

SAFETY ALERT

Point of operation and gloves

As a result of the recent serious injury, there are two contributing factors to the severity of the injury:

1. Reaching into the point of operation before machine rotating parts come to a complete stop
2. Using incorrect gloves around rotating parts (non-tear away)

Communicate this Alert to all applicable employees and post this Alert on safety bulletin boards