Stradivarius (Sea The Stars) lit up the first day of Glorious Goodwood with a powerful late surge under Frankie Dettori to win the G1 Goodwood Cup for the fourth time. The six year old has nothing left to prove over two miles and beyond, and connections are to be applauded for taking a bold route in planning to run in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. Dettori is likely to stay loyal to Enable in that race, and there will be no shortage of willing pilots for Stradivarius in Paris, where he drops back to a mile and half, a distance he tackled in the Coronation Cup in June, when third to Ghaiyyath and Anthony Van Dyck.

The G1 Sussex Stakes saw Mohaather come with a late run from the rear to win from Circus Maximus, with Irish 2,000 Guineas winner Siskin the best of the three year olds in third. 2000 Guineas winner Kameko met all sorts of bother on the rail and finished fourth, but it is doubtful, even with a clear run, that he would have beaten the impressive winner, who was coming off victory in the G2 Summer Mile last time. Mohaather becomes the third G1 winner for Showcasing, after six furlong winners Advertise and Quiet Reflection, and is a member of his 2016 crop covered at £15,000 – the son of Oasis Dream now stands at £55,000.

Mohaather is the first G1 winner for trainer Marcus Tregoning since Sir Percy won the Derby in 2006, and is likely to look to add to his G1 tally in the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes in October. Tregoning now trains at Whitsbury, where Mohaather's box is yards from that of his sire, and has rebuilt staff and his string over the last seven years. He was rewarded at Goodwood with two winners and two seconds – the other winner being the juvenile Alkumait, also by Showcasing, who could head to the Gimcrack Stakes.

The G2 Richmond Stakes for juveniles saw first season sire Mehmas register his second stakes winner with the Clive Cox-trained Supremacy. A £65,000 Goffs UK purchase, Cox knows the family well – he trains Supremacy's older half sister Star Alexander and the dam is a half sister to Xtension, a Group winner for Cox before being sold to Hong Kong, and to the dam of Cox's G1 winning sprinter Harry Angel as well as Roger Varian's Mill Reef Stakes winner Pierre Lapin.

Supremacy will now be pointed to the G1 Prix Morny, where he could lock horns with his stablemate, Coventry Stakes winner Nando Perrado.

The G2 King George Stakes on Friday was won by the favourite, Battaash, who beat his own track record in the race, stopping the clock in 55.62 seconds.

Battaash and Mohaather were amongst six Goodwood winners for Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum, the same haul as the owner achieved at Royal Ascot. He also had a significant winner at Deauville, with his homebred Raabihah (Sea The Stars) winning the G3 Prix de Psyche by a dominant three and a half lengths. The winner of her first two starts, Raabihah was a close fourth in the G1 Prix de Diane last time.

A granddaughter of Oaks winner Eswarah, Raabihah could line up in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. Her trainer Jean-Claude Rouget holds the filly in the highest possible esteem, as the Racing Post reported in his post-race comments: "She is clearly a Group One filly and it's a real shame to miss out in the Diane, which was only her third race. She lacked experience and Cristian Demuro dared not make more use of her.

"Today there was Raabihah and then the rest and I think she's the best filly in France. But a mile and a quarter is not her trip and it's only her class that she is getting by on. Her second and third dams both won the Oaks and we'll look at the Arc with the Vermeille in between.

"I haven't trained a filly as good as her since Stacelita and that was why I was so down after the Prix de Diane. You never have two chances at a race like that."

Stacelita won four Group Ones for Rouget before transferring to America, where she won two more.

Sea The Stars had another significant winner at the weekend, with the G1 Preis der Diana being won by Miss Yoda, giving trainer John Gosden his first win in the German Classic. Miss Yoda won the Lingfield Oaks trial but missed the Oaks in favour of the Ribblesdale, where she finished only sixth, followed by a fourth place finish in the Bahrain Trophy last time.

She is raced by Georg Von Opel's Westerberg, for which she was a €280,000 BBAG yearling purchase. Westerberg has been building a portfolio of fillies, including the top two lots at last year's Orby Sale. The €3m Galileo filly out of Green Room, a half sister to Lord Shanakill, is in training with Aidan O'Brien, and the €2.2m Galileo filly out of Aleagueoftheirown, a sister to Alice Springs, is in training with Andre Fabre.

The G1 Prix Rothschild at Deauville saw the Francis-Henri Graffard-trained Watch Me (Olympic Glory) add a second Group One to her tally. The four-year-old won last season's Coronation Stakes at Royal Ascot.
