Once you know where to look, and are aware of the exact definitions of the original words used, there is no doubt that the United States was indeed mentioned by name in scriptural prophecy. Not only that, but the major city in America today -- in fact in the entire modern world -- is the subject of numerous scriptural prophecies in both Old and New Testaments, once you know where to look. That's right, New York City -- the "Big Apple" -- itself is mentioned and described in minute detail in some major scriptural prophecies dealing with our present age, and the near future! In fact, New York City is a prophetic type for the entire nation of America. As with ancient Babel, this modern city stands for the state and nation of the United States and, by extension, for the entire world that is influenced, controlled by, or imitates it. It represents what will happen to the United States in the very near future.

Once you know where America is named in scripture, you will also discover that there is an entire prophetic book dedicated almost entirely to the United States! Failing to understand the correct identification of modern nations in scriptural prophecy -- particularly the United States, Great Britain (also specifically named and prophesied in scripture), Germany, Russia, China and Japan (among others) - - has resulted in the utter failure of prophecy theorists to correctly understand all of the prophecies related to this age.

Only by accurately pinpointing these modern nations in relation to their prophetic counterparts in scripture can you unlock the true meaning and significance of end-time prophecies that are vital to your health, well-being, and survival through the difficult days and years immediately ahead.

Without a correct future view, you will -- just as the entire world is now doing -- only succeed in following the siren and deadly voice of false prophets.

These include evolutionary scientists, who prefer to believe in warped, grotesque figments of their science-fiction befuddled, mostly fear-based imaginations, as the supposed future reality of events and nations on earth.

Long after the fall of ancient Babylon, another prophecy of a coming destruction of a modern Mystery Babylon superpower nation, of which the United States appears to be the ultimate fulfillment, was given:

“Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a large millstone and threw it into the sea, and said: “With such violence the great city of Babylon will be thrown down, never to be found again” (Revelation 18:21).

Why is this modern Babylon described in the prophecy of Revelation as a mystery?

Simply because the English and related European peoples -- the Germans, Irish, Scottish, French and Scandinavians, among others -- are all direct descendants from the ancient twelve tribes of Yasrael, who are almost entirely unaware of their true ancestry. All twelve Yasraelite tribes were prophesied to become great nations on earth in their own right (Genesis 17:5, 49:1-28; Deuteronomy 15:6, 26:19, 28:1; Romans 4:17-18; Revelation 7:4-8).

Disobedience to their Creator's covenants and Law was also prophesied to be the temporary downfall (still future) of all these nations (Deuteronomy 28:37, 65, 30:1-3; "Hosea" 8:10, 9:17; "Joel" 3:2' "Amos" 9:9; Luke 21:24).

The prophet discovered that the United States, as a whole, is described prophetically as mainly descendants of Ephraim (while the United Kingdom, along with Canada and Australia, are descendants of Manasseh), according to the prophecies of Genesis 48:17-20, and particularly the entire book of "Hosea." Of Manasseh Yasarel said: "He also will become a people, and he also will become great," (Genesis 48:19) just as the main country of the United Kingdom is otherwise called "Great Britain" to this day. While a more accurate modern translation of the blessing on Ephraim, in which nations can also be rendered as states in modern English, reads: "Nevertheless, his [Manasseh's] younger brother [Ephraim] will be greater than he, and his descendants will become a united states.... "So he put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh" (Genesis 48:19 and verse 20)!

Centuries later, the prophet Yahvsave ("Hosea") was given a rather long prophetic message about the rebellious, stiff-necked, backsliding Yasarel — and in particular Ephraim — as chiefly guilty, among all the nations their descendants would one day become (most of which are presently situated in Europe, Great Britain, Australia, Canada and the United States).

America isn't called "the modern Romans" for nothing. Like the old Roman Empire, which began as a republic, America also started as a republic but was quickly side-tracked, first into a democracy and, finally, into a personality-cult style empire, where presidents take upon themselves ever more dictatorial power under the guise of executive orders (with the help of their willing accomplices, the unelected news media talking heads and editorialists, and a weak, easily blackmailed congress).

Like these popular or despised leaders, the beast power is also prophesied to suffer a near-death wound to the head, possibly from an attempted assassination. In Daniel 7:20, 24 we learn that three of the horns, or rulers (Presidents?), will fall due to a little horn with a boastful mouth, the beast; which is another of the ten horns, who will suffer a mortal wound in the head, yet survive (Revelation 13:3, 5-6).

Modern "peace accords" and alliances with Egypt and Russia (modern day descendants of the ancient Assyrians), along the inevitable frustrated and thwarted results, were also prophesied in this remarkable book of scripture:

"Ephraim is like a dove, easily deceived and senseless — now calling to Egypt, now turning to Assyria. "When they go I will throw my net over them; I will pull them down like birds of the air. When I hear them flocking together; I will catch them" ("Hosea" 7:11-12).

Even the Strategic Arms Limitation Treaty from the Camp David Peace Accords, or some future event similar to it, could very well be the intended subject of "Hosea" 12:1:

"Ephraim feeds on the wind; he pursues the east wind all day and multiplies lies and violence. He makes a treaty with Assyria and sends oil to Egypt."

Modern-day Assyria is none other than Russia.

Of course, things prophesied in this book regarding America are equally true of all the modern nations of Yasarel, from the U.K., Canada and Australia, to the nations of Europe as well.

In fact, the very idea of actual prophecy, or prophets, existing in modern times is considered a sign of mental insanity today:

"Because your sins are so many and your hostility so great, the prophet is considered a fool, the inspired man a maniac. "The prophet, along with my Almighty One, is the watchman over Ephraim, yet snares await him on all his paths, and hostility in the house of his Almighty One" ("Hosea" 9:7-8).

The modern prophet of the restoration has countless times faced just such hostility, being "excommunicated" on numerous occasions, having been physically accosted and attacked at religious meetings, having police called to bar his entrance, or merely ostracized, ignored and regarded with suspicion by others, in numerous locales.

As the prophet ended his accurate foretelling of things to come, centuries and millennia in advance, he also defined the difference between those who are the Creator's elect and everyday Americans, Canadians, Britons, Australians, and Europeans, among others:

"Who is wise? He will realize these things. Who is discerning? He will understand them. "The ways of Yahveh are right; the righteous walk in them, but the rebellious stumble in them" ("Hosea" 14:9).

Even more remarkable and yet disturbing, the modern prophet came to realize, is the prophetic description of one major modern port city, in the scriptures known as "Jeremiah" and Revelation, that is also identified with modern America, or the United States, in general, being exposed by the very statue/idol that stands in its harbor today as a stark testimony of the fulfillment, now and in future, of these astounding prophecies. The prophet has taught this since 1986, when the full truth of the identity of the whorish woman called Mystery Babylon the Great in Revelation 17:5, 7, 18:2, and verses 11-19, was revealed in this age.

Why has this been a mystery to all other students of scripture until now? What is there about this particular city that has escaped the attention of those seeking to identify it and, thereby, understand the correct fulfillment of these prophecies in this age? So many have misidentified this symbol with the Roman Catholic Church and the city of Rome, that it seems almost apocryphal to point out the undeniable fact that Rome is not a major port city, being located more than 20 miles inland from the nearest major body of water. While it is true that popish priests array themselves in purple and scarlet (cf. Revelation 17:4), confusing the false prophet beast with the woman who rides the primary beast is not how to correctly understand this prophecy!

The description of Mystery Babylon the Great, in Revelation 18, is that of a city where the merchants of the world do commerce through their maritime shipping (Revelation 18:11-13, 17-19); a city also of entertainment venues and nightlife, (Revelation 18:22) and having a powerful influence over people around the world (Revelation 18:23). This is also a city that sits astride the beast power of a growing worldwide despotism (Revelation 18:3, 9; Revelation 17:2-3, 7); a city that in the end is hated, attacked and destroyed by the beast power coalition (Revelation 17:16-17), before which this city rules over the rulers of nations in a mysterious fashion (Revelation 17:18 and 18:23).

Mystery Babylon the whore is also said to be the mother of many harlots, which is usually taken, by typical erroneous attempts to explain the "meaning" of the symbology in alleged present-day fulfillment, to mean all the protestant churches that, coming out of Catholicism, still conform themselves to the pagan corruptions of that "mother" religion, such as unscriptural "Sunday" worship (some, however, conform to the equally unscriptural "Saturday" worship of most, but not all, Jews). However, there is a far more accurate prophetic fulfillment to be found in the one "great" city, extolled in popular song and culture around the world, which has spawned so many other economies, governmental systems and cities just like it worldwide.

The prophet readily recognized that only one modern city on earth fulfills all the fascinating facets of this pithy prophecy, in minute detail. One and only one major port city is also an entertainment mecca (for stage, movies, television and radio), along with the location of a major would-be world ruling organization (the "United Nations"), as well as a propaganda center for media and advertising (Madison Avenue), and a major financial center (Wall Street), with influence upon all nations on earth and their rulers (through the stock market, banking system and major banks). It is also the original capital city of a great nation (the United States) that has military influence and control around the world today. And it was recently attacked in a historically violent manner, unlike any other city to suffer such destruction in this age in recent times (the World Trade Center attack of September 11, 2001), in prophetic fore-type of the final, yet future, total destruction of this city.

This can be none other than New York City itself, where the United Nations, Wall Street, Madison Avenue and Broadway are all located, earmarked by the very idol called the "Statue of Liberty" sitting in its harbor, welcoming all peoples, races and nationalities to its babylonian, merchant-lined shores and stores (Revelation 17:15)!

The government behind this city — that of the United States of America — has a flag that, besides the "non-color" white, is composed of two primary colors: blue (the same thing as "purple" in the scriptural account), and red (or "scarlet"), believe it or not.

Of course, as usual with scriptural prophecy, the fulfillment of the prophecies relating to the modern Mystery Babylon are dual in nature, referring not only to the city of New York directly, but also to the country and nation it helped to spawn, upon which the great whore has ridden to fame and power in the world, just as the "heads" and "horns" of the beast have a much more distinct fulfillment in the final beast power, about to arise.

By extension, the entire United States—as representative of the government deriving from this one city (New York City was the original capital of the United States, before the capital was finally moved to Washington, D.C.), which is still covertly controlled from the centers of commerce, capital, media and one-world government located there—is also included in the symbolism of Mystery Babylon.

And is it really possible the beast government the great whore rides is none other than the United States of America (in cohorts with the British and Russian governments, through their would-be world- ruling alter-ego, the United Nations)? How could it be that the entire world wonders after the U.S. and its space program, entertainment industry, news media, and economy, among other modern “wonders,” without it perfectly fulfilling this pivotal prophecy (cf. Revelation 13:3)!? The United States, for instance, has now officially endorsed the new-age religions of environmental-ism, secularism, evolutionism, and humanism, by permitting only these religions to be taught in its public school system schools. And America is, without a doubt, also the premier warmongering nation of the modern world (cf. Revelation 13:4)!

So all the states and nations today following this idolatrous concept of supposed "freedom" (particularly religious in nature, as in allegedly "free" to engage in even the most idolatrous false worship of demons), are actually just daughter whores of the main originator of this modern form of idolatry!

Long ago the modern prophet saw in the description of "Mystery Babylon" in the scriptural book of Revelation, chapters 17 and especially 18, a perfect prophecy depicting none other than modern New York City, and by extension the entire nation of America. No other nation on earth represents the sort of Babylonian mixing of all the races on earth into one monstrous melting pot, united in an effort to raise up a tower to heaven itself (the space race and all its modern-day off-shoots, including shuttles and space stations), more than America.

As the prophet started to reveal in a series of related articles, starting in 1979, the United States—in addition to representing the modern day descendants of the Yasarelite tribe called Ephraim, with Great Britain, Canada and Australia being the modern descendants of the divided tribe of Manasseh—as a whole Americans are also the modern Babylonians.

Believe it or not, there have already been at least two attempts to rebuild the ancient Tower of Babel, and there is also now a third attempt underway even today!

Like the ancient nation of Babylon, founded upon the city of Babel where the language was divided and the races scattered around the world as a result, Americans are a modern equivalent of all the races coming together once again under one language (English), to try and rebuild the ancient tower of Babel. That "tower" today is none other than the so-called "International" Space Station, built and serviced by all those space shuttle launches and flights over the years.

What is so “important” about this project, in the minds and hearts of carnal humankind, that makes them desire to enter the heavenly realm (today, so-called "Outer Space")? Then, as now, the idea was and is to ascend into the heavens (outer space) to reach, if possible, the very Throne of the Creator of heaven and earth, and thereby effectively (it must be presumed, human nature being what it is) attempt to take control over the very Ruler over all creation, as if that were possible. This has been what the malevolent, deceitful, adversarial and falsely accusing spirit being, known as "satan the devil," or "Lucifer," in modern bible translations, has been trying to do for millennia, in a doomed attempt to subvert all of creation to his biased, prejudicial, hateful, hurtful, and ultimately fatal agenda.

One thing NASA and the U.S. government are loathe to admit, to date, is the presence of alien flying craft, commonly called UFOs by the public, and that these have been involved in some violent and destructive air disasters, including the two doomed shuttle flights, the Challenger and the Columbia (a modern name for Mystery Babylon, recall).

What NASA and the U.S. also don't want to admit is the military nature of this program to colonize space, starting with what is actually an armed space station! Far from being simply a civilian program, NASA has always been a covert (hence mysterious) branch of the military, with military-like secrecy and aims.

It is certain, knowing the nature of the modern "science"-driven age in which we live, that any opposition to our efforts are deemed to be "enemy combatants," even if the Creator or Savior themselves were to prevent such ambitions as an attempt to leave earth and explore what was once called outer space. Little wonder that the world as a whole will one day actually gather and marshall all its coalition troupes together in an area called the plain of Meggido, north of Yavrsalem, to battle and try to prevent the Savior's return to rule over all nationson earth! Here is how ancient scriptural prophecy describes the current space station program, and what will become of it in the end:

"Even if Babylon reaches the sky and fortifies her lofty stronghold, I will send destroyers against her," declares Yahveh" ("Jeremiah" 51:53; bold emphasis added).

There can be no doubt what those words "fortifies" and "stronghold" signify, in this age of covert warfare, armed satellites, and similar military devices of death and destruction, which will eventually be used to cause "fire" (perhaps electrical or particle beam in nature) to fall from the sky, on the command of the coming beast and false prophet (Revelation 13:13)! One such satellite-based weapon, designed to deliver kinetic energy projectiles that burrow underground and destroy entire city blocks with a massive explosion that leaves behind telltale craters, has been dubbed the "Rod" or "Hand of God" (sic). Such a weapon has apparently already been covertly employed against China, as it recently (as this was being written, in the summer of 2015) allowed its currency to drop, in the opening gambit of an undeclared economic war between it and the U.S., designed to totally bankrupt America and take over its position as the world's leading "superpower."

As the prophecies against modern Babylon adequately reveal, this will eventually—far sooner than many realize—result in the final invasion and destruction of the United States, and the captivity of its few surviving peoples!

Concerning the Final battle of Armageddon, the beast and false prophet (who, along with a coalition of ten "captains of industry," "finance," nations, etc., are the power behind the beast), will oppose the returning Savior Himself (the King of kings and Priest of priests), only to finally be taken and destroyed in the Lake of Fire!

Leading up to this climactic conflict, where the final "coalition" of babylonian nations of this age will ultimately meet its Maker, there is yet another much smaller horn than the other nine, of the beast power, which manipulates — often by covert, false-flag "intelligence" operations, repeatedly over many decades — and is a controlling force behind most of the violent events of the past 67 years (as of this writing, 1949-2016 counting non-inclusively).

One of the chief descriptions of this beast power likens it to several types of man-eating beasts, such as the body of a leopard (capable of swift, powerful movement), with the feet of a bear (able to climb great heights, powerful enough to kill with a single swipe or blow, and able to rip open prey effortlessly), and a mouth like a lion's (able to roar loudly, to call together other potential predators in joint forces coalitions, to raven the prey, and capable of tearing its prey into bite-sized pieces; cf. Revelation 13:2).

The description of this beast, that it will: "devour the whole earth, trampling it down and crushing it" (cf. Daniel 7:23), certainly fits what the United States has done in Japan, twice, with the atomic bomb, in Germany during and following both world wars, in Korea, in Vietnam, and more recently, in Iraq, Kosovo, and Afghanistan, to name but a few that have felt the wrath of its air power and indiscriminate (or deliberately discriminate) mega-bombs, killing and wounding many innocent civilians over the years.

And let's not forget the horrors, suicides, destroyed families, and other similar devastations wreaked by the I.R.S. (Internal Revenue "Service," or perhaps that should be I.R.D. for Disservice), on the hapless citizens of America over the past nearly 90 years, both in the U.S. and abroad, in many other countries.

About three of the ten "horns" of the beast that fell, by the warring actions of the smallest but most imposing horn of them all (Daniel 7:8, 20), would these not be like the World War II Axis nations of Germany, Italy and Japan, defeated mainly by the intervention of the United States of America? This was, in actuality, a modern prophetic fore-type of the final fulfillment yet to come, since the United States is actually represented by a much different prophetic metaphor or symbol. The U.S., unlike any of the "horns" in that it did not originate out of a monarchy, but rather in opposition or rebellion against one, began very small (a mere thirteen colonies), and has grown up larger than all the world-ruling nations that preceded it, including ancient Rome, Greece, Medo-Persia, Babylon and Egypt.

This alone, however, in the face of a more compelling prophetic identification of the United States in the prophecies of "Jeremiah," "Hosea" and Revelation, is not enough to conclude the United States is the "little horn" speaks swelling words of vanity.

Two hallmarks of this modern Mystery Babylon are its sorceries or "magic arts" (Revelation 18: 23; cf. Revelation 9:21 and Nahum 3:4), translated from the Greek pharmakia, meaning drugs — whether "legal" over-the-counter or prescription, or illegal — and the Mystery surrounding this modern Babylon.

What is this mystery?

The fact that America was founded by satan (under the name and guise of "Lucifer") worshiping deists, who were members of the secret society known as freemasonry, conceals many hidden, secretive facts underlying America's constitution and form of allegedly "democratic" government (which, in reality, was established as a Republic). A certain secretive cabal of foreign and domestic conspirators have contrived, since even before America became a nation (or amalgamation of nation-states), working steadfastly to enslave first Americans and, through them, the entire world to the coming bestial world despot or dictator, about to be unveiled in the very near future.

America's true political origin is shrouded in mystery – especially America's economic history, including the first and second Banks of America – right down to the economic blackmail and conspiracy that put both the "Federal" Reserve and IRS in place, which has led inevitably to every depression, recession and economic malaise America has suffered since 1913.

The evils of this present bestial system -- run by, for and on behalf of the banksters and their treasonous legislative (presidential), congressional, and judicial cronies in crime -- are being visited on a growing number of once prosperous "first world" nations. These are being increasingly robbed, while the poor countries remain poor -- often raped through military conquests for whatever natural resources they might have possessed -- in a world gone insane worshipping this great and calamitous evil holding the entire world enthralled by its "magical" monetary deceptions, delusions, and religion-like hypnotic control (Revelation 13:8). That is the major world-destroying fallacy underlying the "new" global economy racket -- a world undermined, cheapened, manipulated and robbed by the world reserve currency "dollar" on behalf of its bestial masters, the money changers, usurers and banksters!

In the face of growing poverty as America becomes ever more insolvent by spending itself into world war-debt once again, the rest of the world is forced -- by fear of the consequences should they openly dissent -- to go along with this increasing insanity, while America (and New York City, in particular) enriches itself and multinational corporations (merchants) at their expense. To put it in prophetic scriptural terms:

"For all the nations have drunk the maddening wine of her adulteries. The kings of the earth have committed adultery with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from her excessive luxuries" (Revelation 18:3).

Notice what the prophet said the would-be bestial rulers of the coming "one world" government actually think about America and its people, and specifically what they plan for America in the near future:

"...I saw a woman [in the desert] sitting on a scarlet beast that was covered with blasphemous names [corporate and political action groups, think tanks, and the like] and had seven heads and ten horns....
"The ten horns you saw are ten kings [corporate big-wigs over industry, banking, utilities, media, and related supra-govern-mental despots] who have not yet received a kingdom [their long sought after Old World Disorder, facetiously misnamed the "New World Order"], but who for one hour will receive authority as kings along with the beast. "They have one purpose [conspiracy] and will give their power and authority to the beast.... "The beast and the ten horns you saw will hate the prostitute. They will bring her to ruin and leave her naked [economic ruin]; they will eat her flesh and burn her with fire [war, and/or nuclear holocaust].... "The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth." (Revelation 17:3, 12-13, 16, 18)

They apparently want nothing less than the ultimate ridding (mass murder) of nearly 9/ 10ths of the world's present population, quite possibly including you and your family. And they intend to get it, by hook or by crook, which apparently includes the total destruction of the United States of America, whose freedoms and liberties have long been a "thorn in the side" of these master criminal, supra gangster-like co-conspirators! All the super spy novels and movies have one thing right... There really are monstrous criminally insane, yet super wealthy and influential men and women who are hell-bent on taking over this world, who have already wrested near total dictatorial control over the communist nations, and all their socialist satellite states, such as China and Cuba, who will stop at nothing — including the total and complete destruction of the once greatest nation on earth — to get their satanic way in this world!

While the prophet and his family would like to hope for the best, for America and all its people (they being native-born Americans themselves), with all this going against it there really is little of substance to hope for regarding the future of this confused and befuddled, easily swindled country. Which is really a shame, because we simply do not live in a world of lack; only a world of oppressive and despotic governments, and would-be governments, vying insanely for total control, with the weak and powerless getting the worst end of it, for now.

Let's face it, when even the most "conservative" courts agree with the taking, and as lawyers in the case against the prophet and his family put it — your lifestyle is "unconventional" or not the "norm" (Who has the right to decide and impose this on anyone else?), then it's just a matter of time until they come to confiscate your children, and probably yourself also! Such evils only exist in truly totalitarian dictatorships, which it seems is just what modern America has morphed into, with the blind allegiance of its media, television and government-financed public schools-indoctrinated populace. Or, if not there yet, the United States is now well on its way to such a vile end.

Continuing on the subject of modern Mystery Babylonian America, now reshaped into the Divisive States through the corrupting influence of criminal-trained radicals, let's look into why it's such a mystery, and what the United States has done so wrong to deserve the curses it is falling victim to, must now endure, and is about to suffer yet more of in the near future.

Of course, in order to succeed in their treasonous endeavors to enrich themselves, while actively and persistently seeking the total destruction of their hosts — without being discovered, charged, tried and executed for their dastardly high crimes — the social parasites long ago set up their secretive societies, such as Scottish Rite Free Masonry (Scottish Rite Free Masonry was introduced in the United States in 1873, Albert Pike (1809-1891) joined this institution in Charleston, South Carolina in 1858, became the Grand Commander of its Supreme Council in 1859; finally writing and publishing its most important book: Morals and Dogma, in 1871), among others, where the actual purposes of the founders and controllers are hidden from all but the highest initiates. The secretive rituals and real activities of such outfits, in pagan and idolatrous garb and dress, with their mysterious, secretive signals, hand-shakes and the like, was designed to gradually weed out all but the most corrupt of heart and intent from the highest levels or degrees, thereby insuring the continuation of the underlying conspiracy from one generation to the next.

These secretive societies, that have likewise taken hold in some of America's institutions of "higher" learning — such as the Bush crime family men's favorite haunt, the Skull and Bones of Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut — serve a similar purpose to that of the Masons, of grooming morally bankrupt, perverse young men into leaders in industry and particularly government, where they insinuate themselves and create much trouble — bringing great evils upon the nation and the world — similar to their counterparts and compatriots in criminal enterprise, the radical progressives.

Then there is the militarization of America, with the various branches of the military taking over civilian "law enforcement" activities under the rubrics of "security" and violent but nebulous, yet seemingly pervasive and ever-present, "terrorist" threat. Then there are the pseudo-scientific "wunderkind" of the genetic research branch of the equally voracious international chemical companies, such as Monsanto, trying to buy up and patent all heritage seeds, and replace them with non-reproducing terminator seeds, to control (and profit enormously, from total control over) the world's food supply. They've gone so far as to prosecute 80+ year old farmers for daring to save their seeds for the next season's crop, a common practice for thousands of years of sustainable husbandry.

Add to all this the exponential adulteration of the land through chemical farming practices, the near total corruption of the food supply — with resulting pesticide contamination, chemical preservatives, unnatural food colorings and flavorings, over-refining, and heavy metal or other toxic adulterants in the food chain, from mercury to chlorine and fluoride, added to microwave alteration of cell structure, over-cooking enzyme and vitamin destruction — to harmful, worthless drugs and useless, often deadly, vaccines.

It's little wonder cancer, heart disease, diabetes, diseased kidney, liver and pancreas problems, and all the other modern ills created — from multiple sclerosis to obesity, down's syndrome, bipolar and various other mental problems, all nurtured and abetted by so-called scientific "advancements," without a clue of the inherent troubles, until they strike like the vile virulent plagues they actually are — are all on the rise with no cures in sight.

Arrogant and increasingly lawless courts, legislators, presidents and governors, with all their agents, investigators paid to harass the little guy — while letting the really big fish get away, or escape with minor troubles for all their crimes — are what tie all these factors together, into what threatens to be the world's last stand, ecologically, politically, socially, morally and biologically. For as the Messiah truthfully prophesied of this present day and time:

"For then there will be great distress, unequalled from the beginning of the world until now — and never to be equaled again. If those days had not been cut short, no flesh would survive, but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened" ("Matthew" 24: 21-22; Mark 13:19-20).

All of which adds up to a slew of modern sorceries dedicated to the sole objective of depriving Americans of their few remaining freedoms, liberties and influence in the world as a powerful leader among nations.

America is not, of course, the only nation on earth stricken by this modern plague of dementia and criminal conspiracy against the people of earth, by a few but influentially powerful individuals in their united efforts to destroy all nations, and institute their own brand of despotism over the survivors, once their long-anticipated and ceaseless efforts toward finally enthroning their one world despot becomes a fait accompli. Their many successes toward this ultimate Armageddon is a testament to the blindness, the complicity, and the arrogant insanity of an entire world driven mad by these, in fact, amoral master criminals, international gangsters, and corporate thugs in lawyers' and judges' (wolves') clothing.

Because of these troublemakers in our midst, we indeed live in a world gone mad, following the insane and mendacious leadership of any major political party — promoted by an equally corrupted "news" media, whose "free" press has been more the servant of deception than it is a guardian and guarantor of the public's right to know the truth. All of which, once again, takes us back to the schools and religions that have blindly led all their blind students and adherents into this life-threatening bog, now threatening every man, woman and child on the face of the earth (with far worse destructions than dreamed about in the most fevered and nightmarish speculations of the nuclear cold war era).

All that's missing is an alien invasion, and ensuing panic, as depicted in so many science fiction movies and television entertainments since the 1950s, to coalesce all of the various arms and branches (tentacles and clingers) of the horrid hydra operating inside our own government institutions.

At this rate, the once lofty and great United States will never reach anywhere near a tricentennial, especially considering the worldwide evil now arrayed against it with some justifiably murderous hatred, and increasing strength, pride and arrogance. Looking at the sad state of affairs internationally at present, in nearly every nation on the face of the entire earth today, now dominated by the wealthy "aristocracy" of power and privilege — including the United States — one can see how hopeless the struggle is, by human efforts alone. No constitution of any man's republic can long stand against all the onslaught and manipulations (especially by those who finance both sides of every major conflict or war, to "justify" the takeover of both vanquished and creditor nations and their peoples in the end), by the wicked spiritual forces misleading many among our fellow mankind, to treasonously oppose true law and order.

In the now out-of-print book: After Alinsky: Community Organizing in Illinois by Peg Knoepfle, Obama wrote a chapter in which he expressed a longing to apply Alinsky's methods at the federal government level, a wish that was finally handed to him on a Rothschild-Soros solid gold platter.

As a result, America is now an Obama nation (abomination), of which this old world has rarely seen the likes, representing backgrounds of Jews (through his mother), blacks, through his father, and Islam also through his father, stepfather, and grandfather, with pretensions to a socialist form of Christianity thrown into the equation as well. A real Babylonian-type admixture, so befitting and suited to this modern Mystery Babylonian nation.

All might seem hopeless, at least to all the non-militant, hard-working Americans whose blood, sweat and tears has been the backbone sustaining and upholding this unique country to date. All the foreign escapades of the military have been of little or no avail in actually protecting the United States from such onslaughts as the illegal migrations across its borders, and the mass numbers of aliens from many other countries illegally living in the country now — most of which are either on welfare, using "free" hospital services, or are clogging the jails and prisons of America, all at the expense of natural-born or naturalized Americans, whatever their ancestral nationalities of origin. America is not alone in this conspiratorial onslaught, which is also affecting Canada, England and Australia, among other western nations.

Now, we seem to be preparing the foundation for a full-out, possibly nuclear, war against Iran, supposedly over the issue of whether or not that country has any right to develop nuclear power, because we fear it also wants to develop nuclear weapons (America fears the same thing may happen to it, that it caused to happen to Japan more than half a century ago).

According to the modern prophet, America will bite off more than it can chew, should it ever get directly involved in another attack on Iran, which now has both Russia and China itching, ready, willing and able to take the United States down a peg, or all the way if needed. Which will most likely spell the end of the United States of America, both as a world power and as a nation in its own right, thereby opening the door for the emerging beast power and religious despot to finally arise, to corrupt and deceive the entire world!

In view of the prophesied consortium of nations to be raised against Babylon, who will destroy and burn it (possibly with nuclear holocaust and conventional warfare), the ancient prophet YerimiYahv revealed they would be led by, and also include:

“Yahveh has stirred up the kings of the Medes, because His purpose is to destroy Babylon.... “Prepare the nations to battle against her; summon against her these kingdoms: Ararat, Minni and Ashkenaz. Appoint a commander against her; send up horses like a swarm of locusts. Prepare the nations for battle against her — the kings of the Medes, their governors and all their officials, and all the countries they rule” (“Jeremiah” 51:11, 27-28).

The Medes, formerly of the “Medo-Persian” empire (which destroyed ancient Babylon), in fact are the peoples of modern-day Persia, or Iran! Ararat, on Bible maps placed due north of ancient Babylon, and a little east of ancient Nineveh (also due north of ancient Babylon), situated between the Black and Caspian Seas, today occupies the nations of Turkey, Syria, Georgia, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Iraq and northern Iran.

Along with other countries, most of them Muslim, the United States is busily alienating in the region — such as Libya, Afghanistan, Pakistan and even China and Russia, among others — there is a potential for a major alliance against the United States to break out of this region on some future day.

Finally, the modern day Ashkenazim are none other than the middle ages converts to Judaism, whose descendants today (mostly of the bloodthirsty “Zionist” persuasion) have falsely laid claim to what is now called "Israel," under the assumed but false name of "Jews," who are also to be found throughout Europe, and even America today. Theirs has always mainly been a war of subjugation from within, through special interest lobbies and media pressure/blackmail/terrorist groups, such as the false "antisemitism" defaming "Anti-Defamation" League of B'nai B'rith, (ADL, a front for Israel's Mossad). It began with the covert illegitimate Alexander Hamilton, whose underhanded political intrigues brought about the first attempted federal takeover of the fledgling United States governments through the First Bank of the United States.

According to scriptural prophecy this alliance will strike modern Mystery Babylon from the north (just as ancient Medo-Persia attacked ancient Babylon from the north), unexpectedly and effectively ending the adulterous and volatile nation (see: "Jeremiah" 50:3, 9, 41, 51:48).

The most direct route for a coalition of nations from this region of the world to swiftly and unexpectedly attack the United States is over Siberia and Canada, from the north, with the blessing of the former head of many of these countries – via the former communist Soviet empire – the nation of Russia/Assyria!

If economic and world history is any guide, this coalition will be joined and led by none other than China, America's largest creditor, just as Medo-Persia was ancient Babylon's main creditor, and Greece was later Medo-Persia's, and Rome was still later Greece's. Throughout history, in turn, each new conquering world power was, in fact, the main creditor of the former world power they finally subdued and subjugated. Apparently, according to scriptural prophecy (especially Revelation 17:16, where the great whore, Mystery Babylon's, end is described as: "they will eat her flesh and burn her with fire"), the United States will end its reign of terror over the nations of the earth in a devastating and conclusive nuclear holocaust.

And the only safe place to be, in relation to the United States, when that day comes, is anywhere other than North America!

In the prophecy about Mystery Babylon (a "mystery " because almost nobody today recognizes it for what it actually is, and for its covert spy and similar agencies like the CIA), the judgment against this whorish city was pronounced:

"Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a large millstone and threw it into the sea, and said: 'With such violence the great city of Babylon will be thrown down, never to be found again.'" (Revelation 18:21)

Obviously this was not concerning ancient Babylon, which was already long vanished from the world scene when this prophecy was delivered. Nor did it have to do with any modern nation such as Iraq, situated in the same area as ancient Babylon, or even the Vatican in Rome, neither of which could ever fulfill the descriptions of Mystery Babylon being a major port city of world renown, where:

"Every sea captain, and all who travel by ship, the sailors, and all who earn their living from the sea... where all who had ships on the sea became rich through her wealth!" (Revelation 18:17, 19)

The words of this prophecy closely parallel those of a much more ancient prophecy against Babylon, not only the ancient city-state and nation, but also its modern-day equivalent:

"When you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the Euphrates [river]. Then say, 'So will Babylon sink to rise no more because of the disaster I will bring upon her. And her people will fall' ("Jeremiah" 51:63-64; cf. Revelation 18:21)

Scriptural prophecies against Mystery Babylon (New York City, the original capital of the United States of America, still the seat of its economic and media power-base, and by extension the entire U.S.A.) are in "Jeremiah" 51:42, 53-55 (particularly verses 53 and 55) and Revelation 17-18 (particularly 18:21).

Parallel prophecies also foretold this very same city/state, that match the description in chapters 17 and 18 of Revelation, including "Jeremiah" 50 and 51, "Isaiah" 13 and 14, 21:1-10, and "Isaiah" 47 and 48.

This major port city of great wealth, commerce, and world-swaying political and economic influence, is further described as:

"Mystery Babylon the Great, the mother of whores [other cities/nations in her exact political, military and economic image] and abominations [violent crimes against humanity; lawless in terms of the Creator's Ten Commandments] of the earth" (Revelation 17:5).

The future destruction of that city, and the nation behind it, was prophesied as a righteous judgment for all the sins committed by this city against the peoples of the earth (Revelation 17:17-18).

The beast power, which represents all the people or nations of the earth (Revelation 17:15) also hates the prostitute and destroys her in the end, very probably with nuclear devastation (verse 16).

This political system is a threat to the beast power, simply because it implies the idea of freedom from restraint, which competes with the bestial impetus for total subjugation of all people on earth, under its murderous and controlling system of socialism. This is precisely why the whore of Mystery Babylon is just that, with many daughter prostitutes, or cities of like immorality, around the world (verse 5).

How many of the aborted babies were intended by our Creator to be prophets, who never lived to see the light of day, as a result of the influence of this one city on national and world politics? How many have been permanently silenced; men called to speak out against the madness and insanities imposed by this modern multi-paganism embracing governmental construct that puts commerce, wealth and pagan religious observances above all else (in the form of entertainment as a type of modern idol-worshipping religious practice, from radio and television, to movies and the stage)? Only our Creator truly knows.

Little wonder, the loss of freedom and liberty for most Americans that immediately followed, and continues unabated to this day, that day the Twin Trade Towers fell in New York City!

Trust the fact that, when He does arouse Himself to bring upon the heads of those responsible for this modern madness and self-destructive insanity, the devastation to be brought upon this city, the nation that spawned it, and eventually on the beasts and the entire idolatrous world that turns its collective back on Him, that these judgments will be both righteous and just.

A time of wrath and great mercy is coming upon the entire earth; wrath to the enemies of Creator Yahveh and His people, and compassion and salvation to His chosen elect, along with whoever is worthy enough to survive the coming carnage. These things must come to pass simply because the earth – and all life upon it – are now in the process of being corrupted through genetic tampering, massive chemical and drug pollution of the environment and food and water supply, widespread and deliberate pollution of the atmosphere with chem-trails from military and commercial aircraft – in a covert attempt at population decimation, by nefarious forces in control of what people falsely think of as their “own” government– among other similar great evils.

How could the merciful Creator’s justifiable wrath not be stirred by what is being done to corrupt and ruin His perfect creation by insane science, out-of-control political greed, stupidity, avarice and cupidity, and equally mad presidential/military ambitions?

Not even gold or silver will save anyone from the Creator's coming wrath, for all these and many other atrocities perpetrated against innocent people around the world, including right here in the United States. Notice the prophecy of what is rapidly approaching, and what it portends for the would-be rulers over the "new world order," once they've had their way and destroyed multiple millions of earth's present multitudes of inhabitants finally:

"Go into the rocks, hide in the ground from the dread of Yahveh and the splendor of His majesty! "The eyes of the arrogant man will be humbled and the pride of men brought low; Yahveh alone will be exalted in that day." (Isaiah 2:10-11)

"Men will flee to caves in the rocks and to holes in the ground from the dread of Yahveh and the splendor of His majesty, when He rises to shake the earth. "In that day men will throw away to the rodents and bats their idols of silver and idols of gold, which they made to wor-ship. "They will flee to caverns in the rocks and to the overhanging crags from the dread of Yahveh and the splendor of His majesty, when He rises to shake the earth. "Stop trusting in man, who has but a breath in his nostrils. "Of what account is he?" (Isaiah 2:19-22)

There are those reading this who probably think this must have happened long ago, in the dim, distant past. There were other prophets, however, nearly 800 years after the above was first put to ink, who in the first century also prophesied the same thing, indicating that it would take place in the distant future; an event which has not yet come to pass:

"The sky receded like a scroll, rolling up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place. "Then the kings of the earth, the princes, the generals, the rich, the mighty, and every slave and every free man hid in caves and among the rocks of the mountains. "They called to the mountains and the rocks, 'Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb! For the great day of their wrath has come, and who can survive?'" (Revelation 6:14-17)

Another Prophet, around the same time as the first, also prophesied:

"Thorns and thistles will grow up and cover their altars. Then they will say to the mountains, 'Cover us!' and to the hills, 'Fall on us!' (Hosea 10:8)

This will happen in a time when: "The days of punishment are coming, the days of reckoning are at hand.... "Because your sins are so many and your hostility so great, the prophet is considered a fool, the inspired man a maniac. "The prophet is the watchman...yet snares await him on all his paths, and hostility in the house [congregation] of his Almighty One.... "They have sunk deep into corruption...." (Hosea 9:7-9)

Again, approximately 1,980 years ago the true Messiah quoted, and repeated, this prophecy for the distant future (our day, now):

"For the time will come when you will say, 'Blessed are the barren women, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!' Then 'they will say to the mountains, "Fall on us!" and to the hills, "Cover us!"' "For if men do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?" (Luke 23:29-31)

Like some nightmarish science-fiction scenario, humanity will fight the coming Kingdom of peace, and its Prince, the returning Savior Yahveh, with false conviction of their "right" to continue destroying the earth and all life upon it. The invading "aliens" will, however, include the prophets, apostles, righteous men, women, and kings from ancient times, up to and including some contemporary men and women, all of whom will take part in the wedding supper of the Lamb in heaven, before the throne of the Ancient of Days, Yahveh the Father; as participants in the first and more glorious resurrection.

When the dead come back to life, and are raised up in the first resurrection (only), incorruptible spirit beings no longer subject to death, a period of three and a half years will elapse. During this time those who remain on earth, but did not qualify for this monumental blessing of the ages, all those who will maintain their faith, will be persecuted and attacked, tortured, starved, imprisoned and finally beheaded by the coming bestial ruler over the entire earth. This despot, along with the false-accuser, adversarial serpent/dragon spirit being that possesses him, is the one whose head will finally be crushed, and who will ultimately be destroyed by the returning Savior in a volcanic Lake of Fire!

Populations will be decimated, with few surviving this terrible time; which is about to take place in short order, a very few years from this late date:

In a prophetic description of this selfsame Mystery Babylon described in the book of Revelation, mirroring in similar words that prophecy, is the yet more ancient prophecy of YerimiYahv ("Jeremiah") who likewise wrote of the coming destruction of this great whore among the nations of earth:

"Flee out of Babylon; leave the land of the Babylonians, and be like the goats that lead the flock, For I will stir up and bring against Babylon an alliance of great nations from the land of the north. "They will take up their positions against her, and from the north she will be captured. Their arrows will be like skilled warriors who do not return empty handed. So Babylonia will be plundered; all who plunder her will have their fill,' declares Yahveh" ("Jeremiah" 50:8-10).

Here is how the author of Revelation put this still future event, long after the fall of ancient Babylon, modern Mystery Babylon's prophetic fore-type:

“Come out of her, my people, so that you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues...” (Revelation 18:4), and: “The beast and the ten horns that you saw will hate the prostitute. They will bring her to ruin and leave her naked; they will consume her flesh and burn her with fire.’ For Yahveh has put it into their hearts to accomplish His purpose by agreeing to give the beast their power to rule, until Yahveh’s words are fulfilled” (Revelation 17:16-17).

Once again, these words prophesying a still future judgment on a modern Mystery Babylon (Revelation 17:5, 7) echo and exactly mirror the words of the ancient prophecy:

“Flee from Babylon! Run for your lives! Do not be destroyed because of her sins. It is time for Yahveh’s vengeance; He will pay her what she deserves.... “We would have healed Babylon, but she cannot be healed; let us leave her and each go to his own land, for her judgment reaches the skies, it rises as high as the clouds” (“Jeremiah” 51:6, 9).

Another ancient prophet also set forth this same judgment in similar terms:

“Leave Babylon, flee from the Babylonians! Announce this with shouts of joy and proclaim it. Send it out to the ends of the earth; say, ‘Yahveh has redeemed His servant Ya’acob.’... “There is no peace,’ Says Yahveh, ‘for the wicked” (“Isaiah” 48:20, 22).

Again, the prophet YerimiYahv continues:

“Babylon was a gold cup in Yahveh’s hand; she made the entire earth drunk. The nations drank her wine; therefore they have now gone mad. “Babylon will suddenly fall and be broken. Wail over her! Get ointment for her pain; perhaps she can be healed. “We would have healed Babylon, but she cannot be healed; let us leave her and each go to his own land, for her judgment reaches to the skies, it rises as high as the clouds” (“Jeremiah” 51: 7-9).

Notice, first, how this prophetic Babylon is filled with peoples from many different races and nations, a veritable “melting pot” of the world. Only one nation today leads the world in this sort of Babylonian mixing of the races and cultures of the entire world, from all other nations.

These words are repeated against this modern Mystery Babylon, almost verbatim, in the prophecy of Revelation:

“Come, I will show you the punishment of the great prostitute, who sits on many waters. With her the kings of the earth committed adultery and the inhabitants of the earth were intoxicated with the wine of her adulteries.’... “She held a golden cup in her hand, filled with abominable [unclean] things and the filth of her adulteries. This title was written upon her forehead: ‘Mystery Babylon the Great The Mother of Prostitutes and of the Abominations of the Earth.’...

“Then the angel said to me, ‘The waters you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations and languages.'... "Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great!... For all the nations have drunk the maddening wine of her adulteries. The kings of the earth committed adultery with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from her excessive luxuries.'... "When the kings of the earth who committed adultery with her and shared her luxury see the smoke of her burning, they will weep and mourn over her. Terrified at her torment, they will stand far off and cry.... "The merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her because no one buys their cargoes any more'. " (Revelation 17:1-2, 4-5, 15, 18:2-3, 9-11).

The destruction of the World Trade Center, in New York City, was certainly a modern prophetic fore-type of this prophesied destruction of modern Mystery Babylon, in the very location from which it now corrupts the earth with its insane political, religious, secular and entertainment/ news and legal ideas. These awfully sinful crimes against the Creator's Law and Commandments, in utter rebellion against Him, are in fact a hallmark of this modern Mystery Babylon:

"I set a trap for you, O Babylon, and you were caught before you knew it; you were found and captured because you opposed Yahveh.... "Summon archers against Babylon, all those who draw the bow. Encamp all around her; let no one escape. Repay her for her deeds; do to her as she has done. For she has defied Yahveh, the sacred One of Yasrael'. " ("Jeremiah" 50:24, 29).

Notice how these prophetic words are also repeated by the prophet of Revelation:

"In one hour such great wealth has been brought to ruin!... "In one hour she has been brought to ruin. Rejoice over her, O heaven! Rejoice you elect, and apostles and prophets! Yahveh has judged her for the way she treated you.' "Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a large millstone and threw it into the sea, and said: 'With such violence the great city of Babylon will be thrown down, never to be found again.'. 'In her was found the blood of prophets and of the elect, and of all who have been killed on the earth'" (Revelation 18:17, 19-21, 24).

The leaders responsible for New York City's and the United States' future are misleading it and them to the brink of total disaster in the near future. And where Mystery Babylon New York City goes, the rest of the United States, or modern Babylon as a whole, is bound to follow! So goes the world, in the same vein as its sole "superpower" left today.

Despite these dire predictions of what is about to take place, in the very near future (should you survive long enough to actually see it), there is plenty of hope for the humble, the truly kind, the generous, the meek, the poor and the oppressed. In this world they may not have much hope, for their enemies and foes seek them out and persecute them to death (those who refuse to bow down and worship the coming beast or his image, and refuse to take his name or numerical mark upon their flesh — hand or forehead — without which they will no longer be allowed to buy or sell).

A time when, apparently, the guillotine, or another form of beheading, will be the preferred means of execution, once again (Revelation 13:15-17)! Those who patiently endure, and are faithful even unto death, will receive the great reward of being resurrected back to life, in spirit-quickenened bodies, no longer capable of dying, at the beginning of the coming new millennium. They will rule with the true

Messiah on earth for a thousand years (before the rest of humanity's dead come back to life in a physical, mortal body only, in a second resurrection, to face the Judgment Seat or throne of our Creator) (Revelation 2:10, 13:10, 20:4-6).

Some who endure patiently the abuses and other trials, by living righteous lives in a pagan and perverse age, where goodness and humility are despised, will even be protected from the coming great tribulation and the day of our Creator's awesome wrath against all the wicked of this world:

"Since you have kept my command to endure patiently, I will also keep you from the hour of trial that is coming upon the whole world to test those who live on the earth" (Revelation 3:10).

The test is to see who is worthy of continued life on our Creators' good earth. In this, and only this, can you have any real hope to survive and live through what is coming in the very near future. The mistake most misled religious people made, when the year 2000 came and went uneventfully, was assuming the time for these prophecies to be fulfilled is either still far in the future, or perhaps will never come. Both assumptions couldn't be more wrong!

You see, in a prophetic book that is chiefly about modern "Ephraim" (which is also yet another prophetic type of the United States of America), the prophecy pinpoints a time in the very near-future when all these things will come to pass:

"After two days He will revive us; on the third day He will restore us, that we may live in His presence." (Hosea 6:2)

This is an obvious reference to the first and second resurrections. Now at first that might seem a bit of a cryptic interpretation, but once you understand the meaning or length of time represented by the "days" of this prophecy, and know when they begin and end, you'll see just how significant and accurate this ancient prophecy truly is.

The first "two days" ends with a "revival," or resurrection (the first, at the start of the 1,000 year millennial rule of the Lamb); the restoration "on the third day" then, must refer to the second resurrection, which we know follows the first resurrection by a time period of 1,000 years (cf. Revelation 20:4-6). This means, of course, that the first two days must refer to a period of approximately 2,000 years. This prophetic metaphor and understanding of "days" is just what the Apostles also knew and understood:

"But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Sovereign a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day." (2 Peter 3:8)

But exactly when should we begin counting this prophetic period of two thousand years, and yet another thousand years (3,000 years total), before the Great White Throne Judgment takes place? Certainly not from the supposed year of the Messiah's birth (which was actually 4 or 5 years before the start of the count of eras according to the thoroughly pagan "Christian" Gregorian calendar). Since this prophecy deals exclusively with both resurrections at the start and end of the Messiah's 1,000 year millennial rule over earth, doesn't it just make perfect sense to begin counting this prophetic time period from the year of His death and resurrection?!? The time this actually took place was in the year 30 C.E. (Common Era), which must mean that the first period of two thousand years should expire in what we presently think of as the year 2030!

And, of course, the third thousand years would last from then until sometime around the year 3030, by our present way of figuring calendar years. At the time this is written, we are apparently within just 20 years of the fulfillment of this prophecy! Of course, restore could mean the actual restoration of the Kingdom on earth, which would follow the first resurrection by a period of about three and a half years (the beast's final period of despotic and insanely destructive rule on earth), during which the wedding supper of the Lamb takes place before the heavenly throne, as described in Revelation 7.

This, being before the throne in heaven, is doubtless the promised place of safety from the wrathful destruction and plagues the Creator and Lamb will bring upon the wicked inhabitants of the earth who do not qualify to be counted among the number of their elect and chosen few (144,000 plus a vast uncountable multitude, from this and every previous age) (Revelation 7:4, 9).

Plus, you are not supposed to try and guess exactly when the second coming of the Messiah will actually take place, for that day and hour none of us can truthfully know for certain in advance ("Matthew" 24:36, 42, 44, 50, 25:13; Mark 13:35; Luke 12:40). However we are told that these coming days of troubling affliction for the entire world will be "cut short" for the sake of the elect, lest all life on earth come to a miserable end, thanks to the "big" ideas of modern science fiction, and the same old world disorder promoted by all pagan religions and their modern illegitimate offspring, including most of what is now called "Christianity" today ("Matthew" 24:22)!

Which probably means that everything covered in all the ancient prophecies about "the time of the end" should be right on schedule to take place sometime in the next few years, or in less than two decades (unless you're reading this more than a few years after it was first published)!

This present generation is shaping up as one that will fulfill all these prophecies, in spades. This is not a "religious" notion, because this author is not an adherent of any particular creed or religion, certainly not a "Christian" (as you may have been able to tell), but on the other hand neither am I anti-religious, because I believe anyone, from any type of religion, can learn the truth, repent and find salvation. That (salvation) is the forgiveness of our crimes (sins against the Creator's Laws), by our humble repentance (turning our lives around, and living in obedience to those Laws), and by calling on the true Messiah's name (which is based on the heavenly Father's actual name, Yahveh). That name is: Yahvsave (meaning: Yahveh is our Savior).

Why that name, and none other, is so important — according to the ancient prophets, and the Apostles (cf. Joel 2:32 and Acts 4:12) — deals with the reason the only perfect man who ever lived and never sinned was condemned to death. His death, because He was literally the Creator Word, who spoke and created the heavens and the earth ("John" 1:1-3), and everything on it, who came to earth as a humble man to die unjustly, therefore pays the debts for all whose sins would otherwise condemn them to death, who turn to Him and seek His salvation with fear, trembling and humble, teachable hearts.

When no lying, false witnesses against this man could agree together, the religious ruling body of His time, the Sanhedrin, finally concluded He should die under the charge of "blasphemy." Hidden in the Greek translation from Aramaic or original Hebrew (or ancient "Hebrew") texts, in a figure of speech known as "Metonymy of the Adjunct," is a noun that has been substituted for the proper name that He spoke. These pagan religionists had falsely misinterpreted the Law as forbidding the use of the Creator's name, but it is actually forbidden to misuse or disuse (or "take in vain," as worthless) that name, which presupposes it must first be known and used. The word "power," in the King James English Bible (also translated "Mighty One" in the NIV) ("Matthew" 26:64, Mark 14:62 and Luke 22:69) is a noun substituted for the Creator's name: Yahveh.

Because this innocent man died for the correct use of that name, your calling upon the same name can gain your salvation (for only one of His elect can understand and do this), even when it is a death-penalty "offense," as it will doubtless be in the coming false religious old world order, to call on or believe in the true Savior!

This age will soon end — and the end will come at a time when most don't expect it, like a thief in the night ("Matthew" 24:42-44; Luke 12:35-40).

In truth, only the meek and humble have any real hope for survival in the coming days and years, despite all the potent forces presently arrayed against all these "hopeless" ones at present. The returning Messiah is the shining hope for the hopeless of this world, whose days will see the joy of permanent peace take root and grow upon the soil, and in the hearts of all surviving people, on that glorious day when all tears, pain, anguish, and heartaches will have passed away at long last (Revelation 21:4).
