New Approach looks to have a decent crop of two year olds—sired at £60,000—with New Treasure becoming the second juvenile Group winner of the season for his sire when winning the G3 Round Tower Stakes at the Curragh. Like last week's G2 Futurity Stakes winner Mac Swiney, he is bred and trained by Jim Bolger. Having finished only seventh on debut, New Treasure was sent off at 66-1 but used the experience gained last time out to good effect, getting up close home to emulate his dam, who won this race on her debut in 2008.

New Approach was also represented in the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville by four-year-old Telecaster, the winner of the G2 Dante Stakes last season, who was impressive over a mile and a half, making all under Christophe Soumillon to win by six and a half lengths. Trainer Hughie Morrison is inclined to keep the colt at a mile and a half, with a Group One in Germany later in the season the likely target.

At Windsor on Saturday jockey Hollie Doyle made headlines across the national press when she became the first female jockey to ride a five-timer in Britain. Her quintet included two stakes wins, aboard Extra Elusive, who shouldered a penalty to win the G3 Winter Hill Stakes for her retaining owner Imad Al Sagar, and Le Don De Vie in the Listed August Stakes. Doyle, who added a further three winners at Yarmouth on Sunday, needs just another five winners to register her second century of winners.

Le Don De Vie was third at Group Three level last time and showed improvement from that to win by a length and three quarters. He will surely make his mark in higher company, and connections are reportedly considering the Melbourne Cup.

There was an impressive performance in the G3 March Stakes at Goodwood from the Mark Johnston-trained Subjectivist. Only seventh in the Great Voltigeur last week, he put that behind him when making all under Joe Fanning to win by 15 lengths. His half brother Sir Ron Priestly won this last year before finishing second behind Logician in the St Leger, and Subjectivist looks set to enjoy the stamina test on Town Moor later this month. He is rated just 11lb below the favourite Santiago. Subjectivist also becomes the 50th Group winner worldwide for his sire Teofilo, who has 8% of his winners over 1m 6f and beyond.

Another Darley sire had a significant result this week, with first season sire Belardo registering his first Group winner when Isabella Giles won the G3 Prestige Stakes. She was an impressive seven lengths clear of her rivals, and is now likely to head to the G2 Rockfel Stakes. Belardo sired a double at Goodwood on Saturday, and now has nine winners to his name.

The feature race at Goodwood was the Celebration Mile, which saw Benbatl withdrawn due to rain-softened ground. Century Dream was a clear-cut winner in conditions that clearly suit him well as he beat Sir Busker by four and a half lengths.

In Ireland, Galileo Chrome (Australia) remains unbeaten in three starts after winning the Listed Yeats Stakes at Navan. Trained by Joseph O'Brien, the son of Australia relished the step up to a mile and five furlongs, drawing clear to win by five lengths.

Assistant trainer Brendan Powell was reported as saying after the race: "Please God he's a proper horse. He's got a massive future. He's answered a lot of questions today - he stays well and he's got enough speed to go a mile and a quarter as well. Would he be a Leger horse? Please God he keeps going the right way. The world's his oyster at the minute."

Joseph O'Brien also saddled Thundering Nights to win Friday's Group Three Snow Fairy Fillies Stakes at the Curragh. Thundering Nights continued her progress, having won her maiden at the third time of asking, and a Leopardstown conditions event earlier in the month, and she remains open to yet further improvement. She becomes the eighth Group winner from Night Of Thunder's first crop. The Darley sire has yet to sire a stakes winner from his second crop, though he has three juvenile runners with official ratings above 90 so far.

The G3 Flame Of Tara Stakes over a mile at the Curragh saw Galileo record another juvenile Group winner as Divinely ran on well close home to win by half a length. Out of Red Evie, Divinely is a sister to Arc winner Found and looks as though the step up to middle distances will see further improvement.

Another juvenile performance to note came from the Dubawi filly A'Shaari, who won a Newmarket maiden by an eased-down three and a half lengths on Friday. She is a sister to Wuheida, who won the Prix Marcel Boussac on just her second start, and A'Shaari would appear to have the ability to make her mark in Pattern company.

See you next Tuesday.
