Only in the prophecy of the book of Revelation do we read about a second beast, who arises "from the earth," as compared with the first beast that arose from the sea (Revelation 13:11).

This earthly beast is perhaps the result of genetic mixing of alien and human DNA, now taking place through alien abductions, in order to miscegenate a truly bestial hybrid "superhuman" being; much as happened before, and again just after, the flood (resulting in evil, bloodthirsty, even cannibalistic giants, and also supposedly "mythical" half-human, half-animal monsters, who caused much violence upon the earth; leading to the great flood of Noah's age, cf. Genesis 6:4-8, 11-13).

The world has been led to accept and worship a fake "savior," an image of a man entirely unlike the actual Messiah Himself, whose false pretense will be finally exposed for all to see by the very Sovereign he will falsely claim to be. The world's expecting a world-ruling King, but they will accept a cheap imitation faker, a real despot, instead.

And all the earth's carnal people, those who will blindly follow the big counterfeit that's coming real soon now, will want to have it so:

"All inhabitants of the earth will worship the beast -- all whose names have not been written in the book of life belonging to the Lamb who was slain from the creation of the world" (Revelation 13:8).

They will allow fake "miracles" to fool them into bowing down and worshiping the image of this beast, simply because a second faker -- a false priest -- will cause a form of lightning to strike the earth, among other things:

"And he performed great and miraculous signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to earth in full view of men" (verse 13).

Here is how ancient scriptural prophecy describes the current space station program, and what will become of it in the end:

"Even if Babylon reaches the sky and fortifies her lofty stronghold, I will send destroyers against her,' declares Yahveh." ("Jeremiah" 51:53; bold emphasis added)

There can be no doubt what those words "fortifies" and "stronghold" signify, in this age of covert warfare, armed satellites, and similar military devices of death and destruction, which will eventually be used to cause "fire" (perhaps electrical or particle beam in nature) to fall from the sky, on the command of the coming beast and false prophet (see: Revelation 13:13)! So many technologies are now falling into place, including the development of particle beam style and laser weapons, particularly orbiting satellites and an armed space station, and unmanned computer-guided drones, that make the fulfillment of Revelation 13:13, of making "fire come down from heaven to earth" a very real possibility.

In fact, most likely has already happened; witness the recent (in the summer of 2015) explosion in China that killed so many, right after it devalued its currency. One such satellite-based weapon, designed to deliver kinetic energy projectiles that burrow underground and destroy entire city blocks with a massive explosion that leaves behind telltale craters, has been dubbed the "Rod" or "Hand of God" (sic). Such a weapon has apparently already been covertly employed against China, as it recently allowed its currency to drop, in the opening gambit of an undeclared economic war between it and the U.S., designed to totally bankrupt America and take over its position as the world's leading "superpower".

In any case, it appears clear from scripture prophecy, that this technology will eventually be turned against any of us earthlings who refuse to bow down and worship the modern idol or image of the beast, by a second beast, who will come with many deceitful "miracles" to convince the rest of humanity of the supposed "messianic qualification" of the first beast to rule the earth (cf. Revelation 13:13-18)!

This false "prophet" will deceive the world with his "miracles," and cause everyone on earth (those who are wicked, and refuse to obey their Creator) to worship an image of the first beast (perhaps an audio-animatronic or electronic recreation of the first beast, after he is wounded and crippled), and to receive the mark or number of the beast, which is somehow connected with the number "666."

Also prophesied in the same prophetic book is the advent of two witnesses, who will be feared, hated and reviled by all the wicked inhabitants of the earth (Revelation 11:10). These two prophets (verses 3, 6, 10) will be hated by the beast and false prophet, who will attack and, finally succeeding, kill them (verse 7). This beast appears to be a docile lamb, having two horns (perhaps a jointly-ruling co-regency, in counterfeit of the two witnesses, who will doubtless be accused of being the "beast and false prophet," as the second beast is otherwise called elsewhere in this prophecy; cf. Revelation 16:13, 19:20, 20:10).

Doubtless, the world will falsely misperceive these two as the "beast" and "false prophet," and will fall for the lie that their pseudo-"savior" has triumphed over them, at least for three and a half days, during which time their dead bodies will lie in the street, unburied (Revelation 11:7-9).

As Daniel described this coming evil dictator:

"He will become very strong but not by his own power. He will cause astounding devastation and will succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy the mighty men and the sacred people. He will cause deceit to prosper, and he will consider himself superior. When they feel secure he will destroy many and take his stand against the Prince of princes. Yet he will be destroyed, but not by human power." (Daniel 8:24-25)

This parallels Revelation 19:17-21, concerning the Final battle of Armageddon, when the beast and false prophet (who, along with a coalition of ten "captains of industry," "finance," nations, etc., are the power behind the beast), will oppose the returning Savior Himself (the King of kings and Priest of priests), only to finally be taken and destroyed in the Lake of Fire!

The adversary and all his rebellious angels will also be destroyed in the very same Lake of Fire Judgment, along with both bestial world rulers and destroyers, the beast and false prophet (Revelation 19:20; 20:10).

Prophetically the mighty valiant warrior who will prevail over all the earth, including the adversary and his fake "saviors" the beast and false prophet, will confirm by sealing through the spirit of the pure truth His covenant with Creator Yahveh's elect, righteous remnant, strengthening them, 12,000 from each of the twelve tribes of Yasrael (144,000 total), plus a vast uncountable multitude from other races, people, languages and nations (cf. Revelation 7:4-10; 19:11-21).
