What are the seven "heads" and ten "horns" really? Can it possibly represent something entirely different from what most have wrongly assumed, through the ages?

In Revelation 17:9 the beast's seven heads are defined as "seven mountains" or "seven hills" in some translations. However, verse 10 adds: "They are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come, but when he does come he must remain for a short while." (Revelation 17:10.) Further, the ten horns of the seven heads are revealed to also be:

Many different, equally false, explanations and interpretations have been put forward in the attempt to explain these symbols, but few can explain exactly what a "king," without a kingdom or authority (until they gain these through the beast), actually is!

The prophet saw these prophecies through the reality of the modern world as it now exists, in relation to these symbols.

In case you're wondering if there is any modern fulfillment of the seven heads of the beast in our world today, look no further than the finance ministers and heads of central banks, who meet together (as they did in an emergency session at the Hague in the Netherlands in June 2014) to determine political issues to control sovereign nations!

This group from the seven richest (most powerful) economies in this age, including the United States, the United Kingdom, Canada, Germany, Italy, Japan and France, is known by the name G-7 (or Group 7). These nations are also fond of using another word that best describes or indicates the beast power (i.e. very strong but not by his own power), in their dealings with other nations, who incur their wrath over political issues, or out of greed to control their natural resources; that word being: "coalition." Russia was briefly, at one time, a member of what was then called G-8, however it was booted out over the annexation of Crimea by Russia in early 2014, with the group resuming under its prior designation as the "G-7."

So it is today that unelected "ministers" throw around their combined financial weight to impose their will on the nations of the world, in often devastating undeclared wars (Iraq, Syria, Libya, Afghanistan, Egypt, etc.), wielding beast-like control everywhere on earth, even within the growing and ever-worsening police state known as the United States of America.

There are, of course, also ten horns of the beast, which would be political leaders of the seven, and a few others — such as the Rothschild dynasty, Israel and the European Union — all those who exert their considerable influence and control over the actions of this growing bestial one-world government movement.

Of the ten horns, the modern prophet realizes that, in his own words: "Corporations are basically independent governments — like nations — without the traditional ties to land, races, languages or laws!"

There are ten basic corporate industries that, to date, do not yet possess the power of political "authority" found in governments, but are even now wielding the mantle of such authority, within and in concert with various governments (particularly in the United States), which would not hesitate to assume total control, given an open door to do so.

Notice what the prophet said the would-be bestial rulers of the coming "one world" government actually think about America and its people, and specifically what they plan for America in the near future:

"...I saw a woman [in the desert] sitting on a scarlet beast that was covered with blasphemous names [corporate and political action groups, think tanks, and the like] and had seven heads and ten horns.... "The ten horns you saw are ten kings [corporate big-wigs over industry, banking, utilities, media, and related supra-governmental despots] who have not yet received a kingdom [their long sought after Old World Disorder, facetiously misnamed the "New World Order"], but who for one hour will receive authority as kings along with the beast. "They have one purpose [conspiracy] and will give their power and authority to the beast.... "The beast and the ten horns you saw will hate the prostitute. They will bring her to ruin and leave her naked [economic ruin]; they will eat her flesh and burn her with fire [war, and/or nuclear holocaust].... "The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth." (Revelation 17:3, 12-13, 16, 18)

What city is it, other than New York City, which "rules" over even Washington D.C., and all the other nations, through Wall Street, Madison Avenue, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission, the "Federal" Reserve, and many other similar allegedly cherished, but actually abominable and bestial attempts to take total control over all America, and ultimately all nations on the earth today?

Along with the Federal Reserve Board and Bank of New York, Wall Street, Madison Avenue, the New York Times, ABC, NBC, CBS and their related radio networks, among others, there also exists in New York City the premier would-be "one-world" government organization of all time: the United Nations, created by The United States and Russia (formerly the U.S.S.R.)!

The U.N. charter closely parallels the Communist Manifesto, all planks of which are now defacto "law" in the United States and also, thanks to U.S. meddling around the world, wherever U.S. influence and power are felt, feared, or passionately hated.

The conspirators are now striving to consolidate the UN's power as a world-ruling government, by finagling to finally obtain the "right" to tax nations, commerce, or world travel, and through the so-called “World Court,” located at the Hague, in the Netherlands. The covertly controlled governments of the United States and Britain, along with Russia, it should come as no surprise by now, are the leading nations behind the United Nations’ push for world power.

The other nations have been forced to endure unnatural alliances (the European "Union," NAFTA, GATT, etc.) for the economic prosperity of the few at the expense of everyone else. And the so-called "world court" and "United" Nations are growing increasingly eager to see their brand of injustice exacted upon errant modern America (Revelation 17:16).

The beast power, which represents all the people or nations of the earth (Revelation 17:15) also hates the prostitute and destroys her in the end, very probably with nuclear devastation (verse 16).

This political system is a threat to the beast power, simply because it implies the idea of freedom from restraint, which competes with the bestial impetus for total subjugation of all people on earth, under its murderous and controlling system of socialism.

The prophet, recognizing the heads and horns of the beast for what they actually are, has long taught that such a coalition are even now engaged — as they have been for decades, and the better part of the past century — in deliberately undermining the currencies of the world. Not only have they profited enormously from every war and conflict that they have instigated for this purpose, their ultimate agenda is nothing less than world dominion and dictatorial control over every nation, every state, and everybody on earth.

The bestial conspiracy to control all nations on earth, and all peoples, under a one-world tyranny, is a very old one, dating back nearly two and a half centuries.

The fact that America was founded by satan (under the name and guise of “Lucifer”) worshipping deists, who were members of the secret society known as freemasonry, conceals many hidden, secretive facts underlying America’s constitution and form of allegedly “democratic” government (which, in reality, was established as a Republic). A certain secretive cabal of foreign and domestic conspirators have contrived, since even before America became a nation (or amalgamation of nation-states), working steadfastly to enslave first Americans and, through them, the entire world to the coming bestial world despot or dictator, about to be unveiled in the very near future.

Secret societies or groups such as the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, the Skull and Bones society of Yale, and many other similar mysterious veiled and cloaked institutions — have manipulated and placed their adherents into high positions of power and influence within government and industry, from the American president on down (or up, as the case may actually be).

The hidden, mysterious symbology and secretive, deceptive slogans and insignia of the mystery religion worshipers is found throughout modern America, from the unfinished pyramid topped by the “all-seeing” eye of Lucifer, on the back of the (alleged) one dollar bill, to the phrase beneath this obverse to the “Great Seal” (Novus Ordo Seclorum). It’s modern English equivalent, “new world order,” is a phrase that has been parroted and promulgated by various co-conspirator presidents such as George H.W. Bush,

Bill Clinton, and such alleged "presidents" as George Bush and America's first black "Jewish/Muslim/Christian" non-American alleged "president" Barack Hussein Obama, among others (including their ally Henry Kissinger, on behalf of the behind-the-scenes manipulators, controllers and world power-brokers, the Rockefellers and Rothschilds).

Since the 1870s, and the rise of the monolithic railroad trusts, corporations have risen representing some of the most hideous, murderous, cutthroat league of international pirates and blood money profiteers on earth. These now include the entire weapons and "defense" industries (which are almost never seen as offensive, although that is mostly what they are and do), the medical and drug cartels, chemical and petroleum companies, transportation industries on land, sea and in the air, the food industries -- from corporate-run mega-farms to your local grocery, with all of the manufacturing, wholesale and distribution companies in between.

Also the entire general merchandising, wholesale-retail industry, from clothing and fashion to electronics and hardware, building materials suppliers, the publishing, news reporting and entertainment industries, and the various "public" utilities, power and telecommunications conglomerates, to name only a few of the more important.

Chief among these has been the rise of the colossal, and equally bestial monetary manipulators, from central banks and investment firms, to "local" banks, and from Wall Street stock exchanges to the lesser-known commodities exchanges in various states, and around the world. In fact, most governments today, from local county and state right up to the national federal level, now consider themselves to be "corporations" (In which case, who are their "share holders" to whom they are answerable?). These particular "corporate" clones are rapidly becoming the most intrusive, onerous, despotic and corrupt power centers, which often act as if they are above the law -- along with the countless agencies and "law enforcement" (which I have more accurately dubbed flaw enforcement) forces, from your neighborhood traffic cop or highway patrolman up to the F.B.I., C.I.A., and all the paramilitary S.W.A.T. teams and commando units.

Along with the National Guard and military branches, all of these are being used to increasingly enforce and impose draconian and endless legislation by tyrannical congress creatures, Executive Order decrees by presidential goons, and the dictatorial dictates of judicial tyrants. All of which is being done on behalf, and in favor, of the continued power-lust, excessive reach and oppressive, hurtful and massively harmful activities of all the other corporate monstrosities mainly, and particular seemingly "untouchable" individuals, some of whom are actually mass-murderers and war criminals, hiding behind the foundations and corporate fraud that underlies this entire stinking mess.

Nearly the entire public has even been co-opted into this entire "corporate" scheme, through the massively deceitful, fraudulent and conniving effort called "identification," beginning with birth certificates, through social security numbers, driver's licenses, automobile registrations, insurance, bank accounts, taxpayer returns, utility and all other bills, including even all court process and documents.

Until the majority of Americans realize -- as president Andrew Jackson once did -- that it isn't governments or corporations, as such, that are a major threat to their well-being, but rather it is the banks that own or control the major interest in their stocks, bonds and similar securities that are the real source of all our economic troubles, Americans will continue to suffer economic travails! Everything is being done for the profit of these banks, and major corporations, by running the governments of America in a prison-for-profits scheme, railroading an increasing number of Americans through the criminal (in)justice system into various forms of profitable (mostly private for profit) prisons, from jails to transport prisons, ankle bracelets, "house arrests," and parole for long periods of time (mostly run by the private for-profit Nashville, Tennessee-based Correction Corporation of America).

All of which profits the governments and courts that sell their bid bonds on each alleged "felony" to the banking system and major corporations (such as Wal-Mart, Exxon, General Motors, Ford Motors, Texaco, IBM, Hewlett Packard, Verizon, UPS, and City Corp, among others) that invest in these "blood money" for obscene profits securities, using forced labor (slavery) while abusing, starving and malnourishing prisoners, sometimes literally to death. Most of the so-called "crimes" are victimless alleged infringements on some government assumed "sovereignty," that is predicated upon Admiralty contract law through assumed but invisible adhesion "contracts," presumed by the complicit courts to exist in the absence of denial or refusal of consent.

The evils of this present bestial system -- run by, for and on behalf of the banksters and their treasonous legislative (presidential), congressional, and judicial cronies in crime -- are being visited on a growing number of once prosperous "first world" nations. These are being increasingly robbed, while the poor countries remain poor -- often raped through military conquests for whatever natural resources they might have possessed -- in a world gone insane worshipping this great and calamitous evil holding the entire world enthralled by its "magical" monetary deceptions, delusions, and religion-like hypnotic control (Revelation 13:8). That is the major world-destroying fallacy underlying the "new" global economy racket -- a world undermined, cheapened, manipulated and robbed by the world reserve currency "dollar" on behalf of its bestial masters, the money changers, usurers and banksters!

Will Americans once again be forced into armed concentration camps in their own country? Isn't this, in fact, already being done, through the privately-owned and operated, for profit, criminally-run prisons - at the cost of human lives, misery, much suffering and degradation unsuspected by a willingly ignorant public -- that are springing up like fascist cancers all over the land? How has it developed, in most American towns and cities today, that the only "growth industries" thriving are the cradle-to-the grave leeches such as the schools, courts, utilities, hospitals, funeral homes and cemeteries? And why are international corporations, that have and feel they owe no loyalty to America or its people who need jobs, allowed to do "business" by dominating local communities, running local businesses (particularly newspapers) out of business, with the help of zoning boards and special statutes to give them tax breaks, and using government welfare to subsidize substandard, part-time, minimum wage, and even unpaid illegal alien labor practices?

In the face of growing poverty as America becomes ever more insolvent by spending itself into world war-debt once again, the rest of the world is forced -- by fear of the consequences should they openly dissent -- to go along with this increasing insanity, while America (and New York City, in particular) enriches itself and multinational corporations (merchants) at their expense. To put it in prophetic scriptural terms: "For all the nations have drunk the maddening wine of her adulteries. The kings of the earth have committed adultery with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from her excessive luxuries" (Revelation 18:3).

In an article of an 1870's magazine publication titled "The Luciferian," housed in the Theosophical Society Library in Altadena, California (in which Albert Pike openly admitted to involvement in a worldwide group of conspirators, who stated they worship Satan alone), Pike outlined his "hope" for America, revealing the conspirators' plot to foment a world war, followed by a great depression, and another world war, with a period of cold war following that, and finally a third world war between the powers of the East (Islam and its allies in Russia and China) and the West (Israel and its allies, such as the United States, Western Europe, England, Australia, Canada, etc.).

The stated purpose is for all present world powers to destroy themselves, leaving these treasonous traitors, who have their well-stocked and fortified deep underground shelters to wait out the devastation, in control of what remains of the world.

Recall this was all published sometime in the early 1870s, long before future events would prove the conspiratorial hand of these satanists has been behind every major historical development from that day to this! Insane or not, these formidable enemies have been operating to under-mine American liberty and freedoms for many generations, and their modern counterparts are just as corrupt and dedicated to this evil cause as were their forebears in criminal mass mischief, high crimes and treason!

While the prophet and his family would like to hope for the best, for America and all its people (they being native-born Americans themselves), with all that is going against it there really is little of substance to hope for regarding the future of this confused and befuddled, easily swindled country. Which is really a shame, because we simply do not live in a world of lack; only a world of oppressive and despotic governments, and would-be governments, vying insanely for total control, with the weak and powerless getting the worst end of it, for now.

Let's face it, when even the most "conservative" courts agree with the taking, and as lawyers in the case against the prophet and his family put it — your lifestyle is "unconventional" or not the "norm" (Who has the right to decide and impose this on anyone else?), then it's just a matter of time until they come to confiscate your children, and probably yourself also! Such evils only exist in truly totalitarian dictatorships, which it seems is just what modern America has morphed into, with the blind allegiance of its media, television and government-financed public schools-indoctrinated populace. Or, if not there yet, the United States is now well on its way to such a vile end.

Of course, in order to succeed in their treasonous endeavors to enrich themselves, while actively and persistently seeking the total destruction of their hosts — without being discovered, charged, tried and executed for their dastardly high crimes — the social parasites long ago set up their secretive societies, such as Scottish Rite Free Masonry (Scottish Rite Free Masonry was introduced in the United States in 1873, Albert Pike (1809-1891) joined this institution in Charleston, South Carolina in 1858, became the Grand Commander of its Supreme Council in 1859; finally writing and publishing its most important book: Morals and Dogma, in 1871), among others, where the actual purposes of the founders and controllers are hidden from all but the highest initiates.

The secretive rituals and real activities of such outfits, in pagan and idolatrous garb and dress, with their mysterious, secretive signals, hand-shakes and the like, was designed to gradually weed out all but the most corrupt of heart and intent from the highest levels or degrees, thereby insuring the continuation of the underlying conspiracy from one generation to the next.

These secretive societies, that have likewise taken hold in some of America's institutions of "higher" learning — such as the Bush crime family men's favorite haunt, the Skull and Bones of Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut — serve a similar purpose to that of the Masons, of grooming morally bankrupt, perverse young men into leaders in industry and particularly government, where they insinuate themselves and create much trouble — bringing great evils upon the nation and the world — similar to their counterparts and compatriots in criminal enterprise, the radical progressives.

America is not, of course, the only nation on earth stricken by this modern plague of dementia and criminal conspiracy against the people of earth, by a few but influentially powerful individuals in their united efforts to destroy all nations, and institute their own brand of despotism over the survivors, once their long-anticipated and ceaseless efforts toward finally enthroning their one world despot becomes a fait accompli. Their many successes toward this ultimate Armageddon is a testament to the blindness, the complicity, and the arrogant insanity of an entire world driven mad by these, in fact, amoral master criminals, international gangsters, and corporate thugs in lawyers' and judges' (wolves') clothing.

Because of these troublemakers in our midst, we indeed live in a world gone mad, following the insane and mendacious leadership of any major political party — promoted by an equally corrupted "news" media, whose "free" press has been more the servant of deception than it is a guardian and guarantor of the public's right to know the truth. All of which, once again, takes us back to the schools and religions that have blindly led all their blind students and adherents into this life-threatening bog, now threatening every man, woman and child on the face of the earth (with far worse destructions than dreamed about in the most fevered and nightmarish speculations of the nuclear cold war era).

All that's missing is an alien invasion, and ensuing panic, as depicted in so many science fiction movies and television entertainments since the 1950s, to coalesce all of the various arms and branches (tentacles and clingers) of the horrid hydra operating inside our own government institutions. One doesn't have to wonder or speculate much past the year 2012 to see what's coming down the pike for everyone, other than the conspirators (they think) — thanks to this nation of America (and the world which follows America's every move) — driven wacky and volatile through these insidious and pernicious influences!

Of course there have been some false indicators before — including World Wars I and II, the Cuban missile crisis, and even the Y2K scare — that the western world, as we know it, might cease to exist, had things gone just a little differently. Some actually miraculous circumstances intervened to prevent that each time, of course, so we can truly be thankful America has had such a relatively long period of peace within its own borders, unlike most other nations on earth, with the exception of Canada, England and Australia. The plans are even now in the works, by America's rabid enemies, to change that, and you'd have to indeed be foolhardy and gullible to believe it is only some third-world Islamic countries, or religious adherents, which are the biggest threat to the western world.

All might seem hopeless, at least to all the non-militant, hard-working Americans whose blood, sweat and tears has been the backbone sustaining and upholding this unique country to date.

All this growing bestial one-world government movement lacks at present is the final unveiling of the beast personage and the false prophet beast who, together, will exert their destructive will over this monstrosity, much like the lawyer Robespierre and others did during the French Revolution. Or like Napoleon did nine years later, building his power base and military dictatorship mainly on the chaos, and out of the vacuum of power, caused by the French Revolution; leading many Frenchmen to their untimely deaths in wars of aggression as far away as Moscow.

The beast power is also prophesied to suffer a near-death wound to the head, possibly from an attempted assassination. In Daniel 7:20, 24 we learn that three of the horns, or rulers (Presidents?), will fall due to a little horn with a boastful mouth, the beast; which is another of the ten horns, who will suffer a mortal wound in the head, yet survive (Revelation 13:3, 5-6). Even worse, like many Roman emperors of old, the insanity of media popularity in our modern age will take a nasty turn when the last little horn of this beast power decides to declare himself the "savior" of the world, and demands the worship and obeisance of the "unwashed" masses (cf. Revelation 13:4-8).

As Daniel described this coming evil dictator:

"He will become very strong but not by his own power. He will cause astounding devastation and will succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy the mighty men and the sacred people. He will cause deceit to prosper, and he will consider himself superior. When they feel secure he will destroy many and take his stand against the Prince of princes. Yet he will be destroyed, but not by human power." (Daniel 8:24-25)

This parallels Revelation 19:17-21, concerning the Final battle of Armageddon, when the beast and false prophet (who, along with a coalition of ten "captains of industry," "finance," nations, etc., are the power behind the beast), will oppose the returning Savior Himself (the King of kings and Priest of priests), only to finally be taken and destroyed in the Lake of Fire!

You shouldn't expect all the interlopers, change agents, traitors and others of their ilk, in high offices in or out of our government institutions and corporate boards of directors — in an unholy alliance with your elected officials and their appointed agents, czars and the like — to just give up and leave everyone alone. These are not very nice people, in reality. They apparently want nothing less than the ultimate ridding (mass murder) of nearly 9/ 10ths of the world's present population, quite possibly including you and your family. And they intend to get it, by hook or by crook, which apparently includes the total destruction of the United States of America, whose freedoms and liberties have long been a "thorn in the side" of these master criminal, supra gangster-like co-conspirators! All the super spy novels and movies have one thing right... There really are monstrous criminally insane, yet super wealthy and influential men and women who are hell-bent on taking over this world, who have already wrested near total dictatorial control over the communist nations, and all their socialist satellite states, such as China and Cuba, who will stop at nothing — including the total and complete destruction of the once greatest nation on earth — to get their satanic way in this world!

Ten behind-the-scenes, unelected and nonaligned power brokers will conspire together to make their version of a world government, under a true despotic tyrant (the worst in our old sad world's entire history to date) a brief and cursed reality (Revelation 17:12-13), and they will commit the utterly evil crime of attempting to use modern technological weapons of warfare against the returning Savior Himself, whom they see as an alien outsider and interloper, not to mention "traitor" to their internationalist "paradise" (verse 14). And those then living on the earth will, apparently, unite together in this wicked rebellion against our heavenly Creator who is King of kings and Sovereign of sovereigns, intent on worshipping their "mighty one" of weapons of mass destruction instead (Revelation 13:3-4, 8):

"The beast and the ten horns you saw will hate the prostitute. They will bring her to ruin and leave her naked; they will eat her flesh and burn her with fire." (Revelation 17:16)

"The ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but who for one hour will receive authority as kings along with the beast. "They will have one purpose and will give their power and authority to the beast." (Revelation 17:12-13)

"They will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome them because He is Sovereign of sovereigns and King of kings -- and with Him will be His called, chosen and faithful followers." (Revelation 17:14)

"One of the heads of the beast seemed to have had a fatal wound, but the fatal wound had been healed. The entire world was astonished and followed the beast. Men worshiped the dragon because he had given authority to the beast, and they also worshiped the beast and asked, "Who is like the beast? Who can make war against him?" All inhabitants of the earth will worship the beast -- all whose names have not been written in the book of life belonging to the Lamb that was slain from the creation of the world." (Revelation 13:3-4, 8)

Today, if modern "scientific"-minded men and women suddenly became aware of our Creator's existence, or the existence of his angels (spiritual or physical aliens to us humans), doubtless they would still discount all that scripture reveals to us about their true nature (how there are, in reality, evil as well as righteous angels, for instance), and would doubtless consider the wicked angels—those who oppose their Creator's will—as our "friends," and our Creator as an interloping "enemy" who must be vanquished or defeated militarily at all costs, for the sake of "national security" and "self defense."

Could this be why NASA (the National Aeronautics and Space Administration) was set up as a fifth branch of the U.S. military armed forces (but ostensibly as a quasi-"civilian" agency), the true purpose of which, according to its enabling legislation, is the development of space-based weapons systems, military space outposts, and the defense of the United States (and the world, in that order)? Is the race to the moon, and now to the planet Mars, for the purpose of establishing a militarized perimeter about the earth, to "defend" humanity from the perceived threat of the true Savior's imminent return to earth, to destroy and put a permanent end to the militant and militarized power of all nations, to bring them under the control of His world-ruling Kingdom, rather than the dis-“United” Nations?

One thing that is abundantly clear from the prophecies surrounding Mystery Babylon is the fact that they pertain to a world-ruling bestial government of cruel violence that will finally fight against the Savior Himself, at the time of His return to earth, accompanied by world-devastating plagues, comet and meteor strikes, major earthquakes, and similar massive and deadly catastrophes. The entire book of Revelation, from the 6th chapter through the 20th chapter, concerns this still future time, when all of these things—similar to the plagues on ancient Egypt—will strike the wicked and powerful earthly nations and leaders who, like ancient Pharaoh, wish to make everyone else on earth their “corporate” or national bond slaves, and refuse to let them go free!

Not even gold or silver will save anyone from the Creator's coming wrath, for this and all the many other atrocities perpetrated against innocent people around the world, including right here in the United States. Notice the prophecy of what is rapidly approaching, and what it portends for the would-be rulers over the "new world order," once they've had their way and destroyed multiple millions of earth's present multitudes of inhabitants finally:

"Go into the rocks, hide in the ground from the dread of Yahveh and the splendor of His majesty! "The eyes of the arrogant man will be humbled and the pride of men brought low; Yahveh alone will be exalted in that day."(Isaiah 2:10-11) "Men will flee to caves in the rocks and to holes in the ground from the dread of Yahveh and the splendor of His majesty, when He rises to shake the earth. "In that day men will throw away to the rodents and bats their idols of silver and idols of gold, which they made to worship. "They will flee to caverns in the rocks and to the overhanging crags from the dread of Yahveh and the splendor of His majesty, when He rises to shake the earth. "Stop trusting in man, who has but a breath in his nostrils. "Of what account is he?" (Isaiah 2:19-22)

There are those reading this who probably think this must have happened long ago, in the dim, distant past. There were other prophets, however, nearly 800 years after the above was first put to ink, who in the first century also prophesied the same thing, indicating that it would take place in the distant future; an event which has not yet come to pass:

"The sky receded like a scroll, rolling up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place. "Then the kings of the earth, the princes, the generals, the rich, the mighty, and every slave and every free man hid in caves and among the rocks of the mountains. "They called to the mountains and the rocks, 'Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb! For the great day of their wrath has come, and who can survive?'"(Revelation 6:14-17)

Another Prophet, around the same time as the first, also prophesied:

"Thorns and thistles will grow up and cover their altars. Then they will say to the mountains, 'Cover us!' and to the hills, 'Fall on us!'"("Hosea" 10:8)

This will happen in a time when: "The days of punishment are coming, the days of reckoning are at hand.... "Because your sins are so many and your hostility so great, the prophet is considered a fool, the inspired man a maniac. "The prophet is the watchman...yet snares await him on all his paths, and hostility in the house [congregation] of his Almighty One.... "They have sunk deep into corruption...." ("Hosea" 9:7-9)

Again, approximately 1,980 years ago the true Messiah quoted, and repeated, this prophecy for the distant future (our day, now): "For the time will come when you will say, 'Blessed are the barren women, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!' Then 'they will say to the mountains, "Fall on us!" and to the hills, "Cover us!"' "For if men do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?" (Luke 23:29-31)

When the ages-old patience is finally at an end, and there is no room left for the repentant, or any remaining who would patiently and humbly refrain from the fleeting, temporary rewards of this carnal world and lifetime, that is when plagues like those upon the arrogant ancient Egyptians will fall upon this modern age of spiritual Egypt. The pride of military might, and science-created weapons of wanton annihilation, will in the end avail nothing.

Those who rely upon their wealth of manpower, natural resources, worldly intelligence, unrestrained ambitions, lustful desires, and hurtful hatreds will go raging against their Maker, before discovering the fruit of their ways in their bitter and destitute end. Misplaced and mistaken patriotic pride, turned riotous against those who have not harmed others, whose only "crime" is opposing the growing insanity by their presence and blameless lives, will eat away at the vitals of social order, leading to chaos and destruction, in a time of false and fraudulent "peace" and "safety."

The only glad tidings in all that is about to take place, in the coming few remaining years until all these prophecies are fulfilled, is hope in the promise of salvation, for all who are brave enough to venture into that frontier in the face of destructive savages and beasts ravening for the kill. If you have that sort of courage, conviction and conscience to permit the small seed of spiritual sanity to take root in your heart and life, there is indeed hope and joyful anticipation for what lies beyond the coming carnage. Only remember that there is a revelation and restoration you cannot ignore, if you hope to achieve all this, for:

"A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus, by their fruit you will recognize them." ("Matthew" 7:18-20)

Despite these dire predictions of what is about to take place, in the very near future (should you survive long enough to actually see it), there is plenty of hope for the humble, the truly kind, the generous, the meek, the poor and the oppressed. In this world they may not have much hope, for their enemies and foes seek them out and persecute them to death (those who refuse to bow down and worship the coming beast or his image, and refuse to take his name or numerical mark upon their flesh — hand or forehead — without which they will no longer be allowed to buy or sell). A time when, apparently, the guillotine, or another form of beheading, will be the preferred means of execution, once again (Revelation 13:15-17)!

Those who patiently endure, and are faithful even unto death, will receive the great reward of being resurrected back to life, in spirit-quickenened bodies, no longer capable of dying, at the beginning of the coming new millennium. They will rule with the true Messiah on earth for a thousand years (before the rest of humanity's dead come back to life in a physical, mortal body only, in a second resurrection, to face the Judgment Seat or throne of our Almighty Creators) (Revelation 2:10, 13:10, 20:4-6).

That is to be born of the Spirit -- recreated as one of them, with life that can never end, along with all their creative power and glory -- for the very few among humanity who prove worthy and qualify for this great reward, come Judgment Day, in the first and most glorious resurrection!

Some who endure patiently the abuses and other trials, by living righteous lives in a pagan and perverse age, where goodness and humility are despised, will even be protected from the coming great tribulation and the day of our Creator's awesome wrath against all the wicked of this world:

"Since you have kept my command to endure patiently, I will also keep you from the hour of trial that is coming upon the whole world to test those who live on the earth" (Revelation 3:10).

The test is to see who is worthy of continued life on our Creators' good earth. In this, and only this, can you have any real hope to survive and live through what is coming in the very near future. The mistake most misled religious people made, when the year 2000 came and went uneventfully, was assuming the time for these prophecies to be fulfilled is either still far in the future, or perhaps will never come. Both assumptions couldn't be more wrong!

This, being before the throne in heaven, is doubtless the promised place of safety from the wrathful destruction and plagues the Creator and Lamb will bring upon the wicked inhabitants of the earth who do not qualify to be counted among the number of their elect and chosen few (144,000 plus a vast uncountable multitude, from this and every previous age) (Revelation 7:4, 9).

You are not supposed to try and guess exactly when the second coming of the Messiah will actually take place, for that day and hour none of us can truthfully know for certain in advance ("Matthew" 24:36, 42, 44, 50, 25:13; Mark 13:35; Luke 12:40). However we are told that these coming days of troubling affliction for the entire world will be "cut short" for the sake of the elect, lest all life on earth come to a miserable end, thanks to the "big" ideas of modern science fiction, and the same old world disorder promoted by all pagan religions and their modern illegitimate offspring, including most of what is now called "Christianity" today ("Matthew" 24:22)!

Which probably means that everything covered in all the ancient prophecies about "the time of the end" should be right on schedule to take place sometime in the next few years, or in less than two decades (unless you're reading this more than a few years after it was first published)!

This present generation is shaping up as one that will fulfill all these prophecies, in spades. This is not a "religious" notion, because this author and prophet is not an adherent of any particular creed or religion, certainly not a "Christian" (as you may have been able to tell), but on the other hand neither is he anti-religious, because he believes anyone, from any type of religion, can learn the truth, repent and find salvation. That (salvation) is the forgiveness of our crimes (sins against the Creator's Laws), by our humble repentance (turning our lives around, and living in obedience to those Laws), and by calling on the true Messiah's name (which is based on the heavenly Father's actual name, Yahveh). That name is: Yahvsave (meaning: Yahveh is our Savior).

This age will soon end — and the end will come at a time when most don't expect it, like a thief in the night ("Matthew" 24:42-44; Luke 12:35-40).

In truth, only the meek and humble have any real hope for survival in the coming days and years, despite all the potent forces presently arrayed against all these "hopeless" ones at present. The returning Messiah is the shining hope for the hopeless of this world, whose days will see the joy of permanent peace take root and grow upon the soil, and in the hearts of all surviving people, on that glorious day when all tears, pain, anguish, and heartaches will have passed away at long last (Revelation 21:4).
