What you need to do immediately

If you agree with the amount due and you're not working with an IRS representative

- Pay the amount due of $713.57 immediately or we may file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien, the amount of interest will increase, and additional penalties may apply.
- Pay online or by phone or mail a check or money order with the attached payment stub. You can pay online now at eftps.gov.
- When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

If you disagree with the amount due

Call us at 833-678-7020 to review your account with a representative. Be sure to have your account information available when you call.

We'll assume you agree with the information in this notice if we don't hear from you.

What you need to know

Notice of Intent to Levy

This notice is your Notice of Intent to Levy (Internal Revenue Code Section 6331(d)). If we don't receive the amount due within 30 days from the date of this notice, we may serve a Disqualified Employment Tax Levy or a Federal Contractor Levy, as explained in the enclosed Publication 594, IRS Collection Process. In most other situations, before we levy on your property or rights to property, we'll send you a notice that gives you the opportunity to request a Collection Due Process hearing, unless you have already received one.

Property or rights to property includes:

- Accounts receivable and other income
- Bank accounts
- Business assets

Right to request an appeal

If you don't agree with our intent to levy or file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien, you have the right to request an appeal under the Collection Appeals Program (CAP) before the collection action takes place. Please call 833-678-7020 or send us a Collection Appeal Request (Form 9423). Note: The (CAP) is different from the Collection Due Process (CDP) Program. Please call 833-678-7020 if you have questions about either of these programs. For more information about your appeal rights, see Publication 1660 (Collection Appeal Rights).

Send us your documents using the Documentation Upload Tool within 30 days from the date of this notice. To use the tool, scan the QR Code below or visit IRS.gov/DUTReply and enter access code 59519-824u7.

Denial or revocation of United States passport

The U.S. Department of State may revoke your passport or decline to issue a new passport or renew an existing passport if you're certified as having seriously delinquent tax debt totaling more than the current threshold amount (adjusted yearly). For more information, including the threshold amount, visit IRS.gov/Passports or read Publication 594, The IRS Collection Process.

Payment options

Pay online or by phone using the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS). Enroll at IRS.gov/EFTPS. Once enrolled, you can also schedule payments and receive email notifications.

If you plan to mail a payment, consider the electronic options at IRS.gov/Payments first. If you pay by check, money order, or cashier's check, make sure it's payable to the U.S. Treasury.

Can't pay it all now?

- Apply for a payment plan (installment agreement) at IRS.gov/OPA
- Consider an offer in compromise at IRS.gov/OIC
- Request a temporary collection delay at IRS.gov/TempCollectionDelay

If we don't hear from you

If you have not paid the debt already, a federal tax lien has arisen as a claim against all your property. If you don't pay the amount due immediately or make payment arrangements, we can file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) publicly establishing our priority with your creditors and we may levy (subject to any applicable Collection Due Process rights).

If we file the NFTL, it may be difficult to sell or borrow against your property. The NFTL may also appear on your credit report.

- Generally, the IRS will deal directly with you or your duly authorized representative. However, we sometimes contact other persons for information you haven't been able to provide, to verify information we've received, or to take collection action against your property held by third parties (through a levy or seizure). We intend to contact other persons such as a neighbor, a bank, an employer, or employees. When we contact other persons, we generally need to tell them limited information, such as your name.

The law prohibits us from disclosing more information than is necessary to obtain or verify the information we're seeking. We intend to contact other persons during that period beginning June 20, 2025, and ending one year later, on June 21, 2026. You have the right to request a list of those contacted by calling or writing us or asking us during a personal interview.

- Keep this notice for your records.

If you need assistance, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Interest

(Internal Revenue Code Section 6601)

We are required by law to charge interest when you don't pay your liability on time. Unlike penalties, we cannot reduce or remove interest due to reasonable cause. Interest accumulates daily, so the longer you wait to pay, the more interest we add to your account. Visit IRS.gov/Interest for more information.

Note: The interest amount in Billing Summary reflects accruals from your previous balance due notice, the amounts shown below are total interest charges.

Period	Days accrued	Unpaid balance	Interest rate	Interest factor	Interest charge
03/03/2025 - 05/05/2025	63	$705.00	7.0%	0.012154304	$8.57
