

New ETA Requirement for GREAT BRITAIN & NORTHERN IRELAND

New Electronic Travel Authorisation (ETA) Requirement

Starting 2025, all visitors to the UK who do not require a visa, except for British and Irish citizens, will need to obtain an Electronic Travel Authorisation (ETA). This digital permission is required for everyone, including children, who wish to enter or transit through the UK.

Key Details:

Who Needs an ETA?

- Visitors to the UK for tourism, family visits, business, or study for up to 6 months.
- Those transiting through a UK airport.
- Eligible non-Europeans can apply starting November 27, 2024, for travel from January 8, 2025.
- Eligible Europeans can apply from March 5, 2025, for travel from April 2, 2025.

Who Does Not Need an ETA?

- Holders of British and Irish passports.
- Individuals with permission to live, work, or study in the UK.
- Visa holders.

How to Apply:

You can apply for your ETA via the UK ETA app or online at <https://www.gov.uk/eta> Each traveller, including children, must have their own ETA, and approval typically takes up to 3 working days.

Cost and Validity:

- The ETA will cost £16 per person.
- It will be valid for multiple journeys over two years or until your passport expires, whichever comes first.

Thank you for your attention!
