Dear Mr. Fogg:

Thank you for testifying at the Congressional Black Caucus hearing on "Employment Discrimination in Federal Law Enforcement" which was held on November 5, 1997.

Given the level of discrimination and retaliation that you and other agents face, you showed great courage in coming forward to tell your story. It makes a difference for Members of the CBC to hear first hand these heart-wrenching tales of discrimination. The CBC is committed to addressing the concerns that you and others raised at the hearing.

Again, thank you for coming forward to tell your story.

Sincerely,

MAXINE WATERS, CHAIR
THE CONGRESSIONAL BLACK CAUCUS
