We work on the simple idea that communication, quality and trust are the key elements to every project we do. Our 10-year partnership with Nick Scali Furniture is proof that it works.

Nick Scali Furniture is one of Australia's largest furniture retailers. However, every Nick Scali store exudes intimacy and style. Large showrooms are transformed into luxury living spaces. Every piece of furniture is featured to showcase its beauty and quality. Customers have space to appreciate the craftsmanship and calmly make their choices.

Creating this experience requires a lot of work behind the scenes – from the sales, marketing, product and property teams. MJH Projects has been working with

Nick Scali Furniture for more than 10 years, providing complete fitout solutions for its Australian and New Zealand operations
