

A photograph of two young women with dark hair, smiling and looking towards the camera. They are in a body of water, with their heads and shoulders above the surface. The water is dark and has some ripples. The background is a solid dark red color.

CAMPER CHECK IN

Continuing to mentor and disciple campers throughout the year.

On a monthly basis, Tapawingo staff seek to reach out to campers via a letter or phone call to continue connection, discipleship, and offer spiritual encouragement.