At the time of the end the nations of this world have dirty secrets they cover-up under the rubric concept of alleged "national security." Patriots from all nations will fight to preserve the final, ultimately evil scheme of world government, believing it is the only way they will preserve their own nation, way of life and religions, regardless of the inherent corruption and flaws underlying each of these.

Today also, more than any time in the past, arch hypocrisy has become a rampant plague, by which deceived men and women have believed and followed myths -- such as the pervasive errors of evolution -- establish and uphold another prevalent and pervasive form of religion, from science technology, medical allopathy, media "watchdogs" right down to the lowest common denominator, government itself, and the schools out of which it grows, festers and now threatens the peace, safety and security of all life on planet earth.

Some of these strive to mythologize the origin of every other religion, particularly those of the (usually wannabe) Creator-worshipping religions. Those who hate and loathe the bible most of all have plenty of fuel for their fire based upon the actions and flaws of such religions, but the hands of secular-minded men and women are far from being free of all guilt themselves. Professing the apparent truth that most major wars of the past were caused by major religious aspirations, those who supposedly abominate this fact today, modern deceivers who seek influence and control over the lives of all societies and cultures, beginning with the destruction and outlawing of all religions other than their own, peculiar, anti-religious, humanistic faith, preach and practice their own brand of bloodshed and violence.

Purporting to expose the connection between religion, warfare and terrorism, while hypocritically condoning another brand of martial hatred, violence, and even terror against all those failing to appreciate or accept the new religion of technology over substance, this new religion will soon bring to pass on earth, first mainly against the stubborn adherents of all religions that refuse to submit or bow the knee to this new despotism, the near total destruction of mankind. The savage imagery of this declaration of intent ignores the basic fact that all misery does not originate with solely kings and priests, but rather with all those who blindly follow, serve and obey them, to their own eventual hurt and harm.

Those blindly following this new philosophy will soon discover their own brand of despotism to be guilty of just as heinous, if not far worse, atrocities to come. Wars are being fought daily, with millions of casualties, around the world, without a soldier in sight. The battlefields are modern hospitals, but rather than bombs, bullets, and chemical agents, the weapons are surgical scalpels, needles, drugs and false psychology, the religious faith of secular "authorities" who claim to know better than you or I what is "best" for us.

Modern mankind has come to accept the unacceptable, the ultimate form of living nightmare and terror; a slow, gradual, painful, lingering death devastated by increasingly senility, as more people offer themselves willingly as human guinea pig sacrifices to medical quackery and presumed superiority. In the event of early death, resulting from following the dictates and demands of the medical mafia, either by design or accident, these institutions have been turned into salvage yards for human body parts, servicing the voracious needs of the transplant scavengers.

Technology will not save you, it will only bring all life on earth to the very brink of total disaster and utter annihilation. If you let it, this major false "savior" will even hurl you from the precipice, as its human sacrifice to every failed and flawed, sinful and carnal ambition.

Today it is far more likely for you to believe, with all your heart and mind, absolute falsehood and total fiction, rather than accept the evidence of anything actually sane and true. Consider carefully the Apostle and prophet Eben's ("Peter's") vision of what people today would be like, as a case-in-point of how accurately this age was depicted in prophetic scripture, nearly two-thousand years ago (most likely describing many people you personally know, or perhaps even yourself):

"First of all, you must understand, that in the last days scoffers will come, mocking and following their own evil desires. They will say, 'Where is this coming He promised? Ever since our ancestors died, everything goes on as it has since the beginning of creation.' "But they deliberately forget that long ago, by the Almighty One's word the heavens existed and the earth was formed out of water and by water. By these waters also the world of that time was deluged and destroyed. "By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of unrighteous men.... "Yahveh is not slow in keeping His promise, as some understand this delay. He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance. "But the day of Yahveh will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare. "Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what sort of people ought you to be? You ought to live sacred and righteous lives as you look forward to the day of the Almighty One and speed its coming. "That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the fervent heat. But in keeping with His promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and new earth, the home of righteousness. "So then, dear friends, since you are looking forward to this (Note: here on earth not in heaven), make every effort to be found spotless, blameless and at peace with Him...." (II "Peter" 3:3-7, 9-14).

As the apostle Paul, in several of his letters, had warned his fellow worker Timothy, prophetically, about this same period of time:

"The Spirit clearly says that in latter times some will abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits and things taught by demons. Such teachings come through hypocritical liars, whose consciences have been seared as by a hot iron." (I Timothy 4:1-2).

And:

"But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days. People will care for themselves, being boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unrighteous, without concern or care, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not caring for what is good, treacherous, rash, conceited, caring for pleasure rather than caring for the Almighty One — having a disguise of righteousness, but denied its strength. Have nothing to do with them! "They are the kind who worm their way into homes and gain control over weak-willed women, who are loaded down with sins and are swayed by all kinds of evil desires; always learning but never able to acknowledge the truth. "Just as Yannes and Yambres opposed Moses, do also these men oppose the truth — men of depraved minds, who as far as the belief are concerned, are rejected. But they will not get very far because, as in the case of those men, their foolishness will be made clear to everyone " (II Timothy 3:1-9).

The modern prophet had personal experience with one such individual, with whom he lived briefly, before his visions and calling, when it was revealed to him this handsome looking man, and Worldwide member in good standing, was the actual cause of several marital upsets and breakups, having engaged in adulterous affairs with married women having young children, into whose homes he was foolishly permitted to enter.

Among the many topics of truth the prophet to this age has restored and teaches about regularly has been the utter fraud and total arrogance of most modern science. For instance, while outright fraud has been committed to "prove" non-existent "global warming," even while the cyclical temperatures of the environment have actually been cooling down, and arctic ice caps have been growing, rather than receding, ancient evidence is ignored and considered anathema... Such as the Piri Re'is map, dated 1513 C.E., made from earlier maps that evidently existed prior to the time of Columbus, showing the eastern coasts of North America, the islands of Cuba and Puerto Rico, Central and South America — as far west as Chili, and the continent of Antarctica.

Curiously, the land mass that exists under the polar ice cap was depicted, as if there were no ice at all, and the land was entirely habitable, at the time this map — or its original source — was made. The Re'is map, named after a well-traveled Turkish mariner and sea captain from the early 16th century, evidences earlier pre-existing maps that quite probably came into the possession of Columbus, and inspired his confidence that there were indeed continents to the west of Spain and Europe; a wisdom and knowledge that had become lost to the "more enlightened authorities" of his age, whose ignorance and prideful arrogance is matched by many who call themselves "scientists" today.

Global "warming," used as a fear tactic to gain political power over the earth and its natural resources, for the purpose of blackmailing its reluctant inhabitants into relinquishing their rights to self determination, to install a bestial world despotism, is nothing new. In fact, the idea comes from scripture itself, where it is described not in mere global terms, but as universal "warming," when the Apostle Eben ("Peter"), among others, warned prophetically: "The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be melted by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare. Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? "You ought to live sacred and righteous lives as you look forward to the day of the Almighty One and speed its coming. "That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in fervent heat."

Today, if modern “scientific”-minded men and women suddenly became aware of our Creator’s existence, or the existence of his angels (spiritual or physical aliens to us humans), doubtless they would still discount all that scripture reveals to us about their true nature (how there are, in reality, evil and well as righteous angels, for instance), and would doubtless consider the wicked angels—those who oppose their Creator’s will—as our “friends,” and our Creator as an interloping “enemy” who must be vanquished or defeated militarily at all costs, for the sake of “national security” and “self defense.”

Could this be why NASA (the National Aeronautics and Space Administration) was set up as a fifth branch of the U.S. military armed forces (but ostensibly as a quasi-“civilian” agency), the true purpose of which, according to its enabling legislation, is the development of space-based weapons systems, military space outposts, and the defense of the United States (and the world, in that order)?

Is the race to the moon, and now to the planet Mars, for the purpose of establishing a militarized perimeter about the earth, to “defend” humanity from the perceived threat of the true Savior’s imminent return to earth, to destroy and put a permanent end to the militant and militarized power of all nations, to bring them under the control of His world-ruling Kingdom, rather than the dis-“United” Nations?

One thing that is abundantly clear from the prophecies surrounding Mystery Babylon is the fact that they pertain to a world-ruling bestial government of cruel violence that will finally fight against the Savior Himself, at the time of His return to earth, accompanied by world-devastating plagues, comet and meteor strikes, major earthquakes, and similar massive and deadly catastrophes.

The entire book of Revelation, from the 6th chapter through the 20th chapter, concerns this still future time, when all of these things—similar to the plagues on ancient Egypt—will strike the wicked and powerful earthly nations and leaders who, like ancient Pharaoh, wish to make everyone else on earth their “corporate” or national bond slaves, and refuse to let them go free!

The prophet has seen and read their screed "prophecies" — such as authored by none other than Albert Pike, one of the founders of the Ku Klux Klan, in an article the prophet found in an 1870's magazine publication titled "The Luciferian," housed in the Theosophical Society Library in Altadena, California (in which Pike openly admitted to involvement in a worldwide group of conspirators, who stated they worship Satan alone). The general public cannot access this secretive library (for obvious reasons), but the prophet was given a one-time pass by a member, who thought the prophet was ripe for conversion to their brand of pagan sorcery and witchcraft (he just couldn't have been more wrong).

Pike outlined his "hope" for America, revealing the conspirators' plot to foment a world war, followed by a great depression, and another world war, with a period of cold war following that, and finally a third world war between the powers of the East (Islam and its allies in Russia and China) and the West (Israel and its allies, such as the United States, Western Europe, England, Australia, Canada, etc.). The stated purpose is for all present world powers to destroy them-selves, leaving these treasonous traitors, who have their well-stocked and fortified deep underground shelters to wait out the devastation, in control of what remains of the world.

Recall this was all published sometime in the early 1870s, long before future events would prove the conspiratorial hand of these satanists has been behind every major historical development from that day to this! Insane or not, these formidable enemies have been operating to undermine American liberty and freedoms for many generations, and their modern counterparts are just as corrupt and dedicated to this evil cause as were their forebears in criminal mass mischief, high crimes and treason!

For instance, no less than four assassination attempts, from 1866 thru 1880, were made against Czar Alexander II of Russia, who freed and emancipated the peasants or serfs, included the children of the wealthy in military conscriptions, introduced a new penal code and a greatly simplified system of civil and criminal procedure, and laid the groundwork for an elected parliament or Duma in imperial Russia. On March 1st (Old Style calendar; March 13th New Style) 1881, no less than three bombers secreted in a throng of people finally succeeded in kill-ing the Czar, setting the stage for the Russian Revolution of 1905.

There were two separate assassination attempts against Archduke Ferdinand of Austria, and his wife, in Sarajevo (the capital of the then Austro-Hungarian province of Bosnia-Herzegovina) on June 28, 1914, by a group of assassins from Belgrade, to insure the start of World War I. During that war, the communist takeover of Russia, and the assassination of Czar Nicholas II, who finally instituted the Duma his assassinated grandfather intended, were the chief objects, with the murder of the Czar and his entire family, the family medical doctor, the Czar's valet, the Empress' lady-in-waiting, and even the family's cook, all of whom were murdered the night of July 16th/17th— after the February revolution of 1917, and the Czar's abdication on March 15th that same year — by a gang of Jewish Bolsheviks, who left cabalistic (witchcraft) ritual markings on the walls.

At this rate, the once lofty and great United States will never reach anywhere near a tricentennial, especially considering the worldwide evil now arrayed against it with some justifiably murderous hatred, and increasing strength, pride and arrogance. Looking at the sad state of affairs internationally at present, in nearly every nation on the face of the entire earth today, now dominated by the wealthy "aristocracy" of power and privilege — including the United States — one can see how hopeless the struggle is, by human efforts alone.

No constitution of any man's republic can long stand against all the onslaught and manipulations (especially by those who finance both sides of every major conflict or war, to "justify" the takeover of both vanquished and creditor nations and their peoples in the end), by the wicked spiritual forces misleading many among our fellow mankind, to treasonously oppose true law and order. In the now out-of-print book: After Alinsky: Community Organ-izing in Illinois by Peg Knoepfle, Obama wrote a chapter in which he expressed a longing to apply Alinsky's methods at the federal government level, a wish that was finally handed to him on a Rothschild-Soros solid gold platter.

In the late 1970s a man by the name of Johnny Todd was making the rounds of the church circuit in the Pasadena, California area, claiming to be a convert from Luciferianism to Christianity, saying he had been a top-level warlock in the witchcraft-centered religion dedicated to satan, head-quartered at the Rothschild estate in England. There, Todd claimed, twelve seats are held by the top conspirators in this nefarious worldwide outfit, with a vacant thirteenth seat reserved for none other than Lucifer itself.

Todd also touted concealed firearms and a body guard phalanx, under what he said were credible threats against his life for daring to go public with what he knew. Whether or not Johnny Todd was an infiltrator, as the prophet and others suspected (seeing proof in his accusatory rhetoric and the demonic-like influence Todd had over some of the attendees at one of his speeches), he was certainly right about the nefarious and often satanic influences at work in the upper echelons of governmental power and prestige.

The Lucis Trust — a worldwide conglomerate including publishing companies, the ever-useful "libraries," and propaganda media production facilities, the Lucis Trust claims to be "non-political and non-sectarian. It sponsors no special creed or dogma" (founded by Alice and Foster Bailey, dedicated to "establishing right human relations," according to its web page, LucisTrust.org, its activities "promote the education of the human mind towards recognition and practice of the spiritual principles and values upon which a stable and interdependent world society may be based") - was in fact, originally, called the Lucifer Trust.

According to the website Illuminati Conspiracy Archive (http://www.conspiracyarchive.com/NewAge/Lucis_Trust.htm): "Alice Ann Bailey, a leading disciple of the Russian theo-sophist Madame Helena Blavatsky, formed the Lucifer Publishing Company in 1920. 1922 saw the organization's name changed to Lucis Trust though the advancement of the Luciferian beliefs remained true. Beliefs that in Blavatsky's words: `oppose the materialism of science and every dogmatic theology, especially the Christian, which the Chiefs of the Society [?] regard as particularly pernicious.'

"Lucis Trust promulgates the work of an 'Ascended Master' [spirit being] who was working 'through' Alice Bailey for some 30 years. The Lucis Trust Publishing Company and their many fronts and organizations worship an 'Externalized Hierarchy' of 'Ascended Masters,' who carry out the work of a Luciferian `master plan' for the establishment of a permanent 'Age of Aquarius' ruled by one Sanat Kumara, the 'Lord of the World.'

Sanat is nothing more than a rudimentary anagram for Satan! So long as anyone must distrust even their own hired protectors of "law enforcement" and the courts, and so long as injustice prevails by the efforts of bought-off legislators and unjust, bribed or simply arrogant and corrupt judges and their ilk — and until Americans learn how to discern real character from manufactured fake public personas — we will never be able to live safe and secure.

For real security is only found in the absence of such a worldwide evil, as that in the throes of which we presently find ourselves, in this once-upon-a-time land of the free and home of the brave. ...Or so we've been led to believe.

The "religion" of the "New World Order" will obviously be a form of satanism/occultism, with a thin veneer of Christianity/Islam/Judaism to give it a patina of supposed orthodoxy. Seems we already have this, with all the pedophiles/sexual perverts involved with all the above!

Whoremongers and “the abominable” are among those mentioned as being unworthy of life in the Kingdom (Revelation 21:8 and 27), which includes all forms of sexual perversion, almost all of which are specified in Yahveh’s perfect Law as being death penalty worthy offenses (cf. Leviticus 18:6-29, 20:10-22). These are the sort of things, along with the drinking of blood and even cannibalism, infanticide, immolation etc., that are done by those wicked children of belial (meaning: without value) who commit idol (esp. Moloch) worship and practice satanism (cf. Leviticus 20:2-5).]

Secular humanism and pagan witchcraft religions are on the rise, along with Islam around the world, while “Christian” religions are suffering major defections and losses in membership, lost confidence, increased confusion, and church closings, due to aging and dying adherents.

While the influence of the aging Catholic Church, like Worldwide, has been waning in the world, along with most Protestant churches, with the closing of entire churches, the influence of the bestial system of secular government as a dictatorial form of idolatry (a secular form of "religion" that, at first, embraces other forms of religion then, under total socialism, excludes and bans them all), has been on the rise ever since World War I.

Anyone with any real prophetic gift soon learns how unwelcome it, and they as a result, truly are amongst the paranoid, the envious, the jealous, and the fearful. One of the quickest ways to become persona non grata is to begin discussing current day prophecies and events in a prophetic context. There seems to be a visceral, gut-level aversion or antipathy to the very idea, much less reality of prophecy, among so many today. Easier, quicker and "better" in the eyes of most is to just shun the "offending" prophet, or one claiming prophetic insights, or ostracize, criticize, marginalize, and monopolize all dialogue to shut them out and up, at all costs. Heaven forbid they might be heard, and if heard might actually prove to be right!

That might tend to undermine all those so-called "authorities" (religious, secular, political, agnostic, etc.) claiming to have a "better" or far more "accurate" view of the world, the universe, and of everything seen and unseen, known or unknown. People generally, in this age, are far more likely and even anxious to believe in some of the most absurd and patently false nonsense ideas, such as animals with sentient intelligence and machines that supposedly can disintegrate and reintegrate an individual over great distances of space and/or time. Belief in shamanistic magic, generally called science fiction—or just plain physical or medical "science"—these days, is still very much at work in this so-called "enlightened" age of supposed "reason." But prophecy? Now hold on, just a minute there! That's just nutty, isn't it? Or is it? The only real answer to the question "Is prophecy real?" has to be found in the evident proofs that it actually is.

At the very end of this age men and women will attempt the religious deception of claiming the Savior has already secretly returned, causing others to follow them to deserts, caves, or private meeting locales. Some of these will even have the ability to perform seemingly miraculous feats, to demonstrate the supposed “truth” of their claims, which might even deceive a few of those who do know the pure truth (“Matthew” 24:23-28; Mark 13:21-23).

The upcoming world dictator will try to institute a new world calendar, thereby overthrowing all national laws or statutes supposedly based upon the Creator's Commandments, but just as flawed and errant as the governments pretending to be "righteous" or "just," by means of carnal "criminal" laws and pilfering statutes. In particular, the tyrants' aim will be to finally destroy the strength of the actual descendants of Yasarel, the United States, Canada, United Kingdom, Europe and Australia, while proclaiming the supposed "death" "inconsequential existence" of the Creator; declaring the beast power the "supreme authority" over all the earth, "in perpetuity."

When a walking, talking abominable robotic automaton image of the beast is set up, those refusing to bow down before it, or worship the beast by taking the mark of his name and number (the sign of slaves), to participate in a new digital currency that can be controlled by such symbols (similar to the new encoded squares called "smart codes"), those refusing will be executed for a period of 105 days, apparently! The beast power will then do away with the daily offering of morning and evening prayers, at the Al'Aqsa mosque on the former Temple Mount, by descendants of Abraham through Yasmael, setting up the beast's abominable image there, which starts the clock ticking on the 1,260, 1,290 and 1,335 days. The resurrection will take place, most likely at the end of the 1,260 days, during which a small group of faithful elect will be protected in a place of safety, crossing over a body of water to reach it when, like the Pharaoh of ancient Egypt, the beast's pursuing army is lost at sea; as many ships and airplanes before it have mysteriously disappeared, in locations such as the Bermuda Triangle (Revelation 12:13-16)!

The deaths of those left behind, who are not righteous enough yet to qualify for this supernatural protection of being hidden away during this time, will take place next, (Revelation 12:17) which may actually begin on or about the 1,230th day, and last through the 1,335th day (a total of 105 days or 15 weeks, recall), when the Savior and His resurrected elect return to the earth, following the wedding supper of the Lamb, which takes place during this same time before the heavenly Father's Throne, whereupon the beasts and their empire are destroyed. For 1,260 days the two witnesses will oppose the beast with their testimony and prophesying from the streets of Yaravsalem, causing all military and SWAT-style attacks against the two witnesses to result, instead, in the destruction of their attackers (Revelation 11:3-5), until near the very end of the 1,335 days, three and a half days before the first resurrection of the dead begins, with them coming back to life before the startled eyes of the wicked world, on the 1,264th day (cf. Revelation 11:11-12).

This is why those surviving to see that day are called blessed, for many of those people remaining on earth will perish during the following terrible time of trumpet judgments — just as the ancient Egyptians suffered in the days leading up to the Passover celebration, and the final departure of the Yasarelites from Egypt — similar judgments also taking place during the time of the testimony of the two witnesses (Revelation 11:6).

The fulfillment of all these prophecies will come upon the world — catching all who are unrepentant and disobedient to their Creator's Law and Commandments totally unaware — like a thief in the night. These end-time occurrences will very likely begin sometime after the next decade, or perhaps even sooner, as the Creator has promised to cut the days short, in order to preserve all life on the planet from utter and total destruction ("Matthew" 24:22; Mark 13:20)!

It is very important to note whom one prophecy refers to, in order to understand it accurately. It was a prophecy directed specifically to the ancient kingdoms of Yasrael and Yavdah (not the same thing as "Israel" or "Judah," as these names are incorrectly rendered in most modern bibles; "Hosea" 6:4). The Yavdan kingdom expired in 68 to 70 C.E., when Rome finally devastated Yasrael, destroyed the Temple, and eradicated every last vestige of that kingdom. Two thousand years from then ends around the years 2,068 to 2,070, which is an outside time limit for the Savior's return.

There are, thankfully, other prophetic ways to confirm or disprove the general timeframe when all the prophecies of the Savior's return will finally be fulfilled. It is, for example, a fact that the Savior will return several years or decades ahead of that outside limit – since He spoke of the need to "cut short" the time due to excessive wickedness, to preserve all life on earth from extinction ("Matthew" 24:21-22; Mark 13:19-20)!

In any case, it is apparent He would not return when all the false ministers of a few decades ago were saying He must, for as the Apostle Eben prophesied:

"First of all, you must understand that in the last days scoffers will come, mocking and following their own evil desires. They will say, 'Where is this "coming" He promised? Ever since our fathers died, everything goes on as it has since the beginning of creation,'... "The Sovereign is not slow in keeping His promise. He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance. However, the day of the Sovereign will come like a thief..." (II "Peter" 3:3-4, 9-10).

The present "civilized" world is headed for an apocalypse of its own devising, yet there is hope beyond this time of trouble swiftly approaching, for blessings to those who prove worthy of it. For a little while yet, and the vanities and deceptions of this age will appear to prevail over sanity and reason. There will be an end to that, when the time has fully arrived, for those who have given their all in fulfilling their genuine faith, obeying the Creator's Law and Commandments, of caring for your neighbor as you do for yourself; and putting your Sovereign Creator first in your heart, mind, and life.

When the ages-old patience is finally at an end, and there is no room left for the repentant, or any remaining who would patiently and humbly refrain from the fleeting, temporary rewards of this carnal world and lifetime, that is when plagues like those upon the arrogant ancient Egyptians will fall upon this modern age of spiritual Egypt. The pride of military might, and science-created weapons of wanton annihilation, will in the end avail nothing. Those who rely upon their wealth of manpower, natural resources, worldly intelligence, unrestrained ambitions, lustful desires, and hurtful hatreds will go raging against their Maker, before discovering the fruit of their ways in their bitter and destitute end. Misplaced and mistaken patriotic pride, turned riotous against those who have not harmed others, whose only "crime" is opposing the growing insanity by their presence and blameless lives, will eat away at the vitals of social order, leading to chaos and destruction, in a time of false and fraudulent "peace" and "safety."

The only glad tidings in all that is about to take place, in the coming few remaining years until all these prophecies are fulfilled, is hope in the promise of salvation, for all who are brave enough to venture into that frontier in the face of destructive savages and beasts ravening for the kill. If you have that sort of courage, conviction and conscience to permit the small seed of spiritual sanity to take root in your heart and life, there is indeed hope and joyful anticipation for what lies beyond the coming carnage. Only remember that there is a revelation and restoration you cannot ignore, if you hope to achieve all this, for: "A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus, by their fruit you will recognize them" ("Matthew" 7:18-20).

As for when the coming of the Messiah will actually take place, that day and hour none of us can truthfully know for certain in advance ("Matthew" 24:36, 42, 44, 50, 25:13; Mark 13:35; Luke 12:40). However we are told that these coming days of troubling affliction for the entire world will be "cut short" for the sake of the elect, lest all life on earth come to a miserable end, thanks to the "big" ideas of modern science fiction, and the same old world disorder promoted by all pagan religions and their modern illegitimate offspring, including most of what is now called "Christianity" today ("Matthew" 24:22)!

Which probably means that everything covered in all the ancient prophecies about "the time of the end" should be right on schedule to take place sometime in the next few years, or in less than two decades (unless you're reading this more than a few years after it was first published)! As described in chapters two through eight, this present generation is shaping up as one that will fulfill all these prophecies, in spades. This is not a "religious" notion, because this author is not an adherent of any particular creed or religion, certainly not a "Christian" (as you may have been able to tell), but on the other hand neither am I anti-religious, because I believe anyone, from any type of religion, can learn the truth, repent and find salvation.

That (salvation) is the forgiveness of our crimes (sins against the Creator's Laws), by our humble repentance (turning our lives around, and living in obedience to those Laws), and by calling on the true Messiah's name (which is based on the heavenly Father's actual name, Yahveh). That name is: Yahsave (meaning: Yahveh is our Savior). Why that name, and none other, is so important — according to the ancient prophets, and the Apostles (cf. Joel 2:32 and Acts 4:12) — deals with the reason the only perfect man who ever lived and never sinned was condemned to death. His death, because He was literally the Creator Word, who spoke and created the heavens and the earth ("John" 1:1-3), and everything on it, who came to earth as a humble man to die unjustly, therefore pays the debts for all whose sins would otherwise condemn them to death, who turn to Him and seek His salvation with fear, trembling and humble, teachable hearts.

When no lying, false witnesses against this man could agree together, the religious ruling body of His time, the Sanhedrin, finally concluded He should die under the charge of "blasphemy." Hidden in the Greek translation from Aramaic or original Hebrew (or ancient "Hebrew") texts, in a figure of speech known as "Metonymy of the Adjunct," is a noun that has been substituted for the proper name that He spoke. These pagan religionists had falsely misinterpreted the Law as forbidding the use of the Creator's name, but it is actually forbidden to misuse or disuse (or "take in vain," as worthless) that name, which presupposes it must first be known and used. The word "power," in the King James English Bible (also translated "Mighty One" in the NIV)("Matthew" 26:64, Mark 14:62 and Luke 22:69) is a noun substituted for the Creator's name: Yahveh.

Because this innocent man died for the correct use of that name, your calling upon the same name can gain your salvation (for only one of His elect can understand and do this), even when it is a death-penalty "offense," as it will doubtless be in the coming false religious old world order, to call on or believe in the true Savior!

The entire nation's entrenched foreign and domestic enemies in our midst are working tirelessly to defeat and destroy all freedom and liberty and impose their old world insanity... The exact same insanity once visited upon earth's inhabitants soon after the Noachic flood, by ancient Babel's founder, Nimrod and his incestuous wife Semiramis (also called Isis or Esther in various historical traditions), who cohabited as the wife of their son Ninus, following Nimrod's death, to claim him as his father, "resurrected." It was Nimrod, "a mighty hunter" (of men and women) on the earth, who was the first to gather people together into cities or city/nation states, for "their own protection" or "security," naturally (Genesis 10:8-12).

All the better to also make use of their talents, resources and property for the sole benefit of the ruling "elite," of course. Those who trust in this same old world gangster-style protection racket scheme will deserve all the grief they'll get as a result — not only from their own "protectors," but also from a deservedly wrathful Creator in the very near future!

The prophet received an inspiration during one sabbath day, representing the first sabbath after the miracle of manna started, in the midst of the 50 days between the exodus and the Feast of Pentecost, on the fourth sabbath after Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Long ago, in the mid to late 1990s, the prophet published a series of articles revealing the restoration of the prophetic times known as the Yavbels (or the "Jubilees"), representing the years of release every 49 years (the 50th year being the first year of the count toward the next year of release), following seven sabbatical years of land rest (described in Leviticus 25:1-54).

Using historical reference sources, and scriptural references that pin-point the exact years in which such events were celebrated anciently, he was able to then trace them back historically, and also calculate them on down to the present day, and into the future as well. Based on this, he was able to locate the actual years of various historical scriptural events, such as the actual dates for the creation, Noah's flood, the exodus, and even the Savior's true year of birth, and also of His death and resurrection.

Most of these roughly agree with the years determined by a consensus of scholarly and archaeological opinions, placing the year of the creation in 5569 B.C.E. (Before Common Era; or Error, if you prefer), Noah's flood in the year 3327 B.C.E., and the exodus in the year 1435 B.C.E. The actual year of the Savior's birth, during the tax of Quirinius in 5 B.C.E., means that the year 1995 (the same year the prophet moved to Texas and all he and his family's legal troubles began) was the actual year 2000 after the Messiah's birth, while the year the world thinks of as the year 2000 was actually 2,004 years following that pivotal event.

However, since these facts have been generally hidden from the majority today, it seemed to the prophet that the far more important event we should be counting time from is the year of the Savior's death and resurrection!

His three and a half year ministry (a seven year period, during which He was cut off in the midst, in fulfillment of prophecy, just as He was actually put to death during the middle of the Feast week of Unleavened Bread) ended in the year 30 C.E.; therefore, to discover the actual year since that event, you should subtract 30 from the current Gregorian calendar year, or 29 if a date of the present "year" falls before the spring equinox. Based on this, the year 2000 was actually the year 1969/1970 A.R. (or After Resurrection), which pinpoints the true year 2000 A.R. as falling during the years 2030-31 C.E. in the secular calendar commonly used today. In terms of sabbatical and Yavbel years, the year 1958 A.R. (1988-89 C.E.) was the 70th Yavbel since the exodus, representing the beginning of the end of the "seventy times seven times" of forgiveness ("Matthew" 18:22), after which the judgment of our Creators on this wicked age should fall sometime before the next Yavbel (2036-37 C.E.).

Nevertheless, there is another important period of time which we must consider in relation to the Messiah's second coming. The fact that He was the namesake of the individual who took Moses' place and, after 40 years of wandering in the wilderness, finally led the Yasraelites into the promised land, means those events are a prophecy of the Savior's bringing His elect into His millennial Kingdom on earth, following His promised return. Considering that period of 40 years after the exodus, which was begun by crossing the Red Sea, a prophetic type of baptism (representing death, burial and resurrection), it occurred to the modern prophet that this could also stand for the period of time that has elapsed since the end of the Messiah's first coming, at His ascension (40 days after His death), until that future reality comes to pass.

Following a prayer for inspiration, it occurred to the prophet that each of those 40 years in the desert, representing mankind's wanderings in the wilderness of carnal idolatrous false religions and imperfect secular governments since that time, might represent the total of Yavbels since the year zero (30 C.E.), in the number of years After Resurrection. Following this inspired thought, the prophet checked a calculator, multiplying 40 by 49 (the total number of years in each Yavbel period), arriving at the SUM of 1,960. Adding 40 (the number of years in the Common Era from the Savior's death, burial and resurrection to the destruction of Yarayusalem in 70 C.E., a type of ancient Egypt in its wickedness and judgment), he arrived at the year 2000 A.R., which is the year 2030-31 C.E., as an entirely credible possible year for the times of persecution and great tribulation to finally end with the Messiah's return to earth to gather His elect. That'd be right on the prophetic times' head, or money, if you prefer! Only time will tell, of course, just how accurate this revelation may be. One thing is certain, however, and that is the fact that this age will soon end — and that the end will come at a time when most don't expect it, like a thief in the night ("Matthew" 24:42-44; Luke 12:35-40).

In truth, only the meek and humble have any real hope for survival in the coming days and years, despite all the potent forces presently arrayed against all these "hopeless" ones at present. The returning Messiah is the shining hope for the hopeless of this world, whose days will see the joy of permanent peace take root and grow upon the soil, and in the hearts of all surviving people, on that glorious day when all tears, pain, anguish, and heartaches will have passed away at long last (Revelation 21:4).
