▲ Urgent Notice: You still owe a balance due for tax year 2016

Amount due: $7,955.76

We're sending you this notice to explain the amount you still owe for your 2016 Form 1040 taxes. You must pay the amount due by June 9, 2025 to prevent interest and applicable penalties from continuing to increase.

What you need to do immediately

Pay your balance online now. Pay as much as you can now by visiting IRS.gov/Payments on a computer or mobile device. It's fast, secure, and you'll receive instant confirmation of your payment.

- Pay online directly from your bank account.
- Pay with your credit card, debit card, or digital wallet.
- Apply for a payment plan.

If you can't make a payment online, you can mail us a check or money order using the payment stub at the end of this notice.

See section below if you can't pay your full balance right now.

Consequences if you ignore this notice

We've contacted you several times about your overdue 2016 taxes. If we don't hear from you by June 9, 2025, we'll assume you agree with the information in this notice and will consider your noncompliance an active choice.

- We may transfer your overdue tax account to a private collection agency.
- We can file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) notifying your creditors we have a claim against your property, subject to any applicable Collection Due Process rights.
- The U.S. Department of State may revoke your passport or decline to issue or renew a passport if you are certified as having seriously delinquent tax debt.
- Your future tax refunds may be offset.

Every day you put off paying, increased interest and penalties (as applicable) are added to your bill.

Options if you can't pay in full

If you can't pay the full amount you owe, consider the following options:

Pay Over Time

Make arrangements to pay over an extended time. If you owe less than $100,000, you can save time and money by visiting IRS.gov/PaymentPlans to apply for a payment plan. You can choose from a variety of plan options and get instant confirmation if you qualify.

Offer in Compromise (OIC)

An offer in compromise allows you to settle your tax debt for less than the full amount you owe. Use the OIC Pre-Qualifier tool at IRS.gov/Offers to see if you qualify, to calculate a preliminary offer amount, or to learn more about the program. Use of this tool does not guarantee offer acceptance.

Temporarily Delay Collection

If you're experiencing financial hardship, the IRS may temporarily delay collection until your situation improves. Visit IRS.gov/Delay to learn more.

Denial or revocation of United States Passport

The U.S. Department of State may revoke your passport or decline to issue a new passport or renew an existing passport if you're certified as having seriously delinquent tax debt totaling more than the current threshold amount (adjusted yearly). For more information, including the threshold amount, visit IRS.gov/Passports or read Publication 594, The IRS Collection Process.

Notice of Federal Tax Lien

When you don't pay your tax debt, a federal tax lien arises as a claim against all your property. If you don't pay the amount due immediately or make payment arrangements, we can file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) publicly establishing our priority with your creditors and we may levy (subject to any applicable Collection Due Process rights). If we file the NFTL, it may be difficult to sell or borrow against your property.
