ukraine and future Presidential politics also began in 2000.

After St. Louis Rams Quarterback, Kurt Warner, spoke at the St. Louis - Billy Graham crusade in Oct 1999, the John Perry - child sex abuse cover-up began in 2000 during the same year that John Perry's "Victim #1" was in CPA's 3rd grade with Gov. Bill Lee's twin boys and 3rd grade teacher, Maria DiNenna. John Perry was the prominent Christian ghostwriter who was chosen to write the future biography about Rev. Billy Graham entitled: Through My Father's Eyes. The John Perry - child sex abuse cover-up scandal now has numerous connections to the alleged Gracie Solomon child sex abuse case, and the alleged murder – cover-up case of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, which allegedly involved former WSMV TV news anchor, Aaron Solomon. John Perry and Aaron Solomon have both been accused of child sex abuse across state lines, but Gov. Bill Lee, the Tennessee Supreme Court, Tennessee Law Enforcement and Tennessee prosecutors have given both men a free pass.

Attorney Larry Crain filed a $3-million lawsuit on behalf of protected child-molester John Perry following the publication of Through My Father's Eyes.

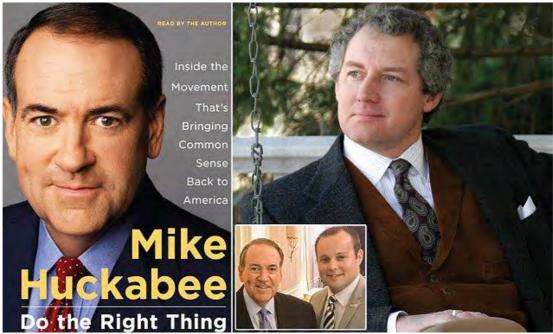

Protected child-molester John Perry co-wrote books with Gov. Mike Huckabee and Rev. Franklin Graham. The child sex abuse cover-up began in 2000.

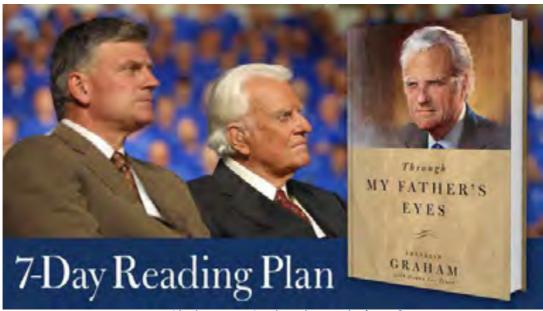

Aaron Solomon – Ex-WSMV TV News Anchor, Accused of murdering his 18-year old son in 2020 to cover-up alleged child sex abuse.

Child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, provided the Tennessee Supreme Court with rock-solid sworn testimony about child-molester, John Perry, and his "safe house" used for other vulnerable children. However, the Tennessee Supreme Court and Attorney Larry Crain are still protecting John Perry and his child sex abuse across state lines in violation of the Federal Mann Act (no statute of limitations). Attorney Larry Crain represents prominent Christian biographer, John Perry, and he also represents Grace Chapel Church where Grant Solomon's "Celebration of Life Service" was held on July 25, 2020. The St. Louis Rams led the Tennessee Titans 16-0 in the third quarter. Tennessee Titans running back, Eddie George, scored two "come-from-behind" touchdowns and Al Del Greco kicked a 43-yard field goal to tie the game up 16-16. St. Louis Rams quarterback Kurt Warner responded with a 73-yard touchdown pass to Issac Bruce with 1:54 left in the game to put the St.Louis Rams back on top 23-16. With less than 1:54 remaining, Tennessee Titans quarterback Steve McNair led the Titans on a "never-qive-up" final drive which ended with a pass completion on the last play of the game to wide receiver Kevin Dyson. GRAND JURY FINAL REPORT

APRIL-JUNE TERM 2010

Submitted to
Honorable Judge Mark Fishburn
Criminal Court Division VI

Davidson County, Tennessee

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY APRIL 2010 TERM

RIGGED?

GRAND JURY FINAL REPORT

WE, the Davidson County Grand Jurors for the April 2010 term, submit the following report in a summary of the last three months we have served. It has been an honor to serve under the auspices of the Honorable Mark Fishburn. We, as a Grand Jury, believe that through the process, we have gained insight into the structure of our judicial system, and have gained an increased respect for all those who work hard to make it flow smoothly.

In accordance with Tennessee Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Grand Jury deliberated upon 978 cases over the past three months. We presented the court with 885 True Bills, 3 No True Bills, 90 Sealed True Bills, and 0 Sealed No True Bills. We also had the opportunity to create panels that heard two closed cases concerning John J. Hooker and Steve McNair.

John J. Hooker: Mr. John J. Hooker requested an opportunity to present his case concerning his belief in the criminal intent of the state Supreme Court judges. The committee discussed the issues raised and did not find enough evidence of criminal activity to present the case to the entire Grand Jury. The panel appreciated Mr. Hooker's concerns about the impact of actions on the Tennessee Constitution, but decided that that was not a matter for the Grand Jury to consider.

Steve McNair: The Grand Jury was asked to hear information to reopen the Steve McNair case. Mr. Hill wanted to present this information, though he declined to ask for an indictment. He shared with the committee his views of the case but lacked evidence to support his views. Questions raised by Mr. Hill were cleared by evidence gathered by the Metro Police Department. The panel felt that this was a case that should not be heard by the other members of the Grand Jury.

Serving under the esteemed leadership of Grand Jury Foreman Mr. Richard Hillenbrand was a wonderful opportunity for us all. His detailed understanding of the law and the way he communicated or explained cases to the rest of the Jury was very helpful. We feel that his vast knowledge of the law and of law enforcement was very useful to us all. He did an excellent job of keeping us on task while still giving us ample time for questions and comments.

We, the Grand Jury, would like to thank the following individuals for taking the time out of their busy schedules to provide us with information that helped us better perform our judicial duties:

Metro Police Department Liaison Gene Donegan: Gene was wonderful at presenting cases to the Jury because he was clear and concise. The way he

McNair case won't be reopened

Jun 17, 2010

Elizabeth Merrill ESPN Senior Writer

A former Nashville police officer's request to have the Steve McNair case reopened has been denied.

Vincent Hill told ESPN.com on Thursday night that he received word from a three-member Davidson County grand jury panel that there was insufficient proof to move forward and present his 32-page complaint to a full grand jury.

Hill, who spent 4½ years on the Nashville force and resigned in 2006, has disputed the police's ruling that McNair, the former Tennessee Titans quarterback was murdered by Sahel Kazemi, who then turned the gun on herself. Hill self-published a book called "Playbook to a Murder" and has spent the past 11 months conducting interviews and trying to debunk police findings that Kazemi murdered McNair in a downtown Nashville condo in the early morning hours of July 4, 2009.

On June 11, the panel heard a 30-minute presentation from Hill on what he described as "multiple errors" in the police investigation. The former Metro Nashville traffic police officer says he was informed of the grand jury's decision Thursday in a letter from foreman Richard Hillenbrand.

Reached Thursday night, Hillenbrand said he couldn't comment on any decisions because the report is sealed.

"Win, lose or draw, it's historic to just get it at that stage," Hill said. "Obviously, they thought there was something worth hearing just to even listen to the case.

"I would say that it's not over at this point."

Davidson County District Attorney Torry Johnson said in a news release that theories relating to the McNair investigation are not backed up by facts.

Elizabeth Merrill writes for ESPN.com. The Associated Press contributed to this report.

McNair case not reopened

A Davidson County grand jury said there isn't enough evidence to reopen a murdersuicide case involving former Titans quarterback Steve McNair. A former Metro police officer disputed findings in the case before a grand jury panel, but police stood behind their conclusion that McNair's mistress shot him July 4 and then killed herself.

Dominion Kicked out of Tennessee County; Critical Election Problems Remain in Williamson County that Election Officials Refuse to Address

by - March 3, 2022 - Excerpt

Post by Tennessee Voters for Election Integrity –

On the heels of the approval from the Tennessee Secretary of State, the Williamson County (Tennessee) Election Commission kicked Dominion Voting Systems out of the county on February 16, 2022 (see attached letter from Secretary of State at the end of this post) and will now be moving to ES&S voting machines.

But a citizen election integrity group -

Tennessee Voters for Election Integrity – affirms after a year of research and numerous presentations to various commissions, government officials, and legislators, a number of underlying election process issues, chain-of-custody issues, inspection issues, and election documentation issues still remain and election officials and legislators are cavalierly ignoring them, threatening the integrity and trustworthiness of future Williamson County elections.

With new machinery coming for a new election that starts with early voting in two months, the fear is the documented problems will be buried and ignored... hidden by ES&S' equipment and a continual snub of the group's research and continuous efforts to work with election officials to resolve the issues.

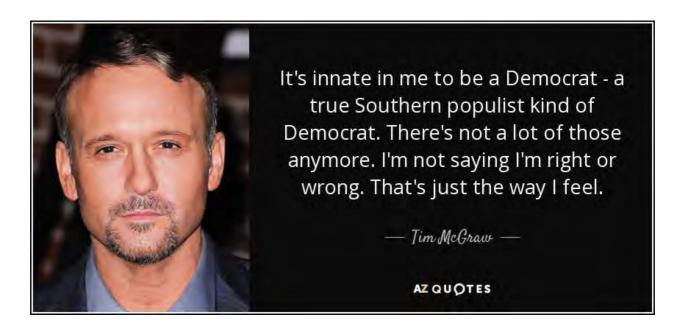

Williamson County (Tennessee) election integrity citizens group have come forward with confirmations of serious issues from the October 26, 2021, and November 3, 2020 elections in Williamson County. These are being ignored by the Williamson County Election Commission and state election officials despite multiple efforts by the group to talk with them about the concerns.

This occurs as the Williamson County Election Commission (WCEC) recently approved removing Dominion voting systems equipment from all Williamson County election locations and amid citizens' worries the remaining issues will now be swept aside.

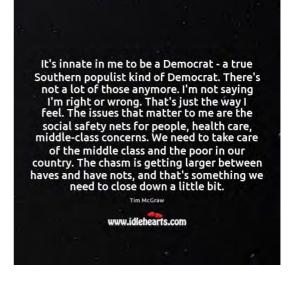

Early voting in the May 2022 election in Williamson County starts April 13, 2022.

"Removing Dominion was a good first step, however, there are a number of additional issues we have found in both of these recent elections that we've been trying for over a year to get government and commission officials to address, but to no avail," said Frank Limpus, founder of Tennessee Voters for Election Integrity.

Faith Hill and Tim McGraw are proud Tennessee Democrats. Do Faith Hill and Tim McGraw support rigged elections, rigged grand juries, and rigged trial juries? Do Faith Hill and Tim McGraw support Democrats and Republicans working together to protect child-molester John Perry, former GOP Presidential Candidate Mike Huckabee, the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year old Gracie Solomon, and the alleged murder of 18-year old Grant Solomon?

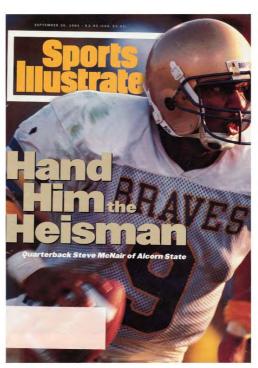

Faith Hill was raised in Star, Mississippi. Steve McNair is buried in Prentiss, Mississippi, about 40 miles from Star, Mississippi. How will Ensworth mother, Faith Hill, respond when she learns that Nashville Police, Mayor John Cooper, the Nashville Community Oversight Board, the Nashville Metro Council, and all three branches of Tennessee State government have ignored information about Steve McNair's secret "rigged" grand jury?

Do you remember Faith Hill singing the National Anthem prior to Super Bowl XXXIV? Faith Hill, a future Ensworth mother, sang the National Anthem about 20 months prior to the 9/11 attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon? Twenty-one years have passed since the 9/11 attacks, and twelve years have passed since the murder of Tennessee Titans quarterback, Steve McNair. To restore confidence that Tennessee elected public servants still operate in lawful submission to the Tennessee Constitution, maybe Tennessee elected public servants such as Mayor John Cooper and Gov. Bill Lee will allow Faith Hill, or Tim McGraw, or Grant's Army, to read Steve McNair's secret "sealed" grand jury report, and to review undisclosed murder scene photographs?

Dear Austin:

BH:jh

Thank you for writing to me regarding your daughter, Daisy Davis. I was saddened to read your story, and appreciate you sharing this information.

After consideration and review, I believe that your best course of action is to seek legal advice regarding this matter. An attorney of your choice is in the best position to advise you of your options. Unfortunately, this office cannot advise you from a legal standpoint.

I am also forwarding you letter to Commissioner O'Day's office at the Department of Children's Services for further review and consideration.

I genuinely hope that an appropriate resolution is found soon. Please accept my best wishes.

Warmest regards,

Austin Davis 615-999-8190 On Feb 10, 2019, Washington Post Reporter Bob Woodward was interviewed at the Tennessee War Memorial Auditorium by former WSMV TV news anchor, Demetria Kalodimos. Maybe Rivers Rutherford and Robert Redford will inform Bob Woodward that Austin Davis is not a mentally ill potential "Sandy Hook" mass shooter threat, and that he never "stalked" Demetria Kalodimos anywhere, including Dan Smith's "Granny White" market, also known as the "Purple Cow."

Dan Smith's market was closed by Reese Smith III. Dan's Market was one of the FEW places where love and kindness were genuinely extended to the Davis children, and to other children in the neighborhood. Reese Smith III is a member of the Grace Chapel Financial Board, and a founder-board member of Pinnacle Financial Partners. Grace Chapel Attorney Larry Crain threatened Medium writer, Shannon Ashley, with a "cease and desist" letter for writing a blog article about Gracie Solomon's child sex abuse and murder allegations. Attorney Larry Crain also filed a Federal lawsuit on behalf of child-molester, John Perry.

Rivers Rutherford, Demetria Kalodimos, and Austin Davis all supported Dan's "Purple Cow" Market. During the rigged criminal trial of Austin Davis, Asst. DA Jenny Charles told a contaminated jury that popular WSMV TV news anchor, Demetria Kalodimos, was scared of Austin Davis. Demetria Kalodimos did not attend the trial, testify, or provide a sworn statement to the jury or the court, but Judge Steve Dozier allowed the contaminated jury to hear the malicious defamation and slander by DA Funk's office.

Demetria Kalodimos and WSMV TV were provided tape recordings and other documents proving the John Perry child sex abuse was a true crime. However, Demetria Kalodimos and WSMV TV obstructed justice to betray a fact-based news source in similar fashion as Ben Smith, Andrew Kaczynski and BuzzFeed. In this writer's opinion, WSMV TV obstructed justice endangering children, which include former WSMV TV news anchor Aaron Solomon's children, Gracie and Grant Solomon.

Demetria,

I have another tape that no one else knows about but Duncan. I do not enjoy taping people but I've had a friend or two forget some things or change their minds after pressure meetings with Covenant Leaders. I am protecting a witness who was very brave and truthful to speak with me and I would like to continue to protect redacted as best that I can. All of these type decisions can be an ethical mine-field at times especially as insurance companies / attorneys contact Duncan while contrarian opinions caution me that opening up to the media will adversely affect me and my family. I am doing the best that I can to be open with the truth while Covenant has only demanded my acquiesence and silence. If you wish to hear the 2nd tape, I am available.

Best, Austin

Former Covenant Deacon, J.W. Clarke, was the father of a kindergarten child at Christ Presbyterian Academy in 2000, three grades behind Gov. Two months after protected child-molester John Perry traveled to PCS in Arizona for "sex addiction" treatment, Nashville Police threatened and silenced former Covenant Deacon, Austin Davis, on July 2, 2008. Titans To Hold Tribute For Steve McNair At LP Field

■ by Nick Bishop - 12 years ago

So, the Titans have just released their own plans for a McNair memorial that will be held this Wednesday and Thursday at LP Field. We told you about this one yesterday, but the Titans will be putting on one of their own, featuring a giant "photo mural" of #9 outside the stadium and video highlights on loop on the JumboTron. Should be pretty neat, but I hope they have more in store for the season.

Via The Tennessean's website:

The Titans will open LP Field on Wednesday and Thursday to give fans an opportunity to pay their respects to quarterback Steve McNair at the place where he made such an impression.

A large photo mural of McNair has put up outside Gate One at LP Field, and a floral display is also up honoring McNair, who was shot four times and killed over the weekend.

From 9 a.m.-7 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday, fans will be able to watch a rolling video of McNair highlights on the video boards at the stadium.

Fans will be able to sign a book that will eventually be presented to the McNair family, and also make a donation to the Steve McNair Foundation at the ticket office. Titans owner Bud Adams thought a tribute would be a nice way to honor McNair, who played from 1995-2005 with the Titans.

"It is going to be a great way for fans to honor a great player who had so many fond memories in that venue," sad Don MacLachlan, EVP of Administration and Facilities. "Fans can rehash memories of Steve. It's something Mr. Adams wanted to do to give back after all his great memories of Steve."

Admission and parking will be free. Fans can park in Lot C at LP Field.

WSMV TV sports reporter, Aaron Solomon, reported on the murder of Tennessee Titans quarterback, Steve McNair. However, WSMV TV has not reported on Covenant Elder and LP CEO Brad Southern, protected child-molester John Perry, alleged child-molester Aaron Solomon, or Steve McNair's rigged secret grand jury.

Subject: Many, Many Thanks for Your Kindness!!!

Dear Ms. Klocko:

Thank you for your kindness to Daisy. From the moment Daisy walked on campus, she wanted to be trained on the stage. Daisy has lost much personal confidence since that first day but your love and encouragement to her has been a "light" to her soul on many dark days.

I'm not certain how to advise Daisy on how to manage the snobby "put downs" of redacted (and others) but maybe you can give her some practical advice since you have much experience with Harpeth Hall girls.

Daisy wishes to be an "actress."

Please let me know if this is a realistic goal.

I am thrilled to finally have Daisy in my class. I have been looking forward to having her in my class ever since she was bold enough to march into my office as a 5 th grader and announce that one day SHE would be in my shows!! Daisy is a good actress which of course landed her a leading role in our current production. I cannot wait to see the work she has done with our guest director. Daisy did a fabulous job on her classical monologue and I know she worked hard so that would get her into the Shakespearean show. However, her written work needs to be more thoughtful and prepared. I feel like she has no interest in written work so she does not spend the time she needs to in order to come up with either a well thought out paper or to read material thoroughly to have a strong understanding of the material. Daisy should focus on that aspect of our theatre class as well as the performing aspect. She is a delightful human being, a wonderful actress and she has the potential to do well on her written work as well. I am looking forward to the next three and a half years with Daisy (finally) in the Theatre Department!

We will begin immediately interviewing teachers for the remainder of the school year. As soon as the long-term substitute is finalized, I will notify you. Subject: RE: Daisy Davis

Dave:

Thanks for the update. Daisy has really struggled with some bully classmates for years and some of the girls have been instructing her lately not to ask so many questions in class (not sure which classes are involved). Daisy has been systematically made to feel "dumb and stupid" over an extended period of time which I don't believe is an accurate assessment of Daisy's overall intelligence.

However, if your peers are repeatedly cruel to you and call you dumb/stupid much of time, the image takes root especially during your adolescent formative years. Daisy did poorly on an English presentation a few weeks ago because she didn't have the confidence to get up in the class in front of the other girls. She has always been strong in theater but she recently said she wanted to drop out of the class because of the way some of the girls treated her. Daisy loves your class, speaks of it often, and almost seems to seek safe harbor with the "men teachers" to protect her from the girls.

If you have any suggestions for her on how to interact with the more aggressive bullies, please feel free to give her advice. I had to deal with it as a boy (as all boys do), but it was handled in a physical manner and even if you got whipped by a larger boy, you could often earn his respect if you did not back down. Daisy got off to a good start at the beginning of the year (except in Geometry) and I just don't want her to withdraw and end up failing out of Harpeth Hall because she is scared of being picked on in the hallways or out on the track when teachers may not see what the other kids are doing to her on the sly. Daisy's ostracizing by classmates has been going on for many years which is why she is probably so insecure and apologetic for almost everything that she does. After six years of being teased, picked on and alienated from classmates, I don't expect Daisy to ever have a true friend at HH except for Jamie Dubois. I do hope the girls will at least let her try to become a student and not destroy her desire "to learn" by shutting down her questions when Daisy is in class. If she is being silly and asking foolish questions in class, please let me know.

Best,

Austin

Dear Mrs. Carell:

I wish to thank you for caring about Daisy and for providing Harpeth Hall a beautiful school library that Daisy loved.

Daisy loves the study of words and she has been personally exposed to many great writers including Alice McDermott, Barry Hannah, and Shelby Foote. When Daisy was in first grade she interviewed Barry for a school project and Barry said it was the most unique set of questions he had ever been asked in an interview.

I am also grateful to your family for providing the children's hospital which saved Daisy from losing a finger a few years ago during the week of Christmas:

My family has endured some unimaginable adversity during the past few years but we do have many blessings to be thankful for and I wanted to express my thanks to you and your family for the many wonderful blessings you have provided to the city of Nashville which have personally benefited my family.

In recent weeks, Daisy has finally received some genuine love from some of her ex-classmates and one young lady even took Daisy to lunch to apologize for years of thoughtless mistreatment.

It has been good for Daisy's soul to receive kindness from some of the girls and she is regaining confidence on a daily basis. A few days ago, she even summoned the courage to audition for a joint MBA/Harpeth Hall play and we were very pleased when she was awarded a speaking role by the MBA director.

Catherine and I still hold firm to our belief that Harpeth Hall is a very blessed community of diverse people and we are very saddened that Daisy will not be with her class during her junior year.

I know that my "speaking out" is very unpopular/ impolite in social circles but I do have some very strong feelings about "schoolyard bullying" since I had to reach for my own unnatural courage when I faced a few bullies myself during my time as boy growing up in Nashville.

In closing, I pray that God will bless Harpeth Hall with a true "honor code" like the one that transformed my character at Memphis University School under the leadership of Col. Ross Lynn.

I also pray that the spirit of "Merry Christmas" will return to the original home of the Christian women's seminary, Ward-Belmont, as a blessing for future generations of girls.

God Bless,

Do Reese Witherspoon and Amy Grant support Steve McNair's rigged grand jury, the alleged child sex abuse of Gracie Solomon, the alleged murder of Gracie's brother, Grant Solomon, and the malicious abuse of a former Harpeth Hall student to protect the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up still on-going within the The Harpeth Hall School and MBA community?

Nashville Police have intentionally deceived the MBA – Harpeth Hall – Ensworth – Covenant communities. Nashville Police misused trusting citizens to "gaslight" the Davis family to protect the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up. Many messages have been sent to the Davis family, including a few excerpts below.

"You are going against the powers, the big boys, the old guard here in Nashville, big law firms... wow, I mean, you are getting crushed like a bug... and I feel for you... simply because all you say rings true to me."

"You aim to defame upstanding institutions, professionals, and fine young women with your venom and desire for money and revenge."

"The Davis's are absolutely crazy and should be ashamed of what they are putting their daughter through...They ought to be embarrassed."

"You have violated my church and my privacy. You are being used by your mentally ill father. He needs help. I have doctors names and counselors names when you're ready for them."

"I am aware of your lies. If you contact me again I'll consider it harassment against me and I WILL CALL THE POLICE. I will also consider suing you for harassment. You are mentally ill. GET HELP!

"I've had enough of your harassment. Try to find something meaningful that will benefit others rather than feed your obsession."

"So sorry to hear that you received an unwanted email about our church. The sender is a former disgruntled member, Austin Davis, who (we think) is suffering from mental illness."

"I do not know what's going on nor do I care."

"Take me off your list. I consider your emails harassment."

"Please take me off this list, I have no time for such nonsense. The act of sending out such unreasonable rubbish is indicative of its lack of credibility and the self evident malicious spirit behind it does not lead me to give it any serious consideration. Please stop sending it out."

"Those churches are all about big business, making money, benefiting from the sheep who contribute to them, and they will go to any lengths to protect their turf, income, special deals, trips to  China and every other abuse they can get away with."

Sept 28, 2017: Judge Steve Dozier made a revealing statement during the rigged sentencing hearing for Austin Davis: "And I say all of this because the state talks about fixation or you being consumed with this John Perry and Christ Presbyterian Church, you have been but we are going to leave here today and it's going to be over with but for you defending yourself in the lawsuit of the alleged child sex abuse victim apparently."

John Perry, a Covenant Presbyterian church deacon, was paid for his "Franklin Graham - Billy Graham" manuscript and then dismissed from the book project during the summer of 2007, around the same time that CHARACTER MAKES A DIFFERENCE-- written by Ark Gov. In 2006, Covenant Deacon Austin Davis considered the possibility that an undetected child-molester was a secret threat to children within the Covenant community, but he did not know that Covenant Deacon John Perry was a child-molester until 2012, four years after Covenant Presbyterian Church Leadership and Nashville Police silenced him in 2008.

In July 2006, Austin Davis resigned from Covenant Leadership after he requested a congregational meeting to discuss the safety of children Covenant Leadership placed in John Perry's "safe house." Austin Davis wrote in his July 2006 resignation letter: "Question: Would a molester or child abuser be a concern and a reason to call such a meeting?" Covenant Leadership denied the request for a congregational meeting and is still protecting child-molester John Perry in January 2022.

27 July 2006 5895 Willshire Dr. Nashville, TN 37215

Reverend Richard Schwartz Christ Presbyterian Church of Clarksville 1230 Rossview Road Clarksville, TN 37043

Dear Reverend Schwartz:

I write this to inform you that I am dissolving my family's 15-year membership with Covenant Presbyterian Church.

I take this course of action for the following reasons:

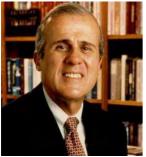

1) The Session of Covenant Presbyterian Church began a pre-emptive effort to destroy my truthful Christian testimony with a "false accusation" letter the Clerk of Session sent to me "undated" which I received on June 15 (postmarked June 12). The Clerk of Session's "false accusation" letter was mailed to me after I patiently followed BCO process and petitioned the Nashville Presbytery on June 9th to review the evidential material I forwarded to Mr. Jack Watkins (Stated Clerk of the Nashville Presbytery). It is my understanding based upon my phone call with you on July 19th that you have received the 50+ pages of evidential material that I sent Mr. Watkins more than a month ago. It is also my understanding that you have not received the recorded two-hour (CD) interrogation of me by the Investigative Committee comprised of Ed Jernigan, Tom Pulliam and Jim Spann. This recorded (CD) interrogation was sent to Mr. Watkins and Mr. L. Roy Taylor (Stated Clerk of the General Assembly).

Question: Would a molester or child abuser be a concern and a reason to call such a meeting?

- 9) In this particular case, something of far greater value than $5 million dollars has been stolen from a church member and no one is concerned at all or wishes to be bothered by the details of the wrongdoing which have affected very SMALL CHILDREN who remain in the Covenant of God.
- 10) The final straw for me was the stoning I took on July 24th after trying to inform the diaconate and women leadership of the church on matters of concern regarding the safety and welfare of FOUR SMALL COVENANT CHILDREN.

Covenant Leaders Sam Moore, Jake Wallace, Jack Wallace, Ed Jernigan, Brad Southern, Federal Judge John Bryant, Charles Irby, Bryce Sullivan, Roe Frazer, David Dunham, and protected child-molester John Perry, are all very powerful people with very powerful connections, but all of them put together with all of the power in the whole world, are no match for Almighty God.

The next day, June 1, 2007, John Perry and GOP Presidential Candidate Mike Huckabee published "Character Makes a Difference." Around the same time, during the summer of 2007, John Perry's child sex abuse Victim #1 stepped forward to inform J Hager and Covenant Leadership of John Perry's repeated child sex abuse. Also during the summer of 2007, Thomas Nelson Publishing removed John Perry from the Rev. Billy Graham book project. No report was ever made to Nashville Police or DCS. Thomas Nelson Selects Ingram Digital's Content

La Vergne, TN, June 01, 2008 --(PR.com)-- Ingram Digital, an Ingram Content company, announced today that Thomas Nelson, the world's largest Christian publisher and 6th largest trade publisher, has signed a multi-year contract for the CoreSource digital content platform and Ingram Digital's Search and Discover services.

"After an exhaustive review of our options, we concluded that Ingram Digital was most closely aligned to the digital and print needs of Thomas Nelson," stated Michael S. Hyatt, President & CEO of Thomas Nelson. "Ingram Digital's platform will improve our internal operations, strengthen the viral marketing campaigns of our retail partners and help us realize our 'long tail' opportunities with print-on-demand and the consumer's growing acceptance of e-books."

Seven days after the Thomas Nelson Publishing - Ingram Digital business deal was announced, on or about June 8, 2008, Dr. Jim Fleming secretly disinherited his daughter, Catherine Fleming Davis, and her children (his grandchildren). The draconian action was taken about three weeks before Covenant Leadership and Nashville Police silenced the Davis family during the John Perry - Mann Act Federal crime cover-up. Dr. Fleming attended Vanderbilt University with Covenant Elder Jake Wallace, and he was also friends with other Covenant Leaders and church members, including Pastor Jim Bachmann, Dr. Dewey Thomas, Dr. Mike Bishop, Dr. Howard Salyer, and former metro councilman, Charlie Fentress. Dr. Fleming was a long-time friend of Father Charles Strobel. Dr. Fleming also served as Board President of "Room in the Inn" until he passed away in Aug 2012. interview: james fleming

What was Nancy Gore like when you came to know her at Vanderbilt?

Nancy was not in a sorority. And it was unique that Nancy had strong enough character and strong enough personality to not conform to the standard Vanderbilt ways expected of a co-ed in those times. Nancy was her own person. A delightful individual. So Nancy went through rush, and I'm not sure what happened, but she didn't get the bid she wanted. So she didn't pledge a sorority. And what was unique about Nancy is this. She had the character and conviction enough to stay in school; whereas back in those days, if a Vanderbilt girl did not get in a sorority, most of them left school. The vast majority of them left school. So there were very few independent women at that time. But Nancy Gore was one of them.

But she still managed to connect with her classmates...

Yes she did. She thought enough of herself, and she was able to absorb those blows, that she was able to go elsewhere for her social connections, if you will, in this community. And I think Nancy connected much easier with men, and men interested in government, law, politics, as I see now; than it was to connect with women. So she had relationships with women who were roommates, and some of the peers of hers; but she didn't pal around with a lot of women, if you will. But she palled around with a number of men, on an equal basis, not as a romance...

Fleming attended Vanderbilt University in the mid-1950s with Nancy Gore, and he and his wife remained close friends with Nancy until her death. He paints an affecting portrait of Nancy Gore, as well as Albert Gore Sr. and Pauline Gore. He shares his impressions of the families' inner workings, and speaks about the relationship between Albert Gore Sr. and Al Gore Jr.

Nancy did her own thing...I think that Nancy had very definite ideas of who she was and who she wanted to be friends with, and who she didn't want to be friends with, conversely. So she chose some really neat people to be friends with. I don't remember her bringing home a single loser in any type.

She was friends with interesting people?

They were interesting people, that's right. They were not fake. They were not social-minded, if you will. They were real folks who had very definite opinions about government and politics.

On June 29, 2008, Covenant Attorney Worrick Robinson and a secret armed assault unit unlawfully blocked Catherine Fleming Davis, Austin Davis, and their children, at the front entrance of an open, public Sunday church service at Covenant Presbyterian Church. This unlawful Federal child sex abuse cover-up crime was boldly committed in broad daylight to protect child-molester John Perry, the 2008 Covenant Diaconate Board Chairman. Thirteen years later, on Jan 11, 2021, Austin Davis personally spoke for the first time "face-to-face" with Covenant Associate Pastor Ryan Anderson about the unlawful banning at Covenant Presbyterian Church. Pastor Ryan Anderson responded: "I don't know much about that." For the public record, the effort to protect John Perry's Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, and the global legacy of Rev. Billy Graham, continues during the Easter season of April 2022 at Covenant Presbyterian Church under the new leadership of Pastor Chad Scruggs and Associate Pastor Ryan Anderson. Question: Has newly hired Executive Pastor Patrick Curles been informed of the John Perry - Mann Act Federal crime cover-up which is now connected to Aaron Solomon's alleged Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, and the alleged murder/coverup of 18-year-old Grant Solomon?

Ex-Cov Pastor Jim Bachmann

Atty Worrick Robinson

July 2, 2008: Covenant Leadership falsely reported former Ensworth Coach and Covenant Deacon, Austin Davis, to Nashville Police as a possible "security" threat in retaliation for Austin Davis asking too many questions about the welfare of small children placed in John Perry's "safe house." To protect child-molester John Perry and his "safe house," Austin Davis was compared to the mass shooter at Virginia Tech who killed 32 people, to the mass shooter at Sandy Hook who killed 27 victims (including 20 elementary school children), and to the Knoxville church shooter who killed 2 victims.

On July 2, 2008, Jim Bachmann falsely reported Austin Davis to Nashville Police as a "harassment" suspect to protect the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up. Covenant Attorney Worrick Robinson also provided an untrue "trespass" statement to Nashville Police. Two years later on July 8, 2010, Jim Bachmann deceived Nancy Fleming with an untrue statement: "I did not send the police to Austin's home. You should know that I don't have the power to do that. My name may appear on a police report somewhere but that is only by virtue of my position as senior pastor." See excerpts below from two police reports and Jim Bachmann's email to Nancy Fleming, mother-in-law of Austin Davis.

Nancy,

- 1. Idid not send the police to Austin's home. You should know that I don't have the power to do that. My name may appear on a police report somewhere but that is only by virtue of my position as senior pastor. The police probably went to Austin's home because he defied the trespassing notice we issued several days before. Their purpose was probably to diffuse what they regarded as a potentially volatile situation.
- 2. I do not approve of Daisy or anyone else being bullied. I have never, nor will ever, authorize, encourage, or approve of anything like that. I meant it when I said she was/is welcome at church. So are you. So is Catherine. I did not instruct the security personnel to follow Daisy. I had no conversations with them.

On July 6, 2008, Covenant Leadership and Nashville Police intentionally abused and endangered 13-year old Harpeth Hall student, Daisy Davis, to protect the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up.

Covenant Leaders, armed security, and Nashville Police humiliated a girl to protect a child-molester.

July 6, 2008: Covenant Youth Leader, Betsie Carlson, invited 13-year old, Daisy Davis, back to Covenant Presbyterian Church with the approval of Pastor Jim Bachmann. This invitation clearly demonstrated that Austin Davis did not commit "trespass" and was welcome to Covenant Presbyterian Church since an invitation to a minor is also an invitation to the minor's parent or guardian. Upon the return of Daisy Davis to Covenant Presbyterian Church's youth group, the Covenant armed security unit shadowed and harassed the invited minor visitor the entire time she was on the Covenant Church property. Nine years later on Sept 12, 2017, Daisy Davis provided sworn testimony at the rigged trial of Austin Davis before contaminated trial juror #5, Andrew McDonald, and "pretend" fair Judge Steve Dozier.

Child-molester John Perry quietly resigned in exchange for the "child sex abuse cover-up protection deal," while Austin Davis was defamed and falsely criminalized as a potential mentally ill "security" threat to Covenant members.

Feb 6, 2009: Nancy Fleming expressed her concerns to Covenant deacon, Jay Hollis, about the unwarranted use of Nashville Police against the family of Austin Davis. Nancy Fleming sent a copy of her letter to other Covenant deacons, including John Perry. When Nancy Fleming wrote her letter to Jay Hollis, she did not know that John Perry was a resigned deacon, or a protected child-molester within the ranks of Covenant Leadership.

February 06, 2009

Dear Jay:

After the harsh reinstatement meeting of March 26, 2008, I was very surprised to receive your lanuary 2009 stewardship letter which was sent to me a few days ago.

As a Christian grandmother, I do agree with your sentiments in the letter that the church should nourish the children of the community in our Christian faith.

I am also in agreement with your concerns about the "example modern Christian culture is setting for the youth among us" today.

As a deacon responsible for the money given to the church by Covenant members and visitors from the surrounding community, I do hope that you are completely unaware that bodyguards (apparently armed) followed and closely monitored the movements of my 13 year old granddaughter on July 6, 2008.

My granddaughter attended Sunday School on that day at the invitation of a youth minister with the approval of Pastor Jim Bachmann. (I personally witnessed the bodyguards shadowing my granddaughter on church property.)

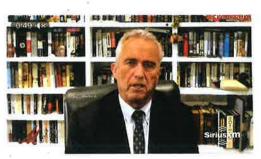

I also hope that you are ignorant of the fact that church member, Mr. Worrick Robinson, accompanied by several bodyguards, denied my granddaughter and her family entry into the church on the previous Sunday.

At first Mr. Robinson did not want to let any of my family in, but my son-in-law contested the action being taken against his family and my daughter and both her young children were eventually allowed to pass through the front doors.

After my son-in-law was denied entrance, Mr. Robinson informed my son-in-law that he would be arrested if he were ever to set foot on church property again or ever initiated contact with any member of Covenant Presbyterian Church again.

Jay, it is simply stunning what Pastor Jim Bachmann, other pastors and elders in leadership at Covenant did to my granddaughter's family this past summer.

Do you support Pastor Jim Bachmann and the leadership of Covenant who would take such an action in the United States of America during the week before the Fourth of July when we, as Americans, celebrate the freedom of speech and the freedom to worship?

Disturbing: Over Two-Thirds of Democrats are in Favor of Government Restrictions on Speech

RFK Jr: "It's very strange. We're living in this world where it's become okay [to silence people]."

Robert F. Kennedy, Jr.

As if the outrage of using unwarranted bodyguards was not enough of a disgraceful act, a police report now reveals that three days after this event, Pastor lim Bachmann initiated the dispatch of two metro detectives to interrogate my daughter and son-in-law at their private residence on July 2, 2008.

I am not an attorney but I do have some knowledge of Acts 21-22 and this would seem to be a very unwise and reckless use of civil authority by church authorities against a family of Christian believers.

The state does make it a crime for a person or an institution to file a false report with the police against an innocent American citizen.

Jay, I do not know if you personally approve of this type of Christian example being set for young children where Christians gather to worship, but I as a former member of Covenant do not believe that this type of bizarre and irresponsible conduct by pastors and elders is pleasing to our Heavenly Father.

I hope that you are indeed unaware of these facts and I pray that that God will give you clear eyes, a pure heart and the courage to be good stewards of God's grace and love -- not just of money.

This is a serious responsibility that should not to be taken lightly.

I challenge you and your fellow deacons to be better role models than those set for you and to be a godly example for the children of our next generation.

I will be praying for you all and for the trusting congregation you have been called by the Lord to faithfully serve.

Sincerely,

Nancy Fleming

Feb 12, 2009: Protected child-molester, John Perry, responded to Nancy Fleming's letter six days later. John Perry projected a deceptive image that he was not "currently serving on the diaconate," when in fact John Perry had secretly resigned from the Covenant Diaconate about seven months earlier on July 14, 2008. John Perry also responded that he knew "nothing whatever about reinstatement meetings or armed guards." However, John Perry did not respond to Nancy's gravest concern about two Nashville Police detectives who "interrogated" the Davis family on July 2, 2008. John Perry certainly knew that he was a protected childmolester when he responded to Nancy Fleming's letter, and it seems logical that John Perry knew about, and supported, the aggressive actions of the Nashville Police Department which served to personally protect him, and his "safe house."

Two years later, on June 6, 2010, Covenant Leadership broke the "John Perry child sex abuse cover-up deal" after Austin Davis sent Covenant Elder, Jody Elder, a letter with the following question: "If you did discover that such a serious action taken against my family was not legal and legitimate, do you understand the Federal ramifications of such an action involving a minor child, especially a 13-year-old girl?" (Note: Austin Davis was referring to the harassment and intimidation of his 13-year old daughter by an assault unit in June and July of 2008. Austin Davis did not discover John Perry's child sex abuse until 2012. See church court judgment against John Perry on June 6, 2010, provided below.)

CONGREGATION MEETING MINUTES

Excerpt

Covenant Presbyterian Church 33 Burton Hills Boulevard Nashville, Tennessee 37215

2010

A called meeting of the congregation was held Sunday, June 6, 2010, 9:30 A.M at the church to announce a disciplinary action taken by the Session.

Moderator: Pastor Jim Bachmann

Elder John Avery

It is my charge this morning to inform you of a disciplinary action recently taken by the Session. Before doing that I will read the opening passages from the Book of Church Order Part II regarding Discipline.

- 27-1. Discipline is the exercise of authority given the Church by the Lord Jesus Christ to instruct and guide its members and to promote its purity and welfare. The term has two senses:
- a. the first referring to the whole government, inspection, training, guardianship and control which the church maintains over its members, its officers and its courts:
- b. the second a restricted and technical sense, signifying judicial process. 27-2. All baptized persons, being members of the Church are subject to its discipline and entitled to the benefits thereof.
- 27-3. The exercise of discipline is highly important and necessary. In its proper usage discipline maintains:
- a. the glory of God,
- b. the purity of His Church, and
- c. the keeping and reclaiming of disobedient sinners. Discipline is for the purpose of godliness (I Timothy 4:7); therefore, it demands a self-examination under Scripture.

Its ends, so far as it involves judicial action, are the rebuke of offenses, the removal of scandal, the vindication of the honor of Christ, the promotion of the purity and general edification of the Church, and the spiritual good of offenders themselves.

27-4. The power which Christ has given the Church is for building up, and not for destruction. It is to be exercised as under a dispensation of mercy and not of wrath. As in the preaching of the Word the wicked are doctrinally separated from the good, so by discipline the Church authoritatively separates between the holy and the profane. In this it acts the part of a tender mother, correcting her children for their good, that every one of them may be presented faultless in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Having read those words, the announcement of discipline is as follows:

If you have questions, feel free to ask the pastors or other Session members.

After Covenant Leadership reneged on the "John Perry child sex abuse cover-up deal" on June 6, 2010, Herb Kneeland and Covenant Leadership intentionally harassed a grandmother, a mother, and a granddaughter, to protect the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up. Nancy Fleming and the Davis Family did not know that John Perry was a protected, unrepentant child-molester, until two years later in 2012, but Covenant Leaders knew as early 2007, and possibly as early as 2002, or possibly earlier.

July 30, 2010

Dear Catherine,

During the July meeting of the Session your recent communication requesting an apology was discussed. It is clear that your view of events and the Session's understanding of the same events are dramatically different. In one form or another you have had serious disagreement with the leadership of Covenant Presbyterian Church for over eight years. Over the course of those years you have voiced your disagreements, the Session has looked into them, and spent many hours discussing them with you and other family members. It has long been apparent that we have a fundamentally different perspective on the issues involved. After discussion of your latest request, the Session decided that we will no longer respond to communications from you, Austin, or other family members regarding past actions. Any communication in the future from you, letters, emails, etc., should be addressed to the Clerk of the Session.

Yours truly,

Herb Kneeland Clerk of the Session

In Oct 2010, Austin Davis reached out to Amy Grant's former pastor, Scotty Smith, and others at Covenant and Christ Presbyterian Church, to seek honest and genuine reconciliation. But no one wanted honest reconciliation as the John Perry - Mann Act Federal crime cover-up continued. Austin Davis did not discover that John Perry was a child-molester until 2012. Scotty:

It is now time for my family to end our numerous attempts for truthful reconciliation with PCA authority.

I am saddened your band of brothers (PCA Trustees, National PCA Stated Clerk, Nashville Presbytery, NP Shepherding Committee, and Covenant Presbyterian Leadership) did not take the brazen intimidation of my children and the unwarranted use of armed civil authority seriously.

In closing, please encourage the bullying/intimidation/harassment of my family members to cease immediately.

Austin

- P.S. This is not a threatening letter. Please restrain Jim Bachmann from sending Metro Detectives to my private residence as he did in his "hysteria" management culture once before.
- P.S.S. Would you please be kind to provide me the Ruling Session minutes from March 2008 thru July 2008 and the financial records for payments to a secret security unit undisclosed to the congregation on the property. I would also like to have the recent minutes from the summer of 2010 when a decision was made to harass/intimidate my wife and mother-in-law without just cause (see e-mails below).

July 14, 2012: Four years after Covenant Presbyterian Church and Nashville Police unlawfully violated Federal Law (18 U.S. Code § 241 - Conspiracy against rights), Covenant joint property owner, Rick Jacques, invited Austin Davis to his daughter's wedding at Covenant Presbyterian Church. Austin Davis attended the July 2012 wedding, and also attended Covenant as a "public invitee" on at least two other occasions when he responded to the "all visitors are welcome" invitation advertised on the Covenant web site. On Nov. 15, 2015, Covenant Presbyterian Church leadership and Nashville Police willfully violated Federal Law again by wrongfully arresting Austin Davis to protect the John Perry - Mann Act Federal crime cover-up which is still on-going in 2022.

On July 31, 2012, Covenant Attorney Worrick Robinson represented Mrs. John (Susan Ann) Perry in her divorce/alimony case against protected child-molester, John Perry. Attorney Worrick Robinson filed a motion to have the case transferred back to Judge Carol Soloman because Judge Soloman was involved in a lot of the "in-depth" case history that dealt with the "admitted sexual abuse" of John Perry. Judge Carol Soloman was involved with the John Perry child sex abuse case from 2009 – 2012. Judge Carol Soloman refused to recuse from three John Perry child sex abuse cover-up lawsuits filed in 2013-2014. Question: Should Judge Carol Soloman have presided over three "John Perry child sex abuse cover-up" lawsuits when she knew about John Perry's child sex abuse and did not report the known child-molester to Nashville Police or DCS?

Dear hinthers and sisters.

I write to Inform you that a former member, Mr. Austin Davis, has filed a lawsuit against our church, seeking damages and making a number of serious, but false allegations. You may read something in the papers tomorrow or soon thereafter about this. He has also sued the Nashville Presbytery, and the Presbyterian Church in America denomination.

Mr. Davis has made numerous complaints about our church for the last 10 or 11 years. Our best efforts to resolve these matters proved unsuccessful. We are saddened that he has taken this step but will cooperate fully with the authorities in the coming days. We will also keep you well informed as developments arise. Please keep the leadership of the church in your prayers, in particular the committee that will be handling this: Herb Kneeland, chairman; John Avery, John Bryant, and Ron Kimery. Please contact any of these men, or any of the pastors if you have questions. Thank you for your prayers! Warmly, in Christ, Pastor Jim

Commander Marlene Pardue Metro Police West Precinct 5400 Charlotte Pike Nashville, Tn 37209

Dear Marlene:

I wish to Ihank you for "hearing" me at the Forrest Hills citizen meeting on October 1.

I "spoke out" under duress about the child-molestation cover-up but you, Sqt. Chick, Detective Morris, and other InvestIgators treated me with dignity to restore my trust in Metro Police.

This past August, Mrs. Ann Carell was kind to inform my mother-in-law that I was the most "hated" man in the Nashville community a few days before her passing.

As my family watches the mass media coverage of another tragic shooting in Connecticut, we are reminded once again of the malicious report made to Metro Police that I was "mentally ill" and a "security threat" to Jim Bachmann and the members of Covenant Presbyterian Church.

I realize this is a "one-of-a-kind" type of new criminal action but I do hope that law enforcement will treat me with equal standing to hold Jim Bachmann accountable for the punishment he needlessly inflicted upon my innocent family.

Please let me know if you are able to take action by Friday (12/21).

Again, thanks for your kindness and genuine care for children,

Respectfully,

Auskin

On Dec 5, 2012, Nashville Police Detective Michael Shreeve and seven high-level police authorities met with Austin and Catherine Davis at the West Precinct. Detective Shreeve informed Austin and Catherine Davis that Covenant Leaders had acted appropriately, and the statute of limitations had expired when John Perry's child sex abuse "Victim #1" turned 19 on July 11, 2008. However, it is now known that Covenant Leaders did not act appropriately since the child sex abuse was covered up by John Perry, Covenant, and Nashville Police in July 2008, and the "in-state" statute of limitations was not set to expire until at least July 11, 2010. Also, there is NO statute of limitations for child sex abuse across state lines under the the White Slave Traffic Act, also known as the Federal Mann Act. State and Federal crimes were committed, and are still being committed against the Davis family, to protect the John Perry - child sex abuse cover-up, which has now collided with the alleged child sex abuse across state lines of 11-year-old Gracie Solomon, and the alleged murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, and the rigged secret grand jury of Tennessee Titans QB Steve McNair.

Per sworn testimony, Covenant Leadership knew about John Perry's child sex abuse in April 2008, or earlier, but no one reported child-molester John Perry to DCS or Nashville Police. Instead, Austin Davis was reported to Nashville Police as a potential mentally ill "mass shooter" security threat similar to the mass shooter at Virginia Tech in 2007.

Thanks for your kind response. I appreciate the difficulty of what you and others tackle every day and and wish we had met under better circumstances. This has been a very complex cover-up over an extended number of years and this summer I was finally able to fully comprehend the extent of the institutional harassment campaign waged by Covenant Leadership.

I planned on providing Detective Morris some additional documentation on the harassment of my family (107 pages) but civil court appears to be the best course of action if my understanding from our corporate discussion last Wednesday is correct.

I preferred working with police on anything criminal Jim Bachmann did (especially after Commander Pardue restored my trust in police) but I am a novice with the law and will follow the direction police provide if civil action is the best way to proceed.

A new act of deliberate harassment occurred on October 21, 2012 and I do not want the statute of limitations to expire, especially since a minor was involved.

Again, thanks very much for your professionalism. My wife was VERY impressed with your care and concern for children!!!

Best, Austin

Mr Davis,

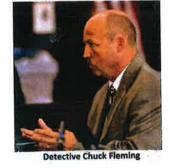

Thank you and your wife for taking time to meet with us. I'm sure you did not get most of the answers you were looking for but sexual assault investigations must be kept confidential as not to cause the victim further embarrassment. The statue of limitations has recently been changed in the past year to include no time limit for child rape; unfortunately this does not change the outcome of our case. I will forward your email to the investigating detective for further follow-up. Don't hesitate to contact me if you have any further info.

SOL article: https://www.wadeburleson.org/2015/06/child-abuse-statute-of-limitations-and.html

Child sex abuse expert witness, Caroline Post Cone, a Christ Presbyterian Academy mother, testified before Judge Kelvin Jones that the first time she ever talked with Nashville Police was in July 2013. This was approximately two weeks after the Davis family filed their first John Perry – child sex abuse cover-up lawsuit on June 19, 2013. Caroline Cone said that she did not know who the detective was, but she had written his name down in her records.

- Q. (BY MR. DAVIS) So the police told me, on December 5, 2012, that the investigation was closed and over and that they had already talked to everybody. So could you think back a little bit and see if it was sometime at the end of 2012, maybe?
 - Q. (BY MR. DAVIS) So the police, the first time you ever talked to any police was in 2013?
 - A. Correct.

24

- Q. Are you sure about that? It's hard -- I
- A. According to my records, I got a call in July of 2013 by a detective who was researching the case. That's what's documented in my records.
 - Do you know who that was?
- 22 A. I don't. I have it written down, but I 23 don't know what detective it was.

Two years later, child sex abuse expert witness, Caroline Post Cone, a Christ Presbyterian Academy mother, changed her previous sworn testimony during a sworn deposition to state that she and John Perry's child sex abuse "Victim #1" met with Nashville Police Detective Chuck Fleming on Oct 22, 2012.

Caroline Post Cone

- $ Q. Do you recall a time around October of 2012
- 9 when you received a phone call from a detective with
- 10 Metropolitan Police Department?
- 11 A. I do.
- 12 0. And what was the purpose of his call?
- 13 A. He called me because he said that there was an
- 14 investigation that there had been a complaint about --
- 15 that this sexual abuse case had not been bandled
- 16 appropriately, and so he wanted to meet with me at
- 17 that time. And actually, I wouldn't I didn't talk
- 18 to him until I first talked to my client to make sure
- 19 that it was okay that I talked to him.
- 20 Confidentiality.

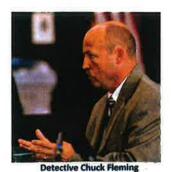

Detective Chuck Fleming

- 13 Q. I have had hearing so when you mentioned that
- 14 the police had contacted you, who was the police
- 15 officer again?
- 16 A. Chuck Fleming.
- 17 0. Chuck Flaming. And you met with him in
- 18 October of 2012?
- 19 A. Yes, sir.
- 20 Q. During the injunction hearing, you said that
- 21 you had not met with him until I think it was the
- 22 summer of 2013?
- 23 A. I met with him October 22nd, 2012.

Child sex abuse expert witness, Caroline Post Cone, a Christ Presbyterian Academy mother, testified that John Perry's "Victim #1" had been completely open and honest with Detective Chuck Fleming: "And all of the things redacted had told me in therapy were the exact same things that redacted told the detective as well." Therefore, Detective Chuck Fleming was informed that John Perry was the child-molester who committed child sex abuse across state lines in violation of the Federal White Slave Traffic Act, also known as the Federal Mann Act. The Federal Mann Act has NO statute of limitations for child sex abuse across state lines.

In Jan 2013, ex-Covenant deacon, Austin Davis, and Covenant Diaconate Chairman, Buddy Smith, spoke for the first time in many years at Subway in Green Hills. Buddy's parents lived in the same neighborhood with the Davis family, and Buddy's mother was a long-time staff member at Harpeth Hall. Covenant Elder Jack Wallace was a Harpeth Hall Board Member, along with Harpeth Hall Board Member, John Ingram. In June 2013, Harpeth Hall soccer coach, George "Rico" Laise was arrested on the Harpeth Hall campus for four counts of rape, with additional charges anticipated by Nashville Police. Detective Charles "Chuck" Fleming testified against George "Rico" Laise during his preliminary hearing. Detective Charles "Chuck" Fleming was also involved in the John Perry child sex abuse investigation in Oct 2012, but he was not present with the other eight police officers during the Dec. 5, 2012, meeting when Detective Michael Shreeve and seven high-level Nashville Police provided false "statute of limitations" information to Austin and Catherine Davis.

Buddy Smith – Covenant Diaconate Board Chairman

John Perry – Resigned Covenant Diaconate Board Chairman -Protected Child Molester.

Daisy Davis was targeted and bullied out of Harpeth Hall to protect the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up.

Detective Charles "Chuck" Fleming

George "Rico" Laise - Harpeth Hall Soccer Coach

Child sex abuse expert witness, Caroline Post Cone, a Christ Presbyterian Academy mother, testified that Detective Chuck Fleming was informed about the child sex abuse across state lines on Oct 22, 2012. About six weeks later on Dec 5, 2012, Detective Michael Shreeve and seven high-level police authorities provided untrue information to Austin and Catherine Davis that the statute of limitations had expired. Detective Chuck Fleming did not attend the police meeting with Austin and Catherine Davis on Dec 5, 2012. Two months later, on Jan 27, 2013, Austin Davis followed up with Covenant Diaconate Board Chairman, Buddy Smith, to ask a few questions. Austin Davis copied West Precinct Police Commander Marlene Pardue on the email. To date, Buddy Smith has not answered the questions.

Buddy Smith – Still a Covenant Deacon Chairman or Covenant Member? His parents lived in the same neighborhood with the Davis family.

Dear Buddy:

Thanks for breaking the Covenant banishment decree by speaking to me recently at Subway in Green Hills. I hope you and your family are well.

I realize the Diaconate is kept in the dark on many Covenant Leadership decisions but I am seeking the truth from you as the current Chairman of the Covenant Diaconate Board.

- 1. Did any deacons participate in the child-molestation cover-up which occurred in 2008?
- 2. Did any deacons participate in the deployment of a secret security unit-- plus the use of Metro Police-- to intimidate and silence my family to shield a child molester from discovery?
- 3. Did any deacons attend the Elder Session meeting on July 14, 2008 when a confessed child molester was allowed to quietly resign from the Diaconate with a police officer present in the same Elder Board Meeting?
- 4. Did any deacons know that a confessed child molester was allowed to remain on the church /school property with access to children while I was unlawfully banned from the non-profit property because I asked too many questions about the "welfare of small children" who had been placed in the confessed molester's "safe house?" Excerpt

About four weeks later, on Feb 21, 2013, Covenant Diaconate Chairman, Buddy Smith, provided absolutely false information about John Perry's child sex abuse cover-up to a Covenant member who was also a Harpeth Hall Alumna. Buddy Smith was a member of Covenant Leadership who had known about John Perry's child sex abuse since at least 2010, and possibly as early as 2007. The John Perry child sex abuse cover-up information was not "bogus," or "absolutely false," or an attempt by Austin Davis to "get attention." Instead, the John Perry child sex abuse information was absolutely true.

I wouldn't worry about this and will explain when we talk as it is absolutely "False information" and there is NO cover up for any of these allegations. The church held a special meeting last Sunday at 4:30 PM for anyone interested in a discussion on these bogus emails. Austin simply is wanting to "get attention" and pose concern on our members.

We will talk soon, however, the weekends is probably the hardest time for me to find time to talk with family duties so if you can give me some options to talk during the week let's get something on the calendar.

Buddy Smith's mother worked for over 20 years at The Harpeth Hall School, including during the class of 1994 when Reese Witherspoon graduated from Harpeth Hall. In Feb 2013, Nashville Police, Covenant Leadership and Federal Judge John Bryant intentionally misled 2000 Covenant members to actively participate in Federal criminal activity to protect child-molester John Perry and his child sex abuse across state lines. Nashville Police informed Covenant Members "there was nothing to these claims," and 2000 Covenant members were given a "green light" to threaten Austin Davis with lawsuits, arrests, and jail for alleged "harassment."

Covenant Youth Pastor J Hager preached a harsh message to 2000 Covenant Members in Jan 2014, a year after Covenant Leadership and Nashville Police gave the "greenlight" for 2000 Covenant Members (and their friends in the wider community) to threaten the Davis family with impunity. Pastor J Hager preached a harsh message that Christians had "a license to kill that which seeks to threaten us," which is contrary to Jesus and His teaching. Pastor J Hager now leads a church called Flatrock Community Church which originally met at Whitsitt Public Elementary School and was planted by West End Community Church, which includes McGowan Global Institute consultant, Pastor Scotty Smith. It is unknown if Pastor Scotty Smith or Pastor J Hager has provided Pastor Steve Berger, Pastor Rob Rogers, or anyone at Grace Chapel Leadership, with the "license to kill" false theology taught by PCA Pastor J Hager. In contrast, it is known that Flatrock Community Church was allowed to meet at Whitsitt Public Elementary School with the blessing and protection of the Nashville Mayor's Office, the Nashville Metro Council, the Nashville Metro School Board, the Nashville Police Department, the Nashville Presbytery, and the Presbyterian Church in America.

Former Covenant Youth Pastor, J Hager, knew about John Perry's child sex abuse during the summer of 2007, but he did not report it to Nashville Police or DCS. On Jan 5, 2014, after the Davis family had filed two child sex abuse cover-up lawsuits against certain leaders within Covenant Presbyterian Church, Pastor J Hager abused the power of the Covenant Pulpit to preach a sermon entitled: "A License To Kill That Which Seeks To Threaten Us." The Nashville Metro School Board and Nashville Police Department allowed Pastor J Hager to use Whitsitt Elementary School to begin a new start-up church named Flatrock Community. Austin Davis and/or his family members were threatened, blocked, and/or assaulted on at least five occasions to protect the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up at Covenant Presbyterian Church.

On June 10, 2015, Nashville Police changed their public narrative that "there is nothing to these claims" when Nashville Police Spokesman, Don Aaron, provided a public statement to BuzzFeed News about John Perry's child sex abuse. Don Aaron was quoted by BuzzFeed News as stating: "The alleged sexual battery was reported to have occurred when the victim was between the ages of 11 and 14. As a result of the investigation, the allegations of sexual battery were sustained, but it was determined that the statute of limitations had tolled, barring prosecution." BuzzFeed News did not report on other children Covenant Leadership placed in John Perry's "safe house," or that Nashville Police intimidated and silenced the Davis Family in July 2008. To date, BuzzFeed News has refused to correct the false, untrue information that the "statute of limitations" is expired in Tennessee, or across state lines. In this writer's opinion, BuzzFeed News has intentionally endangered children, including 11-year-old alleged child sex abuse victim Gracie Solomon, and 18-year-old alleged murder victim, Grant Solomon.

I don't think the police are participating in any cover up here. It's my understanding that once you reported it they investigated it. I'm going to have some meetings here to see how we can follow up. I do believe there's possibly some level of impropriety here from the church. Do you have reason to believe there are more victims here?

Jan 12, 2021: Fourteen years after Pastor J Hager was informed about John Perry's child sex abuse by Victim #1, Pastor J Hager and Austin Davis finally spoke for the first time "face-to-face." Pastor J Hager continues to remain silent about his personal participation in the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up which is still on-going in 2022. Pastor J Hager was kind to make at least one statement to Austin Davis: "I am at Flatrock now." Maybe Pastor J Hager will have a change of heart to join Grant's Army to stand against "private" child sex abuse in Tennessee, and beyond? Reminder for everyone: It is never too late to do the right thing.

MNPS says it does not discriminate but it did allow child-sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, and his family to be banned from Julia Green Public School to protect child-molester John Perry and a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up.

All four members of the Austin Davis family were unlawfully banned from the tax-payer owned Julia Green Public School and Public Park property to protect the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up. Julia Green Elementary School Principal, Dr. Andy Davis, is the uncle of Carter Wamp, who was listed in the church directory as a member of Westminster Chapel (aka, Stephens Valley Church). Carter Wamp is a long-time family friend of John Perry's family and was a member of Mike Huckabee's small staff during the 2008 GOP Presidential campaign. Former U. S. Congressman Zack Wamp is also Carter Wamp's uncle. To learn more about Mike Huckabee campaign staff member, Carter Wamp, select this link and go to page 19 - 20:

To protect child-molester John Perry, Covenant Leadership falsely prosecuted Austin Davis as a potential Sandy Hook style "mass shooter threat" to the elementary school children at The Covenant School. In 2008, The Covenant School was led by Head of School, Dr. Bill Campbell, husband of Beth Campbell, a member of the Republican National Committee and a friend of Chip Saltsman, former campaign manager for the 2008 GOP Mike Huckabee Presidential campaign. Beth Campbell is also a long-time friend of Grace Christian Academy principal, Richard Anderson, former Christ Presbyterian Academy Headmaster. Dr. Bill Campbell is the father of new Federal Judge William "Chip" Campbell, Jr., the former Board Chairman of The Covenant School. Federal Judge Chip Campbell was the attorney for the Nashville Presbytery who protected child-molester John Perry in two child sex abuse cover-up lawsuits filed by Austin Davis and members of his family.

On Jan 9, 2018, about two months after child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, was released from 18-days in jail, the U.S. Senate confirmed Attorney Chip Campbell as a new Federal Judge in a 97-0 vote. Five years earlier in 2013, Attorney Chip Campbell protected child-molester, John Perry, when he represented the Nashville Presbytery, which includes Christ Presbyterian Church and Covenant Presbyterian Church. Gov. Bill Lee's twin boys, John Perry's "Victim #1," and future First Lady Maria DiNenna Lee, were all part of the 3rd grade class at Christ Presbyterian Academy in 1999, and Daisy Davis was a Christ Pres pre-school student in the spring of 1999. Question: Did Attorney Chip Campbell disclose to President Trump or the U.S. Senate that he protected the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up in two lawsuits filed by child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis?

Attorney William "Chip" Campbell, Jr., argued before Judge Carol Solomon that the Nashville Presbytery should be dismissed from the 1st Davis Family child sex abuse cover-up lawsuit because the Davis complaint did not establish any "agency or other relationship" between the individual Defendants and the Nashville Presbytery. On Feb. 13, 2022, Covenant Pastor Chad Scruggs provided revealing information about the Nashville Presbytery organization as he continued to deceive financial donors, church members, and visitors, during the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime coverup: "Presbyteries are, you can think of them as regional bodies, of elders that come together, from different local churches, that hold us accountable to our responsibilities. So what you have is multiple layers of alarm systems, basically, is the way I think of them, and uhm, that's because we really take seriously, that uh, that uhm, we are all sinners. And that we need multiple levels of accountability... You may not know this but none of our pastors, Patrick included, myself included, Phil, none of us, whom we call teaching elders, are actually members of the churches that we serve. Uhm, none of us are members of Covenant. We are all actually members of the Nashville Presbytery, which means that we are subject to the oversight and discipline of others, who have the same kind of training we have, and who can also provide perspective and support beyond our church family."

Covenant Pastor Chad Scruggs

The United States Senate voted 97-0 to approve William "Chip" Campbell, Jr., as a Federal Judge. Question: Does the U.S. Senate support a Mann Act Federal cover-up crime connected to Presidential Politics, the Ukraine, and the global legacy of Rev. Billy Graham?

Sen. Albert Gore, Sr. Daisy "A Crushed Bug"

Sen. Albert Gore, Sr., is no longer present to stand with Daisy as he did when she was a young child, but maybe Tipper Gore will join Grant's Army to stand with Daisy against "private" child sex abuse, the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year old Gracie Solomon, the alleged murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, and Steve McNair's secret rigged grand jury? Tipper Gore is a loving mother and grandmother who was very concerned about protecting the innocence of little children in 1987. Her message was not well received at the time, but protecting the innocence of children is needed more today than at any other time in American history.

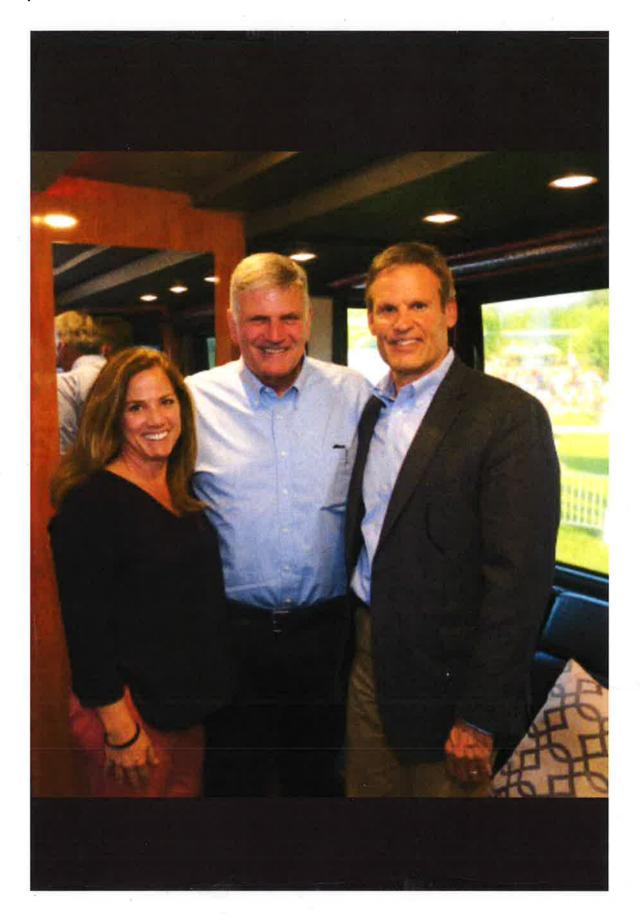

Pastor Chad Scruggs, Pastor Ryan Anderson, and former Nashville Presbytery Attorney, Federal Judge William "Chip" Campbell, Jr., continue to protect the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up and the global legacy of Rev. Billy Graham.

Franklin Graham in 2007 until after Attorney Larry Crain filed a $3 million lawsuit on behalf of protected child-molester John Perry in May 2018 after the passing of Rev. Billy Graham.)

Boz, I do agree with your recents comments about child abuse. I am presently involved in a lawsuit against the Presbyterian Church in America and others. The PCA stepped over the sacred line to utilize police to protect and shield a child molester. If you have any thoughts, I would be interested. See documents attached.

Boz Tchividjian founded GRACE (Godly Response To Abuse In The Christian Environment) which investigated claims of sexual abuse at Tates Creek Presbyterian Church (Lexington, KY) and Lookout Mountain Presbyterian Church (Chattanooga, TN). However, Boz Tchividjian has not responded to several emails sent by Austin Davis about the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up at Covenant Presbyterian Church in Nashville. Pastor Robert Cunningham at Tates Creek Presbyterian is a long-time friend of former Covenant Youth Pastor J Hager, who is still protecting the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up. Former Covenant Senior Pastor Jim Bachmann was a member of the Lookout Mountain pastoral staff back in the 1980's when the alleged abuse by Paul Warren allegedly occurred.

Would you or the Carlson's like to reconcile with my family before Christmas?

Inside sources also tell me that you resigned following a massive internal investigation which began after the Middle TN Appellate Court unexpectedly reversed a Judge Solomon ruling in June 2014?

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Falwell, Jr., attended Sam Moore's funeral visitation at Covenant Presbyterian Church about three months after the death of Rev.Billy Graham.

Loyal friend of LU and former Thomas Nelson Publishers CEO leaves lasting legacy - June 4, 2018: By Liberty University News Service -

Sam Ziady Moore, who served as president of Thomas Nelson Publishers for nearly 47 years and was one of Liberty University's earliest supporters, died on Friday, June 1, at age 88... Liberty president Jerry Falwell and his wife, Becki, attended the funeral visitation at Covenant Presbyterian Church in Nashville on Wednesday... "Sam Moore's legacy touched millions of people through the publishing of the Bible and books by other pastors, including Billy Graham. Thomas Nelson published most all of Jerry Falwell's early books and those he offered over television for donations, including dozens of reference books," Westover said... Under his leadership, Thomas Nelson became the largest publisher of Christian books and Bibles in the world, publishing the New King James Version of the Bible in 1983.

Sam Moore was CEO at Thomas Nelson Publishing from 1969 – 2005. David Dunham was Senior Vice-President and Group Publisher at Thomas Nelson Publishing from 2002 – 2007. Both men were long-time members and leaders at Covenant Presbyterian Church.

Post rigged trial and wrongful conviction, Austin Davis was also concerned about Juror #11, Tom Wiser, a real estate agent in Nashville. After the Sept 2017 rigged trial of Austin Davis, Austin Davis learned that Tom Wiser worked for Keller Williams in Green Hills where Covenant Elder and DA Star Witness Scott Troxel also worked. Scott Troxel is also a Christ Presbyterian Academy father, along with protected child-molester John Perry, and Gov. Bill Lee.

Juror #11 – Tom Wiser – Real Estate Agent - Presently works with Keller Williams.

Scott Troxel with Keller Williams, Nashville has been named the 2020 Realtor of the Year by Greater Nashville Realtors, according to association President Brian Copeland. The Realtor of the Year award is presented annually to the association's Realtor member who has made the most significant contribution to their clients, the real estate profession and the community. Troxel was awarded the honor for his commitment to professionalism, clients and the real estate industry at the association's annual Awards of Excellence Gala livestream event Saturday. The 2019 recipient, Julie Casassa, presented Troxel with the award. "Scott exemplifies the mission of Greater Nashville Realtors. As a past president, he continues to be an advocate for property owners throughout our area," Copeland said. "Scott continues to bring a solid, nurturing voice to our committees, board, and membership. He's connected to our community and is an amazing ambassador for everything we do." Whether he's working on legislative issues with the Metro Council or in Washington, D.C., Troxel places homeowner rights at the center of everything, the associated said in a news release. When he's not making homeownership a reality for the people of Nashville, you can find Troxel engaging in Nashville transit discussions and community planning opportunities.

Question: Should Tom Wiser serve on the criminal trial jury of Austin Davis?

Answer: The Tennessee Court of Criminal Appeals and Tennessee Supreme Court believe it is fair, impartial, and appropriate, for Tom Wiser to serve on the criminal trial of Austin Davis.

Covenant Elder and DA Star Prosecution Witness, Scott Troxel, was the Greater Nashville Realtors President in 2017 before he testified at the rigged criminal trial of Austin Davis on Sept 11, 2017. After the rigged criminal trial and wrongful conviction of Austin Davis, he learned that Scott Troxel and Tom Wiser (Juror #11) both worked at Keller Williams in Green Hills. Question: Do Keller Williams and the Greater Nashville Realtors Association support the John Perry – child sex abuse cover-up, and the alleged Aaron Solomon child sex abuse – murder cover-up, and Steve McNair's rigged secret grand jury?

DA Star Prosecution Witness – Scott Troxel

Austin Davis is also concerned about sworn testimony Juror #11, Tom Wiser, provided during the jury selection process. Question: Did the Nashville DA's Office make or finalize a deal with Juror #11, Tom Wiser, before Tom Wiser served on the rigged criminal trial of Austin Davis?

Juror #11, Tom Wiser, posted a comment to Pastor Steve Berger's Facebook account, on or about, March 9, 2022. At the present time, it is unknown if Tom Wiser, is a friend of Pastor Steve Berger, or if he is a Grace Chapel member, or if he has ever attended Grace Chapel, or if he financially supports Ambassador Services International founded by Pastor Steve Berger. In 2017, Juror #11, Tom Wiser, voted to wrongfully convict child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, in a rigged retaliation trial which punished Austin Davis for "speaking out" to expose child-molester John Perry for the purpose of protecting children. Ironically, Keller Williams real estate agent, Tom Wiser, is now asserting in a recent interview that he is "speaking out" to protect children from government overreach during COIVD-19 experimental vaccines and mandates.

Austin Davis is also concerned about Juror #1, Elisa Marie Thiele. Juror Thiele provided sworn testimony during jury selection that she attended Fellowship Bible Church where a 3-year old child was raped in a bathroom during Sunday School in 2014. During the appeal process, Austin Davis discovered that a 2nd three-year old child's family had settled an alleged sexual assault lawsuit which was presided over and sealed by Williamson County Judge Deanna Johnson, a member of Grace Chapel Church. Austin Davis argued via his appeal that the judicial suppression of critical information about the alleged sexual assault of a 2nd 3-year old child adversely affected his ability to receive a fair, impartial trial from Juror #1, Elisa Marie Thiele. Juror Thiele testified that she knew about the rape of a 3-year old child, but she did not testify that she knew about two alleged sexual assaults of two three-year-old children.

Thomas Nelson is a publishing firm that began in West Bow, Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1798 as the namesake of its founder. (The original name of the founder was actually Neilson but, owing to many errors made by his customers, he changed it to "Nelson"). It is a subsidiary of HarperCollins, the publishing unit of News Corp... In 1950, 19-year-old Sam Moore came to Columbia, South Carolina with an intent to pursue medical training. Moore began to sell Bibles door-to-door in order to pay his way through college at the University of South Carolina and later Columbia Bible College. The Lebanese immigrant had a strong sense of American patriotism and free enterprise and used it to establish the National Book Company in 1958. In 1961, he established Royal Publishers, selling stock in the firm a year later, with notable shareholders including Morrow Coffey Graham, mother of noted evangelist Billy Graham... Thomas Nelson, now based in Nashville, publishes leading Christian authors, including Billy Graham, Max Lucado, John Eldredge, John Maxwell, Charles Stanley, Michael A. O'Donnell, Ted Dekker, John Townsend, and Dave Stone... Michael S. Hyatt, a 25-year veteran of the publishing industry, became President and CEO of the company on August 18, 2005, succeeding Sam Moore who served as the company's CEO for nearly 47 years... In February 2006, it was announced that private equity firm InterMedia Partners, in conjunction with some other investors, had agreed to buy Thomas Nelson for $473 million. The transaction closed on June 12, 2006. The company operated as a private company. In 2010, a group led by Kohlberg & Company bought a majority share of the company. In 2011, News Corporation subsidiary HarperCollins announced they had acquired Thomas Nelson. The acquisition closed in July 2012.

Austin Davis sold Bibles door-to-door in Emporia, Virginia, for Sam Moore and the Varsity Company during the summer of 1976.

Rev. Billy Graham's father-in-law, Dr. L. Nelson Bell, founded The Southern Presbyterian Journal which set the foundation for the modern-day WORLD magazine.

L. Nelson Bell's many efforts included setting the foundation for WORLD

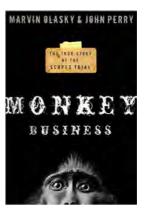

Especially in its earliest years, WORLD magazine was sometimes described by its boosters as a sort of "Christian Time magazine." ... In 1972, as The Journal identified more and more with what would become the fledgling Presbyterian Church in America, Bell resigned from the magazine he had founded 30 years earlier. He died the next year. And starting just about then, for a variety of reasons, The Journal entered a period of decline. The best efforts that a team of us could summon were not enough to sustain it.

All of which is why in 1986 we closed down the witness and work of The Presbyterian Journal and folded its energies into a new magazine called WORLD. We did so under the very same corporate structure originally established by Nelson Bell—and with high confidence that if he had still been around, he might well have welcomed the opportunity to write a regular column. But who knows, in the mind of a man with such diverse interests, just what topic he might have chosen for those words of journalistic wisdom?

Long-time chief editor of WORLD magazine, Marvin Olasky (now resigned), wrote a book with protected child-molester, John Perry. Southern Baptist Theological Seminary President Al Mohler now writes an opinion piece for WORLD magazine. Al Mohler, Ligon Duncan, C J Mahaney, and Mark Dever all shared the T4G stage together during the Sovereign Grace Ministry alleged child sex abuse cover-up scandal. Ligon Duncan visited and supported Covenant Presbyterian Church Leadership during the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up which is still on-going in 2022, and is now connected to the alleged murder of 18-year old Grant Solomon who tried to protect his little sister, Gracie.

Has WORLD magazine reporter, Warren Cole Smith, been protecting child sex abuse cover-up cases since the Presbyterian Church in America was founded in 1973? Warren Cole Smith claimed to be genuinely interested in investigating the John Perry – child sex abuse cover-up, but Warren Cole Smith is still protecting John Perry, a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, and the global legacy of Rev. Billy Graham. In a related alleged case, 14-year old Gracie Solomon appeared in "A Cry For Help" video on May 12, 2021, stating she had been molested across state lines in Asheville, NC, in the same area where WORLD magazine and the Billy Graham Training Center (The Cove) are located. Warren Cole Smith's "Ministry Watch" has reported on a disrupted church service at Grace Chapel Church via Bob Smietana's article, but Warren Cole Smith has not yet reported on the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year old Gracie Solomon, the alleged murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up, or Attorney Larry Crain's involvement in both cases.

You are misrepresenting us. We are ANXIOUS to tell this story, but – as I said to you on our very first phone call – we need a source for this story OTHER THAN YOU. The Bible said that "on the testimony of two or three witnesses the truth is established." That's our journalistic standard.

And, as I also said to you in our first phone call, whether you like it or not, your behavior has compromised your credibility in this situation.

So, find me a victim and a couple of others who are willing to talk, and I promise you we will be all over this story.

Austin Davis is still waiting on Warren Cole Smith to investigate, to review all the sworn testimony of numerous witnesses, and to inform the public.

Allegations that Grace Chapel Church ignored reports of abuse 'demonstrably false,' says lead pastor - By Alexander Willis - Jun 21, 2021 Updated Jul 7, 2021

Rob Rogers, who has been acting lead pastor at Franklin's Grace Chapel Church since Steve Berger's departure from the role earlier this year, addressed on Sunday recent allegations that church staff had ignored reports of abuse, calling them "blatantly and demonstrably false."

The allegations levied against Grace Chapel are just a small part of the allegations recently made against former WSMV Channel 4 News anchor Aaron Solomon, who has been accused by his 14-year-old daughter Gracie Solomon of sexual abuse and of being involved with the death of his then-18-year-old son Grant Solomon.

Gracie, whose family attended Grace Chapel, has alleged that her brother Grant had told then-lead pastor Berger — now founding pastor and church elder — of the abuse she and Grant had allegedly suffered at the hands of their father. That meeting between Grant and Berger, which took place on May 7, 2018, was later said by Berger to have only been about faith.

Furthermore, the author of a story published on the online publishing platform Medium has alleged that the church engages in "evangelical abuse." The author of that story, Shannon Ashley, has since received a cease and desist letter from the church demanding the statements be retracted.

The cease and desist letter also reads that Grace Chapel would proceed with further legal action were the statements not retracted by Monday, June 21. As of Monday, Ashley's story remains unaltered.

Dear GCA Family,

As we approach Thanksgiving, our GCA community has much to be thankful for this year. Not only has the Lord blessed us with incredible faculty, staff, students, and parents, He has blessed our school tremendously within the last two months with your generous support.

Our school community had the privilege of hosting Carrie Underwood for our benefit concert in September. We were honored to have Carrie perform and, although this was an amazing fundraising event, it turned into an incredible night of fellowship as she sang multiple songs off of her new gospel album, My Savior.

Since that event, we are excited to announce that GCA purchased 23.74 acres from Grace Chapel, allowing us to complete our entire site plan. Additionally, we purchased the 35 acres that the current high school sits on that was previously a 99-year lease with Grace Chapel. This is amazing news for our school community, and we are thankful for Grace Chapel and their willingness to allow us to purchase this property.

Over the next few days, you will start to see more activity on the building site as we continue to move forward wi/th the site work for the new high school building, gym, and surrounding athletic facilities. Please pray for great weather over the next several weeks enabling us to complete as much of the site work as possible before winter arrives.

We are excited to announce that, since our benefit concert, our GCA community has given and committed just over 3 million dollars ($738,000 of that amount was cash) in less than two months. Without the generosity of our families, we would not be able to keep this project moving.

The next step is beginning construction. Because of the rise of construction costs and other items we were required to add to our construction budget, we are considering splitting the project into two phases. This will be dependent on the amount of cash on hand we are able to raise by February 1, 2022. If we split the project into two phases, the first phase will focus on the high school building without the gym. We need to raise $511,914 cash to begin this phase of the project. In order to build the high school building and the gym simultaneously and not split the project into two phases, we will need an additional 6.3 million cash by February 1. For many reasons, we would love to be able to build them simultaneously.

As we approach year-end, we are thankful for each of our families that have invested in this project. Your gifts put the inception of this project within reach. However, we are still needing to raise the additional funds mentioned above to be able to begin the construction of the building. As you consider your year-end giving, we are asking that all of our families prayerfully consider how they can invest further, or for the first time, in the future of GCA. We are confident that, with your investment, we will be able to start construction in March of 2022, with a completion date of June of 2023.

We have attached an overview of the construction budget to this email to provide transparency and clarity on the budget. As a reminder when you are considering your gift, we are a 501 © (3), making all of your gifts to GCA tax deductible.

We are always open to setting up a meeting with you to discuss any questions you may have as it relates to the building project. If you know people who have a heart for giving to Christian education, we would love to meet with them as well. Please feel free to direct them to this link for an overview of our school and our project.

Grace Christian Academy head baseball coach Brad Myers has been inducted into the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

With over 500 wins in his decorated baseball career, Myers is entering his 29th season coaching baseball in Williamson County. In that time, his teams have won 13 regular-season championships, nine region championships, two state runners-up and a state championship.

Since his arrival at GCA in 2015, Myers has led the Lions to four district championships, two region championships and has made three state tournament appearances. He also led the Battle Ground Academy baseball team to over 400 wins over 21 seasons, including the DII-AA title in 2012 and another state title berth in 2014.

"Brad has impacted hundreds and hundreds of young men on and off the baseball field," GCA Director of Athletics Len McKnatt said. "We are proud of him and will continue to see his impact on kids for many years to come."

Since its inception in the early 1990s, the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association has sought to instill in coaches a deeper sense of responsibility in developing, maintaining and conducting the game of baseball.

"It is our pleasure to include individuals like Brad Myers in the hall of fame and to recognize the time he has invested and the lives that he's touched," TBCA President Pat Swallows said. "We are proud to take this opportunity to honor how much Brad has done for his school, the kids and the game of baseball."

The Association honored the class of 2021 inductees, which included Tim Corbin of Vanderbilt, at the annual awards banquet in January held in conjunction with the TBCA Coaches Clinic.

Grace Christian Academy is making a change with its football program. GCA athletic director Len McKnatt confirmed Tuesday that the school will not retain coach Rusty Smith after seven seasons with the Lions...Smith, a former Tennessee Titans quarterback, joined GCA in 2015 in the school's first year of TSSAA 11-man football eligibility. In that time, Smith also helped navigate GCA through the switch from D-I to D-II competition in 2020.

Has Carrie Underwood listened to the secret recording made by 16-year-old Grant Solomon when he met with GCA educators?

Earlier today I was sent audio by an anonymous source that was secretly recorded by Grant Solomon 2 years before his death. Grant had requested a meeting with @GCALions leadership regarding the treatment of his little sister Gracie. While GCA denied any wrongdoing and even sent out legal threats to a number of people, this conversation makes it clear that everyone knew and everyone failed Grant and Gracie. More to come, stay tuned

Former Ensworth Coach, Austin Davis, provided Grant Solomon's former baseball coach, Brad Myers, and Gov. Bill Lee with information about four alleged child sex abuse cover-up cases connected to Grace Chapel Attorney Larry Crain. To date, Coach Brad Meyers and Gov. Bill Lee have not responded to Austin Davis.

Josh Duggar was convicted on Dec 9, 2021, eight days after the Tennessee Supreme Court denied the appeal of Austin Davis to protect child-molester John Perry, a prominent co-author with Gov. Mike Huckabee, U.S. Alabama Senate Candidate Roy Moore, Rev. Franklin Graham, and possibly President Trump's first impeachment attorney, Jay Sekulow.

Do Carrie Underwood, Gov. Mike Huckabee, and Sarah Huckabee Sanders support the possible "evolutionary" advantages of adult-child sex like distinguished SUNY Applied Ethics and Political Philosophy Professor, Attorney Stephen Kershnar? Is it morally and legally acceptable for adults to have sex with 1-year old children to "calm" a 1-year old down?

SUNY professor under review after 'reprehensible' video emerges of him supporting pedophilia - By Yaron Steinbuch - February 2, 2022 - New York Post - Excerpt

A State University of New York at Fredonia professor is under investigation by the school after videos emerged of him defending pedophilia and insisting it wasn't "obvious" to him why it was wrong, according to a report.

Professor Stephen Kershnar, who teaches libertarian philosophy and applied ethics at SUNY Fredonia, was filmed questioning whether pedophilia was in fact unethical.

"Imagine that an adult male wants to have sex with a 12-year-old girl. Imagine that she's a willing participant," Kershnar says in the viral clip shared on Twitter by Libs of TikTok.

"A very standard, very widely held view is that there's something deeply wrong about this — and it's wrong independent of it being criminalized," Kershnar continues.

"It's not obvious to me that it's in fact wrong. I think this is a mistake. And I think exploring that why it's a mistake will tell us not only things about adult/sex and statutory rape and also fundamental principles of morality," the professor adds in his jaw-dropping comments.

One of the clips appeared to be from his appearance on a podcast, "Unregistered with Thaddeus Russell," in December 2020.

Fox News also reported that the clips were also from a YouTube video posted Jan. 30 on "Brain in a Vat," which publishes "thought experiments and discussions with philosophers."

In the clips, Kershnar goes on to say: "One is even if you are looking for a threshold. Let's say there's a threshold. I'm making this number up, but let's say it's at age 8. Still, that tells you that some adult sex is permissible.

"Second, the notion that it's wrong even with a 1-year-old is not guite obvious to me," he says.

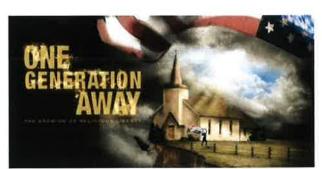

"There are reports in some cultures of grandmas fellating their baby boys to calm them down if they're colicky," the professor continues, according to the Post Millennial. "I don't know if this is true but this is sort of widely reported as occurring in at least a foreign culture — and it working, that the grandmas believe that this actually works," Kershnar continues.

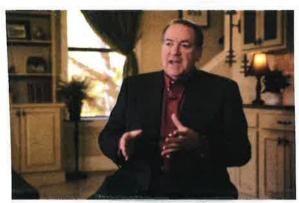

"If this were to be true, and again, I don't know it to be true, if this were to be true, it's hard to see what would be wrong with it," he adds.

Does Carrie Underwood support ex-Grace Chapel Pastor Steve Berger and Gov. Mike Huckabee who appeared in a 2015 movie entitled "One Generation Away – The Erosion of Religious Liberty." Child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, reported Gov. Huckabee's coauthor, John Perry, to Nashville Police for repeated child sex abuse crimes. In retaliation, Austin Davis was handcuffed and arrested during a public Sunday church service on Nov. 15, 2015. Does Carrie Underwood support the arrest and destruction of religious liberty once enjoyed by Austin Davis to protect child-molester John Perry?

Gov. Huckabee

The John Perry child sex abuse cover-up began during the Bush vs. Gore Presidential election of 2000. The John Perry child sex abuse – safe house cover-up expanded to include the Nashville Police during the 2008 GOP Presidential Campaign, which included protecting Arkansas Governor Mike Huckabee's co-author, child-molester John Perry. During the launching of the 2016 Huckabee Presidential campaign in June 2015, BuzzFeed broke a story on accused child-molester John Perry, co-author on two books with GOP Presidential Candidate Mike Huckabee. BuzzFeed wrote in the June 10, 2015 article: "Spokespeople for Huckabee did not return a request for comment." Mike Huckabee's 2016 GOP Presidential Campaign publicly supported child-molester Josh Duggar. However, the Huckabee campaign did not speak a word about the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up which expanded during the 2008 Presidential election cycle to include the Nashville Police. To date, the Huckabee campaign has never made a public statement about protected child-molester John Perry, and a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, which has now expanded to include the Tennessee Supreme Court in Jan 2022.

Former Arkansas governor Mike Huckabee, who has come under fire time and again for his racist quips, has been found to have defended disgraced reality star Josh Duggar in the past. Duggar, who was recently indicted on charges of child pornography and molestation, was defended by Huckabee in 2015, despite Duggar himself admitting that his actions were "inexcusable."

"Josh's actions when he was an underage teen are as he described them himself, 'inexcusable,' but that doesn't mean 'unforgivable'," Huckabee wrote in a Facebook post, according to a report by ABC News. He also slammed people for "sensationalizing" molestation allegations. Meanwhile, it has resurfaced now that Judge Stacey Zimmerman, who had alleged connections with Huckabee, ordered the Springdale Police Department to expunge the original reports against Duggar.

According to a 2015 report by Radar, it was Judge Stacey Zimmerman who ordered the Springdale Police Department to destroy the documents that reported the sexual abuse accusations against Duggar.

"The judge ordered us yesterday to expunge that record. As far as the Springdale Police Department is concerned this report doesn't exist," the then Springdale Police spokesman Scott Lewis had stated at the time.

Interestingly, Huckabee had alleged connections with Judge Zimmerman. According to her website, she was elected twice by the former Arkansas Governor to serve on numerous committees.

"Josh Duggar confessed to molesting his sisters, but Mike Huckabee excused him, and a judge with ties to Huckabee ordered the previous police report of Duggar's sexual abuse of children destroyed," Huffpost correspondent Sarah Reese Jones stated in a recent tweet.

Protected child-molester John Perry made a slick, off-record, global public statement to White House Correspondent Francesca Chambers of the London Daily Mail, but the 2016 Huckabee A-Team did not make a public statement: "Spokespeople for Huckabee did not return a request for comment." JOHN PERRY'S STATEMENT TO DAILY MAIL ONLINE

Thank you for getting in touch. I haven't read the article but have heard about it.

I don't have anything to say for the record, but will tell you that the person behind it has been pursuing a vendetta against his former church for years and this story is one of the means he has used.

Having failed there, he has evidently turned his attention elsewhere.

I will also tell you that whatever private difficulties there may have been, the parties involved were reconciled and restored years ago, for which I thank God every day.

Why did Huckabee spokeswoman, Alice Stewart, resign from the 2016 Huckabee Presidential campaign about four weeks after the retaliation arrest of child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis?

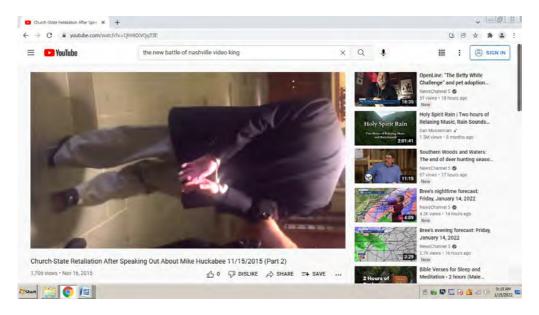

Huckabee spokesman Stewart leaves team

by Frank E. Lockwood | December 16, 2015 at 3:30 a.m. - Northwest Arkansas Democrat Gazette - Excerpt Below

WASHINGTON -- Republican presidential candidate Mike Huckabee's longtime spokesman has left the campaign, just seven weeks before the lowa caucuses. In a text message Tuesday, the departing communications director, Alice Stewart, offered no explanation for her departure but expressed admiration for her longtime boss. "I love Governor Huckabee and his entire family. You can search heaven and earth and you won't find a person of his integrity," Stewart wrote Tuesday. "It's been a blessing to work for him." In an interview with CNN on Monday, Huckabee downplayed Stewart's decision."We hate to lose Alice, but she's decided that she's, I think, exhausted from the campaign. She's left, it's her decision, but ... we're moving forward," he said. "I think if people try to read more into it than is there, they're going to be making a huge mistake." Hogan Gidley, senior communications adviser, is now serving as spokesman. Gidley is a longtime Huckabee aide and former executive director of HUCK PAC, the political action committee launched in 2008.

Alice Stewart resigned from the 2016 Huckabee Presidential Campaign. Alice Stewart then joined the 2016 Ted Cruz Presidential Campaign. Austin Davis provided John Perry child sex abuse cover-up information to the Ted Cruz campaign, and to Ted Cruz State Chairman, Kevin Kookogey. Question: Did Kevin Kookogey ever speak with Alice Stewart or Sen. Ted Cruz about the jailing of Austin Davis to protect child-molester John Perry and a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up?

Gentlemen - I do not understand the objective. If redacted is on record having said the church dealt appropriately with the allegations of abuse, and if the church in question did indeed terminate its affiliation with the accused, for whom are you advocating? Has redacted asked you to defend redacted against these charges that redacted seems to have now let rest? Or is there something I am missing here? Is redacted lying or telling you something different? Judging objectively from the chain below, it almost appears as though you are on a crusade against Huckabee, which is your right, of course, but the media isn't going to find anything newsworthy in that. I am not suggesting this is your purpose. On the contrary, I am just letting you know how it comes across, objectively, in sequence. Perhaps this is why few are willing to pick up the story and run with it. I am sincerely trying to help you see here why you might not be getting any traction and trying to determine why you inserted yourself into this. I mean no offense. Kevin Kookogey was the TN State Chair for Sen. Ted Cruz's GOP Presidential Campaign. Kevin Kookogey was represented by Attorney Jay Sekulow as he complained about the IRS targeting his non-profit organization. However, Kevin Kookogey did not help the Davis family who were targeted by Covenant Presbyterian Church, the Nashville Presbytery, the Presbyterian Church in America, and the Nashville Police Department in cover-up effort to protect John Perry's "safe house" and repeated acts of child sex abuse. Kevin Kookogey's church, Christ Community, is a sister church of Covenant Presbyterian Church and both churches belong to the Nashville Presbytery and the Presbyterian Church in America. Kevin Kookogey's former pastor, Scotty Smith, was a Covenant guest preacher during the John Perry child sex abuse, and he is also Amy Grant's long-time friend and former pastor.

Alice Stewart unexpectedly resigned without any reason as the Huckabee Presidential Campaign Spokeswoman in Dec 2015 about four weeks after the retaliation arrest to silence Austin Davis. A few weeks later, Alice Stewart joined the Cruz Presidential campaign as a spokeswoman. To date, Alice Stewart has not made a public statement about John Perry's child sex abuse which was exposed in the summer of 2007 around the same time that Gov. Huckabee and John Perry published Character Makes A Difference.

Why did Alice Stewart unexpectedly resign from the 2016 Huckabee Presidential campaign about four weeks after the retaliation arrest of child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis? Did Kevin Kookogey share information with Alice Stewart after the Ted Cruz rally in Nashville on Dec 22, 2015?

Huckabee spokeswoman leaves campaign - By DANIEL STRAUSS -

12/14/2015 01:19 PM EST - Updated 12/14/2015 02:49 PM EST

Alice Stewart, the lead spokeswoman for former Arkansas Gov. Mike Huckabee's campaign, has left his presidential campaign. Stewart said Monday that she left her role as communications director and was no longer working for the campaign in any capacity. She declined to provide more details, saying only that she's "no longer" with the campaign. The campaign released a brief statement in response. "Alice Stewart is no longer with the Huckabee for President campaign. Hogan Gidley will handle all the media operations moving forward," the campaign said.

Former Huckabee spokeswoman Alice Stewart joins Cruz campaign - By DANIEL STRAUSS - 01/04/2016 11:50 AM EST

Alice Stewart, the former communications director for former Arkansas Gov. Mike Huckabee's campaign for the GOP presidential nomination, has joined Sen. Ted Cruz's campaign as a senior adviser, Stewart confirmed on Monday. Stewart said she cemented a deal to join the Texas senator in the past week. She will serve as national spokeswoman and senior adviser. Stewart's movement comes less than a month after she left the Huckabee campaign amid differing views on the direction of his White House bid. Huckabee's campaign, as Politico first reported, recently moved all of its resources to Iowa and the former governor and his campaign manager, Sarah Huckabee Sanders, have both said the campaign likely won't continue if he doesn't do well in Iowa.

Did Alice Stewart know about CNN sexual allegations prior to becoming a CNN political commentator? Jefffrey Toobin, Chris Cuomo, Don Lemon, John Griffin, Jeff Zucker, just to mention a few of the allegations now disclosed to the CNN audience.

Patriot News reporter Sara Ganim was allowed to break the story on the Jerry Sandusky – Penn State child sex abuse scandal, but CNN reporter Sara Ganim did not report on the John Perry – child sex abuse cover-up scandal connected to GOP Presidential Candidate Mike Huckabee and others. CNN reporter Andrew Kaczynski broke the John Perry – child sex abuse story when he worked for BuzzFeed, but he and BuzzFeed Chief Editor, Ben Smith, would not correct false information about the "statute of limitations" being expired, or report on the wrongful retaliation arrest and jailing of BuzzFeed news source and child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis. Alleged murder to cover-up child sex abuse connected to Grace Chapel.

If Aaron Chang won't share information, maybe London Daily Mail White House Correspondent, Francesca Chambers, will tell who arranged John Perry's untrue, deceptive global public statement to protect his Mann Act Federal crime cover-up?

Amanda Darrach, Columbia Journalism Review - JUNE 25, 2019

ON JUNE 13, WHEN SARAH HUCKABEE SANDERS announced that she would step down as White House Press Secretary, Francesca Chambers, White House correspondent for the Daily Mail, and Anita Kumar, White House correspondent for Politico, invited some Trump staffers and members of the press corps to "farewell drinks" in honor of "SHS."

White House Correspondent Francesca Chambers did not contact child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, for a response to John Perry's slick public global statement in 2015. Ms. Chambers and the London Daily Mail did not respond to a request made by Austin Davis to correct the untrue "expired statute of limitations" information published on June 11, 2015. However, Francesca Chambers did finally respond to Austin Davis six years later on Feb 28, 2021. President Trump once allegedly said that Francesca Chambers was like a machine gun with questions. Maybe Francesca Chambers will finally ask Gov. Mike Huckabee, Sarah Huckabee Sanders, Bryan Sanders, Chip Saltsman, Alice Stewart, J. Hogan Gidley, Lt. Gov. Tim Griffin, and Carter Wamp some questions about child-molester John Perry and an on-going Mann Act Federal crime cover-up now connected to the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year old Gracie Solomon, and the alleged murder/cover-up of Gracie's 18-year old brother, Grant Solomon.

Ms. Chambers: You wrote an article on child-molester John Perry and Mike Huckabee in June 2015. I was arrested and jailed in retaliation after the article was published. I also lost a $2.1 million default judgment to John Perry's attorney, Larry Crain, without a liability trial on the merits of the case. I used your article as one of my 11 exhibits in a 95-page court motion filed on Monday, Feb 22nd. I remain hopeful that corrections can be made to the original story and a truthful article can been written about the on-going child sex abuse cover-up which is now connected to the Lincoln Project-John Weaver story. Sarah H. Sanders Resignation - June 13, 2019

Former GOP Presidential Candidate Mike Huckabee finally responded to the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up on June 29, 2019. Gov. Huckabee's response occurred on the 11th anniversary of the secret armed unit assault against the Austin Davis family at a public Sunday church service at Covenant Presbyterian Church. Nashville Police further silenced and intimidated the Austin Davis family three nights later on July 2, 2008. Austin Davis informed Gov. Huckabee of the police retaliation, his 18-day jailing, and he asked Gov. Huckabee to help his abused and defamed family. Gov. Huckabee responded: "I'll look into it." Gov. Huckabee responded to information shared about child-molester John Perry: "I don't know a lot. I just know he got in trouble. But I didn't know anything else..." To date, Gov. Huckabee has not followed up to help the banned, abused and defamed Davis family.

Question: Did 2008 GOP Presidential Candidate Mike Huckabee know that his co-author, John Perry, was accused of repeated child sex abuse during the summer of 2007 when John Perry was paid and dismissed from the Rev. Billy Graham biography project? (Note: The dismissal of John Perry occurred during the same period of time when Victim #1 told Pastor J Hager and Covenant Leadership that John Perry had repeatedly molested Victim #1.)

Sarah Huckabee Sanders has not responded to Austin Davis about the on-going John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up. Does Sarah Huckabee Sanders support two alleged Mann Act Federal crime cover-ups, and the alleged murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon? The Honorable John Timothy Griffin Lt. Governor of Arkansas

Dear Mr. Griffin,

It is my understanding from news reports that you are an inside trusted advisor with the "Mike Huckabee for President Campaign," along with Mr. Chip Saltsman from Nashville.

http://www.politico.com/story/2015/05/mike-huckabee-2016-campaign-staff-power-players-117637.html

On June 3, 2015, I provided information as a gentleman courtesy to the Huckabee campaign (web site) prior to the June 10, 2015 BuzzFeed story about Governor Huckabee's co-writer on several books but apparently Governor Huckabee has not yet responded.

I am 3 hours from Washington DC and will be trying to meet with anyone who is willing to discuss individual liberty with me which has been crushed by church-state power in Tennessee for the purpose of concealing a known child-molester, Mr. John Perry. http://youtu.be/BMx9K87FRZM

Also, The Friday court hearing audio is attached to the video link above but I am providing a link for you below to make sure Governor Huckabee and Mr. Chip Saltsman can review it. https://m.soundcloud.com/valglenn18/austin-and-catherine-davis-speak-out-in-court-july-10-2015

My family will have to appeal and re-cycle back through a 2nd time as the on-going massive child-molestation coverup continues into an 8th year, with the past 2 years of the cover-up being done brazen before Tennessee Civil Courts.

On July 22, 2015, I will present a "pro se" oral argument before the same Appeals Court on a 3rd related case to the massive child-molestation concealment effort executed by numerous Defendants known, and also Defendants Unknown.

Below is another video that will provide you a general background on the overwhelming force of church-state power used to attack and suppress my peaceful family of individual American citizens.

Subject: New Info - No Police Report?

Mr. Anastasi, Below is an email I sent out last night to 100+ TN reporters and thousands of others.

The Tennessean had no problem reporting on a lawsuit claiming Bible Fellowship in (Brentwood) was hiding a child-rape case even though it appears the church reported the child-rape to Brentwood Police and DCS. But the Tennessean will not report one word on a child-molestation cover-up which never was reported by Covenant Presbyterian and utilized Nashville Police for the cover-up.

I hope you will take a close look at the links below to see and hear the videos and audios of the false arrest made a few weeks ago here in Nashville. I even got a Police CAD report on Friday that codes my attendance at a public Sunday service as a "hold-up / robbery?"

You should also take a look at the Tennessean article on Frank Daniels, Judge Moreland and Worrick Robinson since my criminal trespass hearing is before Judge Moreland on Dec 16. The Public Defender told me this week Herb Kneeland can do what he wants without the voting consent of 2000 property owners but I think otherwise and so do a growing number of Covenant Church members who are beginning to express their voices inside a church that is melting down at the core.

Covenant has a lot of wealthy, prominent members and I am certain they are growing unhappier to learn that police told them in 2012 "there was nothing to these concerns" and now they are beginning to read the 2015 BuzzFeed article that has a police statement stating the sexual battery was investigated and sustained.

I realize it has been a deliberate effort to distort facts and confuse but I hope as the new editor of the Tennessean that you will bring objectivity and integrity to the process. Nashville needs a great paper that most people would be willing to buy but so many people quit subscribing in the past 10 years because they felt the paper did not report the truth any more. If you don't report the facts, why should people buy a newspaper?

Best.

On April 14, 2021, a month before Gracie Solomon posted a video about an alleged child sex abuse and murder cover-up connected to Grace Chapel Church and Grace Christian Academy, Austin Davis sent former Christ Presbyterian Academy Headmaster, Richard Anderson, an email about the John Perry – child sex abuse cover-up child connected to Gov. Twelve days later, on April 26, 2021, Christ Presbyterian Church attorney, Robert Pautienus, sent Austin Davis a "cease and desist" letter to silence him from providing truthful information to Christ Presbyterian faculty and staff members. As a result of the "cease and desist" letter, and the fear imposed on other people to silence them from saying anything about the John Perry – child sex abuse cover-up, thousands of church members, financial donors, and CPA students and alumni remain uninformed about one of the biggest political, sports, media and religious child sex abuse cover-up scandals in the history of the world.

Re: CEASE AND DESIST NOTICE

Dear Mr. Davis:

Please be advised that I represent Christ Presbyterian Church ("CPC"), and its related entities, including Christ Presbyterian Academy (CPA), Koinonia, and the Nashville Institute for Falth and Work. I have reviewed your voluminous email communications and your allegations against my client. In your emails, you specifically accuse Matt Moore, CPC, and CPA of being involved in a multifaceted conspiracy. Your email insinuates that Matt Moore, CPC, and CPA participated in a criminal activity regarding a large cover-up for John Perry. You allege that this conspiracy has lasted for years and involves former CPC and CPA alumni and teachers.

Please be advised that Matt Moore, CPA, CPC, and its related entities, are not and have never been involved in any criminal conspiracy, and all of your allegations against them are patently false. Any assertion on your behalf otherwise is intentionally designed by you to harm CPC, CPA and Matt Moore.

Please be advised that you need to immediately cease and desist any further communications to and regarding Matt Moore, CPC, CPA, and any other related entity. This includes ceasing all communications with Matt Moore, individually, and sending your inflammatory emails to employees of CPC and CPA. Your actions have defamed the character of both Matt Moore, CPC and CPA, and constitutes libel per se, harassment, and false light invasion of privacy.

Please be advised that if you send another communication to Matt Moore, CPA, CPC, or any of its related entities, or employees, then my client will be left with no option but to take any and all legal action against you to protect CPC, its related entities, and employees from your intentionally harmful actions. Nothing in this correspondence is a waiver or should be interpreted as any kind of waiver of any rights and remedies of Matt Moore, CPC, or any of its related entities, all of which are expressly reserved.

Christ Presbyterian Church threatened Austin Davis to silence him from contacting employees within Christ Presbyterian Church and Christ Presbyterian Academy, but Austin Davis was not "silenced" from reaching out to 2008 Mike Huckabee Presidential campaign staff member, Carter Wamp.

Gov. Bill Lee - Future GOP Presidential Candidate?

Ex-GOP Presidential Candidate Mike Huckabee

Austin Davis reached out to Huckabee campaign staff member Carter Wamp on Nov 19, 2020. Austin Davis coached Carter Wamp who attended Covenant Presbyterian Church and his family is friends with John Perry's family. Twelve years after Covenant Presbyterian Church and Nashville Police silenced Austin Davis from asking questions about children placed in child-molester John Perry's "safe house," Carter Wamp still does not seem to know or understand that John Perry is a protected child-molester. Carter Wamp responded to Austin Davis: "... why do you think I want to read 28 pages of non-cogent collages and accusations?... It makes no sense to me."

Why did MBA Alumnus Carter Wamp tell Austin Davis he never joined Pastor Jim Bachmann's new "Westminster" church-- now with a name change to Stephens Valley Church? The May 17, 2017, Westminster Chapel Church bulletin announced that Carter Wamp had joined Westminster Chapel where his step-father, Jesse Mayo, was a Westminster Chapel Church Deacon. Austin Davis coached Carter Wamp on the 6th grade Covenant Presbyterian Church basketball team and he knows that Carter Wamp is a good-hearted, compassionate young man who has now become a surgical intensive care unit nurse serving patients at Vanderbilt University Hospital. However, Carter is most likely under tremendous pressure to comply with the "code of silence" to protect child-molester John Perry and the Mike Huckabee Presidential campaigns of 2008 and 2016? Hi Mr. Davis,

Just thought I'd ask again if you could take me off this email list. I left Covenant a long time ago, I never joined Westminster or whatever Jim Bachmann's new church is called, and I just don't ever get involved in battling individual cases of injustice, perceived, alleged, under-investigation, or otherwise.

Thanks for your consideration.

The "Westminster Chapel" name change to "Stephens Valley Church" occurred when former Covenant Pastor Jim Bachmann's new church venture moved to John Rochford's new Stephens Valley Development. Westminster Chapel was born from the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, and Stephens Valley Church continues to grow as the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up continues in 2022. Based upon the support the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA), Nashville Presbytery, and Stephens Valley Leaders have received from their loyal followers since 2007 – 2008, it appears to be the religious belief of PCA ecclesiastical leaders, and their followers, that working with government authorities and law enforcement to protect a known, unrepentant child-molester, is a protected and divine activity ordained by Almighty God. In contrast, child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, does not believe that Almighty God ordains the sex abuse of children, or that He blesses anyone who protects or conceals a child-molester.

Why did Carter Wamp's friend, Jeremy Hopwood, threaten child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, during an on-going John Perry - Mann Act Federal crime cover-up? Jeremy Hopwood is the Chief Information Security Officer for Pinnacle Financial Partners founded by Reese Smith III, brother of Steve Smith, a friend of Chip Saltsman. Chip Saltsman was chairman for the 2008 GOP Mike Huckabee Presidential campaign during the John Perry -Mann Act Federal crime cover-up.

SVC Pastor Jim Bachmann

Biblical, Reformed, Independent

The John Perry – child sex abuse cover-up continues in 2022 as Gov. Bill Lee appeared on Feb 1, 2022, at Stephens Valley Church led by Pastor Jim Bachmann. Pastor Jim Bachmann is the former senior pastor at Covenant Presbyterian Church who falsely reported Austin Davis to Nashville Police as a potential "security" threat to protect child molester John Perry and a Mann Act Federal crime coverup. Pastor Jim Bachmann, John Avery, Dale Lewelling, and many others are still protecting childmolester John Perry and a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, which has now collided into the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year- old Gracie Solomon, and the alleged murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, two minors connected to Gov. Bill Lee's church, Grace Chapel Church, led by ex-Pastor Steve Berger.

Gov. Bill Lee has little fear of accountability for turning a blind eye to the on-going John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up because the Tennessee Supreme Court , the Tennessee Legislature, Tennessee Attorney General Herbert Slatery, and corporate owned "news organizations" have protected Gov. Bill Lee, Gov. Bill Haslam, Covenant Presbyterian Church, Christ Presbyterian Church, and many others during one of the biggest political, sports, media, and religious cover-ups in the history of the world. Gov. Bill Lee appears to be so confident that no one will ever fully expose the John Perry – child sex abuse cover-up, that he boldly appeared at a fund-raising dinner with Steven Curtis Chapman and his son, Caleb Lee, on Feb. 1, 2022. Stephens Valley Church was born and founded by ex-Covenant Pastor Jim Bachmann, ex-Covenant Elder John Avery, ex-Covenant Elder Dale Lewelling, and many ex-Covenant church leaders and members, who split from Covenant Presbyterian Church after the retaliation arrest of child-sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, on Nov. 15, 2015.

SVC Pastor Heath Cross Steven Curtis Chapman

Gov. Bill Lee's daughter and Steven Curtis Chapman's daughter were in the same class with John Perry's son in 1998. John Perry's ex-wife, Susan Clark, is a member of Stephens Valley Church, led by Founding Pastor Jim Bachmann. In April and May of 2021, Austin Davis provided John Perry child sex abuse cover-up information to Steven Curtis Chapman's non-profit adoption organization, but no one has responded as the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up continues into 2022.

Steven Curtis Chapman CPA Concert

In the summer of 2007, John Perry's "Victim #1" informed Pastor J Hager and Covenant Leadership about John Perry's repeated child sex abuse. In Nov 2007, a Colorado victim testified that Steven Curtis Chapman advised her to tell her parents about a sexual relationship with Youth Pastor Peter Kim. Austin Davis is still waiting for Steven Curtis Chapman and his "Show Hope" adoption organization to join Grant's Army to take a stand against "private" child sex abuse in Tennessee, and beyond Tennessee. Reminder: It is never too late to do the right thing.

Christian Musician Urges Woman to Testify - By Pierrette J. Shields - Longmont Times-Call - November 8, 2007 – Excerpt

BOULDER — A Christian music star and his family urged a Longmont woman to report a sexual relationship she had with a church leader while in high school, according to court testimony Wednesday.

The woman, 21, testified in Boulder District Court about an increasingly physical relationship she said she had while a teenager with former Central Presbyterian Church youth-ministries director Peter Kim, 40.

"I felt like I was in a relationship with him," she said of Kim, who was married at the time.

Kim is on trial this week on charges of sexual assault on a child by one in a position of trust and sexual assault on a child with a pattern of abuse.

His accuser met Grammy-winning singer Steven Curtis Chapman and his wife because she roomed with the couple's daughter at Baylor University in 2005 after she graduated from high school in Longmont.

The accuser testified she told her roommate about her relationship with Kim. Her roommate then arranged a meeting in Nashville with the Chapmans for advice on the situation, the accuser said.

The Chapmans laid out a plan to reveal the relationship to the woman's parents, the accuser said.

Chapman had a concert scheduled in December 2005 at the Pepsi Center in Denver, she said, and the Chapmans told her to invite her parents to the show. The accuser said she was to tell her parents about the relationship after the concert, or the Chapmans said they would do so.

The woman said she told her parents at the concert...

Guided by prosecutor Tim Johnson through a chronology stretching from her sophomore year of high school through her freshman year of college, the woman detailed physical encounters she said culminated in sexual contact before she turned 18.

Kim was fired from his job at Central Presbyterian Church in Longmont in 2003 after he was accused by an Aurora woman of a similar relationship when he worked at her church about a decade earlier. He pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor charge in that case and had to register as a sex offender.

Question: Do Steve Curtis Chapman and the "Show Hope" non-profit adoption organization support the repeated child sex abuse of Ukraine born children?

Ukraine Orphanages Feeder for Child

Trafficking - By Laurie Ahern, Contributor - President, Disability Rights

Governments, faith-based groups and churches, aid agencies and volunteer tourists, who donate cash and goods to orphanages or build and refurbish children's homes and other institutions, may be inadvertently funding human trafficking.

Poor and disabled children, locked away and out of sight from families and their communities, are sitting ducks for traffickers and pedophiles. And nefarious staff are often the beneficiaries of perverse transactions where captive children are the commodity.

My organization, Disability Rights International (DRI), recently released a report -- "No Way Home: The Exploitation and Abuse of Children in Ukraine's Orphanages" -- following a three year investigation of the plight of children living in institutional care.

DRI found that children are at risk of being trafficked for sex, labor, pornography and organs in a country that is a known hub for human trafficking.

Some 82,000 children are said to live in these facilities, although no one seems to know for sure. Some Ukrainian activists put the number closer to 200,000.

The 2014 U.S. State Department's Trafficking in Persons Report (TIP) stated that, "Children in orphanages and crisis centers continue to be particularly vulnerable to trafficking within Ukraine."

Inside orphanages, DRI found rampant sexual violence, abuse and rape were commonplace. Children are often recruited directly from orphanages for sex and labor according anti-trafficking organizations in Ukraine.

"There's huge sexual abuse within the orphanages... So this is a push factor that gets children involved in sexual exploitation, even before they grow up. They're already used to sexual abuse," said a Ukraine counter-trafficking expert.

Producers of child pornography go directly to orphanages to seek out their prey. And institutionalized children with disabilities are particularly susceptible to becoming trafficked for their organs. One grandmother of a newborn with Down Syndrome was told by doctors that they could sell the baby for organs and get money.

Tennessee Stands

Big news today in the world of Tennessee Stands.

We want to officially announce that we have named Tennessee constitutional law attorney, Larry Crain, as the organization's General Counsel. This is an important step in the maturity of our organization and will serve to give Tennessee Stands a strong footing as we continue to defend our constitutional liberties in this state and speak out against government overreach.

Mr. Crain is a nationally recognized constitutional lawyer and frequent lecturer, and commentator. He has litigated, debated and practiced widely in the area of constitutional law and human rights. Crain's concern for First Amendment issues, particularly the rights of individuals to be free of religious discrimination, led him early in his legal career to serve as General Counsel for the Rutherford Institute and later as Senior Counsel for the American Center for Law and Justice where he litigated a broad spectrum of constitutional issues on a national level before the United States Supreme Court, the Third, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Ninth Circuit Courts of Appeal, the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, the Supreme Court of North Carolina and the Supreme Court of Tennessee. His litigation experience on issues of constitutional law spans 26 states.

We are honored to partner with Mr. Crain for the purpose of defending liberty and preserving our constitutional republic for future generations.

Onward!

Attorney Larry Crain declined to represent a banned and abused Harpeth Hall student, but he later sued her father for $3 million to protect child-molester John Perry and a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up.

Re: Austin, Catherine and Daisy Davis v. Jim Bachmann, Worrick Robinson and Covenant Presbyterian Church

Dear Austin and Catherine.

It was my pleasure to meet with both of you today. I have since had an opportunity to review the documents that you left with me concerning your case.

The facts as related by you raise a host of legal and constitutional issues, all of which are complex in nature. It appears to me that you have sought repeatedly to resolve this matter following the admonition of the Holy Scriptures in 1 Corinthians: 6, Matthew: 18 and others. It is indeed unfortunate that your appeals to the ecclesiastical authorities of the church seem to have fallen on deaf ears. What is even more disturbing is the apparent pattern on the part of some church leaders within Covenant Presbyterian to use their political influence to try and intimidate you through the use of law enforcement and civil authority. This pattern opens the church and leadership to potential civil liability under such theories as invasion of privacy, defamation and for casting you in a false light.

Over the course of my thirty years practice I have specialized in representing churches and Christians in a wide spectrum of church/state issues. I have been on both sides of church discipline cases and will tell you that when civil courts become involved, these cases rapidly escalate into a warfare in which the casualty often is the reputation of Christians, particularly in the eyes of non-believers. It is for this reason that I must advise you to tread cautiously into your decision whether to bring any type of civil action against those who have usurped their role as church leaders, and I am convinced that you have prayerfully considered any such action.

I will continue to give this matter further thought and consideration as I review the documents that you have provided me. You should also be mindful of the fact that there is a one year statute of limitations which may expire as early as June 27, 2009, as to certain causes of action you may have against these defendants. This statute of limitations is, of course, tolled as to your daughter, Daisy, because of her minority status.

5214 Maryland Way, Suite 402 • Brentwood, TN 37027

Austin and Catherine Davis 6/2/09 Page 2

At this time, I am unable to commit to the filing of any civil action prior to the expiration of this statute of limitations. However, if after further review and consultation with you, I change my mind, I will certainly notify you. I remain

Attorney Larry Crain represents protected child-molester John Perry. Larry Crain was granted a $2.1 million default judgment victory against Austin Davis for "defamation and invasion of privacy." At the conclusion of the jury's "invasion of privacy – defamation" decision, presiding Judge Thomas Brothers acted immediately to provide DA Glenn Funk a video record of the damages trial which included sworn testimony from at least one witness that John Perry had committed child sex abuse across state lines in violation of the Federal Mann Act. To date, DA Glenn Funk has taken no action against protected child-molester John Perry. Instead, DA Glenn Funk's office stands resolute in their decision to prosecute child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, sending a loud and clear message to parents and children within the MBA-Harpeth Hall collaborative community that anyone speaking out about child sex abuse may be wrongfully criminalized and discredited by Nashville Police and the Nashville DA's Office. See the judicial letter to DA Glenn Funk below.

General Glenn Funk Washington Square, Suite 500 222 2nd Avenue North Nashville, Tennessee 37201-1649

Dear General Funk.

In an abundance of caution, the "phrasing" used to specifically identify John Perry as the child-molester in Judge Brother's letter is REDACTED by Austin Davis in submission to Larry Crain's limited injunction to protect the identity of Victim 1. Attorney Larry Crain represents child-molester John Perry, and John Perry's Victim #1.

Please find enclosed DVDs of the trial testimony in the recent case of REDACTED versus Austin Davis, REDACTED The plaintiff testified under oath that R had been molested as a child by REDACTED During the trial the defendant made numerous complaints that the police and authorities have refused to investigate these claims. I believe it is my obligation to provide this information to your office in order that you may determine whether any further review or investigation is required. Please maintain the identity of the plaintiff, "REDACTED ," confidential unless R authorizes otherwise. I am advising both parties of my actions by copies of this letter.

Thank you and please do not hesitate to let me know if I can provide any other assistance.

Austin Davis, defendant

Asst. DA Chandler Harris mocked Austin Davis and the "myths" about a child-sex abuse cover-up during the rigged criminal trial. However, the child sex abuse is true and supported by rock-solid evidence provided to DA Glenn Funk. Asst. DA Chandler Harris has apparently fled Nashville for Philadelphia, PA to work for the Mullen Coughlin Law Firm.

DA Glenn Funk ignored the evidence provided to him about protected child-molester John Perry and an on-going Mann Act Federal crime cover-up. Instead, DA Glenn Funk and Tennessee Attorney General Herbert Slatery stood resolute behind the malicious prosecution of Asst. DA Chandler Harris who provided deceptive, untrue information to a jury that allegations against John Perry as a child-molester were "myths" and a "red herring."

Memphis Judge Alan E. Glenn also ignored evidence provided to him when he wrote the 3-0 appellate court opinion denying Austin Davis a new trial. MBA Judge Alan E. Glenn refused to recuse from the appeal of MBA father Austin Davis, even though MBA Judge Alan E. Glenn was provided information that MBA Headmaster Brad Gioia falsely reported Austin Davis to Nashville Police as a potential security threat to the Brentwood Academy vs. MBA football game on Oct. 20, 2017.

After Judge Glenn passed away on Nov. 4, 2021, Austin Davis learned that the wife of Judge Glenn had been falsely accused for 50 years for the murder of a young mother in Oslo, Norway. All branches of Tennessee State Government and law enforcement cannot be trusted in Tennessee. Executive, legislative and judicial branches of Tennessee State government are still protecting child-molester John Perry, the Nashville Police Department, a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up from 2008 – 2022, and Mike Huckabee's 2008 and 2016 GOP Presidential campaigns.

The FBI and Department of Justice under President Obama (VP Biden) and President Trump (VP Pence) both turned a blind eye to a child sex abuse cover-up with a John Perry connection to the Ukraine, GOP Presidential Candidate Mike Huckabee, Alabama U.S. Senate Candidate Roy Moore, and the global legacy of Rev. On July 9, 2012, Austin Davis reported John Perry's child sex abuse to the FBI and the U.S. Attorney's Office. Child-molester John Perry is protected by local, state and Federal authorities, including Gov. Bill Lee and Federal Judge William "Chip" Campbell, Jr., who is the presiding judge in Aaron Solomon's Federal lawsuit against supporters of alleged child sex abuse victim, Gracie Solomon. In 2000, John Perry's "Victim 1" was a 3rd grade classmate with two of Gov. Bill Lee's children at Christ Presbyterian Academy. First Lady Maria DiNenna Lee was a 3rd grade teacher at Christ Presbyterian Academy in 2000. A tape recording of child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, and future First Lady Maria DiNenna Lee has not yet been released to the public.

Is the FBI no longer able to protect children or give out the last names of FBI agents to victims of crime? In July 2008, Covenant Leadership and Nashville Police silenced, defamed and criminalized Austin Davis as a potential mentally ill "church shooter" threat because he asked questions about the safety of small children placed in John Perry's "safe house." In July 2012, Austin Davis risked increased retaliation when he reported protected child-molester, John Perry, to the FBI after multiple sources informed him that John Perry had repeatedly molested Victim #1. In March 2022, Covenant Leadership, Nashville Police, Gov. Bill Lee, the Tennessee Supreme Court, and many other private and government institutions, and individuals, have successfully protected the John Perry - Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, which has now collided with the alleged Aaron Solomon child sex abuse and murder cover-up, and Steve McNair's rigged secret grand jury.

I went to the FBI office as Lee Deneke instructed me to do but there is no interest in any aspect of this case. The power point presentation was not reviewed and there will be no investigation of the institutional harassment, police intimidation and child molestation. I just wanted to update you on what I learned from the FBI.

Best, Austin

Dear Mr. Martin:

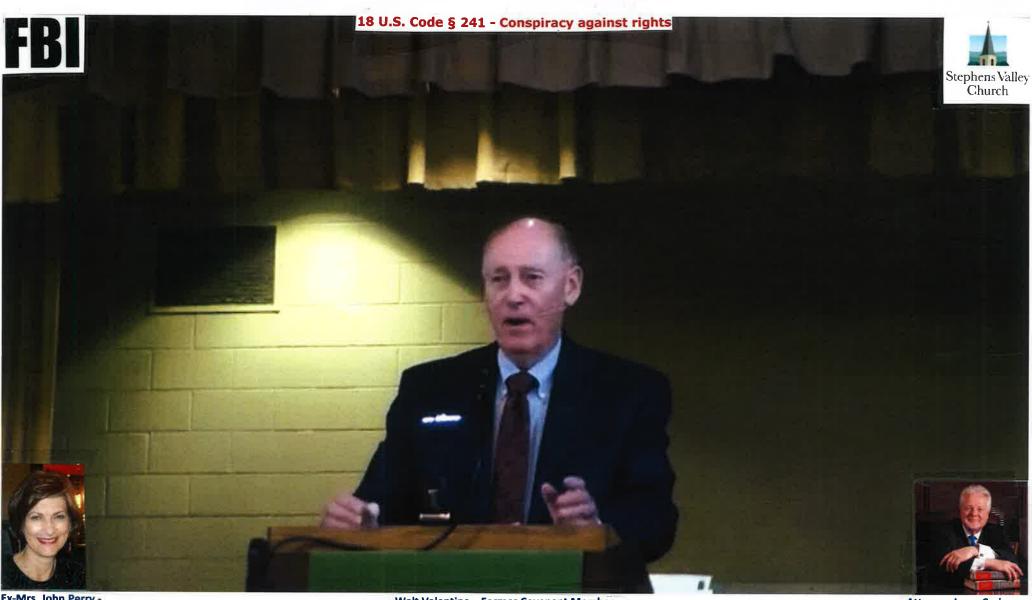

I wrote you a sixth appeal letter on March 26, 2012.

In recent days, I've learned about the "molesting of a child." The victim has informed me — was never interviewed by police/government authorities but it is —understanding that the molestation was properly reported.

The July 14 Board Minutes record two important events: 1) A Metro Police detective providing information to board members about me being a "security" threat after the unwarranted invasion of my private residence on July 2. (This was done to intimidate my family into silence); 2) The quiet resignation from leadership of the "child molester."

I will visit your office this morning to provide additional information as an American citizen.

Mr. Cochran: I received an email from retired FBI Agent Walt Valentine (see below). Mr. Valentine is a dedicated follower of Pastor Jim Bachmann and a loyal elder at Stephens Valley Church. For the record, I am a very patient father who did not enjoy learning that my beautiful daughter was abused and molested during the John Perry child sex abuse cover-up effort. I am mentally stable and do not have any legal restraining orders imposed on me. My family has been illegally threatened and intimidated since 2008 to protect a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up. President Trump and a "crushed bug" are both complaining of malicious prosecutions and corporate owned "news organizations" who don't provide truthful news to the American people. Does President Trump know the truth about Gov. Mike Huckabee's co-author, John Perry, and a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up connected to the Ukraine, Presidential Politics, Attorney Larry Crain, and the alleged murder of Grant Solomon who tried to protect his little sister, Gracie?

- January 21, 2022 -

Statement by Donald J. Trump, 45th President of the United States of America

So let me get this straight, I am being investigated in Georgia for asking an Attorney General with many lawyers and others knowingly on the phone to look for corruption, which definitely took place in the Georgia Presidential election—but the people who committed the crime are in no way, shape, or form under investigation and are instead being protected? The people looking for the crime are being hounded and the people who committed the crime are being protected. This is not the American way.

The Tennessee Supreme Court is united to protect child-molester John Perry, Attorney Larry Crain, and many others involved in an on-going Mann Act Federal crime cover-up. The Tennessee Supreme Court has denied at least five petitions related to the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, and the justices are actively participating in the on-going cover-up. Austin Davis filed a "motion to rehear his petition" in a timely manner, but the Tennessee Supreme Court denied the motion as being filed "untimely." The four remaining justices of the Tennessee Supreme Court should immediately resign, or all justices should be impeached, or Tennessee voters should remove the justices from office.

The Tennessee Supreme Court denied the appeal of Austin Davis thereby ruling that child-sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, received a fair arrest, indictment, trial and appeal process, even though the entire process was contaminated, rotten and unfair from beginning to end.

Covenant Member Worrick Robinson set up the false arrest of Austin Davis. Worrick Robinson was Ex-Judge Moreland's attorney in Federal arrest case.

Nov 15, 2015 - Austin Davis was falsely arrested during the Mann Act Fed cover-up at Covenant. No judges recused from case.

Worrick Robinson's friend, Casey Moreland, bound Austin Davis over to two rigged grand juries and a rigged jury trial.

Scottie Coombs - HH Alumnae Relations Dir. -1st Secret Grand Jury -Sent two derogatory letters to HH Alumnae.

Lt. Solomon Holley - Was paid to participate in the arrest of Austin Davis, and he also served on the 2nd secret grand jury that indicted Austin Davis.

MBA DA Glenn Funk ignored Judge Steve Dozier's all child sex abuse evidence Uncle Don Dozier and to prosecute Austin Davis while child-molester John Perry got a "free pass."

Dozier Campaign sponsor Worrick Robinson belonged to Covenant.

Andrew McDonald -Trial Juror #5 - HH -Family connection to Covenant -DA star witness, Herb Kneeland.

Judge Cheryl Blackburn did not recuse even though Lt. Holley was on her grand jury that indicted Austin Davis.

TN Atty General Herbert Slatery spoke at Covenant and he also had a conflict of interest with Christ Pres.

MBA Judge Alan E. Glenn refused to recuse and he denied the appeal of Austin Davis benefiting MBA.

The Tennessee Supreme Court refused to recuse. The High Court protected brazen child sex abuse crimes in the courts to protect John Perry and the Mann Act Federal cover-up crime.

Would you want ex-Judge Casey Moreland-- a judge who served three years in federal prison for public corruption-- to be your judge in a child sex abuse cover-up case involving his long-time friend, Covenant Attorney Worrick Robinson? The Tennessee Supreme Court and the Tennessee Court of Criminal Appeals ruled child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, received a fair, unbiased indictment and judicial process.

Reconciliation Offer

Dear Mr. Robinson:

We have several mutual friends who encourage my family to seek Biblical reconciliation with you and other Covenant Leaders. Jim Bachmann / the Ruling Session have declared they will never apologize for the abuse of my Christian family. I know you are an attorney/member who has represented the Covenant Session in civil action against me but do you have any desire to be reconciled to me and my family as a brother-in-Christ? If so, please let me know by 9:30 am on Sunday, September 19, 2010. If you wish to be reconciled, you will be warmly invited to my home at a later date to meet with members of my Christian family. If I do not receive a response from you, I will assume your answer is no. This is a genuine offer/attempt for truthful, respectful reconciliation as all my offers have been to those in the PCA. All previous offers to Jim Bachmann/the Session/The Nashville Presbytery/The National PCA Stated Clerk's Office have been ignored or rejected.

In Him, Austin

P.S. To demonstrate my sincerity, I did not blind copy the mass list.

On Dec 1, 2021, the Tennessee Supreme Court issued a final Mandate closing the denied appeal of child sex abuse whistleblower Austin Davis. On Dec. 2, 2021, Austin Davis filed an "error" motion in response to the Tennessee Supreme Court's denied ruling of Nov 30, 2021. On Dec 3, 2021, Appellate Court Clerk James M. Hivner returned the original and the copy of the "error" motion to Austin Davis with the Dec. 2, 2021, stamped file date crossed out on both copies. Apparently, Appellate Court Clerk James M. Hivner does not consider an "error" in a Tennessee Supreme Court written judgment, or Exhibit 1 (a 6-page certified letter sent to Gov. Bill Lee) to be of any importance for the four remaining justices of the Tennessee Supreme Court to review and consider. To learn more about Appellate Court Clerk James M. Dear Governor Lee,

My name is Melanie Hicks and I am your distant neighbor at redacted in Leipers Fork.

I have been to your beautiful farm and was able to pet one of your spectacular prize bulls, and my children briefly attended school with your Grandson. I gladly voted for you I am grateful for the good things you have done in my community.

I am writing to you because after speaking with a few of your employees (and friends) that hold you in the highest regard, encouraged me to reach out to you for help. They feel that you are a compassionate driven public servant that is accessible to the people. My mother was also a public servant as Mayor of a small town, and was also accessible for many issues for her beloved community.

I am writing in regards to the death of Grant Solomon.

I'm sure you have heard many versions of the truth. It has been a confusing case. I am sharing information that you are most likely not aware.

Grant spent a lot of time at my house with our kids. Grant was for the underdog, wore Jesus' cross with honor, mentored friends that were struggling, was a 4.0 scholar, fierce athlete, loyal to loved ones, and an unwavering protector of his little sister. Honestly, I have never met anyone like him and probably never will. His loss has had a massive impact on our community, especially our kids (Grant's brothers). Grant's spirit is still active and very much with us as he leaves behind a role model for our kids to follow.

But there is unfinished business. This is something Grant did not take lightly. Things are not adding up regarding his death. Grant's friends and baseball community brought this to our attention right after visiting the incident scene. They are saying... "No way, we're not buying it".

I pray, and Grant's friends pray, that you will not look the other way. This shock wave continues to travel and build, not only in our community, but through the baseball community and beyond our state, our country, and now internationally. It is a strong calling for justice that has been placed on the people's hearts. God engrains the scales of justice in our hearts for a reason. To resolve unfinished business and gain closure and righteousness for loved ones.

Private Investigator, Dan Hodges, has 30 years experience with the FBI. He has investigated this case for over a year. Dan Hodges has officially put in writing- "It is impossible for Grant Solomon to have died without assistance".

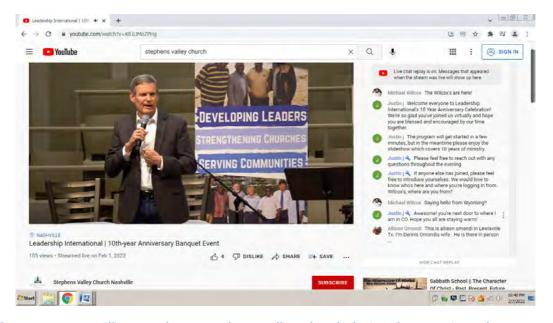

After Grant's death, two "reviews" (not full investigations) were done by Gallatin DA's, Ron Blanton, and Ray Whitley, and lead detective Jamie Helson. DAs claim full investigations were done via their own sworn statements. But a Full investigation was never performed. Witnesses were never questioned after the morning of Grant's death. The main witness, Aaron Solomon, was not brought in and questioned beyond the brief conversation with police officers had with Aaron the morning at the scene...

The Tennessee Supreme Court did not read the letter Melanie Hicks sent to Gov. Bill Lee, and apparently Gov. Bill Lee did not read the same letter and does not seem interested in answering any more questions about "THAT."

"I trust the investigative process there, and wouldn't have anything else to say about that," Gov. Lee responded to a reporter.

Feb 3, 2022 - Gov. Bill Lee - Education Funding Press Conference

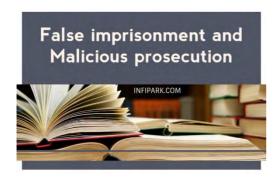

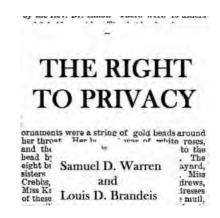

On Feb 1, 2022, Gov. Bill Lee spoke at Stephens Valley Church during the on-going John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up. Two days later on Feb 3, 2022, Gov. Lee was asked a question about the suspicious death of 18-year-old, Grant Solomon, and a citizen letter sent to him by Melanie Hicks. Based upon Gov. Lee's association with Stephens Valley Church led by Pastor Jim Bachmann, and based upon his response to the reporter's two questions about the suspicious death of Grant Solomon, it now appears reasonable to conclude that Gov. Bill Lee has no interest or curiosity about two alleged child sex abuse cover-up cases, and the alleged murder of 18-year old Grant Solomon.

Does Carrie Underwood support Gov. Bill Lee, the Tennessee Supreme Court, a rigged, unfair judicial process, and "private" child sex abuse protected by the First Amendment?

The Tennessee Supreme Court ruling against Austin Davis ensures that Sarah Huckabee Sanders will be elected the next Governor of Arkansas on Nov 8, 2022. Arkansas voters might not support Sarah Huckabee Sanders, or the on-going John Perry child sex abuse cover-up, but national news organizations like CNN have protected child-molester John Perry to the great harm and detriment of Austin Davis, his family, other victims, voters in Tennessee, Arkansas, and all American voters. CNN apparently has its own possible internal issues following the recent arrest of longtime CNN producer John Griffin, and also the recent resignation of a 2nd CNN producer named Rick Saleeby. Also, CNN's Andrew Kaczynski has not taken action to correct the false, untrue "expired statute of limitations" misinformation he included in his original John Perry - BuzzFeed story posted on June 10, 2015. Andrew Kaczynski's former chief editor at BuzzFeed, Ben Smith, also refused to correct the false, untrue "expired statute of limitations" misinformation in the original story. Ben Smith was most recently the media columnist at the New York Times, but has now announced a global news start-up project with former Bloomberg Media CEO Justin B. Smith. Ben Smith was the first chief editor to publish the Russian - Steele Dossier in Jan 2017, which has now been discredited as "fake news" in Jan 2022.

Subject: BuzzFeed Story Correction - Mann Act Child Sex Abuse Cover-Up

Dear Mr. Smith:

I hope BuzzFeed will follow-up to correct a story written about my family in June 2015?

Nashville Police lied to BuzzFeed reporters that the "statue of limitations was tolled, barring prosecution" in a child sex abuse cover-up case. BuzzFeed has not followed up or made a correction to a story with a significant untrue police statement.

I was arrested after the BuzzFeed story was published, jailed for 18 days, lost a $2.1 million defamation lawsuit via a contested default judgment, and was back before the Middle Tennessee Apellate Court for oral arguments again yesterday.

I've been in a court battle with Jay Sekulow's long-time attorney friend, Larry Crain, but Mr. Crain did not come to court on Wednesday. Instead, a young lady lawyer appeared in his position who was apparently not listed as an attorney on the court docket. (I have a tape recording of the hearing).

BuzzFeed Chief Editor, Ben Smith, departed BuzzFeed in 2020 to become the "Media Columnist" for the New York Times. Shouldn't a New York Times "Media Columnist" possess a tiny bit of journalistic integrity in order to inform the public of any violation of journalism ethics in the Media? Shouldn't a New York Times "Media Columnist" be eager to inform the public about any news organization that betrays and abandons a reliable "news source" who gets wrongfully sued for $3 million while the powerful, trusted "news organization" magically escapes being sued? If whistleblowers and citizen "news sources" ever learn that they can be betrayed and abandoned by powerful corporate news organizations exposing them to retaliatory lawsuits because they exposed child sex abuse or other criminal wrongdoing, will whistleblowers and citizens go "silent" in free America, and is free America over and done?

Austin -- we're unlikely to cover this because at this point most of the Globe's coverage is locally and regionally focused, and I don't think there's a strong enough Boston or New England connection here to fall in one of those categories. But I'll be back in touch if we want to pursue it.

This is a small example of many e-mail exchanges with corporate owned "news organizations" such as NBC, MSNBC, CNN, CBS, ABC, New York Times, Washington Post, who had no genuine interest in President Trump's attorney, Jay Sekulow, or a major child sex abuse cover-up connected to White House Press Secretary Sarah Huckabee Sanders, or other alleged crimes and public corruption, which now includes the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year old Gracie Solomon, and the alleged murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, who tried to protect his little sister?

Hi Austin.

Yes, I received your emails. However, after reviewing them I would suggest that you send them to a local outlet or investigative journalist. There are a number of good investigative journalists in the Middle Tennessee area that might have an interest in this story. Because it's so local in nature, they might be able to work with you more closely and would also have a greater degree of background understanding of the facts and various players on the ground. The best example that I can point you to is the Catholic sex abuse scandal in Boston, MA. Rather than the New York Times or Washington Post, it was the Boston Globe's Spotlight team that investigated and broke this story. They had taken such an active interest in the story because they're a local/regional paper. If there is in fact a story there in Nashville, the Tennesseean would be the go-to.

Best regards, Justin

Does anyone trust corporate owned "news organizations" who deliberately conceal important information about the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, Presidential Politics, the global legacy of Rev. Billy Graham, and the Ukraine?

Feb 12, 2022: President Trump stated that the Durham court filing provided "indisputable evidence" that the Clinton "spying" campaign on the Trump Presidency is a far greater scandal than the Watergate scandal in the 1970's. If Jeff Bezos and the Washington Post really hated President Trump, wouldn't the Washington Post report on the John Perry - Mann Act Federal crime cover-up connected to GOP Presidential Politics and the Ukraine?

- February 12, 2022 -

Statement by Donald J. Trump, 45th President of the United States of America

The latest pleading from Special Counsel Robert Durham provides indisputable evidence that my campaign and presidency were spied on by operatives paid by the Hillary Clinton Campaign in an effort to develop a completely fabricated connection to Russia. This is a scandal far greater in scope and magnitude than Watergate and those who were involved in and knew about this spying operation should be subject to criminal prosecution. In a stronger period of time in our country, this crime would have been punishable by death. In addition, reparations should be paid to those in our country who have been damaged by this.

Russian attacks in Ukraine Russian attacks Russian troop incursions Russian attacks Russian troop incursions

If corporate owned "news organizations" can block and suppress stories about the rigged secret grand jury of former Super Bowl Tennessee Titans quarterback, Steve McNair, and the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year-old, Gracie Solomon, and the alleged murder of 18-year-old, Grant Solomon, and the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up connected to Presidential Politics, then Grant's Army and individual American citizens will find a way to spread the word "person-to-person" without the help of corporate owned "news organizations."

If you wish to help spread the word, use your telephone, email and social media contact lists to provide the information to your friends, neighbors and co-workers.

Per Lee Beaman's bio at the American Bible Project web site, Lee Beaman attends Grace Chapel founded by Pastor Steve Berger. Grace Chapel is represented by Brentwood Attorney Larry Crain who was granted a $2.1 million default judgment against Austin Davis in a related John Perry – child sex abuse cover-up case. Austin Davis refused to give discovery to John Perry's attorney, Larry Crain, who represented protected child-molester John Perry, and John Perry's child sex abuse Victim #1. Austin Davis does not believe that civil courts should be used by child-molesters and their slick attorneys to obtain information during the commission of a Federal Mann Act crime. Also, Austin Davis was silenced and jailed for 18-days during the same period of time when Attorney Larry Crain had filed lawsuits against Brentwood Academy parents Willis and Michelle Nowell ($300,000), and the mother of the alleged Brentwood Academy gang rape victim ($1.5 million). On June 16, 2021, Larry Crain sent a "cease and desist" letter on behalf of Grace Chapel to Medium writer Shannon Ashley to silence her from reporting on the alleged child sex abuse and murder claims made by 14-year old Gracie Solomon.

Judge Cheryl Blackburn: Okay, Mr. Davis, that is an issue I think that has gotten you in a lot of trouble.

Austin Davis: It shouldn't...... the DA's office should be prosecuting child molesters instead of covering them up... There's a molester living on Belle Meade Boulevard about twelve doors away from--... She's asking me why, because I don't want to be shackled on that issue.

Judge Cheryl Blackburn: Okay. Well. You're going to be shackled on that issue, one way or another, and that would be by me telling you something or I'm going to put you in jail again."

Austin Davis: So the state wants us not, the citizens not talk about child sex abuse if we know where a molester is?... It's called First Amendment freedom of speech. You just have a right to speak.

Judge Cheryl Blackburn: Well, in this particular issue, you don't have a First Amendment freedom of speech.

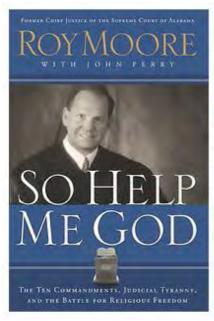

Austin Davis: Okay. That's good to clarify.

John Perry's "Victim 1" is acquainted with consultant coach, Ken Cope, and Grace Chapel Founder Steve Berger. Ken Cope has worked with MBA board member, John Ingram, and former Christ Presbyterian Church Pastor, Charles McGowan. Pastor Charles McCowan is a former moderator in the Presbyterian Church in America, and a long-time member of the Nashville Presbytery. Pastor McGowan also serves on the Hope Clinic Board with long-time friend, Gov. Bill Lee, and Pastor McGowan is a senior advisor for McGowan Global Institute. Pastor McGowan recently advised Gov. Bill Lee's church, Grace Chapel, following the resignation of Grace Chapel Founder, Steve Berger, during an alleged child sex abuse - murder cover-up involving 11-year old Gracie Solomon, and her 18-year old brother, Grant Solomon. Ken Cope served as an advisor to Pastor Charles McGowan and the leadership of Christ Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Charles McGowan

Pastor Emeritus at Christ Presbyterian Church, Nashville, TN

Ken Cope is an amazingly effective counselor/consultant! He has a very pleasant personality, excellent listening skills and the ability to quickly guide a person or a group to heart of an issue.

I have both personally been blessed by seeking his counsel for a period of time as well as confidently referring friends to him who need someone to listen and guide them through troubling personal issues. He is also skilled and effective in working with leadership teams which I saw up close as I engaged him to spend time with the leadership of the church I asstored in Nashville.

I have observed his work for the 25 years that I have known him and have grown in my admiration of his work over the course of those years.

Grace Chapel restructures in wake of Pastor Steve Berger's resignation — Tennessean - 11-08-21 — Liam Adams - Within the week after the Aug. 29 service, Grace Chapel partnered with McGowan Global Institute, a consulting firm, to review the church's bylaws...

Question: Are John Ingram, David Ingram, Reese Smith III, Pastor Charles McGowan, Pastor Jim Bachmann, Grace Chapel Leadership, Gray Television (WSMV TV), and the Gannett Corporation (The Tennessean) working together to protect the John Perry - Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, the alleged Aaron Solomon – Mann Act Federal crime cover, and the alleged murder cover-up of 18-year-old Grant Solomon? On Dec 13, 2021, a letter reportedly written by McGowan Global Institute CEO, Bob Bradshaw, was posted to the Facebook account of Heather Owens (Heather Berger) following a Tennessean article written about Grace Chapel Church:

https://www.facebook.com/heather.s.berger/posts/10101867441833732

"To:Steve, Kurt, Mike, James, (cc: Jimmy Hodges, Charles McGowan, Scotty Smith),

I'm writing to you as I understand from Scott Farrar that the four of you remain active Elders at Grace Chapel. Unfortunately I just read the article in the Tennessean that quoted GC Senior Pastor Rob Rogers. We advised GC that Rob should stay off social media (that includes this type of press interview) to avoid "litigating this in public" and offending many people who are hurting due to the crisis at GC. Whether in context or out of context, Rob's quotes are hurtful and not helpful; they do not shepherd the flock well, certainly not the balm on the wounds that the GC flock needs in this season. This can't happen and shouldn't happen if he is being coached well. Also unfortunate that I've been talking with Scott Farrar regularly over the past couple of weeks and have repeatedly made myself and our ministry available for this exact consultation. Our engagement letter (LOE) provided for guidance and consulting for a couple more months, yet no one reached out to us to ask for advice here. I'm sorry for GC, Rob and those who have been hurt by this article in the Tennessean.

I'm sure Steve Berger is very hurt too, and should be given the comments about leadership in the church: "In American culture today, there is a tainted view of the American evangelical church. One of the things that has caused that is essentially where you have these very visible leaders, very charismatic leaders and pastors and there are things that are revealed or come out about an individual that causes people to become disillusioned about the church." Rogers said.

I've attached two LOEs that we gave Scott Farrar many weeks ago, when he asked for them: one to coach Rob; one to find a new Executive Director/Pastor. I would highly encourage you to consider both. Rob is young in his leadership and these mistakes (this will not be the last if he is not teachable and seeking wisdom and counsel from others) demonstrate his need for an experienced Executive Director / Pastor. He simply will not survive leading the entire staff with a bifurcated leadership team and style. I'm told by Scott Farrar that GC Fairview and its lead pastor Ian have essentially terminated their relationship with GC and are GC in name only. This too was a caution we made to Rob and the team, that immediately they needed to address this fracture. Unfortunately this interview appears to have caused a bigger divide than already may have existed.

Please consider both the coaching and the hiring of an Executive Director / Pastor ASAP, whether it is MGI or someone else you desire to use. We have always contended that surviving the initial crisis was not the end; that GC faced even more danger - like a prize fighter who gets knocked down and then gets back on his feet, the next set of blows can be devastating if you are not ready for them.

We are praying for you and your leadership, church, Rob, Steve and Sarah Berger, and the entire GC family. Blessings, Bob

Grace Chapel restructures in wake of founding pastor's departure

Liam Adams

Nashville Tennessean

USA TODAY NETWORK - TENNESSEE

A high-profile church in Franklin will remove any remaining power from its founding pastor who has been at the center of several public controversies, including his trip to Washington, D.C. on Jan. 6.

Grace Chapel — whose members have included Gov. Bill Lee — announced Oct. 25 that it is adopting several recommendations that it received from a third-party consultant to restructure church governance.

The announcement follows conflict over Steve Berger's leadership style and political advocacy. The church handled the disagreements privately for months until it blew up in a contentious church service on Aug. 29.

Grace Chapel's decision to partner with the third-party consultant and the announcement about the consultant's recommendations is an effort to move past everything.

"There was trust and, specifically, of the leadership and eldership of Grace Chapel, that had been broken," Rob Rogers, Grace Chapel's senior pastor, said in an interview. "One of the biggest things we wanted to do was to make sure that people who call Grace Chapel home that they can have confidence in whatever decisions were being made going forward."

Berger, who had already severed all formal ties with Grace Chapel before the church's Oct. 25 announcement, declined to comment in a phone call Friday with The Tennessean.

Berger founded the nondenominational Grace Chapel in 1994.

A private conflict becomes public

The recent strife in Grace Chapel started in late January when Berger announced he was stepping down from his role as senior pastor to launch a non-profit whose mission is to "impact influencers" with a seeming focus on political activism in Washington D.C.

Berger would no longer be managing the church's day-to-day operations, though he would remain on the board of elders, he said at the time.

Right before Berger's announcement, the pastor traveled to Washington D.C. on Jan. 6, the day rioters stormed the U.S. Capitol.

Berger said he was back in his hotel room before the riot broke out and that he denounced the violence, but shared false claims that supporters of the antifascist protest movement, antifa were the instigators. Berger later apologized for repeating the antifa claims.

He criticized the media's coverage of his trip to the nation's capital during church services.

For years, Berger has been a vocal proponent of Republican politicians and ideas, including delivering the invocation at Lee's inauguration in 2019 and filming an endorsement video for Sen. Bill Hagerty last July.

Mark Bright, Grace Chapel's former executive pastor, told The Tennessean that Berger stepping down from his senior pastor role was unrelated to news about Berger's trip to D.C. But Berger's politically inspired behavior was a point of contention between Berger and church senior leadership, Rogers said.

Republican U.S. Senate candidate Bill Hagerty and U.S. Sen. Marsha Blackburn, R-Tenn., wave to supporters at his election night watch party Aug. 6, 2020 in Gallatin, Tenn. GEORGE WALKER IV / THE TENNESSEAN

In the months after the announcement about Berger's transition, Rogers sent an email to the board of elders calling Berger a "extremist pastor," according to the statement that Grace Chapel posted Oct. 25, later addressing the matter.

Rogers and other leaders in the church have refrained from sharing most details about their private disputes with Berger. But it led to Bright resigning and Rogers offering to resign. The board would later reinstate Rogers, according to information at an Aug. 29 church service.

Rogers shared with The Tennessean that he and Bright had resigned "under duress," a detail Rogers had not previously shared with the congregation.

Then, at that Aug. 29 church service, members of the board of elders and Rogers spoke to address the conflict between Berger and the church's senior leadership team that was previously private.

As Rogers was speaking, a member of the congregation interrupted the pastor and spoke in support of Berger, who was in the audience, according to video recordings of the service. Grace Chapel has not made its recording of the service publicly available.

An elder tried to quell the first disruption in the service, only to be followed by Berger's wife, Sarah, who took the mic and spoke critically of Rogers and Bright.

"He (Rogers) didn't repent for sinning against my husband. So, from the very inception of this transition, it has been made manifestly evident that there's an endeavor to cancel the founding pastor of Grace Chapel," Sarah Berger said, according to video of the service.

As Sarah Berger was speaking, Grace Chapel cut off its livestream of the service. Afterward, the church released a statement saying it stands by Rogers. The next day, Berger announced on social media that he resigned from Grace Chapel's board of elders, effectively severing his remaining ties with the church.

Changing church governance

Within the week after the Aug. 29 service, Grace Chapel partnered with McGowan Global Institute, a consulting firm, to review the church's bylaws. McGowan's review resulted in a 28-page report, the key details of which the church communicated to its members in the Oct. 25 announcement, Rogers said.

Berger delivers the invocation during the inauguration of Bill Lee as the 50th governor of Tennessee at War
Memorial Auditorium in Nashville on

The existing bylaws that Grace Chapel is now revising are modeled on a "founding pastor structure" that gave Berger "a high level of authority and control," Rogers described.

For example, the existing bylaws state that in the event Berger is unable to serve as pastor, the board of elders could appoint a new pastor, but still not without Berger's approval, according to a copy of the bylaws that the church adopted in 2013 that The Tennessean obtained.

Also, the bylaws state that the board of elders could terminate any staff member of the church "except that of the pastor."

The changes that Grace Chapel is in the process of making to the bylaws still allows the senior pastor role to have significant authority, but the board of elders and financial advisory board will also have more autonomy than they did before.

Rogers hopes that overall, the changes and the church's decision to partner with McGowan will demonstrate to its members that the church is proceeding in a "healthy" way.

"In American culture today, there is a tainted view of the American evangelical church. One of the things that has caused that is essentially where you have these very visible leaders, very charismatic leaders and pastors and there are things that are revealed or come out about an individual that causes people to become disillusioned about the church," Rogers said.

He added, "One of the things that is helpful about the new structure is because there is a much higher level of accountability for leadership, it preemptively lowers the chances of that happening."

Hello Austin,

My name is Liam Adams and I am the new religion reporter at the Tennessean. I received your email last week that I believe you Blind CC'd me on in an email to Lt. Gov. McNally about an upcoming candlelight vigil for Gracie and Grant Solomon. I only as of this week have been able to do some research on Grace Chapel (again, since I'm new) and the story of Gracie Solomon. I am actually planning on doing a story by the end of this week related to the letter that Grace Chapel posted about the recommendations that MGI gave the church. Since I'm new to all of this, I will likely need to take this story in bite sized portions. Though it's something I intend to pursue. That said, it would be great to connect further. I also plan to attend the candlelight vigil if that is still scheduled as expected? Thank you very much.

Sincerely, Liam

Hi Liam: I had a chance to re-read the Grace Chapel Elders letter posted on their Facebook page on Oct 25, 2021.

In retrospect, I am more troubled tonight by the Grace Chapel letter than the first time I read it 10 days ago.

In my opinion, the letter is manipulative, insensitive, and an additional insult towards alleged child sex abuse victim, Gracie Solomon.

Grace Chapel Leaders spoke of limiting details and guarding speech in a way that "gives life and protects those we love-- especially those in the family of Christ."

However, 14-year old Gracie Solomon does not believe that she was loved and protected, or that her 18-year old brother, Grant Solomon, was loved and protected.

Enough for tonight. Thanks again for your phone call this afternoon. Gracie and Grant supporters look forward to meeting you at the candlelight vigil on Nov 10th. Best, Austin

CONGREGATION MEETING MINUTES

Excerpt

2010

A called meeting of the congregation was held Sunday, June 6, 2010, 9:30 A.M at the church to announce a disciplinary action taken by the Session.

Moderator: Pastor Jim Bachmann

Elder John Avery

It is my charge this morning to inform you of a disciplinary action recently taken by the Session. Before doing that I will read the opening passages from the Book of Church Order Part II regarding Discipline.

- 27-1. Discipline is the exercise of authority given the Church by the Lord Jesus Christ to instruct and guide its members and to promote its purity and welfare. The term has two senses:
- a. the first referring to the whole government, inspection, training, guardianship and control which the church maintains over its members, its officers and its courts;
- b. the second a restricted and technical sense, signifying judicial process. 27-2. All baptized persons, being members of the Church are subject to its discipline and entitled to the benefits thereof.
- 27-3. The exercise of discipline is highly important and necessary. In its proper usage discipline maintains:
- a. the glory of God,
- b. the purity of His Church, and
- c. the keeping and reclaiming of disobedient sinners. Discipline is for the purpose of godliness (I Timothy 4:7); therefore, it demands a self-examination under Scripture.

Its ends, so far as it involves judicial action, are the rebuke of offenses, the removal of scandal, the vindication of the honor of Christ, the promotion of the purity and general edification of the Church, and the spiritual good of offenders themselves.

27-4. The power which Christ has given the Church is for building up, and not for destruction. It is to be exercised as under a dispensation of mercy and not of wrath. As in the preaching of the Word the wicked are doctrinally separated from the good, so by discipline the Church authoritatively separates between the holy and the profane. In this it acts the part of a tender mother, correcting her children for their good, that every one of them may be presented faultless in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Having read those words, the announcement of discipline is as follows:

If you have questions, feel free to ask the pastors or other Session members.

A car window was shattered, several acts of vandalism occurred at the Davis private family home, creepy messages and threatening messages were sent to the Davis family, a threat letter was turned over to Nashville Police, a 2nd letter remains in a plastic bag and has not been turned over to Nashville Police, and the Davis family is abandoned in Tennessee with no protection from local, state, or Federal law enforcement. Austin Davis received a response from the email account of Attorney Bill Ozier at Bass, Berry and Sims which stated: "Stop sending me this trash." Austin Davis did not receive a response from the email account of MBA Vice-Chairman, Jim Cheek. Fourteen months later, Bass, Berry and Sims now represents former WSMV TV news anchor, Aaron Solomon, in a Federal lawsuit against numerous supporters of 14-year old alleged child sex abuse victim, Gracie Solomon. MBA Father / Federal Judge William "Chip" Campbell, Jr., was the presiding judge in the now dismissed Federal lawsuit. Attorney Chip Campbell protected the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up in two civil lawsuits filed by Austin Davis prior to becoming a Federal Judge. It is not yet known if Bass, Berry and Sims will appeal the dismissed ruling?

Washington Post owner, Jeff Bezos, is a long-time friend of MBA Board Member John Ingram. The John Perry – Roy Moore – Chip Campbell story was not reported to Alabama voters, or the American people.

If Jeff Bezos and the Washington Post really wanted to remove President Trump from office, why did the Washington Post give Trump Presidential Press Secretary Sarah Huckabee Sanders a "free pass" during her daily press conferences in front of global media representatives?

Francesca Chambers and other corporate owned global reporters did not ask one question about protected child-molester John Perry and a Mann Act Federal crime-cover-up connected to the Ukraine. As Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell have learned, there is NO statute of limitations for child sex abuse across state lines.

Are President Trump and Billionaire Jeff Bezos really on the same team? Is the Trump vs. Bezos "Fake News" branding a Billionaire "sham" distraction?

Bill Lee, former Gov. Bill Haslam, TN Attorney General Herbert Slatery, others, and my Belmont daughter who was targeted and molested during the cover-up.

I have a document regarding other children who have been molested or raped without any report being made to law enforcement.

A case involving my daughter's sworn court testimony is now before the TN appellate court with a future oral argument date to be determined by the court. (The court denied "three requests" for oral arguments.)

Federal Judge Nominees Chip Campbell and Amy Coney Barrett both testified before the Senate Judiciary on Sept 6, 2017, six days before my daughter provided sworn court testimony in Nashville on Sept 12, 2017.

I also have an email exchange between my daughter and Gov Candidate Bill Lee from two years ago, and she is still waiting for a response from Gov Lee's "policy team."

I also have a court transcript and deposition of the child sex abuse expert witness, and a trial dvd that includes sworn testimony of a child sex abuse victim who redacted the Ukraine.

Court Finds Judge Jones Acted Illegally in Divorce Proceedings

Senior Judge Robert E. Lee Davies this week found that Davidson County Circuit Court Judge Kelvin Jones acted illegally during his divorce proceedings, finding that he relied on "attorney/client privileged communications that were illegally obtained" during the proceedings. Davies also denied attempts by Jones to reverse the initial judgment in the divorce. Jones has denied any illegal activity and told the Tennessean that he disputed the wording in the published order but not the ruling itself.

Former Judge Casey Moreland sentenced to 44 months in prison – NewsChannel5 - Posted at 4:59 PM, Nov 30, 2018 – (Judge Casey Moreland bound Austin Davis over for indictment).

Former Davidson County General Sessions Judge Casey Moreland, 61, was sentenced to 44 months in federal prison and forced to pay restitution of $18,000 and a forfeiture of $13,500 for obstruction of justice, witness tampering and stealing cash from the Drug Court Foundation that he founded. Federal prosecutors said Moreland's case was one of the "most shocking cases of misconduct by a public official this district has ever seen." Moreland pleaded guilty earlier this year to obstruction of justice after an undercover FBI informant videotaped him as he discussed planting drugs on his former mistress in an attempt to discredit her. At the time the FBI was investigating whether he traded favors in his courtroom for sex. Moreland later pleaded guilty to destroying evidence related to embezzling cash from the Davidson County Drug Court Foundation. Moreland stood before Judge Waverly Crenshaw today and apologized to the people of Davidson County. He said they deserved better.

MBA Headmaster Brad Gioia and MBA Father, DA Glenn Funk, worked together against MBA Father, Austin Davis, to protect the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, the alleged gang rape of a 6th grade student at Brentwood Academy, and St. Paul Christian Academy Headmaster, Ken Cheeseman. Ken Cheeseman was a Covenant Deacon and connected to both alleged child sex abuse cover-up cases, along with Brentwood Attorney Larry Crain. Ken Cheeseman is now the Headmaster at The Webb School in Bell Buckle, Tennessee.

Mr. Brad Gioia,

Why did you write a letter to the MBA community on October 20th saying you contacted the police on a former MBA parent? If you contacted the police, why is there no police report in the MNPD records division? Why did you say the former parent's concerns "seem entirely unrelated to MBA," when you should be aware that at least two MBA faculty members are part of a continuing child-molester cover-up campaign?

During the MBA spaghetti supper, four police officers came to our home to arrest Austin to shut him up. Why did you ban Austin from the MBA campus? You know Austin shouldn't be banned. The army of boys Austin has coached since the 80s also know the banning is ridiculous. Everyone who knows Austin knows he loves and cares about kids. Yet for simply writing an email, Austin was thrown in jail for 18 days without an appearance before the night commissioner. No police report. No hearing. 18 days in jail.

I am disappointed you did not apologize to my children yesterday as Austin requested. Instead, he is back in court before Judge Cheryl Blackburn this morning.

The Tennessee Supreme Court protected DA Glenn Funk's "malicious prosecution" of child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, to protect child-molester John Perry and a Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, which is now collided with the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year-old Gracie Solomon, the alleged murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon, and Steve McNair's rigged secret grand jury.

Five months after Brad Gioia provided untrue testimony before Judge Cheryl Blackburn to silence Austin Davis, Lee Beaman obtained a board member leave of absence from Belmont University and Montgomery Bell Academy in Sept 2018. Austin Davis was still silenced under a "no contact" ban imposed by Judge Cheryl Blackburn when Lee Beaman stepped down as secretary from the MBA Board. During the same month of Sept 2018, Attorney Larry Crain was awarded a $2.1 million default judgment against Austin Davis for "defamation" and "invasion of privacy." Metro board defers low-interest bond deal for private school to seek higher fees - Sandy Mazza, Nashville Tennessean - Wed, February 16, 2022, 3:44 PM In this article:

Metro board members tasked with incentivizing private development via discounted loans deferred a nonprofit all-boys school's relatively routine tax-exempt bond issuance request after a heated debate.

Industrial Development Board Vice Chair Quin Segall argued for evidence of Montgomery Bell Academy's entitlement to the low-interest loan, during the board's meeting Wednesday morning.

"Economic development is our literal, defined purpose," Segall told Academy officials. "By giving you cash back, we're not creating new jobs. We're not creating new opportunities for Davidson County. So I have some concerns about that."

The school finished construction last year on a $50 million athletic and wellness center with an expanded football field, squash courts and a lacrosse field.

Now, Montgomery Bell is seeking approval for Pinnacle Bank to buy untaxed educational-facilities revenue bonds that allow the lender to charge a significantly lower interest rate on the construction loan.

For example, in September, that board approved $142 million in bonds for Belmont University.... And in January 2020, the educational board approved $16 million in bonds for Christ Presbyterian Academy...

Carol Swain interviewed Lee Beaman's pastor, Steve Berger. Carol Swain posted her interview of Grace Chapel Church Pastor Steve Berger on Jan 28, 2021. Carol Swain interviewed Pastor Steve Berger about alleged "fake news" and "lies" against Pastor Steve Berger following the massive protest at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021. Carol Swain was concerned about the persecution and media mistreatment of Pastor Steve Berger in Jan 2021, but the active participation of Nashville Police protecting child-molester John Perry was not an appropriate topic for her "Be The People" show in December 2013. Question: Are two alleged Mann Act Federal crime cover-ups, and the alleged murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon appropriate topics for her "Be The People" podcast? Subject: Sen. Hagerty - Sen. Blackburn - Grant Solomon - Murder in Gallatin?

Reply-To: fmdshiloh@aol.com

Dear Sen. Hagerty and Sen. Blackburn: Four years ago today, I was wrongfully jailed in retaliation for speaking out about judicial favoritism and three alleged child sex abuse cover-up cases in Nashville and Brentwood. Today, I am asking for your help in a 4th alleged child sex abuse cover-up case (Gracie Solomon), and the alleged murder of Gracie's 18-year old brother, Grant Solomon. I look forward to speaking with you soon. In Christ, Austin Davis 615-999-8190

Sen. Marsha Blackburn's niece attended The Ensworth School during the same period of time when Grant Solomon attended Ensworth. Does Sen. Marsha Blackburn know former WSMV TV news sports reporter, Aaron Solomon, who worked at WSMV TV with veteran news anchor, Dan Miller, Sen. Marsha Blackburn's brother-in-law?

Prior to April 4, 2008, Austin Davis shared information with Sen. Marsha Blackburn's brother-in-law, Dan Miller, about the two-hour nighttime "security threat" police investigation which occurred at the Davis family home on July 2, 2008. Dan Miller was troubled by the police action and he promised to help fellow Ensworth parent, Austin Davis, when he returned from his trip to the Masters in his hometown of Augusta, Georgia. Moments before their final conversation, Dan had tossed out the first pitch to begin the WNSL baseball season, which included Steve McNair's son who also played in the WNSL. Dan Miller would pass away a few days later in Augusta, Georgia, and Steve McNair would be murdered three months later on July 4, 2008. One of the biggest political, sports, media and religious child sex abuse cover-up stories in the history of the world is Dan Miller's final story for WSMV TV, and Dan Miller's final story has still not been reported by WSMV TV (now owned by Gray Television in Atlanta.)

Gov. Bill Lee, Attorney General Herbet Slatery, the Tennessee Supreme Court, and Judicial Selection Chairman Gif Thornton spiked the "John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up" by successfully appointing and confirming Christ Presbyterian Church member, Sarah K. Christ Presbyterian Church Leadership has participated in the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up, most recently by sending an unwarranted "cease and desist" letter on April 26, 2021, to silence child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis. Harpeth Hall Board Member Jack Wallace knew about John Perry's child sex abuse in June 2010 when John Perry was excommunicated. Jack Wallace knew about John Perry's child sex abuse in 2008 per Scott Troxel's sworn testimony that the Covenant Session knew about John Perry's child sex when Perry quietly resigned from the Covenant Diaconate on July 14, 2008. Also, Jack Wallace was a Covenant Elder in April 2008 when Covenant Pastor Larry Ferris contacted child sex abuse therapist, Caroline Post Cone, about John Perry's child sex abuse. In 2016, Harpeth Hall Attorney Marc Dedman was granted a summary judgment victory against Daisy Davis because Marc Dedman informed the Honorable Court there was "no evidence" that anyone at Harpeth Hall knew about John Perry's child sex abuse prior to Aug 2012. Congratulations to Attorney Marc Dedman, Jack Wallace, John Ingram and The Harpeth Hall School for crushing a "girl bug" to protect the John Perry – Mann Act Federal crime cover-up which is now connected to the alleged child sex abuse of 11-year-old Gracie Solomon, and the alleged murder of Gracie's 18-year-old brother, Grant Solomon.

If you support contaminated secret grand juries, contaminated trial juries, judicial anarchy, and child sex abuse, vote to re-elect Judge Cheryl Blackburn.

Judge Cheryl Blackburn, Sheriff Daron Hall, and DA Glenn Funk are running for re-election in 2022. Judge Cheryl Blackburn supports Sheriff Daron Hall's re-election in 2022: "It was an honor to be part of Sheriff Daron Hall's campaign kickoff." 14-year old Gracie Solomon claims she was repeatedly molested in Tennessee and across state lines. Gracie also claims in her sworn affidavit that she was inappropriately touched and possibly photographed when she was a young child. The statute of limitations is still running for child sex abuse in Tennessee, Asheville, NC, and even in Davidson County. The sworn affidavits do not identify the specific county, or counties, where the bathroom incidents took place, but Gracie Solomon did live in Davidson County when she was a child. Question: Are Nashville Police, Sheriff Daron Hall, Judge Cheryl Blackburn, Judge Steve Dozier, and DA Glenn Funk trustworthy to properly investigate and prosecute child sex abuse in Davidson County, Tennessee? To learn more about Gracie's molestation allegations and Davidson County elected public servants, please read these two links:

Solomon Holley was paid to participate in the retaliation arrest of child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis. Judge Casey Moreland and Sgt. Solomon Holley were both involved in the rigged indictment, and Sgt. Holley is now further rewarded with a promotion to Lt. Solomon Holley by Sheriff Daron Hall.

Austin Davis provided info to Sen. Subject: Sen. Hagerty - Sen. Blackburn - Grant Solomon - Murder in Gallatin?

Dear Sen. Hagerty and Sen. Blackburn: Four years ago today, I was wrongfully jailed in retaliation for speaking out about judicial favoritism and three alleged child sex abuse cover-up cases in Nashville and Brentwood. Today, I am asking for your help in a 4th alleged child sex abuse cover-up case (Gracie Solomon), and the alleged murder of Gracie's 18-year old brother, Grant Solomon. I look forward to speaking with you soon. In Christ, Austin Davis 615-999-8190

A banned and abused Harpeth Hall - Belmont University student reached out to Gubernatorial Candidate Bill Lee over three years ago but Gov. Bill Lee and his policy team have not yet followed up with the Harpeth Hall - Belmont University. Were Nashville Predators Team Captain Mike Fisher (Carrie Underwood's husband), Pastor Steve Berger, Steven Curtis Chapman, Michael W. Smith, and Dr. George Grant, part of Gov. Lee's policy team on July 28, 2018? Did former Belmont Board Members Bill Lee, Lee Beaman, Michael W. Smith, and/or Belmont Attorney(s) ever have a discussion about Belmont University student Daisy Davis?

Hi again Mr. Lee -

First of all, I want to say congratulations on winning the GOP nomination!

Since we last spoke, my father has been back in court as the cover-up continues. Here is some information you may want to read: https://www.thesilentbell.org/. I hope you will stand with our family and supporters against child sex abuse.

Best,

Daisy

Hi Mr. Lee -

I'm sorry to write you so late. I would've written you earlier, but I just got home from work. My name is Daisy Davis and I am a rising senior at Belmont University. My father, Austin Davis, enjoyed meeting you and your wife at the Corner Pub the other day. My dad graduated from Memphis University School and still has many MUS/Ole Miss friends in Memphis. I hope you can take a few minutes to look at this information (provided in the links below) as you travel to Elvis' hometown. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me.

Will HBO Vice News Tonight ask ASI Pastor Steve Berger questions about the child sex abuse and murder allegations made by 15-year old Gracie Solomon? Will HBO Vice News Tonight follow up with Pastor Steve Berger and Gov. Bill Lee about the historic 6-page "THAT" letter sent to Gov. Lee by Melanie Hicks?

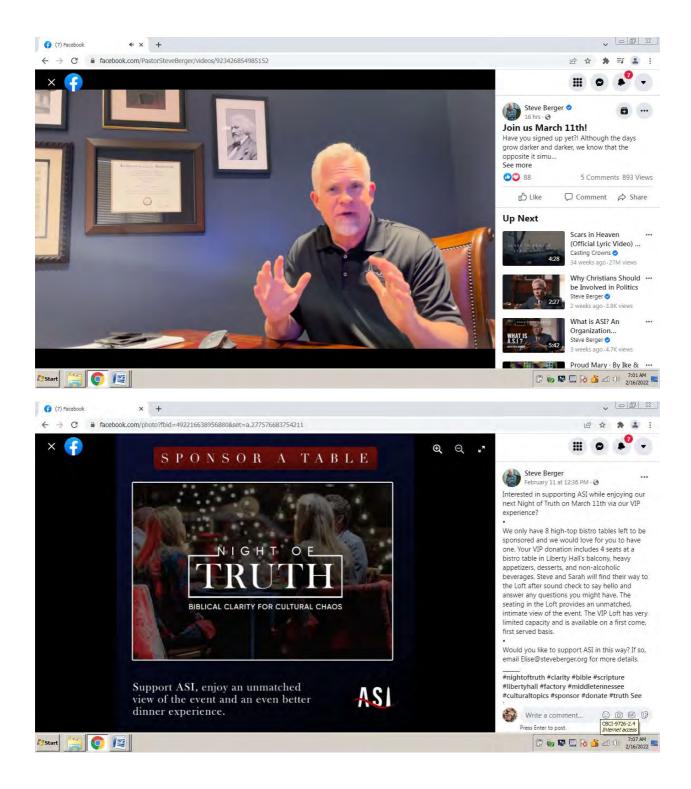

Have Gov. Bill Lee, Sen. Bill Hagerty, Sen. Marsha Blackburn, Sen. Lamar Alexander, Mike Fisher, Lee Beaman, John Ingram and/or Jeff Bezos, seen Steve Berger's Facebook post about America's prophet, Frederick Douglas?

On July 5th, 1852, "America's Prophet" as he has been called gave a speech in Rochester, NY, saying "It is not light that we need, but fire; it is not the gentle shower, but thunder. We need the storm, the whirlwind, and the earthquake. The feeling of the nation must be quickened; the conscience of the nation must be roused; the propriety of the nation must be startled." It is still true today. God, we ask that you would give us more men like Douglass whose courage and bravery God used to arouse our sleeping nation. Do it again, O' God!

On Feb 15, 2022, ASI Pastor Steve Berger posted a Facebook video with a photograph of Frederick Douglass on the wall behind him. Is Pastor Steve Berger cleverly marketing himself as "America's 2nd Prophet" in the footsteps of Frederick Douglass during an alleged child sex abuse and alleged murder cover-up?

On Aug 30, 2021, Pastor Steve Berger announced that he was resigning from Grace Chapel. The announcement was made two days after his wife, Sarah Berger, disrupted the church service at Grace Chapel on Aug 28, 2021. Pastor Berger stated in his resignation announcement: "For us, however, it is time to be obedient and 100% focused on ASI and the global matters we have been blessed to be invited into. As we fully step into our next calling, without the pain and distraction of the past, we ask for your ongoing support and prayers."

Friends,

It is with great humility and sadness that I share this announcement. Although social media is somewhat impersonal, in this moment, this is the only way to share broadly and effectively to a wide range of friends and family. Sarah and I love you and appreciate all the positive support at this time.

After 26 years of planting, pastoring and faithful service to the Grace Chapel community it is time for Sarah and my family to fully move on to what the Lord has planned for us in this new season of ministry.

It is with great humility and sadness that I share that as of today, August 30, 2021, I have resigned from the Elder Board and will no longer preach nor attend Grace Chapel in Leipers Fork. This is not done lightly or without deep consideration and intense prayer.

I stand by my wife, Sarah, who bravely shared a fraction of the truths around the treatment our family has experienced at the hands of the current leadership team. Even in our absence, we pray that humility, repentance, and Biblical reconciliation will happen for the health and survival of Grace Chapel.

May Grace Chapel find a way to be brave, bold, and Biblical regarding spiritual truths as it relates to the cultural issues destroying our country. Grace Chapel has grown beyond our wildest expectations and has been richly blessed because our members unapologetically seek and hunger for the truth around difficult topics and do not desire a watered-down Gospel.

We will continue to pray for the beloved people of Grace Chapel and will forever cherish 26 years of miraculous memories. For us, however, it is time to be obedient and 100% focused on ASI and the global matters we have been blessed to be invited into.

As we fully step into our next calling, without the pain and distraction of the past, we ask for your ongoing support and prayers.

Sincerely,

Founder/Executive Director of ASI

Grace Chapel Church threatens legal action against blogger over 'defamatory statements'

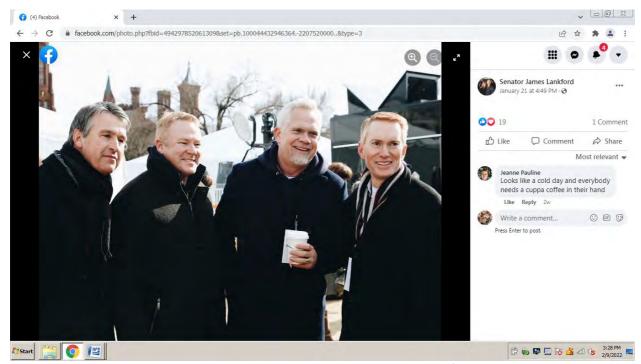

By Alexander Willis - Jun 18, 2021 Updated Jun 18, 2021 - Excerpt

Franklin's Grace Chapel Church's lawyers at Crain Law Group sent a cease and desist letter on Wednesday to Shannon Ashely, an online blogger, after the writer published a lengthy story alleging "evangelical abuse" against the Franklin church...

On June 12, Ashley published a piece about the allegations levied against former WSMV Channel 4 News anchor Aaron Solomon, who has been accused by his 14-year-old daughter Gracie Solomon of sexual abuse and of being involved with the death of his then-18-year-old son Grant Solomon.

Gracie also alleges failures on the parts of Grace Chapel and Grace Christian Academy for failing to protect her despite her and her mother's cries for help.

Allegations that Grace Chapel Church ignored reports of abuse 'demonstrably false,' says lead pastor — By Alexander Willis — June 21, 2021 — Updated July 7, 2021 — Franklin Home Page - Excerpt

Rob Rogers, who has been acting lead pastor at Franklin's Grace Chapel Church since Steve Berger's departure from the role earlier this year, addressed on Sunday recent allegations that church staff had ignored reports of abuse, calling them "blatantly and demonstrably false."... The allegations levied against Grace Chapel are just a small part of the allegations recently made against former WSMV Channel 4 News anchor Aaron Solomon, who has been accused by his 14-year-old daughter Gracie Solomon of sexual abuse and of being involved with the death of his then-18-year-old son Grant Solomon... "None of these news sources have ever - [not] one single time - reached out to any of our staff, our communications team, our elders for clarification on anything that they are publishing as truth. So it seems fairly obvious that the truth doesn't actually matter to the very people whose sole duty and responsibility is to investigate and report what is true." Despite Rogers' claim that no news publication had reached out to Grace Chapel staff, the Home Page had reached out to Berger's assistant Elise Glasser on June 2 via email, six days before any of the allegations were published. Glasser responded the following day and declined to comment on the meeting between Grant and Berger given that it was "an ongoing investigation involving a minor child."

Were Pastor Steve Berger and former Mike Huckabee campaign spokeswoman, Alice Stewart, sitting near each other during the same "pro-life" meeting? Have Pastor Steve Berger and CNN Political Commentator Alice Stewart ever discussed child-sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, or the alleged child sex abuse of 14-year old Gracie Solomon, or the alleged murder of Gracie's 18-year old brother, Grant Solomon?

Did Former Huckabee Press Secretary Alice Stewart attend the same "pro-life" meeting as former Grace Chapel Pastor Steve Berger? Does Alice Stewart know Pastor Steve Berger's via Pastor Berger's powerful political, media and faith connections in Washington, D.C.? Is CNN political commentator, Alice Stewart, one of Steve Berger's powerful media leader connections?

Did former Gov. Mike Huckabee –Sen. Ted Cruz press secretary, Alice Stewart, attend the Jerusalem Prayer Breakfast in Dallas which included appearances by Sen. Ted Cruz and Pastor Steve Berger? Question: Have Sen. Ted Cruz, Alice Stewart, Kevin Kookogey, and/or Pastor Steve Berger ever communicated about one of the biggest political, sports, media and religious child sex abuse cover-up efforts in the history of the world?

We ask that You bless this gathering with Your presence, purpose, power and peace.

Do Lee Beaman, Carrie Underwood, Mike Fisher, Vince Gill, Amy Grant, Michael W. Smith, and Taylor Swift support Aaron Solomon and the return of Pastor Steve Berger to Grace Chapel Church during at least four alleged child sex abuse cover-up cases, and the alleged murder/cover-up of 18-year-old GCA baseball pitcher, Grant Solomon?

The People's Petition To Reclaim Grace Chapel

Started By The People of Grace Chapel, Leiper's Fork, United States Message The People of Grace Chapel

THE PEOPLE'S PETITION TO RECLAIM GRACE CHAPEL

This Petition is put forth by the undersigned individuals in good faith and firm conviction:

WHEREAS, we have invested our time, treasure, and very souls into Grace Chapel since it was founded twenty-seven years ago; and,

WHEREAS, we desire for Grace Chapel to return to the active, effective, and purpose-driven, Christ-centered church it has been since its inception; and,

WHEREAS, Grace Chapel was founded on Biblical principles by our Founding Pastor, Steve Berger; and,

WHEREAS, we, the people of Grace Chapel did support, invest, and belong to a courageous church, unwilling to be meaningless, but rather willing to be bold for truth in a culture that wants God, Jesus, and indeed Christianity itself removed, and its churches to be spineless and weak; and.

WHEREAS, for 27 years, we, the people of Grace Chapel, have been led courageously by Pastor Steve Berger, whose reputation and legacy are valuable to us, and deserving of our respect; and,

WHEREAS, the body of Grace Chapel trusted our leadership and a new lead pastor to Biblically and respectfully guide us through this transition and into the future; and,

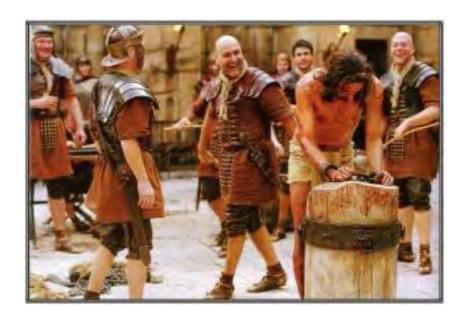

WHEREAS, the body of Grace Chapel has patiently waited for our leadership and pastors to do what is right; and,

WHEREAS, our leadership and pastors have failed us.

THEREFORE, WE DO HEREBY DEMAND:

- 1. The current Lead Pastor immediately resign or be terminated; and,
- 2. Steve Berger be reinstated as Founding Pastor of Grace Chapel and designated as a member of the Board of Elders; and,
- 3. A Pastor Search Committee be formed to locate a new Lead Pastor who will act responsibly and respectfully towards our founding principles, pastor, and his family; and,
- 4. The immediate resignation of any board or staff member that cannot support these resolutions.

The undersigned petitioners demand these actions immediately. We believe Grace Chapel can and should return to its Biblical, Christ-centered teachings, and that our current leadership has engaged in actions that are not God-ordained. We believe that Grace Chapel belongs to the people of God's church, and we refuse to stand by silently while our church continues to flounder and the body of the church suffers. The undersigned vow to withhold financial support, volunteer support, and other enablement unless and until our demands are met.

Do Grace Chapel and GCA teach that child sex abuse and murder are ok?

On Oct 20, 2021, child sex abuse whistleblower, Austin Davis, provided information to Gov. Bill Lee and the staff of U.S. Senator Bill Hagerty about two alleged Mann Act Federal crime cover-ups, and the alleged murder of 18-year-old Grant Solomon in Gallatin (see links in email below). On Dec 12, 2021, Gov. Bill Lee and Sen. Bill Hagerty apparently gave their response to Austin Davis with their continued support of Pastor Steve Berger during a church service at Grace Chapel in Fairview.

Subject: Sen. Hagerty - Sen. Blackburn - Grant Solomon - Murder in Gallatin?

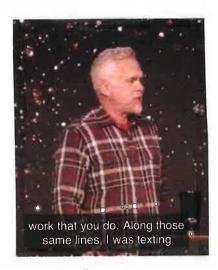

Dear Sen. Hagerty and Sen. Blackburn: Four years ago today, I was wrongfully jailed in retaliation for speaking out about judicial favoritism and three alleged child sex abuse cover-up cases in Nashville and Brentwood. Today, I am asking for your help in a 4th alleged child sex abuse cover-up case (Gracie Solomon), and the alleged murder of Gracie's 18-year old brother, Grant Solomon. I look forward to speaking with you soon. In Christ, Austin Davis 615-999-8190

On Dec 12, 2021, Pastor Steve Berger returned to Grace Chapel in Fairview from his new ministry in Washington, DC, to essentially communicate that Gov. Bill Lee and US Senator Bill Hagerty still support him during the alleged Aaron Solomon - Mann Act Federal crime coverup, and the alleged murder/cover-up of 18-year old Grant Solomon in Gallatin. Sen. Bill Hagerty and his wife were present at the Sunday church service, but Gov. Bill Lee was not present. Pastor Berger said he and Gov. Lee had previously exchanged text messages since Gov. Lee was preparing to leave in a helicopter to assess tornado damages in the State of Tennessee.

Has Pastor Steve Berger ever gone to anyone's home to personally threaten them, or to influence them to apologize and recant, or tried to coerce them to sign a non-disclosure agreement?

There is no doubt that we live in days of Intimidation, being attacked by half-truths, total lies, and satanic slander, all with the hopes of cancelling our reputation, influence and God's truth... whether it's the media, social media execs., people on social media etc., Intimidation is running rampant in our society but we MUST remember that in the midst of this culture, we're surrounded by the Lord of Hosts! There are more for us than against us! If only we had eyes to see like Elisha's servant, we would be undone! We can't stand back, stand down, or shut up. No, we need to be dressed up with the armor of God, stand up, speak up, and be filled up with the spirit of God. We must be determined to not be broken-regardless of the intimidation, attacks, and threats, and be resolved that they will not break us!

Does Gov. Bill Lee really want to make church-state "places of worship" safer, or is he making it easier for the church-state "places of worship" to arrest and jail church members or visitors who ask too many questions about child sex abuse, or other criminal activity concealed by corrupt church leaders?

Are empty churches the safest?

Tennessee Governor Bill Lee plans to make places of worship safer

BY BRIAN W. EDWARDS ON FEBRUARY 16, 2022 - BAPTIST WORSHIP - Baptist Advance

Tennessee Governor Bill Lee wants to make places of worship safer. Faith leaders say the idea sounds appealing, but there are some caveats.Lee announced during his state of the state address on Jan. 31 that he was tasking the Department of Safety and Homeland Security with developing a plan to enhance security at places of worship... "We hope Governor Lee's request to Homeland Security will materialize so that churches and any other eligible entities can take advantage of this equipment opportunity," Davis said. This week, Mays' office will meet with representatives from the Tennessee Association of Chiefs of Police and the Tennessee Sheriff's Association. In the near future, Mays said her office plans to consult with the Governor's Office of Faith and Community Initiatives to reach out to faith leaders to receive key information.

Gov. Bill Lee remains silent as supporters of Gracie Solomon have been threatened, intimidated, and sued, and as other GCA students are too fearful to step forward with their own allegations of abuse.

Grace Chapel Church threatens legal action against blogger over 'defamatory statements' — By Alexander Willis — Jun 18, 2021

Franklin's Grace Chapel Church's lawyers at Crain Law Group sent a cease and desist letter on Wednesday to Shannon Ashely, an online blogger, after the writer published a lengthy story alleging "evangelical abuse" against the Franklin church. The story was posted on the online publishing platform Medium. The letter, dated June 16, demands that Ashley publicly retract her statements and that she not make "any such false statements in the future regarding Grace Chapel." The letter further reads that Grace Chapel has directed Crain Law Group to proceed with legal action if the demands are not met by Monday, June 21.

Church leaders at Grace Chapel ignored abuse allegations, accusers say

By Alexander Willis

williamsonhomepage.com - 2021-12-20

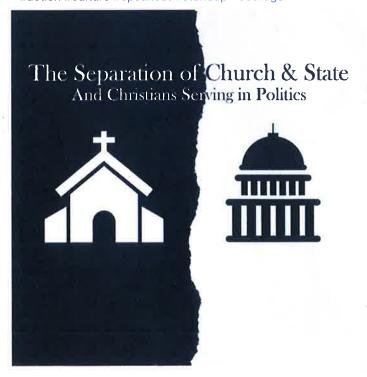

In 2013, Grace Chapel Pastor Ron Gonser — a leader of the church's Pastoral Care Ministry — allegedly had a phone call with then-20-year-old redacted, who in the mid-2000s briefly attended the Franklin church with his father, redacted. Redacted said that on the call,... Redacted's full experience with GCA will be covered in a future standalone story, and at least a dozen more have alleged other failures on the part of the church or school to adequately act on allegations of abuse, but out of fear, have declined to be among the first to share their stories publicly.

Have ASI Pastor Steve Berger, Gov. Bill Lee, Sen. Bill Hagerty, Pastor Scott Sauls, Gov. Bill Haslam, Sen. Marsha Blackburn, Federal Judge William "Chip" Campbell, Federal Judge John Bryant, and many others at Grace Chapel Church, Christ Presbyterian Church, and Covenant Presbyterian Church, established a powerful "church-state" marriage in Tennessee which is still protecting two alleged Mann Act Federal crime cover-ups, the alleged murder of 18-year old Grant Solomon, and Steve McNair's rigged secret grand jury?

"When we ask the question... 'Should Christians be in involved in politics,' you will hear much of Christendom screaming 'but the church was never meant to be involved in the affairs of the state, have you never heard of the separation of church and state?' This is a farce.... This belief is nowhere near the original intent of the private, non-binding, non-legal letter written by Jefferson to the Baptists—period, nor is it biblical..... We are like clueless robots, marching to the beat of the enemy's drum and on the verge of losing our country.... In the wake of child sex abuse - murder cover-up allegations being made by 15-year old Gracie Solomon, Founding Grace Chapel Pastor, Steve Berger, is now relocated to Washington D.C. to educate, equip and inspire national statesman and stateswomen who currently govern the United States of America. Pastor Berger is now passionately preaching against wicked child sex abuse in a new streaming series entitled, "7 Spirits of Sodom." Gracie Solomon claims Pastor Steve Berger was informed about her alleged child sex abuse prior to the alleged murder of her 18-year-old brother, Grant Solomon. However, Pastor Steve Berger stated in a sworn affidavit that he was not informed about the alleged child sex during a private meeting with Grant Solomon, on or about, May 8, 2018. Pastor Berger also states that no one on his staff informed him about a report made to the Williamson County Sheriff's Department until "some point" after his private meeting with Grant Solomon. Feb 27, 2022: Gov. Bill Lee has still not responded to Angie Solomon's desperate plea for help, or to the six-page letter written by Melanie Hicks. Gov. Bill Lee's long-time pastor, Steve Berger, is now preaching against child sex abuse and the "intimidation" of his "enemies" in a new streaming series entitled, "7 Spirits of Sodom."

In addition to preaching against the wickedness of child sex abuse and the spirit of depravity, Pastor Steve Berger is also preaching about "the subtle decay of morals."

You can't dwell in the midst of wickedness, seeing and hearing what's going on and not be affected by it. When you allow yourself to be spiritually oppressed and tormented by a Spirit of Depravity, you are setting yourself up for a fall, a caving in of all you know to be true and righteous! Stand strong, stand firm, stay true to the Word of God. He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. Turn to God and live an abundant and contagious life!

"Why do the nations conspire and the peoples plot in vain? The kings of the earth rise up and the rulers band together against the Lord... The one enthroned in heaven laughs; the Lord scoffs at them. He rebukes them in His anger, and terrifies them in His wrath... Therefore, you kings, be wise, be warned, you rulers of the earth. Serve the Lord with fear and celebrate his ruling with trembling. Kiss his son, or he will be angry, and your way will lead to your destruction, for his wrath can flare up in a moment. Blessed are all who take refuge in Him." Psalm 2 - Abbreviated
